Corvallis—When Company M, local unit of the Oregon national guard, arrived in Corvallis Tuesday afternoon following 14 days spent at Camp Clatsop they were entertained at a turkey dinner at a downtown restaurant. The enlisted men and officers were guests of Corvallis merchants. George Penon was placed in general charge of arrangements by the business men.

The weather at Camp Clatsop, the men reported, was good excepting a shower now and then on the day of the demonstration.

Mrs. Riches and son, Mrs. Lee Alfred and Bobby and Mrs. Alfred's mother and sister, spent 10 days at Seaside during the encampment and returned with the men.
