able to coach their teams in a game Wednesday night following action of President W. C. Tutile of the Pacific Coast league in lifting auspensions from the managers.

Lelivelt was suspensed for 15 days last week in San Dieso while Killefer was banned Friday in Portland. Tuttle said he was unprepared to end the 30-day suspension of Jimmy Reese, Angel second baseman, who was one of the three men penalized by Tuttle in the San Dieso fracas with Umpire Hollia Leske. Tuttle intimated that Reese might not serve full time.

Arnold Statz, ending a five-day suspension, will be in the lineup when the Angels and Sacs tangle in a doubleheader tomorrow night at Wrigley field.
