New York, June 18 (IP)—Charles (Lucky) Luciano, New York public enemy, was hustled into a heavily quarded supreme court today and sentenced to 30 to 50 years in prison for compulsory prostitution as head of a vice ring that drew $12,000,000 a year from more than 1,000 young women.

1,000 young women.

More than 100 police and detectives were scattered through the courtroom, the corridors and the streets as Luciano, a half sneer on his swarthy face, stood before Justice Philip J. McCook and heard himself accused of responsibility "for every foul and cruel deed of extrition of all the other defendants."

"There is no hope for your re-habilitation," the court decided. Justice McCook then vent into the 62 counts of the indictments which carried a maximum aggregate to 10 to 20 years on one group of counts, 10 to 15 years on another, and 10 to 15 years on a third group.

We understand there's just two veterans around here who don't get m on the bonus, sane being Col. Carle Abrams and General George A. White. It seems these two had commissions during the war which ranked them high enough so they're not eligible. Of course, there's Governor Martin, but he belongs to the regular army and has been getting a $500 a month bonus anyway, so $500 a month bonus anyway, so to wouldn't exactly count. Col.
