LEGION HELPS EAGLES

Silverton—James A. Scarth, commander of the American Legion, has announced as his committee to be in charge of the parade and other affairs connected with the state convention of Eagles, A. R. Lefland, chairman, assisted by Dr. A. J. McCann and Dewey Allen. The definite date for the annual picnic at Hazel Green park has been set for Sunday, August 2.

MONMOUTH VETERAN TO ERECT BUILDING

Monmouth—Something like $60,000 in bonus money is going through the Monmouth postoffice. This amount is about a sixth of the money the county will receive.

James Norris, proprietor of the cleaning establishment, expects to use his money toward the construction of a $10,000 business structure, west of the city hall on Main street. This is on land formerly held by the Christian Science society, for building purposes, but which was sold by them when they bought the Lutheran student chapel. Delay in clearing up the title is holding up construction work on this building which will have room for two business establishments on the ground floor and dwelling quarters above.

Miss Zook Greeted Upon Return Home

Silverton—Miss Naomi Zook, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Frank W. Zook of the First Christian church pastorate, was honored by members of the church choir and of the older boys and girls Sunday school class taught by Rev. Zook, with a surprise reception at the parsonage Thursday evening when the guest of honor reached Silverton from Myrtle Creek where she was a member of the high school graduating class. A late supper was served and a program of readings by Mary Kiehn and Ruth Thompson and musical numbers by Rita and Eileen Rahn.

Naomi was presented a hand made quilt, made by Ella Grinde, as a graduation gift.

Pioneer Resident Reported Very Low

Independence—Set Cox, 90 years of age, is critically ill at his home here from a stroke of paralysis. The family gathered here last Sunday as there seemed little hope for recovery. A nurse is constantly in attendance and his condition today was not so good.

Mr. Cox is a pioneer of this community, having retired from farm life a few years ago, and with his wife are making their home at 7th and "C" streets, Independence.

He has been quite active most of his life and until the day he was stricken, was able to work in his garden and do other light chores.

Tennessee Boy Visits

Scio—Earl Lane of Knoxville, Tenn., is here to spend the summer school intermission at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Withers, of Scio. The 14-year-old boy made the trip across the continent alone by train. He came by the southern route through Texas and California.

Scio—Judge and Mrs. Fred Warner of San Clemente, Calif., were recent guests at the A. G. Prill home in Scio.

Star in "Forgotten Faces"

Herbert Marshall stars in "Forgotten Faces," the new melodrama at the Capitol theatre Sunday and Monday, with blonde Gertrude Michael playing opposite him. Gene Autry appears in "Guns and Guitars," to complete the double feature program.

Carrier Pigeon Is Given Rest; Reply Received

Mt. Angel—A letter was received Friday morning by the Fred Schwab Commission company from a man in Tacoma, Wash., in answer to a note which they had attached to a carrier pigeon which had stopped there enroute from Mt. Shasta, Calif., to Tacoma.

According to the letter, the pigeon was released at 5 a. m. Saturday morning from Mt. Shasta, stopped at Mt. Angel at 3 p. m., the same day and arrived in Tacoma at 10 a. m. Sunday morning. The pigeon was exhausted when it reached Mt. Angel but went on its way again after it had been fed and watered and a note had been attached to its leg asking the owner to notify Fred Schwab at Mt. Angel when it reached its destination.

PAST NOBLE GRAND CLUB HAS ELECTION

Jefferson—Mrs. Bertha Curl and Mrs. Ada Wells were hostesses for the Past Noble Grand club Thursday afternoon in the lodge rooms of the I.O.O.F. hall.

Officers elected for the year were Flora Thomas, president; Neva Kester, vice-president; Millie Bilyeu, secretary-treasurer. A club picnic was planned for some time in July, which will be held in Camp Santiam.

Following the business session the time was spent working on the club quilt. At the tea hour refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Present were: Elmina Thurston, Keith Smith, Grace Thurston, Stella Hart, Flora and Laura Thomas, Addie Libby, Ida Hartley, Maude Blackwell, Millie Bilyeu and the hostesses, Bertha Curl and Ada Wells.

Rebekah Lodge Will Seat New Officers

Woodburn—At the last meeting of Home Rebekah lodge plans were made to hold installation of officers at their next regular meeting July 7. There will also be a pot-luck lunch and the following refreshment committee was appointed: Eva Strike, Katherine Mendenhall, Eunice Cole and Ethel Hopkins. A short program was given at the close of the meeting which included a tap dance by Bonney Scott and piano solos by Wilmer Lessard and Charlotte Mae Livesey. Refreshments were served by Nettie Johnson, Nupa J. Ringo, Joyce Engle, Mabel Wright, Nona Otjen, Vernon Fremis and Stanley Woodward.

Final Card Party Scheduled Tuesday

Mt. Angel—The members of the St. Ann's Altar society will sponsor the last card party of the month Tuesday evening in the school dining room.

Bridge and "500" will be played after which the usual prizes will be given. Later in the evening the committee in charge will serve lunch. The committee includes Mrs. M. Wampach, chairman, Mrs. Andrew Wachter, Mrs. Bernard Wolf, Mrs. Stanley Wubbe, Mrs. Otto Wellman, Mrs. Henry Wellman, Mrs. Mike Weinacht, Mrs. Joseph Wavra, Mrs. Emil Wolf and Mrs. Anna Westoff.

One Room School Building Started

Talbot—Construction began this week on the new, modern one-room school building with full basement in the Sidney district. The building will cost approximately $3,000 and will be erected on the present school grounds. It will be completed in time for school this fall. Mr. Hammer of Stayton is the contractor.

VISITORS IN VALLEY

Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Keen of Spokane arrived in Stayton the first of the week to visit at the Harvey Walker home. Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Walker went to Brownsville to spend the rest of the week. Mrs. Keen and Mrs. Walker are sisters.

RURAL DISTRICT SCHOOLS ELECT

Jefferson—The following school districts in the vicinity of Jefferson held their annual school meetings this week.

At a meeting of the Looney Butte school district it was decided to award two scholarships to 4-H club workers to insure two students' attendance at the next summer session. Edwin Swartz was elected clerk, taking the place of Miss Margaret Looney who declined to serve another term. She had been clerk for the district for 17 years. Bert Barnes was elected director for two years to complete Chris Farman's term, and Eugene Finlay, three years, taking Mrs. Carrie Hockspeler's place on the board. Herbert Looney who has served five years in that office is the other member of the board.

Talbot school district No. 136 elected Fred Jorgenson as director for three years. Mrs. Doris Freeman will be clerk for one year.

At the Sidney district meeting Nelson Gilmore was elected director for three years and Mrs. Jake Gilmore, clerk. Wm. Wiederkehr and Mrs. John Zehner are also on the school board.

The Parrish Gap school district elected A. L. Page as director for three years and William Skelton, clerk. Claude Page and Homer Davis are the other directors on the board.

The Scarehill school district at its meeting elected Henry Ammon director for three years and Mrs. Rose Grenz clerk. Other members of the school board are Martin Sorenson and Joe Yagelski.

At the De Vany school meeting Mrs. Guy Johnston was elected director for three years and Mrs. Tim Kelly was re-elected clerk.

Vets at Corvallis Will Convert Bonds

Corvallis—Approximately half of the veterans in Corvallis are going to cash their bonus bonds it is indicated by the first day's certification for payment. Of course, this will be the case only if this first-day action is to continue through the other days.

Seventy-two veterans have applied for certification according to Victor P. Moses, postmaster. This reached a total of $37,700, with the largest amount for any individual veteran being $1,900.

All veterans here have not yet received their bonds, with some coming into the office each day.

Former Portland Mayor to Speak

Albany—George L. Baker, former mayor of Portland, will be the speaker at the annual meeting of the Albany chamber of commerce to be held Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the hotel Albany.

Five new directors will be elected at the same time. Nominees include five incumbents, George L. Berry, W. L. Fitzpatrick, J. C. Irvine, W. V. Merrill and E. W. Tripp. Others are Fred Hough, John Lamberty, Z. L. Merrill, F. H. Pfeiffer and Lowell Seaton.

Jefferson Recital Presents Pupils

Jefferson—Prof. Justin A. Miller of Albany presented his class at the Christian church Wednesday evening. Those taking part were Justin Miller, Jr., Billy Barna, Gene Powell, Mackie Thurston, Ruth Terhune, LeAnn Haight, Pauline Thomas, Betty White, Betty Terhune, Vera and Wanda Glaser, Beverly Wells, Bobby Terhune, Donna June Powell, and Juanita Holt.

LITTLES IN WYOMING

Scio—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Little of Scio are with the family of a daughter, Mrs. Damon A. Cole, at Sundance, Wyo. The Littles plan to attend a meeting of Wyoming pioneers at the Devils Tower, 800-foot volcanic formation in Crook county, Wyoming, on June 21.

Broadacres—Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hunt were business visitors in Portland Thursday. They also visited at the home of Mrs. Hunt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kraus, in Aurora the same afternoon.

LEGION PLAQUE AND ELECTIONS INTEREST POST

Dallas—The formal presentation of a memorial plaque and the election of officers for the coming year and the naming of delegates to the state convention were the highlights of a regular business meeting of Carl B. Fenton Post No. 20 of the American Legion.

The presentation of the plaque was made by the ladies of the auxiliary of the old company "L" formed in August 1917. The plate of bronze with the names of the company roster as of August 5, 1917, when the company was mustered in, is mounted on the armory wall immediately north of the main entrance on Church St. The funds which made the memorial possible were secured through a tag day held in 1917. The balance of the fund was turned over to the post at Thursday's meeting. The presentation was made by Mrs. Peter Berg, secretary-treasurer of the auxiliary of Co. "L" who told of the manner in which the money was raised, what its primary purpose was, that of furnishing a Christmas dinner for the boys, how the plans went wrong and of how, when it became evident that no county memorial would be erected, the members of the auxiliary decided to perpetuate the memory of the boys of 17 and General White to place the plaque on the armory, went ahead and carried their plans through. Other ladies in the delegation were Mrs. Conrad Stairin, who also spoke briefly, Mrs. Charles McCann, Sr., Mrs. Blanche Fenton and Mrs. Helgeson. Representing the American Legion auxiliary were Mrs. Andrew Irwin, Jr., president, Miss Mildred Stairin, Mrs. Harold Rich and Mrs. John Cerny. The plaque was accepted on behalf of the post by Post Commander W. Blackley who expressed warm appreciation for the thoughts and extended the thanks of the post membership to its donors. Commodore R. S. Kreson and Bill Himes also spoke.

H. Mather Smith of Falls City was elected post commander for the coming year. Other officers named Thursday were: 1st vice commander, Albert Bennett; 2nd vice commander, Ray Boydston; 3rd vice commander, Walter L. Waite; adjutant, John Cerny; finance officer, Laird W. Woods; chaplain, S. E. Whitworth; sergeant-at-arms, Ellis Miller; historian, R. S. Kreson; executive committee, Fred Stinnette and W. Blackley.

Delegates to the state convention are H. Mather Smith, W. A. Himes and John Cerny.

No more meetings will be held until the first Thursday in October when the new officers will be installed. Committee chairmen were reminded that their annual reports, in duplicate, should be made to the adjutant as soon as possible.

BONUS BONDS GOING TO PAY UP DEBTS

Jefferson—Bonus bonds for 20 veterans of the World War have arrived here since Tuesday, and at least 20 more are expected to reach here by the end of the week.

The bonds average $500 to $600 to each individual. The largest number of bonds lacked one dollar of reaching the limit of $1,885 allowed to veterans. The smallest bonds were for $250. Counting the average of $500 each the total amount of dollars brought into this locality will be around $20,000. Most of the veterans here who are receiving the money plan to spend it for cows, furniture and to pay debts.

REIDER IS DIRECTOR

Falls City—J. A. Reider was elected director replacing W. L. Russell and Mrs. Clara Guthridge was re-elected clerk at the annual school meeting here Monday night.
