

FLOWER MISSION DAY CELEBRATED BY WCTU GROUPS

Woodburn—Flower Mission day was observed by the Woodburn W. C. T. U. in honor of the birthday of Jennie Cassiday, founder of the national Flower Mission work in the W. C. T. U., at the regular meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. D. Woodfin. Mrs. Carrie Young, head of the flower mission department of the local union, was in charge of the program.

A sketch of the life of Jennie Cassiday was given by Mrs. W. D. Simmons and readings on flowers were given by several members, including Mrs. J. R. Landon whose topic was "The Birth of Flowers"; Mrs. Jennie Austin, "Hollyhocks"; Mrs. Zoey Waldron, "Raising a Zoo of Flowers"; Mrs. Oscar Allen, "Telling the Time of Day by Flowers"; Mrs. S. Shanbeck, "A World Without Flowers" and other readings by Mrs. C. J. Rice, Mrs. Woodfin and Mrs. Young. A report was given of the recent institute by Mrs. C. J. Rice and Mrs. Oscar Allen.

Seventeen bouquets of flowers were brought to the meeting by the members and were distributed among the sick and shut-ins after the meeting, and it was reported 45 bouquets had been distributed in the past few weeks.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Woodfin, assisted by her daughter, Miss Joyce Woodfin.

Turner—Mrs. A. B. Webb entertained the WCTU in her home Wednesday afternoon for the annual Flower Mission day. An appropriate program was presented and the devotional period was in charge of Mrs. Susan Girardin. Mrs. Charles Sias joined the union at this meeting. Fifteen bouquets were sent to the aged and shut-ins with scripture cards from the union. In July Mrs. M. A. Hill will be hostess to the union and friends. In attendance were Mrs. Margaret Orr of Eugene, Mrs. Henry Leep, Mrs. L. M. Small, Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap, Mrs. Charles Sias, Mrs. M. S. Howers, Mrs. Florence Jeffery, Mrs. Susan Girardin, Mrs. F. C. Gunnings, Mrs. C. A. Bear, Mrs. M. A. Hill and Mrs. Webb.

National Officer Of Eagles Expected

Silverton—Among the nationally prominent visitors at the F.O.E. state convention from June 24 to 27 will be Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Mehrmann, grand worthy vice president of the F.O.E. of Oakland, California. Mrs. J. J. Baldwin, chairman of the convention plans had word that the family will reach Salem in the early afternoon of June 24 and would be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hubba during their stay in Silverton.

Members who attended the state convention at Grants Pass last year will recall Dr. Mehrmann as a trustee. He has been a member of the Eagles lodge since 1888.

Legion, Unit Meet

Silverton—The separate sessions of the American Legion and Auxiliary will be at the armory Monday evening following a no-host supper with strawberries furnished by the group for dessert. Entertainment is to follow the business meetings of the Legion and auxiliary.

MRS. THURSTON VISITS

Jefferson—Mrs. Grace Thurston left Wednesday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Belle Fletcher, at Salem, and son, Clarence Libby, and family at Silverton.

DETAIL NECESSARY FOR FILM STAR

Jessie Matthews, GB star of "It's Love Again," displaying perfection of make-up and grooming.

Only an artist at make-up can be trusted to put on a camera face.

Every hair must be the right length and curl in the right direction.

A new gown must be as comfortable as an old one. This is achieved by painstaking adjustment of the dress to accommodate every posture.

TEACHERS ALL ON VACATIONS

Jefferson—With the closing of the Jefferson schools last week, this week has seen the departure of all the teachers with the exception of Mrs. Hannah Smith, who plans to remain here for a portion of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Haberly are spending some time in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene V. Myers have gone to Gresham for a visit with Mrs. Myers' parents. They both plan to attend the summer session at the normal college in Mounmouth. Myers will teach in Gervais next year. Miss Ruth Clark is spending the summer at her home in Portland and next year will teach the sixth grade at the Russellville school in Portland.

Miss Esther McMinnee will spend several weeks at her home in Sunnyside, Wn., and is planning later to attend the University of Washington in Seattle during the summer. Miss Josephine Getchell plans to spend the summer at her home in Eugene. Mrs. Velma Pearson left for her home in Mounmouth and plans a trip east later in the summer. Thomas Lever left for his home in McMinnville.

MENNONITES CONVENE

Marquam—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lehman went to Albany, Friday, to attend the Mennonite district conference for three days. Miss Beulah Roth of the Waldo Hills district accompanied the Lehmans to the conference.

Silverton—Mrs. Jack Tuggle and two daughters, Virginia and Margaret, are spending a few days in Portland attending the Rose festival.

Painstaking detail must go into the readying of a film star before going before the camera. Above we see Jessie Matthews being made ready for scenes in her latest picture, "It's Love Again," coming to the State theatre for its first Salem showing starting June 21. Robert Young, favorite male lead, plays opposite Miss Matthews.

VOICE AND PIANO PUPILS PRESENTED

Jefferson—Mrs. J. D. Van Winkle presented voice and piano pupils in recital Wednesday evening at the Methodist church. Baskets of summer flowers were used as decorations.

The program included the following numbers: Piano, Olga Schulz; voice, Mrs. E. B. Redmond; piano, Gene Mary Redmond; either solos, Mrs. Frank Schulz, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Max Schulz; voice, Mrs. Albert Arnold. Mrs. E. B. Redmond, Mrs. Frank Schulz, and Mrs. Max Schulz assisted in the recital.

Strawberry Season Now In Full Swing

Walnut Hill—The strawberry season in this section is in full swing with the Redhearts and Marshalls being marketed independently by the several growers and shipped to the canneries at Salem and Woodburn. The Elteberg yards are not producing this year due, it is thought, to the adverse weather conditions.

Prominent growers here are the Herigstad brothers, John Whitlock, Roy Whitlock, Leo Wellman, Charles, Vinnie and Lloyd Heinz, Albert Nerison, Loren Dunagan and A. Borrevik.

HOLD OPEN HOUSE

Bethel—Mrs. Ramsey E. Miller opened her home for the June meeting of the Bethel Darcas club on Wednesday afternoon.

Guests present included Mrs. Herbert Gille, Mrs. Jane Dorman, Mrs. Mary E. Miller. Members present were Mrs. John Bucurech, Mrs. E. E. Matten, Mrs. James Landerback, Mrs. Millie Brinkley, Mrs. J. M. Nichols, Mrs. Cass Nichols, Mrs. M. H. Utter, Mrs. Julia Grant, Mrs. T. W. Beamish, Mrs. H. R. Bishop, Mrs. M. Sundborg, Mrs. J. R. Carruthers and the hostess Mrs. Miller.

The president, Mrs. Matten, conducted the business meeting following which the afternoon was spent socially, with handwork, and at the close the hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Freds Bucurech.

The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. R. Bishop.

Stayton—A group of young married women gathered at the home of Marie Dawes Thursday night for the initial meeting of a newly organized card club. Bridge was in play Louise Lesley held the high score for the evening and Gladys Keyes consolation. June 18 the group will drive to Salem to be guests of Ruby Curtis at her new home there.

Members of the club are Sally Killian, Alys Pooler, Ruby Curtis, Eleanor Thompson, Lulu Davis, Dora Dozier, Gladys Keyes, Louise Lesley and Marie Dawes.

60 Hardy Perennial $1 Plants Postpaid—Satisfaction Guaranteed—5 Canterbury Bells, 5 Linum, 5 Foxglove, 5 Coreopsis, 5 Pinks, 5 Sweet Williams, 5 Shasta Daisies, 5 Wayside Daisies, 5 Oriental Poppies, 5 Iceland Poppies, 5 Delphinium, 5 Marguerites, Strong, Sturdy Plants shipped to you direct from grower. Special gift—2 Baby's Breath plants, if order mailed this week. Send $1.00 to—Gardner Nursery Co., R. 12, Box 4, Osage, Iowa.

DALLAS SENIOR CLASS BECOMES 1936 GRADUATES

Dallas—Fifty-seven graduates, members of the class of '36, received their diplomas from the hands of R. R. Turner, city school superintendent at Commencement in the high school auditorium Thursday night.

The address of the evening was delivered by Dr. William Wallace Youngson who chose as his subject, "Investments."

The Carl Gerlinger prizes, given annually to the three boys who make the best showing during the year in the vocational training course conducted by the school in conjunction with the Dallas Machine and Locomotive Works, were awarded to Jack Laug, Bill Giesbrecht and Vern Robinette. The prizes are $25, $15 and $10.

The program for the evening, Superintendent R. R. Turner, presiding, included processional, Joseph Hartley; invocation, Rev. John A. Linn; piano solo, Daniel Abel; graduation address, by Dr. Youngson; violin duet, Dorothy Palmer and Margaret Riggs, accompanied by Doris Riggs; awarding of Gerlinger prize by Principal S. E. Whitworth; vocal solo, Hubert Springsteen, accompanied by Daniel Abel; presentation of diplomas by Superintendent Turner; song by the audience and benediction by Rev. A. M. Williams.

Officers of the class were Helen Elle, president; Fred McPetridge, vice president; Doris Riggs, secretary-treasurer; Walter Joslin, sergeant-at-arms; Miss Elle, valedictorian and Miss Riggs, salutatorian. Miss Betty Jelinek was faculty advisor.

TWO MONTH HOLIDAY VOTED FOR CHAPTER

Donald—Venus chapter, No. 129, O.E.S., met in regular session with the matron, Mrs. Maude Pendleton, presiding, after an absence of two months on account of illness. The patron, E. D. Carver, was unable to be present. A resolution was adopted to close chapter sessions during July and August.

Delegates who are attending the grand chapter session in Portland this week include Mrs. Pendleton, worthy matron; Mrs. G. B. Ackerson, associate matron; Mrs. E. D. Carver, proxy for the worthy patron, and Mrs. F. J. Dolson, proxy for the associate patron.

The local chapters last meeting of the season will be June 19, when a social evening will be held with the committee composed of Mrs. F. J. Dolson and Mrs. J. A. Bush. Mrs. J. A. Bush attended the session of the grand chapter, O. E. S., in Portland Thursday.

Five Harness Sets And Money Stolen

Woodburn—Thieves are again busy in the vicinity of Woodburn. Wednesday night four sets of harness were stolen from the barn of F. W. Settlemier and one double harness from the barn of H. Otten.

Thursday evening between 7:30 and 8:15 o'clock while the family were absent some one entered a bedroom window at the farm home of John Fikan north of town and stole a $5 bill and some silver. A money order for $83 which was in the room was not taken.

NEW POLES PLACED

Millersburg—New telephone poles have been set between the Fred Kroger and Arthur Moreland farms on line 51.

West Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darley and family motored to Grants Pass to spend the week with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Martin.

Rebekah President Guest Turner Unit

Turner—Turner Ideal Rebekah lodge entertained Wednesday evening with a special meeting when Mrs. Estella N. Weed of Portland, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, paid her official visit. Accompanying her to Turner were Jessie Moore, Mabel Gardner and Alma Henderson of Salem. In addition to the exemplification of the degree work a school of instruction was given. Mrs. Weed was presented with a lovely pottery gift by Ideal Rebekah members. Refreshments were served in the dining room with Susan Girardin, Sophia Robertson and Gayette Barnett the committee in charge. Roses and ferns were used to decorate the rooms for Mrs. Weed's visit.

RUSSELL RAY ILL

Silverton—Russell Ray of the Marquam community is beating his two-month old baby's time. He has a bad case of measles and is being isolated so the young son will not contract the contagion.

Brooks—Mrs. Mary Martin has gone to Toledo where she will make an extended visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lowery.

"PRIVATE NUMBER" HERE

What chance has love between a millionaire's son and a personal maid? Robert Taylor and Loretta Young supply the answer in the new Fox romantic hit "Private Number," opening a five day engagement at the Grand theatre today.

PWA WATER WORKS PROJECT STARTED

Jefferson—Construction of the Jefferson PWA water works improvement project started Wednesday. A call for laborers by the West Coast Construction company was made the first of the week at the state employment office in Salem. Fifty per cent of the labor must be recruited from Jefferson residents as provided by the construction contract. Only a few have been hired so far this week, but more will be employed as the work gets under way.

Woodburn to Vote Monday Afternoon

Woodburn—The annual election for the Woodburn school district will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Lincoln grade school auditorium. A director and clerk are to be elected. E. J. Allen, present chairman of the school board, will retire after completing his second term, a total of six years. Frank Proctor, the present clerk, is completing his third year in that office.

Albany Man Fined

Independence—Orin Henry Cox of Albany became more familiar with the Independence stop signs this week but his knowledge cost him $5 when he appeared in justice court. The fine was suspended upon payment of the costs. State police made the arrest. Several truck operators were warned to have defective mufflers fixed and escaped with only the payment of the costs.

CLUB ENTERTAINED

Marquam—The Mt. Hope Friendly club were all-day guests at the home of Mrs. John Gottswold Thursday with potluck lunch served at noon and the guests doing sewing during the day. The club meets each month.

Scotts Mills—Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bielenberg have as their guest, Bielenberg's two brothers and sister, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Bielenberg and son, Joseph, of Moscow, Idaho, Joseph H. Bielenberg of Genesee, Idaho, and Mrs. Rosenauer and son Richard of Colton, Wash.

CASEY COUNCIL WILL INITIATE CLASS JUNE 28

Stayton—The Sublimity council of the Knights of Columbus are making plans for a class initiation of candidates in the three degrees of the order to take place at the Forester Hall in Stayton Sunday, June 28. Some 20 candidates have already been secured for the initiation and the local committees in charge are making preparations to make this a big day for the order in the Santiam Valley.

The degree work will be in charge of the Mt. Angel members of the Knight of Columbus for the first and second degrees and the major degree will be in charge of the Eugene Council of the Knights of Columbus assisted by Frank J. Longergan of Portland, C. A. Suing, district deputy of Salem is making the necessary arrangements.

The initiation proper will start at 12:50 o'clock and will continue throughout the afternoon, and will be followed in the evening by a banquet at Sublimity.

Candidates for this initiation are also expected from Salem, Tillamook, Mt. Angel, Hillsboro and McMinnville.

SCHOOL BOARD RACE HOT ONE

Silverton—What promises to call out the largest number of voters in Silverton at a school election will be Monday when two of three candidates will be placed on the board of directors to succeed H. R. Irish and Merlin Conrad, both of whom refused to be considered in the race at this time.

H. B. Jorgenson seems to be the favored of all factions and rated two petitions previous to filing. Dr. William MacNeill, a dentist and H. W. Preston, sales manager of the Silver Falls Timber company completed the candidacy.

The polls will be in the high school building, open from 2 until 7 o'clock in the afternoon, Monday, June 15. Any registered voter in the district is entitled to vote for director and does not necessarily need to be a property owner.

J. D. Drake will serve as judge of the election board with his assistants, Mrs. E. Z. Kaufman, Mrs. Rose Winslow and Mrs. Clay Allen.

Donald—E. D. Carver is at home after two weeks in the Veterans' hospital where he underwent a sinus operation.

Day After Day - The Best Shows in Town! STATE 15c THEATRE KIDDIES A DIME BETTER PICTURES PERFECT SOUND

TODAY ONLY! First Salem Showing PETER B. KYNE'S "VALLEY OF WANTED MEN" with Frankie Darro

Starts SUNDAY!! Midnight Show Tonight -- 11:15 The Big Laugh Show!

Eddie Cantor Strike Me Pink with ETHEL MERMAN Sally Eilers Parkyakarkus The Goldwyn Girls - ADDED - LATEST UNIVERSAL NEWS REEL PARAMOUNT COLOR CARTOON BROADWAY HIGHLIGHTS Good Short Subjects Make a Good Program!

She had her secrets! HER HUSBAND'S NAME... HER BABY... HER HIDE-OUT FROM A WORLD THAT CONSPIRED TO ROB HER OF EVERYTHING SHE LOVED IN LIFE! "Private Number" with LORETTA YOUNG ROBERT TAYLOR PATSY KELLY BASIL RATHBONE ALSO Tom Howard COMEDY FOX NEWS CARTOON A FOX PICTURE Grand

BLACK LEGION HOAX FOILED

Fifteen young students at the Modesto, Calif., Junior College donned this "Black Legion" regalia as "just a lark" to terrorize Miss Audrey Guernsey (right), 20-year-old student leader, and her companion, Bob Reed, 20, another student, as they walked home from a show. But they did not reckon on Reed's frantic prowess. When Miss Guernsey became hysterical at the "attack" of the robed figures, Reed offered fight and forced the attackers to flee in a truck. (Associated Press Photos)