SILVERTON SETS STAGE FOR EAGLES CONVENTION

FIRST CARAVAN REACHING CITY TO BE WELCOME

Silverton — The whole town's a-buzz with anticipation for Wednesday when the first caravan begins to pour into town for the state convention of Eagles, the biggest undertaking ever put up to Silverton.

The second highest office in the grand lodge of Eagles, that of grand worthy vice-president, is held by Dr. H. B. Mehrman of Oakland, Calif. Dr. and Mrs. Mehrman plan to attend the Silverton convention. They will arrive in Salem on the 1:52 Wednesday afternoon. Cascade limited, and will be greeted by E. R. Ekman, president of the Silverton aerie; R. J. Baldwin, Silverton, general chairman of the convention; Barney Goldstein, Portland, state president; A. Warren Jones, Salem, state vice-president; Ralph Emmons, president Salem aerie, and Mayor V. E. Kuhn, Salem.

E. R. Ekman

The Mehrmans will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbs during the four days of the convention.

After a short visit in Silverton, the group will return to Salem where a rally, pre-convention, will be held. Governor Charles H. Martin and Secretary of State Earl Snell will be prominent figures at the rally at which all Oregon aeries will be welcomed.

E. R. Ekman, president of the local aerie, will officially receive the guests. R. J. Baldwin, general chairman, will be everywhere. Barney Goldstein, state president, and his staff of helpers will be located over Ames Hardware store. D. D. Hall, state organizer, will have headquarters in the I. D. Worden offices upstairs in the Worden building. A. Warren Jones, state vice-president, will be found over Steelhammer Drug store.

A. H. Bamwell, past president, Medford aerie, will be housed with Dr. Edgar E. Wrightman, Jr., and his mother on West Main street.

R. M. Baldwin, brother of the general chairman, is here from his home in Myrtle Creek to assist, generally around the Eagles club and headquarters where R. J. Baldwin will manage the affairs in general.

The large Gresham delegation to the convention will have a village all their own at the Kaser hop camp apartments three miles east of town. The cabins were built last year and are equipped well for the visitors.

The men's drill team of Portland will be at the Cottage hotel on East Main street.

The business of the convention will be thrashed out at the armory for the Eagles and at the Eugene Field auditorium for the auxiliaries.

PLAYGROUND PROJECT CORVALLIS, STARTS

Corvallis, Ore. — Registration for the 1936 session of the summer playground in Corvallis began Monday morning, with Carl Rasmussen, director of the playground this year, in charge.

Although federal funds are not yet available, work will begin on the program with funds supplied from the local Parent Teachers' associations. If and when the federal funds come, the program will be enlarged and more instructors and activities added. Mr. Rasmussen said. The outside help in finances is practically assured, local authorities believe, but the date for its coming is not known.

Activities available during the past two years will again be offered with the addition of a few others. Courses that will be added include manual training, handiwork in sewing, basket weaving, artificial flower making, dressmaking for dolls, block printing and other art subjects.

Donald—Miss Betty Ackerson and Miss Jean Beers of Woodburn have gone to Macleay to camp for a week at the home of the latter's aunt, where they will pick cherries.

Veterans' Leader And Staff Visit

Corvallis—Dwight Alderman, state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, together with his entire staff, paid his yearly official visit to the Corvallis unit recently and inspected the organization.

The commander complimented the group here on its steacy growth and civic accomplishments and urged all veterans to help fight the bill coming before the electorate to abolish compulsory military training in the colleges and universities.

PARK SOUGHT FOR OUTINGS

Silverton — Large groups listed with the city park host, Mike Dolan, for June 28 and the month of July that will hold annual sessions are the Starr family, July 12; Trinity church congregation, July 12; Veterans of Foreign Wars, July 19; and the Luckey family reunion June 28.

Several hundred people sought relief from the extreme heat Sunday. The park is particularly beautiful now as the recent rains have kept the grass green and the hillside growth attractive. The swimming pool was popular though the creek is unusually high for this time of year.

New community stoves have been completed in time for the convenience of the hundreds of visitors being planned for at the Eagles' state convention beginning Wednesday afternoon and lasting through Saturday of this week.

TRUCK DRIVERS HANDED FINES

Woodburn—Four truck drivers appeared in Judge Overton's court and entered pleas of guilty to the charge of driving their trucks at a speed of 45 miles per hour on the highway. The offenders were Edward Burton Rapp, Preston L. Young, Carl Schindler and Homer Orville Latourell, each of whom paid a fine of $5 and costs of $2.50.

The case of Irvin LaChapelle, charged with reckless driving, was heard before Judge Overton Friday morning and the defendant was discharged when the judge learned that the car which struck Mrs. Lorena Burt was the property of Mrs. LaChapelle and that she was the driver at the time of the accident. It also appeared from the testimony that the car had stopped and inquired of Mrs. Burt whether or not she was injured and that she had replied in the negative.

Herbert Blydenstoin, arrested for driving at a speed of 50 miles per hour at night, without headlights, entered a plea of guilty and paid a fine of $5 and costs of $2.50.

Elmer Ellsworth Lyda paid a fine of $5 and costs of $2.50 for driving a truck at night without clearance lights.

Lewis Adolph Belleque paid a fine of $2, plus costs of $2.50, for driving without an operator's license.

RICKREALL LISTENS TO SUNDAY SERVICE

Rickreall—L. R. Hogan, of Salem, district missionary with the American Sunday school union, preached a special Father's day sermon at the church Sunday morning.

Hogan, recently from the Bible Institute at Los Angeles, covers in his work Marion, Polk, Tillamook, Lincoln and part of Yamhill and Benton counties.

Special music included a violin trio by Katherine Lowry, Nancy Adams and Wilma Ellis, accompanied by Mrs. H. A. Dempsey; violin solo, Katherine Lowry; vocal solo, Mrs. Hogan.

Following the service a picnic dinner was served in the grove. Thirty persons were present. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Weddekind of Amity, and Mr. and Mrs. O. Aurland, of Dallas, were guests.

Humphrey is Host To Surprise Wife

Stayton — Mrs. Harry Humphrey was the honored guest at a surprise party arranged by Humphrey Saturday evening on the anniversary of her birthday.

Laymen's Retreat Guild Brings Religious People To Mt. Angel for Peace

Mt. Angel—Mt. Angel was the scene of extraordinary religious activity during the past several days when members of the Mt. Angel College Laymen's Retreat Guild, which numbers more than 350 members, gathered at the college for the 16th Annual Laymen's retreat. Besides men from the Mt. Angel vicinity 98 retreatants came from other parts of the state and some from Washington. A delegation of 56 men were present from Portland.

The spiritual exercises were conducted by Right Rev. Ignatius Esser, O.S.B., abbot of St. Meinrod's abbey and seminary in Indiana. It was one of the most successful retreats that has been held at Mt. Angel.

At the regular business meeting of the Retreat guild, all the officers were reelected: P. N. Smith, of Mt. Angel, president; Alois Keber of Mt. Angel, secretary-treasurer, and Edward Schumacher of Portland, Leo Sanders of Tillamook and Tom Windishar of Salem, vice-presidents. Rev. Father Alcuin, O.S.B., of Mt. Angel, has been the spiritual director of the organization for the past twelve years. An important committee was appointed to study further the possibilities of spreading the retreat movement among the laymen of the state. Joseph Van Hoomisan, George Mangus, and Joseph Bechtold, all of Portland, are on this committee.

The purpose of the retreat movement is to give to laymen, Catholic or non-Catholic, the opportunity of spending a few days at Mt. Angel college and seminary to devote their time in consideration of their religion and the influence and meaning it should have in their daily lives. Those who have visited Mt. Angel realize how suitably the school on the hilltop is situated for the purpose of study and mediation.

Canine Bites Girl in Face Leaving Scar

Independence—Miss Loetta Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Baker of this city, was badly bitten by a house-dog last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ray of this city, and the laceration on the face necessitated taking several stitches to close the wounds.

"Bozo", who is a family pet and has been friendly towards Miss Baker since a little puppy, was sitting in her lap at the time and seemingly without provocation snapped her in the face sinking his teeth into the lower lip and chin causing the flesh and skin to be separated from the lower gum and chin. The bull dog was just as much frightened over the act as Miss Baker. She was rushed to the doctor where her wounds were dressed and no serious results are expected, save for a possible scar.

Miss Baker is a school teacher and is here for the summer with her parents.

The dog belonged to the Ray family and is a favorite in the community, and has never shown any signs of being vicious.

NEBRASKA PEOPLE GATHER FOR DINNER

Silverton — A group of relatives honoring Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Parton, Wilbur, and the families of their two daughters who have come to the Silverton community from Wallace, Neb., during the month of May, gathered in the city park Sunday for a noon dinner and an informal social gathering.

Others present were Mrs. Etta Fanning, Lora, Wilda, Loretta and Charles, Mrs. Cora Ellen Umberhower and Roger; Howard, Harold and Hariand Agan, Mrs. Lillie Gilham and Mrs. and Mrs. James Gilham and Dannie of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Josmer and Allen, Jr., and Delores of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. John Parton and Darlene, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parton, Mrs. Mitt Smith, Mrs. Oliver Becken and Joyce, Ilena and Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gilbertson and Russell, Alberna and Bonnie, and a special visitor, Willard Perkins, 90 years of age, of Salem.

Woodburn Schools Add New Teachers

Woodburn — Three new teachers have been hired by the Woodburn school board. Miss Irene Greenbaum of Salem will teach English and dramatics at the high school. Frances M. Thompson of Silverton will teach the fifth grade and Mabel Diggerness of Silverton will teach the primary grade at the Lincoln school.

ATTENDING INSTITUTE

Oak Point — Kenneth H. Black, graduate of Oregon State college in electrical engineering, left Saturday accompanied by William F. Goetter of Corvallis for Los Angeles where they will attend the American Institute of Electrical Engineering. Goetter was president of the college unit and Black secretary in their senior year. They expect to be gone two weeks.

LIBRARIAN RECUPERATES

Monmouth—Miss Eloise Allor, city librarian, who underwent an operation for acute appendicitis the past week in a Salem hospital, was released from the hospital Sunday and is convalescing at her home here. Her sister, Miss Thelma Aller, is replacing her at the library.

LINN LIGHTENS RELIEF BURDEN BY ROLL CHECK

Albany — Relief dispensation in Linn county has been placed practically on a minimum basis, Caroline Doolittle, secretary of the Linn county relief committee, said Monday.

According to Miss Doolittle, relief service in the county may be regarded as so constituted now that no further reduction may be expected excepting insofar as persons who cannot work for a living are reduced in number or become in one way or another self-supporting.

Attainment of this status has come about through elimination of employable persons from the direct relief rolls, Miss Doolittle said.

As a consequence there are in Linn county only approximately 500 persons receiving relief, either in the form or direct relief or old age assistance. Until recently the old age assistance was provided entirely by the county in the form of pensions.

Of the 500, nearly 300 are old age assistance recipients, the remaining 200 being listed as unemployable relief cases, Miss Doolittle said.

This is the lightest relief load which has been carried here since the present public relief policy was adopted, the office records show.

Old age assistance payments to be paid July 1 will total $5,517, to be divided among 293 applicants, giving an average of $18.83 to each.

CIRCUIT RIDER PIONEERS MEET

Albany—The 15th annual memorial service in commemoration of the organization of the Providence Baptist church 83 years ago, by the Rev. Joa Powell, pioneer circuit rider, was held Sunday at an all-day session at the church. The Rev. Henry Albers of Albany who has been pastor of the church for many years, was in charge of the services. Those who took part in the program were Dr. F. W. Starring, Portland; L. S. Compton, Drain; J. L. Whirry, McMinnville, and Rev. LeRoy Croosley of Lebanon.

COOLEY IN "COOLER"

Albany—Kirk Cooley, who was arrested Monday on a drunk charge, pleaded not guilty in circuit court and his trial was set for 4 o'clock Monday. He was found guilty and fined $10 and sentenced to five days in jail. He did not pay his fine, so will spend an additional five days in jail.

FORUM WILL MEET

Albany—The annual meeting of Albany chamber of commerce is to be held at the Albany hotel Tuesday. Ex-Mayer George L. Baker of Portland is to be the main speaker of the meeting, which is to be preceded by a banquet.

Golden Rule Class Has Afternoon Tea

Monmouth—Twenty-five members of the Golden Rule Sunday school class of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. S. Skeels for the June Meeting. Mrs. C. C. Yeater, in the absence of Mrs. L. Waller, conducted the business meeting and devotional. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in visiting and entertaining. Each one present contributed to the impromptu program. Tea concluded the afternoon.

COLLEGE TERM ATTRACTS MANY

Corvallis—The six-weeks' summer term at Oregon State college, which opened with registration Monday morning, promises to be one of the largest in recent years if advance requests and registrations are an accurate indication of prospective students, according to Dr. M. Ellwood Smith, director.

One hundred and eighty-nine courses in 34 different departments will begin Tuesday. Requests for information concerning the summer session now number 200 more than at the same time last year. The meeting of the National Education association in Portland June 28 to July 2 and the national convention of the American Home Economics association at Seattle July 6 to 11 are bringing greatly increased numbers of inquiries from middle-western, eastern and southern states, Dean Smith says.

For the first time in the history of the college a four-week post session will be held from August 3 to 28. Courses will be offered in the school of education, and in the departments of bacteriology, botany, chemistry, entomology, geology, mathematics, physics and zoology, all in the school of science.

MID WEST CALLING SILVERTON PEOPLE

Silverton—Miss Josephine Brekke of the Silverton Penney store, and her mother, Mrs. T. J. Brekke, are planning a trip to Minnesota and Iowa. They will entrain from Portland July 4 and will visit relatives enroute, returning after five weeks' stay.

The M. C. Thompsons will leave July 5 for several weeks in various portions of the mid-west with relatives.

Mrs. Petra Johnson and her daughter, Miss Olga Johnson, are at Perley, Minn., for the summer. Miss Johnson has been a teacher in the local school for a number of years.

A. Ulvin and Mrs. Lee Ulvin-Smith, his niece, are in Bay City and Milwaukee with relatives and will also be in Minnesota for several weeks.

Mrs. C. Sjovangen and her daughter, Miss Verda Sjovangen, are at the Kanawka, Iowa, home of two sisters of Mrs. Sjovangen, Mrs. A. Scott and Mrs. William Gunsell, for an extended stay. Mrs. Gunsell has been very ill.

Gates—Clarence Johnson, who is employed in Eugene, is spending his vacation at the farm home near Gates harvesting his hay.

Convention Calls Leaders of Lodge

Silverton —Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Turner (Ardyth Drake) of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Gillispi of Coos Bay are spending the week at the home of Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Drake. They will attend the state Eagles convention. Turner is deputy state organizer of the Eagles, and Gillispi a member of the Coos Bay aerie, was the only Oregon delegate to attended the national convention at Dayton, Ohio, last year.

World War Nurse Receiving Bonus

STATE ROUTE DRAWS GROUP TO PORTLAND

Mt. Angel—At the regular noon luncheon and business meeting of the Mt. Angel Business Men's club which was held Monday in the Mt. Angel hotel, the election of officers was postponed and the present officers were asked to serve for another six months.

Several reports were made by the committee on roads. The highway commission has already made several surveys for a new state highway but Mt. Angel is working to obtain the highway route directly through Mt. Angel. The road committee which includes Paul Schwab, chairman, Alois Keber and Nick Kimlinger, and a number of business men will go to Portland Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock to attend the meeting of the state highway commission as an appointment was arranged for that time through H. B. Glaiser of Portland. It was decided that the club would pay the expenses of the committee.

Tentative plans are being arranged to hold a three-day flax festival. Although nothing definite was decided upon, the club will probably hold the festival before hop picking starts.

A general discussion was held on the night softball games which have aroused a good deal of interest since the floodlights were installed by the club. The schedule for the league games which was published at the beginning of the season will be followed at the Tuesday and Friday night games, but outside games will be scheduled on Saturday nights.

Scotts Mills—J. M. Groshong, one of Scotts Mills' oldest residents, was among those who attended the Pioneer gathering in Portland last week. Groshong makes a special effort to attend this gathering each year.
