PIONEER TRIBE GETS TOGETHER AT PARK SUNDAY

Descendants of Robert McAlpin and his brothers-in-law, Lewis Jones and Jabes Terhune, will hold their annual clan gathering in Silverton city park Sunday.

OUTDOOR MEALS ARE TAKEN FOR CURE OF HEAT

Dallas—With old So. holding sway Sunday, the city park was the mecca for a number of picnics, some of them annual family reunions and quite a few impromptu affairs at the last minute when the prospect of eating indoors was none too inviting.

The custodian of the park, Walter Bird, reported that at 3 o'clock in the afternoon 172 cars were parked around the circular driveway which graces the park. Among the larger gatherings were the yearly get-together of the descendants of John L. Hyde, a former druggist of the city in the 50's, the annual family meeting of the Stinnettes, a pioneer community picnic in celebration of the birthdays of Frank Domaschok and Fred Dornhecker, the Turn-key clan reunion, the Martin family reunion and the Riggs family reunion.

SIMPSON CLAN HOLDS PICNIC

Zena—A representative group of the clan of William and Mary Simpson, who crossed the plains to Oregon from Platte county, Missouri, in 1848, gathered at the state fairgrounds for the annual reunion last Sunday. Officers elected for the year are John Simpson of Amity, first president of the clan reunions, president, succeeding Mrs. W. N. Crawford; Etha Simpson of Amityville, secretary-treasurer, succeeding Mrs. Clyde Blivens; Sybil Simpson was retained as historian. A no-host picnic dinner served on long tables under the large oak trees preceded an afternoon of reminiscences of olden days as told those present by their forefathers.

John Simpson gave a brief resume of the family life of Phil Sheridan. The youngest person attending the reunion was Alice Catherine Haldeman, three months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Haldeman (Alice Crawford), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Crawford; and the oldest was James H. Simpson, 79, son of David Simpson who helped build the city of Salem.

HEALTH CLINIC HAS ELECTION OFFICERS

Aurora—Fifteen women, including two teachers, Miss Johnson of the Butteville school and Mrs. Willard Hunt of the Aurora school, attended the county health clinic at the home of Mrs. P. O. Ottoway.

A business meeting was held at which reports of last year's work were read. Election of officers for the coming school year followed. The officers are Mrs. P. O. Ottoway, president; Mrs. E. D. Carver, Donald, vice-president; Mrs. Walter Grim, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. F. C. Renfrew, recorder.

Bennetts Entertain In Honor of Browns

Dallas—In compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brown of San Diego, Calif., and former residents of this community, Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Bennett entertained a group of friends at supper Sunday evening. Place cards were set for Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bales, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell and daughter Roberta of Perrydale, Mrs. Rena Bush of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Domaschok, Mr. and Mrs. I. L. McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Helgeson, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hoiter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stinnett, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Blanchard, Mrs. Jack Brown of Falls City, Frank Cole, the honor guests Mr. and Mrs. Brown and the host and hostess. The visitors are leaving this week for San Diego.

Rutschman Escape Held Narrow One

Central Howell—Roy Rutschman had a very narrow escape from possible serious injury recently when he fell from the hay baler on which he was riding in crossing a ditch, and fell directly in front of the wheel. One of the other men called to the driver of the tractor which was pulling it, and the machine was stopped before it ran over him. But the wheels of the baler were pushing his body along the ground and would soon have caught him. He was bruised but no serious injury resulted from his experience.

LOONEY TRIBAL REUNION DRAWS CROWD TO PARK

Jefferson—Descendants and relatives of Jesse and Ruby Bond Looney and of William Looney, pioneers of 1843 and 1848 respectively, met at Hazel Green park Sunday for their annual reunion. One hundred were seated for the picnic dinner which was preceded by prayer by Miss Hazel Freese.

Last Summer Term Is Opened Monday

Monmouth—The second and concluding term of the summer session of Oregon Normal school opened Monday. The five weeks' term which does not include the practice teaching for the students, always attracts less students than does the first term of the summer quarter or the regular year. The training school also ceased its activities for the summer.
