

LUTHERANS ARE URGED TO HEAR BIBLE PROGRAM

Silverton—The pastors of the three Lutheran churches are urging as many of their congregations as can do so to attend the opening day of the Bible institute at Colton when Rev. Ernest O. Larson of the Calvary Lutheran church of Silverton will give the initial address of the ten-day session.

Rev. B. A. Borrevik will speak in the Norwegian language at the morning service of the Calvary church. There will be no Sunday school or evening service.

"Christ Fulfills the Law," will be the topic of the worship hour of the Trinity Lutheran church, Rev. M. J. K. Puh, pastor. Sunday school and adult Bible classes are called at 10 o'clock.

Rev. J. M. Jensen of the Immanuel Lutheran church will conduct a Bible class in the Norwegian language at 10 o'clock and speak at the eleven o'clock hour in the English language.

Services are suspended Sunday morning at the Christian and Missionary Alliance, Rev. James A. Pointer, pastor. The congregation will be host to those attending the union meeting of the Methodist, Christian and Alliance groups with Rev. D. Lester Fields delivering the sermon Sunday evening at 8 o'clock on the subject, "This is True, Thank God."

Rev. D. Lester Fields will speak on "Isaac, The Well-Digger," Sunday morning at the Methodist church. Sunday school classes convene at 9:45 o'clock.

"Life," will be the subject of next Sunday's lesson of the Christian Science society of Silverton at 11 o'clock. Sunday school is at 9:45 o'clock.

C. Clark will direct the Church school of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ at 10 o'clock. Divine worship at 11 o'clock. Rev. A. L. Duval is pastor. Services are held in the MWA hall at the foot of High street.

Devotional services at 11 o'clock and Sunday school at 9:45 at the Calvary Pentecostal church. Rev. O. R. Cross, pastor. Special evangelistic and song service at the evening hour at 7:45 o'clock.

"Jesus Christ, the World's Personal Savior," will be the subject for the devotional discourse of Rev. Frank W. Zook of the First Christian church Sunday forenoon. The Bible school beginning at 10 o'clock which is setting a new record for summer attendance offers classes for all. Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock in the evening. Union services at the Christian and Missionary Alliance in the evening.

VACANT PROPERTY TO BE OCCUPIED

Silverton—One of the few vacant business lots in Silverton was sold Friday through the J. E. Hoemer real estate company to the Ames Hardware company. The lot faces Oak street, parallels the Ames hardware store and extends to the main business building of the Hardware and Furniture store opening on Main street.

Another sale of the week from the Hoemer office was the home on Welch street from the Nels Tokstad estate to Mr. and Mrs. Nels Tokstad, who are remodeling the house and redecorating.

Large Boulder Hits River Project Man

Independence—Roy Clarke broke a bone in his forearm while working on the reclamation work on the river. Clarke, with others, was hauling heavy rock on the reclamation and in some manner a large boulder rolled against his arm crushing the muscles and after X-ray pictures were taken it was revealed that a splinter had been broken from the bone in the lower arm which held the upper arm muscle. The injury is making satisfactory recovery.

Lyons—Miss Helen Bodiker of Mill City visited with her sister, Mrs. John Kunkle Thursday.

BARBARY COAST SHOWN IN MOVIES

GRANGER TEAM CHANGES DATE

Monmouth—The degree team of the Monmouth grange went to Falls City recently and put on the third and fourth degrees for a class of a dozen candidates. Among grangers present at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams, Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Adams, Brush college, Mr. and Mrs. Blair and Mr. and Mrs. Graves, Buell, and Holt Stockton and party from Sheridan.

Because the date for doing grange degree work at Buell was to have been the next night after the appearance at Falls City, it was by mutual agreement cancelled. The Monmouth team will put on the third and fourth degrees at Buell on the evening of July 28.

The Fourth of July picnic takes the place of the regular Home Economics club meeting which will not be held. The August club meeting will be with Mrs. J. L. Van Loan.

Saturday, July 25, is the date of the regular meeting of Polk county Pomona which is to be held in Falls City.

MEHAMA VACATION TEACHING STARTS

Mehama—Daily vacation Bible school classes are scheduled to begin Monday, July 27, at the church here, under the direction of Miss Alice Boyington.

Although many of the children have moved away during the summer, their number is replaced by a new group moving in. Considerable interest is being shown by the parents and children in the projects of the Bible school classes, as Miss Boyington, who taught here last year, is well known and liked.

As a special interest for some of the children, there will be old-fashioned painting pictures the creation and other pictures of the Bible.

Miss Boyington will be assisted by Ruth Moe.

Families Invited To Lodge Outing

Mill City—The annual picnic of the local Rebekah and Oddfellows lodges will be held all day Sunday at Taylor's Grove. All members, families and friends are invited to participate in the event, which will be featured by a 1 o'clock dinner served at a large table. The coffee and cream will be furnished by the lodges. Those attending are asked to bring a basket lunch sufficient for their own crowd. The committee in charge of the affair includes Mrs. W. W. Mason, Frank Taylor and Gus Koeneke.

Vacation Expensive

Mill City—The Mt. Angel Fire department was called out Friday noon when a 1935 Chevrolet, driven by Maurice Kely, an automobile salesman from Burns, ignited from a short circuit. The fire occurred on the Mt. Angel-Silverton highway about one mile south of Mt. Angel. Although the fire department reached the fire in record time, the damage on the car amounted to approximately $230. Kely is on his vacation and has been stopping at Silverton.

RELIEF CORPS MEETS

Silverton—The members of the Woman's Relief corps are holding an all-day session at the Knights of Pythias hall with a no-hostess luncheon at the noon hour and the business session following. Mrs. Jerry DeBart is president and Mrs. Frances Gourley is secretary.

Jefferson—Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Waterman of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Fontaine returned Wednesday evening from a motor trip in eastern Oregon.

FIRST SUMMER TERM IS ENDED

Independence—The six weeks term of summer school came to a close this week at the training school and the teachers and pupils celebrated the event by a picnic in the Dallas park.

The teachers will leave on their summer vacations this weekend and will be gone until about September 1.

Attendance this year at summer school reached the 100-mark with Mrs. Elsie Bolt as principal. The children gave a closing program Wednesday, each grade being responsible for some part in it. An all day picnic was given Thursday in the Dallas park where swimming and games were enjoyed. Parents and friends of the school provided transportation for the pupils and teachers.

Miss Pat Hendy, Miss Blanche Duguid and Miss Merna Fletcher were in charge of the summer school. The club will sponsor a cake booth at the state-wide picnic to be held at Senator McNary's farm, just north of Salem, Saturday, July 25, from 11 o'clock a.m. until 9 p.m.

Members of the pro-America organization are urged to be present to hear the talks given by Senator McNary and Dr. P. O. Riley and others. Mrs. Wayne D. Henry is president of the Polk county club and will be present.

MONMOUTH GROUPS UNITE FOR SERVICE

Monmouth—The churches of Monmouth, the Baptist, Christian and Evangelical, will hold union services Sunday evenings out of doors in the city commons, starting Sunday evening, July 19, at 7:45 p.m.

The principal feature of the service will be music and singing. Special local and outside talent will be heard as well as orchestra and band music with congregational singing of old time hymns. The pastors of the three churches, Rev. R. M. Britton, Rev. W. A. Elkins and Rev. A. N. Glenville extend a cordial invitation to all to come and enjoy fellowship in these out of door services.

Hawaiian Resident Honored With Lunch

Silverton—Among the social pleasures for Mrs. Clara Moses who is visiting in Silverton from Hilo, T. H., was the 1 o'clock luncheon and afternoon play with Mrs. Elsie Bolt, hostess. Mrs. P. A. Loar and Mrs. H. B. Latham won honors at play.

Others bidden were Mrs. Irving Napier of Hammond, Ky., a house guest of her sister, Mrs. P. A. Loar, Mrs. James Jenks of Albany, Mrs. Max Hubbs of Seattle, Mrs. L. C. Eastman, Mrs. George Hubbs, Mrs. C. W. Keene, Mrs. E. H. Banks and Mrs. D. McCleary.

Dever—Mr. and Mrs. George Little and son of Looking Glass, Ore., have been visiting relatives and friends in this community.

THIRD ANNUAL HOP FESTIVAL PLAN STARTED

Independence—Plans are underway for the third annual Hop Fiesta, which will take place here in the Hop Bowl the latter part of August.

The Hop Bowl, Inc., has been holding meetings on the matter and committees are being instructed as to their duties.

The property acquired for the Hop Bowl has been turned over to the city, to insure its ownership as a civic project. The association has been given a lease on the property for its maintenance and upkeep and it is eventually hoped that a well regulated city park can be made of it.

Ball games have been played there during the summer evenings and have attracted considerable crowds. The Jersey Jubilee was also held there and will no doubt be an annual event for years to come. Just what form the Hop Fiesta will take remains to be worked out by the association.

SPLASH PARTY HELD BY CHOIR MEMBERS

Silverton—Fifty members of the Episcopal choir and their families staged a 6:30 dinner and splash party at the Silverton park Wednesday night as an annual affair.

Fred Baker is director of the choir. Mrs. Edson Comstock is organist, W. E. Satchwell is president and Mrs. F. E. Sylvester is secretary.

Arranging the dinner and the entertainment features were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker, Mrs. W. P. Scarth and Mrs. F. E. Sylvester.

FISH SUMMER HOME ENDS CLUB SEASON

Silverton—The summer home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Fish, on the Abiqua, about 10 miles from Silverton, was the scene of the final meeting of the season of Ramona club of Ramona chapter, O.E.S., Silverton, Wednesday. A no-host luncheon was served at noon. Mrs. Errol Ross, president of the club, announced that this would be the final meeting until fall but plans for the fall and winter activities will be made during the summer.

Those present were Miss Ina Harrell, worthy matron of Ramona chapter; Mrs. R. E. Skaffe, Mrs. Elaine Cooper, Joan Cooper, Miss Elina Coope, Miss Helen Hall, Mrs. W. R. Tomlinson, the Misses Catherine and Jean Tomlinson, Mrs. W. Dale Lamar, the Misses Lucile and Phyllis Skaffe, Mrs. G. B. Sylvester and Mrs. Chauncey H. Whitman. An interesting out-of-town guest was Mrs. E. M. Moses, past worthy matron of Hawaii chapter No. 1, Hilo, Hawaii.

Figures are Given To School District

Albany—At a meeting of the non-high school board at its meeting Wednesday night it was revealed that it cost the taxpayers of this district $32,446.65 to educate 531 pupils in high schools within, and without the county last year. This is $1,241.06 less than last year's total cost, which was $33,687.70. It is subject to slight upward revision however, because the compilation lacks figures for an estimated 24 pupils attending Brownville high school, five at Jefferson high and one at Portland. No claims from those three schools have yet been made.

EXAMINER IS DUE

Woodburn—R. J. Dooley, examiner of automobile operators and chauffeurs, will be in Woodburn Tuesday, July 21, at the city hall from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Those wishing permits or licenses to drive cars should get in touch with Mr. Dooley at this time.

Gervais—Benjamin Molson of Patton, Calif., is here to spend two weeks visiting his parents and other relatives.

Woodburn Grangers Will Meet Tonight

Woodburn—A social meeting of Woodburn grange No. 79 will be held tonight at the grange hall to which the public is invited. The farmers of the community are especially urged to be present to plan for the exhibit of farm products at the community fair which is to be held in October sponsored by the Businessmen's club, the grange and the Garden club.

An interesting program has been arranged and ice cream, cake and coffee will be sold. The meeting will start at 8 o'clock.

KLOETSCH CLAN HOLDS REUNION

Mehama—The first reunion of the Kloetsch clan gathered in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alois Titze was observed by an all-day meeting and picnic in the grove at Mehama.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Alois Titze, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Titze and daughters Edith and Violet and son Eldon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crook and son, Clifford, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Goodell, all of Mehama, Miss Frances Titze, Mrs. Bertha Fox and family, and Mr. and Mrs. John Kloetsch of Portland, Miss Frances Doerfler, Mrs. Marjorie Doerfler, Mrs. Martin Doerfler, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Doerfler, Anna Doerfler, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Doerfler and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Doerfler and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Doerfler, Jr. and daughter, all of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. John Zimmerman and Mr. and Mrs. John Sandberg and family of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Downing and family of Fox Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Downing and family of Mill City, Mr. and Mrs. John Doerfler, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Doerfler and Mr. and Mrs. Elsie and family of Salem, Miss Paulina Kloetsch of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gansel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gansel and daughter, Doris of Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staab of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Wierls, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wierls, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wierls of Sheridan and Mrs. Nick Ritzinger of Ashland, Oregon.

NEWSBOYS INVITED TO PARK PROGRAM

Silverton—In a gesture to show appreciation for the good work of the Silverton newsboys of the past few years, the Royal Neighbor lodge group decided to give a banquet to the bearers of papers to their doors each day. The affair will be at 1 o'clock in the afternoon at the Modern Woodman hall preceding the regular club meeting in two weeks.

Each boy will be issued a special ticket to the dinner and will be asked to present it at the door.

Mr. Carl Lorenzen who declares "the boys never miss us with the paper," was instigator of the banquet idea.

Gervais—Mrs. Basil DeJardin has been suffering from an attack of quinsy. Dr. Titus found it necessary to lance her throat.

SOCIETY MEETS AT DAVIS HOME

Middle Grove—The Women's Missionary society held its July meeting in the form of an informal picnic motoring to Hopewell where they were guests for the day at the home of Mrs. Tillie Davis. The Davises were residents of this district for 25 years prior to their removal to Hopewell this spring.

Mrs. Lydia Scharf presided as program leader for the meeting with Mrs. Gladys Cagle in charge of the devotional services. The July Missionary calendar was given by Mrs. Ellen Walker, Mrs. Lillian Carver, Mrs. Daphne Randall, Mrs. Kate Schlarf and Mrs. Lena Bartruff. The study hour was devoted to two chapters of the new study book, "Toward a Christian America," with Mrs. Mary Wampler in charge.

A special collection was taken for the contingent fund in order that the delegates be assured of their expense money. Mrs. Vera Bassett and Mrs. Gladys Cagle will represent the Missionary society at the annual convention which is being held at Jennings Lodge, near Portland, this week.

Mrs. Lydia Scharf gave a resume of her impressions of Kagawa, whom she was privileged to hear speak during her recent appearance in Portland.

Mrs. Ellen Walker will be hostess for the group at the August meeting. At this meeting the members will observe the contribution to the Boy memorial mission which is 10 cents per member annually and is one of the projects the local society is sponsoring this year.

NON HIGH SCHOOL BOARD IN SESSION

Dallas—The non-high school board met in the office of the county school superintendent Thursday night. Contracts were let for the transportation of 173 students living in the vicinity of Salem, and 20 students in the south end of the county in the vicinity of Corvallis. These contracts are let to the school districts and in turn let to the low bidder. E. C. McClain was the successful bidder for the Salem haul. L. L. Ladd was awarded the Willamina and Sheridan transportation contracts.

No contracts were up for renewal in the Dallas and Independence districts as those let in 1935 were for a two-year period.

The board also ordered paid the second half of the tuition and transportation costs for the 1935-36 school year. The amount due for hauling was $6,672.95 and for tuition $19,759.91.

Church Group Meets

Gervais—The monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary society was held in the church social hall Wednesday with twelve members present. Mrs. Virginia Booser conducted the business meeting and led the devotional service. Refreshments were served the committee, Mrs. A. B. Minaker, Mrs. A. R. Sigmund and Mrs. Charles Vogt.

Nemo Sewing Club To Picnic Sunday

Hazel Green—The Nemo Sewing club will hold its annual picnic at the Hazel Green park. As is the usual custom members are asked to bring a basket lunch and table service for their own family.

In charge of arrangements for the picnic are Mrs. Edward Dunnigan Jr. and Mrs. Mildred Kittleson. The picnic will also be in the form of a farewell to one of the club members, Mrs. Caroline Asplund, who is leaving soon for an indefinite stay in South Dakota with relatives.

MARION DEMOS EXPECT CROWD

Silverton—Extensive plans are well under way for the Marion county democratic picnic to be at all day affair of Sunday, July 25 with a record crowd looked for. This is under the auspices of the Marion County Democratic society.

Among well known people invited to take an active part in the day's proceedings are Governor Martin and W. L. Gosslin. A special invitation has been extended the Willamette Democratic society of Portland to attend the picnic.

The program will follow an early afternoon basket dinner and will consist of a concert by the 4-L boys band, directed by Joe Hassenstab vocal selections, and several talks by prominent democrats.

George Custer is general chairman of arrangements, and is assisted by H. Lockren, W. S. Jack and Scott McPike.
