

PORTLAND BALL CLUB SEEKING SENATORS' SCALPS

'RED' MILLER SCHEDULED TO FACE SOLONS

Hop Gold of Portland, the outfit of youngsters which took two out of three games from Salem last year, will endeavor to resume its victorious stride in the State league Sunday at the expense of the Senators. The two clubs will square away at 2:30 o'clock on Olinger field. Oscar "Red" Miller, the only veteran on Ray Brook's squad, will probably draw the assignment of handcuffing the Solons. Miller has seen service with a number of professional leagues and is considered one of the smartest pitchers in the circuit. On the receiving end will be Johnny Leovich, a likely prospect for major league service. The balance of the crew will consist of young men who are just completing their high school careers.

Either Bill Bevins or Jerry Gastineau will be sent to the mound by Manager Frisco Edwards Sunday. Following a brief workout Friday evening Edwards seemed to favor the former. His performance in holding the strong Blitz-Weinhart club to two hits Memorial day has stamped him as an outstanding roundsman.

Rained out last week when they were all primed to battle the Toledo Lions, the Senators have been fired up to a fighting pitch this week and will enter Sunday's fracas determined to make it three wins in a row. The lineup will probably be the same as that which won over Albany and Eugene—Manning, Moe, Harriman and Beard in the infield, Orave, Aden and Gant in the outer garden.

The balance of the State league program for Sunday calls for Albany at Woodburn, and Bend at Eugene. Toledo draws a bye.

HOP GOLD BACKSTOP

Johnny Leovich, considered the best young catching prospect in the state, will show his wares Sunday afternoon at Olinger when the Senators meet the beer men in a state league contest at 2:30 o'clock.

Skits and Scratches

Dick Weisgerber had the stiffest back and Don Burch the best batting average during the baseball season of Willamette university. Dick, who showed considerable hesitancy in shifting his dogs behind the plate, was credited with nine passed balls and four errors. Burch, who was on the throwing end, turned in a batting average of .364 or 39 percentage points above Rex Pierce who placed second. Players who batted above .300 in addition to Burch and Pierce were Bill Sutton .322, Ken Manning .320, Bill Stone .304, Dwight Aden .291, Al Hennemann .286, Vinnie Harriman .284, Verdell Ragsdale .279, Bill Beard .266, Dick Weisgerber .262, Jerry Gastineau .261, Walt Commons .207 and Walt Weaver an even .200.

Burch had the best record of the pitching staff when the matter of earned runs is considered. Winning five out of six games pitched, Burch hurled 60 innings and had 14 runs scored off his delivery for an earned run average of 1.050. Walt Weaver had an earned run average of 1.197, Jerry Gastineau 1.620, and George Erickson 2.520. Weaver and Erickson each won three games and lost none while Gastineau won six and lost one. Gastineau, Erickson and Weaver had perfect records in the fielding department while Burch made but two errors for an average of .900.

Ken Manning at first base turned in the best defensive performance, making but two misplays in 182 putouts. Harriman came up with nine errors for a percentage of .891. Other infielders were Billy Sutton .861, Beard .872 and Pierce .829. In the outfield Ragsdale and Commons were not charged with errors. Aden had a fielding average of .939, Stone .933 and Heuman .857.

Indicating that there may be something to the seventh inning rally besides superstition, the records show that Willamette collected the most runs in that frame—22 in all. The fifth was nearly as prosperous, however, since 21 rallies were chalked up in that particular session. Willamette denied the plate 121 times during the season as against 84 for the opposition.

FAVOR STAYTON OVER SALEM
Stayton — The American Legion junior baseball team will play Salem on the local diamond Sunday. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock. Stayton lost the opening game of the season to Salem 8 to 7 but since that time has shown considerable improvement and is favored to win. Stupka probably will be called upon to pitch for the locals.

ATHLETES COMPETE OLYMPIC TRYOUTS

Palo Alto, Calif., June 13 (AP)—A chance all places on the United States Olympic team drew 112 athletes, many of them unattached or from clubs or minor colleges, to regional qualifying trials today at Stanford university.

Some of the coast's outstanding track stars, already qualified for the semi-final trials in Los Angeles June 26 and 27, were entered in today's events in which winners of the first three places will be eligible for competition two weeks hence. Those athletes, together with the lesser known entrants, will compete in track events over metric distances in a meet involving the Olympic program with exception of the 3000 meters steeplechase.

Among the outstanding entrants are Ben Eastman, Bob Clark, John Mottram, and Gordon Dunn of the San Francisco Olympic club; Morris Follock and Archie Williams of the University of California; Jack Weisshauer, Ray Dean, and Phil Levy of Stanford; and Bob Parks of the University of Oregon.

Contenders from smaller colleges who have turned in top-notch performances this year include Robert Graham, sprint star from Whitman college at Walla Walla, Wash.; Clarence Rowland of Fresno State; and Cecil Cole of San Mateo Junior college.

Much interest is being taken in Belgium in the general election to be held there in June.

OAKLAND WINS IN 17 INNINGS OVER INDIANS

(By United Press)
Oakland was back in first place in the Pacific coast league today after a tense 8 to 7, 17-inning win over the Seattle Indians last night.

Seattle led all the way to the ninth but the Oaklanders tied the score 7 to 7 in that inning and it was almost 1 a. m. before Larocca singled and Leroy Anton came home to cut the knot.

The Oaks threatened several times during the extra innings, but were never quite able to put over the winning drive. Altogether, they garnered 20 hits off Barrett and Osborn.

The Indians strangled 16 hits off the Oakland twirlers, Oids, Conlan, Haid and Larocca.

Portland and Sacramento, playing at Sacramento, also staged an overtime exhibition for the customers, the Beavers cracking out the tally run in the tenth to win 2 to 1 over the Senators.

The Beavers scored once in the first and the Senators trailed until the ninth when they pushed across the tying run. Rosedel for Portland and Seinoth for Sacramento each allowed six hits.

The San Francisco Seals chalked up a run for each of their 13 hits in their contest with the San Diego Padres at the Seals stadium.

The Seal batsmen slugged six runs off Horne in the second inning and followed up their early start by adding one in the fourth, five in the fifth and another in the sixth, before the Padres recovered sufficiently to push across their two tallies in the seventh. Sad Sam Gibson, Seal hurler, allowed seven hits.

The Los Angeles Angels took their third game of the present series when they defeated the Mission Reds 5 to 4.

CLOUTING CUBS SET FAST PAGE, WIN 9 IN ROW

By SID FEDER
The question that had the entire baseball world going around in circles last September is playing a return engagement much earlier this year.

Particularly in the neighborhood of the pace-setting St. Louis Cardinals, they're firing the query from all sides these days — when and where are those clouting Chicago Cubs going to stop?

With a winning streak that has already extended to nine games, and has carried the league champs from fourth to second place in the dizzy National League race this week alone, the Cubs are in a large way on the road to duplicating that 21-game Chicago landslide of September, 1935.

A lot of angles make this year's pell-mell dash a lot more favorable from the viewpoint of the windy city, principally because the first three months of last year were virtually a total flop so far as the Cubs were concerned.

They were getting neither pitching or hitting those days. Now they're getting both. They failed to click in most of the first half of the 1935 race. Now they're hitting on all cylinders.

They made it nine in a row yesterday by piling up their biggest score of the season, 17-1, over the Boston Bees, as Tex Carleton pitched eight-hit ball, the ninth straight time a Cub hurler has gone the route.

Friday's results:
National: Pittsburgh 3, New York 2; Chicago 17, Boston 1; St. Louis 3, Philadelphia 2 (11 innings).
American: Washington 6, Chicago 0; New York 9, Detroit 6; no other games played.

Woodburn, perennial champions of American Legion junior baseball, gained a strangle hold on the Marion county title late yesterday when Coach Pete DeGuire's boys turned in a 12 to 5 win over the hitherto undefeated Salem youngsters on Olinger field. Nine runs bunched in the first three innings proved fatal to Salem although Bud Eland who replaced LeRoy Bright on the mound for Salem held the visitors to three scattered hits during the final six and two-thirds sessions. Apparently it wasn't Bright's day for he was found for eight hits during the two and a third innings he worked. One of the hits was a solid smash into center field by Whitman which went for a home run, and drove in two jallies ahead of him.

Woodburn scored unearned runs in the fifth and seventh and worked another runner across the home plate in the ninth.

Salem scored two runs in the second, two more in the third and another in the fifth. Krupicka, Woodburn moundsman became increasingly wild, but Whitman who relieved him held Salem scoreless for the balance of the game.

Salem will play Stayton at Stayton Sunday while Woodburn will entertain Mt. Angel.

FORESTERS DEFEAT LEBANON, 7 TO 6

Mt. Angel, Ore. — The Foresters defeated the Reeves Garage team from Lebanon 7 to 6 in an over-time night baseball game last night. Reeves tied the count with a homer in the sixth frame. In a preliminary game the Mt. Angel Beer Barons defeated the Socialty team 10 to 9. Two games are scheduled for tonight, the Merchants Road Farmers vs. the Mt. Angel Business Men and the Foresters vs. the Knights of Columbus.

Summaries: R H E
Beer Barons 10 7 3
Socialty 9 11 5
Batteries — Hanning and Bigler; May and Beyer.
Foresters 7 10 6
Lebanon 6 7 6

WESTERNERS IN PRE-OLYMPIC SPOTLIGHT

Here are three of the western track stars who will be prominent contenders for spots on the Olympic Games team. Left to right, Gordon "Slingshot" Dunn, former Stanford discus star whose throw this year of better than 171 feet marks him as the probable No. 1 man in that event; Lee Roy Kirkpatrick, the San Mateo, Calif., junior college athlete, who runs close to world's record time in the 120-yard high hurdles, and Norman Bright, the former Bellingham, Wash., youth now running for the San Francisco Olympic Club, who is rated as America's likeliest prospect in the distances. SHORTCOMINGS BROWN BOMBER HARD TO FIND Lakewood, N. J., June 13 (AP)—Fight experts finished their search for Joe Louis' shortcomings today with the same old result.

Not by any stretch of imagination can they figure how Max Schmeling, as courageous a man as he is, can beat the brown bomber. The experts have written thousands of words about Louis' excess weight, his apparent lethargy during training, and his overconfidence. Yet, when they get all through and match his shortcomings with those of the stoic Teuton, they invariably wind up with:

"What's the use of talking? Louis will beat him within four rounds at the best."

Louis, 22 years old against Schmeling's 30, is overweight, but his trainer, Jack Blackburn, points out that the brown bomber still is growing. However, Blackburn promises Joe will weigh no more than 195 pounds, his ideal fighting weight, when he meets Dr. Maxie next Thursday night. As he loafed yesterday, Joe scaled 198.

Other experts have claimed Louis will be a "sucker" for Schmeling's right. But the truth is he doesn't rate to be because he has been developing his own right to deliver a terrific uppercut. His left, says Blackburn, is so good it can afford to take a few days off.

Louis, himself, has burst the bubble of over-confidence. His workouts have been even more vigorous than those of Schmeling, who goes about his work with less capable sparring partners.

The brown bomber's handlers, moreover, are so confident of victory over Schmeling that they already are planning his camp for his heavyweight championship shot against James J. Braddock.

"We didn't sign up the other day because we think Joe rates more than the usual challenger's cut," said John Roxborough, his co-manager. "Frankly, I am confident the fight between Braddock and Louis will come off in September."
