Surprise Party Fetes Mrs. Smith

A group of Salem matrons arranged a clever surprise party last night in compliment to Mrs. Alzora Smith. The affair was a housewarming given at Mrs. Smith's home in North Winter street.

Bride was in play for several hours and a gift shower honored Mrs. Smith preceding a late supper.

Those present were Mrs. Smith, Mrs. William Schlitt, Mrs. W. J. Grigg, Mrs. Roma Hunter, Mrs. Lynn Lambeth, Mrs. H. L. Staver, Mrs. L. B. Gilbertson, Mrs. Harlan Brock, Mrs. Lorenz Davis, Mrs. Harrie Lietz, Mrs. George Forge and Mrs. Yale Brooks.

Miss Lydia Childs Bride of D. Isom

At an attractive home wedding Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock Miss Lydia Childs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Childs, became the bride of Dorsey Isom, son of Mrs. Savoli Isom of Brownsville.

Rev. Carl Miller, uncle of the bride and pastor of the Friends church of Newberg, performed the ceremony before the immediate relatives of the couple. The couple stood before an improvised altar of gladioli and roses.

The bride wore a gown of flowered chiffon and a corsage of Tallahassee and sweet peas. There were no attendants.

For traveling the bride chose a smart suit of white linen. After wedding trip along the Oregon coast the couple will be at home in Brownsville. Mrs. Isom will teach in the Brownsville high school for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Isom is an alumna of Willamette university and was prominent in campus activities. She was a member of Delta Theta Gamma and Alpha Kappa Nu, scholastic honorary. Mr. Isom was educated in the Brownsville schools, and has been in business there for several years.

The Women's Home Missionary society of the state of Oregon will hold the annual district rally at the First Methodist Church Thursday August 27. Reverend James E. Milligan, Reverend Lynn A. Wood, and Reverend Dean C. Poindexter will assist with the program. Out of town speakers will be Mrs. Ruth L. Reed of Portland and Mrs. E. J. Maple of Forest Grove. All district officers will be seated on the platform and will take part in the program. Mrs. M. C. Findley and Mrs. S. W. Hall will lead the devotionals and contribute several musical selections. A round table discussion will be conducted by the members.

Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin left this morning for Agate Beach where they will be the guests of L. H. Tarpley at his cottage for the week-end.

Oregon State Couple Married

At a home wedding August 14 at 2:30 o'clock Miss Marjory Frances Ebert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Ebert of Echo, became the bride of W. Arthur Heacock, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Heacock of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Heacock both attended Oregon State college and are well known among college circles here. Mr. Heacock was graduated last June and is a member of Beta Kappa.

The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Felthouse, Miss Lillian Heacock, Miss Lois Bates and Miss Leone Hayden. Arnold Ebert, brother of the bride, was best man.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held, after which the couple left for Seattle to reside. Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Heacock and Miss Lillian Heacock of San Francisco, Mrs. F. G. Stiff, George Stiff, Margaret Veness of Portland, and Captain H. L. Beard of Corvallis.

Beta Chis Entertained

Miss Margaret Ayers and Miss Charlotte Eyre entertained members of Beta Chi sorority last night at the Ayers home in South Cottage street. Rushing plans were discussed by the group and bridge was in play during the evening.

An informal supper was served by the hostesses late in the evening. Gladioli and sweet peas were attractively arranged about the rooms and on the serving table.

Those bidden by the hostesses were Miss Esther Gibbard, Miss Margaret Nunn, Miss Margaret Savage, Miss Jeryme Upston, Miss Margaret Dooce, Miss Jane Flaher, Miss Julia Johnson, Miss Helen Purvine, Miss Victoria Schneider, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Irma Oehler, Miss Melva Belle Savage, Miss Betty Dotson, Miss Margaret Gillette, Miss Mabel Lenz, Miss Gretchen Spencer, Miss Grace Bailey, Miss Gertrude Dalk, Miss Charlotte Kallendar, Miss Madelle Kappauf, Miss Helena Schneider and Miss Louise Wheelhouse.

Jefferson Couple Wedded Wednesday

Jefferson—Mrs. Hannah Smith and Irvin Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wright of Jefferson, were quietly married at the home of Rev. Rev. J. Merlin Hill, pastor of the Christian church, Wednesday evening. Rev. Hill read the impressive ring service in the candlelighted living room, in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wright and Mrs. J. Merlin Hill.

The bride was charming in an old rose lace dress. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wright left on a wedding trip by motor to points of interest in Oregon. They will make their home in Jefferson.

Mrs. Wright is well known here, having taught in the Jefferson grade school for the past two years.

Miss Evaline Gaw Guest at Oak Knoll

Miss Evaline Gaw, of Kiukiang, China, has been a guest the past week at the home of her uncle, M. I. Capps of Oak Knoll farm. Miss Gaw has been engaged in missionary work in China during the past twelve years, and on her return to her work, August 29, she will spend six more years in the Orient before another furlough is granted her.

Wedding at Overton Home

Woodburn—A quiet wedding took place at the home of Judge and Mrs. Hiram Overton Sunday at which the judge officiated, when Miss Elva Bower and Max A. Plevins, both of Portland, were married. The ceremony took place at 2 o'clock in the living room which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Attendees were Miss Lucy Frances Butler and Maurice Blevin, brother of the bridegroom, both of Portland.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Bower of Portland, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Blevins of Portland and is a nephew of Mrs. Overton. Light refreshments were served

Miss Newhouse Weds J. Menhart

Scio—Miss Bernice Newhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Newhouse of Springbrook, became the bride of Joe Menhart, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Josef Menhart of Scio, at a lawn ceremony Wednesday, August 19.

Rev. Carl Miller, pastor of the Newberg Friends church, read the ring ceremony.

The bride wore a suit of blue silk and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. Sanford Brown played the wedding march and instrumental music preceding the ceremony.

Following a buffet luncheon the couple left for the Oregon beaches. They will be at home at their farm four miles south of Scio.

Brothers, Sister Meet After 17 Years

Gates—A reunion of brothers and a sister for the first time in 17 years was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Asche, when John Kelly of Waldport, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kelly of North Santiam, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kelley of Portland, spent two days at Niagara. Mrs. Asche is a sister of the Kellys.

Relatives Guests At U.S. Rider Home

Gates—Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Rider of Niagara have as their guests Mr. Rider's sister, Mrs. A. M. Brown, of Stockton, Calif., and his nephew, Albert Bates, of Scio.

Mrs. Brown and the Riders attended the 50th wedding anniversary of another sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bates of Scio, recently.

After the ceremony and a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents in Portland at 4 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Blevins will make their home in Portland.

The Mothers' club of Alpha Phi Alpha will entertain with a smart benefit bridge tea Thursday afternoon, September 3, at the chapter house in North Summer street. Mrs. P. S. Anunson is in charge of arrangements.

Miss Josephine Cornoyer of Salem, Miss Anne Sifton of McMinnville and Miss Betty Kleinsorge of Silverton, who are on an interesting cruise to Panama and Havana, will arrive in San Francisco August 24 from New York on the Panama Pacific liner.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gile will entertain the Berean Bible class of Calvary Baptist church in their home on Boulder Knoll Friday evening, beginning with a 6:30 dinner.
