

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by ROSENA BYRE, Phone 3373

General White Guest of Honor

National guard officers and friends from all over Oregon journeyed to Camp Clatsop Saturday evening for a surprise birthday party for Major-General George A. White, who is there in connection with the division staff training exercises.

The visitors surprised General White at camp headquarters and presented him with a birthday cake. General White cut and distributed the cake, following which the party adjourned to two mess halls which were thrown open for the occasion, where they enjoyed dinner. General White was also presented with several gifts.

Luncheon Slated For August Fourth

The Greater Oregon association will sponsor a luncheon at the Quille Tuesday, August 4, it has been announced. The affair is being arranged in compliment to prospective University of Oregon students. Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration at the university, will speak on "Higher Education."

Those wishing tickets may obtain them from members of the directorate, which includes Zolite Volchok, Mary Frances Henderson, Doris Drager, Margaret Bell, Helen Wiedner and Walt Cline.

Fidelis Class Has Gay Party

The Fidelis class of the Jason Lee Memorial church was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rehlfuss at their country home Friday evening. A picnic supper was served. During the evening games and music were enjoyed.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klempe, Mrs. George Naderman, Mrs. Elton Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lange, Joan and Robert Lange, Mr. and Mrs. Bonner, Donna and Robert Bonner, Edna McElhanev, Elle Cummings and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rehlfuss.

Mrs. I. W. Clarke Gives "At Home"

Mrs. I. W. Clarke is issuing invitations through the press to an informal "at home" Thursday from 2 to 5 and 7 to 10 o'clock.

The affair is being arranged in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Eby of Missoula, Mont. Mrs. Eby and Mrs. Clarke are sisters. The visitors will leave for their home Saturday.

Typical Mother To Be Chosen

The search for the typical mother depicting the pioneer spirit, will be brought to a close in Salem Thursday night at the chamber of commerce rooms when a candidate will be chosen.

The contest winner will be among the women from many other cities to be honored at the Whitman Centennial, which will be in Washington August 13-16 in Walla Walla.

Salem friends of Mrs. John Goss of Marshfield will be interested to learn that she spent last week in Portland. With her daughter, Miss Barbara, she will take up her residence in Portland early in September.

Friends are greeting Mrs. Fred Barker upon her return from a 10 weeks' visit in Pittsburgh, New York and Minneapolis.

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fry are expected home Saturday from a six-weeks' trip by auto through a number of mid-western states and Montana, where they visited relatives.

On the fourth of July the Frys and Leslie McCall, also of Silverton, attended the mid-western branch of the Grinde clan at a family reunion at Colton, South Dak. The occasion was the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grinde, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Fry.

The reports of the reunion stated that the temperature for the day in the park where the affair was held had lowered to 108 degrees.

Central Howell—Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Wikoff and young son Jackie of Pasadena, Calif., and Vern E. Wikoff of Los Angeles, have returned to their homes following a vacation spent with various relatives in and around Salem.

Their visit primarily was to see their mother, Mrs. Ella A. Wikoff, who makes her home with the J. C. Tibbetts in South 12th street, and also visited with their sister and family, the Alvin Krugs of Brush Creek, and their brothers and families, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wikoff and Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Wikoff and children, all of Salem.

Other relatives visited included their aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Adams of Salem, and their cousins, the Frank Ways of Central Howell.

The Wikoff family formerly lived at Hayesville where Francis, better known to most of his friends as Jack, was a pupil in the school there. This was the first visit to Oregon for Mrs. Francis Wikoff.

Knitted Hat, Matching Bag Make Smart Accessories

With a gay tilt to its brim, this shell pink crocheted sports hat is ready for a debutante's day in the country. Both it and the matching pouch bag are made of knitting and crochet cotton.

Newcomer Honored at Tea This Afternoon

Old Friends Greet Mrs. Walter Socolofsky Upon Her Arrival in Capital

Mrs. Walter Socolofsky, who has come to the capital from Eugene to reside, is being feted with a beautifully arranged tea this afternoon by Mrs. George Weller, Mrs. John R. Caughell, Mrs. Frank Chapman and Miss Marie Churchill of Portland. The affair is being given at the Weller home and members of the younger married and debutante set have been bidden to greet the newcomer, who once made her home here and will be remembered as Alice McKinnon.

The hostesses and the honored guest are receiving informally in the drawing room. Assisting them are Mrs. Dolph Craig and Mrs. Karl Becke. The serving table is centered with a striking arrangement of water lilies. Dispensing hospitality are Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, Mrs. Willard Marshall, Mrs. Richard Slater and Mrs. James R. Humphrey.

Serving are Mrs. Raymond Bonestille, Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mrs. John Griffith and Miss Josephine Baumgartner.

Salem Girl Wedded July 10

Miss Jill Aloop, daughter of Mrs. G. C. Larkin of Salem, and William P. Van Deusen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Van Deusen of St. Paul, Minn., were married July 10 at the First Methodist church in Vancouver, Wash., the Rev. Martindale Woods officiating.

The Misses Hazel and Mabel Aloop were their sister's bridesmaids. Fred Holdenbrook served as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Deusen will be at home at the Iris apartments, Portland, until August 15, when they will go to St. Paul to reside.

Miss Mabel Haldeman left for her home in Philadelphia this morning after visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haldeman, on Salem Heights. Miss Haldeman had not seen her brother for the past 25 years. En route home she will visit in California and will also stop at the Grand Canyon.

Aurora—Following her usual custom Mrs. Frances Green entertained informally Wednesday. Complimenting the guests, Mrs. Green and her house guest, Miss Adona Cochran, were hostesses at a supper which was served on a large table on the wide veranda overlooking the Willamette river. A birthday cake was cut and served by Mrs. U. Eilers, whose anniversary occurs within the week.

The guest list included Mrs. Frances Green, Miss Adona Cochran of Salem, Mrs. C. P. Shewey of Canby, Mrs. J. W. Sadler, Mrs. U. Eilers, Mrs. F. C. Renfrew, Mrs. Frank McAllister and Frank, Jr.

Schilling

rich in flavor

Pepper

WOOD BROS.

Green Stamps every day. Double every Wednesday

Groceries - Meats - Vegetables
155 N. Commercial - Phone 9164

Junior Woman's Club Has Picnic

The Salem Junior Woman's club will entertain with a picnic in the Silverton park Wednesday evening. Members and their guests are asked to assemble at the Woman's clubhouse in North Cottage street at 6:30 o'clock and go to Silverton from there.

The directorate includes Miss Nadine Lynn, chairman, Miss Irma Himmel, Miss Olga Janek, Miss Josephine Schanep and Mrs. Joseph Young.

Gentry-Wallace Reunion Held

Two pioneer families, Gentry and Wallace, held their annual reunion Sunday in the West Salem park. Election of officers for the coming year followed the dinner. Mrs. Herbert Misson was elected president and Caroline Patterson secretary. The clan will meet in July 1937 at Hazel Green park.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Holmes, Mrs. D. E. Apple, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Dinsmore, Meda Jensen, George Finger, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. William Boehlander, C. O. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Clark, Ploy Potter, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Larkin, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bels of Harrisburg, Mrs. J. B. Covey, Caroline Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Misson of Salem; Mrs. Fred McNealey, Robert McNealey, Betty Keebler, Leila Wright, of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Edwards, Patsy and Billy Edwards, W. L. Wallace of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallace, Guy Gentry, Corvallis; Mrs. Alice Black of Topeka, Kans. Mr. and Mrs. John Drum of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gentry, Olin Gentry, Beatrice Gentry of Scio.

Guild Sponsors Garden Tea

The American Lutheran Guild will sponsor a garden tea at the home of Mrs. Claude H. Glenn, 970 E street, Wednesday afternoon. Assisting Mrs. Glenn in receiving will be Mrs. L. J. Stewart and Mrs. P. W. Eriksen.

Mrs. E. H. Thompson and Mrs. G. L. Bartell have been asked to dispense hospitality at the tea table. An interesting musical program is being arranged.

Allisons Moving To Walla Walla

Mrs. James N. Allison has returned to Portland after extended visits with her son-in-law and daughter, Colonel and Mrs. J. E. Pickett, in Texas, and her son and daughter-in-law, Captain and Mrs. Philip Waley Allison, in Fort Lewis and is again occupying her home in Portland Heights.

Colonel Pickett has been assigned for duty at the Presidio of San Francisco, where he will be stationed after August 1, and Captain Allison has been transferred to Walla Walla, Wash., where he will report about the first of September. Mrs. Allison will be remembered by Salem folk as Sally Lanaine.

Salem friends are happy to learn that Miss Ruth Vance and Miss Muriel Bentson sailed from Honolulu Saturday aboard the steamer, Malolo. Miss Vance expects to spend the summer with her parents, Prof. and Mrs. H. T. Vance of Corvallis.

The White Shrine of Jerusalem is sponsoring its annual picnic Friday night at the Polk county country place of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Henry.

Mrs. Henry is in charge of the picnic and Miss Constance Kantner is arranging a program. Arthur Moore will be in charge of transportation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Wilkins had as guests over the week-end their nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Williams and daughter, Shirley, of Oelwein, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bellwell of Tacoma.

Camp Santaly NEWS

By HELEN RALPH

The first week's campers have closed a very successful camp. The activities finished with an effective ceremonial in the moss cathedral.

Girls taking part in the ceremonial were Laura Jean Bates, Janice Nelson, Betty Zo Allen, Shirley Parker, Edith Mosley, Dorothy Dingle, Jean Busick, Marian Moore and Barbara Compton.

Friday night the girls took the first overnight hike of the season. They left after the supper hour, carrying their bedding to a point not too far from the camp, returning next morning for breakfast. Leaders in charge of the hike were Barbara Compton, Genevieve Selander, Dorothy Dingle and Mary Eason.

The last newcomers have arrived for the second week's camp. After Sunday night's campfire, organization for the next week will be complete. This week we have the pleasure of having Mrs. Elliot of Mouth in our camp mother. One new leader has also been added to the staff, Miss Ruth Yocom.

Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Miss Patsy Livesley, Mrs. Conrad W. Paulus and three young sons, left Monday morning for a stay in Vancouver, B. C. with Mr. and Mrs. George De Beck and the Thomas DeBeck Livesleys.

The Sons of Veterans will meet in the armory this evening at 7:45 o'clock.

The Laurel Social Hour club will entertain with a picnic at the Glen Adams home Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. A no-host supper will be served and those attending are also asked to provide their own table service. All families in the neighborhood are invited to attend.

The annual Pine Valley picnic will be held at the Henry Leap home in Turner July 26. It has been announced. All former Pine Valley residents are invited to attend. Those attending are asked to provide their picnics and table service.

Silverton—Rudd Bentson spent the week-end at Breitenbush Hot Springs visiting with his wife and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sonny Bentson of Salem, who are spending their vacation at the springs.

Mrs. Hughes Honored With Gift Evening

Woodburn—Mrs. Hugh D. Hughes was honored with a gift shower at her home east of Woodburn Friday evening. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bonney and Richard of Silverton, Mrs. Rose P.A. of Oregon City, Mrs. Willis Yoder of Aurora, Mrs. Edward Oberst and son Jack Edward of Burns, Mrs. Kenneth Isham of Brooks, Mrs. Clara Yoder of Portland, Mrs. Guy Kraiger of Hubbard, Mrs. Lewis Lent and Mrs. Noles of Canby, Mrs. Russell Yoder and daughter Sylvia Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Nelson, Mrs. Dennis Froemke, Miss Hilda Trullinger, Mrs. Soren Nelson, Miss Floris Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones, Betty and Irene Jones, all of Woodburn, and Mrs. Hughes.

INFANT BAPTIZED
Mt. Angel—Loreen Ann was the name given to the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ertel when she was baptized Sunday morning in St. Mary's Catholic church by Rev. Father Idephonse, O.S.B. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schwab were sponsors.

MOTOR TO SHELTON
Central Howell—A group of people composed of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hillman, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore

SPECIAL! Our usual wave 75¢ complete 75¢
Perm. Oil Push Wave—1.50 Complete

Castle Permanent Wavers Co. 307 1st Nat'l Bank Bldg.—3663

Vacation time on top of the world

Enjoy care-free days in modern, cozy Chalet-Bungalow Camps. Located in the heart of the Canadian Rockies these Camps consist of a central community Chalet, surrounded by log or rustic cabins. From the strategic points, listed below, all of this fascinating Alpine vacation-land may be visited and explored.

LAKE WAPTA	YOHO VALLEY
RADIUM HOT SPRINGS
LAKE O'HARA	MORAINNE LAKE
MOUNT ASSINBOINE LODGE

Chalet-Bungalow Camps appeal particularly to lovers of outdoor life who like to come back from a trail ride, hike or mountain climb to find a comfortable bed, cozy quarters, congenial company and hearty meals. A real vacation, at home costs—$5 per day, $21.50 per week. American plan. Low Round-Trip Rail Rates now. All information, literature and reservations at our offices.

CANADIAN PACIFIC

W. H. DEACON, Gen'l Agt. Pac. Dep. 418 S. W. Bldg. (Opp. Bank Bldg.) Phone 55-2827, Portland
CANADIAN PACIFIC TRAVELERS' SERVICE OVER THE WORLD'S NETWORK

SAVE on food

Don't let the high cost of feeding your family discourage you. There's still one delicious food that hasn't gone up in price. Kellogg's Corn Flakes—nourishing and rich in energy—are one of the biggest values you can buy. Ask your grocer for Kellogg's, and serve them often.

Nothing takes the place of Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

Roberts Club Holds Outing at Resort

Roberts—The G. T. club went to Silver Creek falls on a picnic. Basket lunch was served at 1 o'clock. During the afternoon part of the group hiked to the North falls. Those present were Mrs. Alice Coullidge, Mrs. S. L. Davenport, Mrs. Bud Stutesman, Mrs. E. A. Goodrich, Mrs. Calvin Bressler, Mrs. John Orsborn, Mrs. Forest Edwards, Mrs. Robert Judson, Mrs. Clifford Thomas, Mrs. A. W. Blankenship, Mrs. M.

STUFFELS ON TRIP

St. Paul—Mr. and Mrs. Basil Stuppel and their daughters, Anna May, Dorothy and Beatrice, left Tuesday to motor to Condon and Washington where they will visit with relatives and will be gone for a week.

PERMANENT WAVES

WAVOLA Complete $1.00
Oil Waves $1.75 to $3.25

OREGON BEAUTY SHOP
4th Floor Oregon Bldg. Ph. 3754

PIMPLES

itching and burning of pimples, rashes, eczema relieved by

CUTICURA

SOAP and DRESSING

It's an easy matter to keep cool in---

LINEN, EYELET, VOILE, BATISTE, NET, LACE---

and many other sheers to be found at Miller's this week...

$1.98 $2.95 $3.95 $5.95 $7.95 $10.95

Yes, it's an easy matter to keep cool provided your frocks are air-cooled such as you'll find in our collections of sheers this week. From dainty nets and organdies to lace knits and eyelets, here are dresses made by Nelly Don, Sunbeam, Louise Peters and others equally as famous for style and fashions. Shop Miller's Apparel Floor tomorrow for cool frocks... the store is cool... the fitting rooms are cool... your comfort comes first at Miller's.

You'll Look Your Best in a WEBFOOT (Figure Control) Swim Suit

$3.95
$2.98

Be fitted in an elegant swim outfit at a very low cost! These are made by that well known swim suit maker that is on the tongue of everyone that swims—So indulge your taste for smart swim suits, whether two piece or one piece at the featured prices—$2.98 and $3.95.

SALE OF Slacks!

$1.59

Slacks for the Beach, for the mountains or for home utility wear are to be found in this sale of Slacks at $1.59 beginning tomorrow! Light checks and novelties in grey or light browns and tans. All sizes.—2nd floor.

Slack Sandals

Your feet will be "licked to death", so to speak, in these slack and pajama sandals in high Mexican or Egyptian colors..... $1.29

Smart Cotton Mesh undies of youthful brevity that will keep you cool and collected this summer. Won't stick on hot, muggy days and can be laundered without qualms.
Brief 75¢ Bandeau 65¢

Miller's

SALEM, OREGON