

LINFIELD POINTS TOWARD WILLAMETTE U. CONTEST

SEEK REVENGE FRIDAY NIGHT FOR DEFEATS

Somewhat chastened by the 33 to 0 thumping they received at the hands of the University of Portland last Saturday, the Linfield College Wildcats have set about making preparations to seek their revenge at the expense of Coach "Spec" Keene's squad on Sweetland field Friday night. Linfield was pointing toward the Bearcat tussle so fiercely, they entirely overlooked the game with the Pilots. However, Saturday's affair is a matter of history and has nothing whatsoever to do with the little affair on Willamette's campus this week, unless it is to make Coach Lever's squad more determined than ever to even up, as far as possible, the long line of defeat they have sustained.

Only once in a decade or more have the Wildcats been able to nail the hides of the Methodists to the fence. This year, however, is something else. Although Linfield will be compelled to face a weight handicap, a fast field which is in prospect for Friday night would make it possible for the invaders to put on their promised aerial show.

In George Harrington, Ed Haulding, Jack Barnes and Reynold Cook, Coach Lever has an extremely fast backfield—one capable of putting on an aerial show or running the ends when that seems desirable. Until recently Harrington was high scorer in northwest conference play. While Vernon Urel, sophomore center of Coach Keene's squad, sustained an injury to his heel in the Idaho game, it is not at all probable he will be out of Friday night's mix. The same thing applies to Paul Bennett, who came out of the Coyote melee with sore knee muscles. George Utley, alternate fullback, will probably hang up his suit for the balance of the season due to a back injury.

Friday night's game will mark resumption of athletic relations between Willamette and Linfield after a two year breach.

Strong Bearcat Flanker

GEORGE ABBOTT former all-city end from Benson Tech, Portland, who will probably get into Willamette's lineup against Linfield on Sweetland field Friday night. Abbott is a sophomore at the Bearcat school.

Galloping Ghost Of Illinois Football Fame Says Game Harder

By EARL HILLIGAN

Chicago, Oct. 21 (AP)—Take it from Harold "Red" Grange—the going is a lot tougher on collegiate football's big time circuit today than it was 12 years ago when he ran wild on the nation's gridirons as the famous Illinois "Galloping Ghost." Grange, the most publicized player football has known, has been out of the game as a player since 1924. But it's still his great love, and when he's through with his duties as assistant coach of the Chicago Bears, he enjoys studying intercollegiate events and their styles of play. And he sees a big difference in the game, in respect to offense, compared to the days when his number "77" meant trouble to the opposition.

"In the main, the running plays of today and when I played are practically the same," he said. "Lateral passes have opened up the game a little and some teams concentrate more on speed than on power, but the big difference I see is in the improvement in defense.

ALEXANDER MAKES JOURNEY TO SOUTH

Corvallis, Ore., Oct. 21 (AP)—Oregon State today experienced the greatest football boom in ten days with the positive announcement that Johnny Alexander, 147 pound chunk of ball carrying dynamite, would be back at his regular half back job for the UCLA game as Los Angeles Saturday.

Yesterday afternoon the slippery low-head from Pasadena ran wild in scrimmage against the reserves and freshmen.

The Beavers go south tonight.

Los Angeles, Oct. 21 (AP)—The powerful frame of John Zaby, 215 pound reserve fullback, may see better service Saturday when the U.C.L.A. Bruins meet Oregon State here. Zaby, a line smashing back on offense, has shown weakness in combating aerial plays.

Coch Bill Spaulding is experimenting with the idea of moving the big square-legged boy in to back up the line.

Jones Pins Hopes On Sophomore Team

Los Angeles, Oct. 21 (AP)—Southern California's chances of ending a three year victory "famine" in its gridiron relations with Stanford apparently rest with an array of sophomores.

Out of 25 men Coach Howard Jones is depending upon to defeat the Indians Saturday. 15 are serving their first season on the varsity.

out at a specified time and that players have retired.

Howard Lee (Bucky) Bryan, Tulane's flashy halfback, is back in the lineup after a year's absence. Bucky was forced out of school last year after he had been elected to captain the 1935 team. He attended summer school, made up the deficiencies and regained a place on the squad.

GAELS TO SHOW WARES TO HALF MILLION FANS

New York, Oct. 21 (AP)—St. Mary's travels east from California this week to meet Fordham's Rams in the major inter-sectional clash Saturday.

Although coming from a college of only 900 students, the Galloping Gaels will play before more spectators this year than any other American college with the possible exception of Southern California. Coached by Slip Madigan for 16 years, St. Mary's will play before a half million persons, according to conservative estimates. This estimated attendance total will cost the public $300,000—half of which goes to St. Mary's.

It is estimated the Gaels will show before 60,000 against the Rams, 75,000 against Marquette at Chicago, 30,000 against Idaho at San Francisco, 60,000 against Santa Clara at San Francisco, 30,000 against Alonzo Stagg's College of the Pacific, and 60,000 against Temple at San Francisco on Thanksgiving day. They already have played before 175,000 in their first four games.

The Marquette game is being sponsored by the Chicago Municipal Employees association which has 18,000 members. Every one of them is pledged to sell at least four tickets, or 72,000—leaving only 3000 to be sold at the gate.

Hopes of 60,000 for the Santa Clara and Temple games do not seem excessive in view of Santa Clara's undefeated and untied record—the only one on the Pacific coast—and Temple's coach Glenn "Pop" Warner's long feud with Madigan.

Because of games with Notre Dame and U.C.L.A., Southern California probably will outstrip St. Mary's for the season. Attendance for those tilts is estimated at 100,000.

ELLIOTT WINS OVER CASTLE

Taking the first and third falls with flintlocks, Harry Elliott not only flattened Bob Castle, but pleased a near capacity crowd of spectators at the American Legion wrestling show last night. The main display of fireworks, however, came during the 45 minute contest which brought together Dickie Trout and Jack Lipscomb. Lipscomb was awarded the match when he took the only fall of the evening. The decision, however, was far from popular with the fans who voiced their opposition in no uncertain terms.

During the temporary absence of Walter Achiu, referee, from the ring, having been tossed out by Lipscomb, Trout succeeded in pinning Lipscomb. Achiu was not there to see it and when he did get back through the ropes Lipscomb had managed to get on top of Trout. Achiu then patted Lipscomb's shoulders.

The "Dark Secret" or "Masked Marvel" or whatever he is termed succeeded in beating Jack Terry in the 30 minute preliminary.

WOLVES SEEK WIN OVER LUTHERAN 11

Monmouth—Ready "to do or die" in the grids, the Oregon Normal Wolves meet the Pacific Lutheran college gridmen on Bulter field Saturday afternoon, October 24, for the homecoming classic.

The Teachers will endeavor to wipe clean the 14 to 0 defeat they suffered at the hands of the Lutherans last year. It appears that Coach Al Cox has the man-power and the plays to do it this season although a tough encounter is expected.

The Wolves emerged from the Eilenburg fray with no serious injuries except for Anthol Riney who suffered a dislocated shoulder. This game marked the third victory for the Normal team this season out of their four starts.

Albany—Fresh from their 21-7 victory over the Salem high school football team last Friday night, the Albany high grid squad is working hard for the engagement with Bend high's Lava Bears next Friday night at Bend.

Monday's drill was light, but Tuesday intensive workouts were given the team. The Bulldogs will be put to their strongest test of the year against Bend, as the 154er is regarded by many as one of the top ranking teams of the state.

Oregon Tech Beaten By Albany Pirates

Albany, Oct. 21 (AP)—The Albany College Pirates found a soft spot in the football schedule last night and turned in an easy 27 to 9 triumph over Oregon Tech of Portland.

One touchdown came in the first period, another in the second and two more in the fourth. Ditphonso of Albany scored on a 50-yard run after receiving a pass.

A brilliant 40-yard pass from Sheriff to Boston gave Oregon Tech a brief stand on the Albany 23-yard line for its only scoring threat.

OREGON COACH DELAYS LINEUP FOR BLACKMAN

Eugene, Ore., Oct. 21 (AP)—The uncertain condition of fullback Tommy Blackman's leg was delaying the selection of an Oregon backfield to meet the Washington State Cougars here Saturday.

Col. Bill Hayward, trainer, gave the sophomore star a 30-50 chance to get back into the game. Coach Prink Callison said he would not name his combination until he knew definitely whether or not the youngster could start.

If Blackman plays, Arleigh Bentley will go back to quarter. Bob Bradlock and Jimmy Nicholson, the touchdown twins of the Idaho victory, appeared first choices as halfbacks.

Pullman, Wash., Oct. 21 (AP)—The kinks from their first California invasion of the season, Washington State's football team buckled down today for the first of three days' strenuous drill for a game with the University of Oregon at Eugene Saturday. No sooner had the Cougars gotten off the train yesterday than Coach O. E. Hollingbery put them to work perfecting a new offense.

"Don't let anybody tell you that Washington State is the team that 'tied the Trojans,'" he declared. "They're the team that 'tied' us. They never produced a scoring threat, and we threatened several times."

Ed Goddard, Escondido, Calif., quarterback, and Rodger Dougherty, fullback, suffered knee injuries in the U.S.C. game, and Bob Campbell, big guard from Enumclaw, Wash., was badly banged up. Goddard and Dougherty probably will play Saturday, but Campbell may be on the bench for two weeks.

ELEANOR WILL SEEK RULING ON POSITION

New York, Oct. 21 (AP)—Eleanor Holm Jarrett will wait until Avery Brundage retires from the presidency of the amateur athletic union and then ask the new A.A.U. regime whether she is a professional or an amateur.

"It's an embarrassing situation, but I really don't know where I stand with the A.A.U.," she said at her Long Island home today.

Back from the most successful vaudeville tour of her theatrical career, Mrs. Jarrett said the A.A.U. had officially barred her from European competition and had refused to give its sanction to an amateur meet in which she was entered after returning from the Olympics, but it had not declared her professional.

"I'm hoping for the best, but I'm prepared for the worst," she stated. "I definitely want to keep my amateur standing and see no reason why I should not. But if they declare me professional I will go on the stage with a vaudeville swimming troupe which will include most of the outstanding amateurs."

Mrs. Jarrett said her troupe probably would include Dorothy Poynton Hill, Jack Medina, Dick Degener, Marshall Wayne, Lenore Kight Wingard, Adolph Kiefer, Georgia Coleman and Jane Fauntz.

Turtle Race Causes Stir In Arkansas

Lepanto, Ark., Oct. 21 (AP)—Townfolk and farmers put aside their chores today to see the annual Main street terrapin derby run in a holiday atmosphere ruled by fervor and fair play.

In this village of 1195 residents each of the 220 hard-shelled entries had its backers but those who wanted to support their judgment of turtle flesh with cash had to make their wagers sub rosa.

Mrs. C. B. McClellan, wife of the mayor, declared a ban on betting and said the townswomen had seen to it that no one tampered with the nonchalant entries.

"But I really don't know," she added, "how anyone could 'fix' a terrapin derby."

The shellback sweepstakes has been a local event for several years. Crowds began gathering long before post time. School children were given a holiday.

Win Giese Captains San Mateo Juniors

Winnie Giese, former flanker for Salem senior high's football team, and now captain of the San Mateo junior college club, had the satisfaction of seeing his squad beat Marquette junior college 3 to 0 recently, according to information received by his father, San Mateo also has won over San Francisco junior college. Giese is considered one of the best ends in his conference.

Maple has selected Frank Chase, 155 pound quarterback, to do most of the throwing.

Jim Rogers, former Klamath Falls star, Cliff Collins, reserve quarterback from Roseburg, and John Wal-

Portland Citizens To Invade Seattle

Portland, Oct. 21 (AP)—Five hundred Portland citizens bubbling over with football enthusiasm, will leave here by train Tuesday for the challenge day trip to Seattle.

Seattle folk will be invited to come to Portland October 31 for the northwest football classic between the University of Oregon Webfoots and the University of Washington Huskies.

Tommy Luke, chairman of the Portland committee, said the University of Oregon band and the Portland Ad club gleemen would be aboard the northbound special.

WOODBURN HIGH PLAYS CANBY

Woodburn — The Canby high school football team will come here Friday afternoon to meet Eldon Cone's Woodburn Bulldogs in a contest which will have fourth place in the Valley league at stake.

All dope points to a very close, hard fought game with Canby having a slight edge according to comparative scores although both teams were defeated by Independence 7-0. Canby scored an upset last week by defeating Dallas 20 to 2 but Coach Adams' team was hampered by injuries and the game did not reveal the real strength of Dallas. Woodburn defeated Newberg 7-0 while Canby tied the Tigers, 6-6. Coach Cone has shifted several of his players with very good results. Pavelek played the entire game against Newberg and was one of the outstanding linemen. Seely, former tackle now playing fullback, has plenty of weight and is very hard to stop. He should be much more familiar with his new berth in Friday's game. Krupicka, shifted from full to quarter, is a very excellent blocker as well as line plunger and will aid the Bulldog cause considerably.

Batteson, fullback for Canby, is the man the locals will have to watch very closely if they expect to win. He is a very good broken field runner as well as line plunger and can also throw passes with great accuracy.

The probable starting line-up for Woodburn will be Shaw and Landsem, ends; Pavelek and Edwards, tackles; Voreis and Brunell, guards; M. Reed, center; Krupicka, quarter; Halter and Whitman, halves, and Seely full. The kickoff will be at 2:30 p. m.

Fight Game Reaches New Low, Portland

Portland, Oct. 21 (AP)—Fight enthusiasm in Portland slipped to new low point here last night when a handful of spectators saw Gene O'Grady, Ashland heavyweight, slip out a ten round decision against Tiny Cooper of Hubbard.

Eddie Norris, 135-pound Salem boxer, knocked out Young Listo, Filipino, in the second round of the wind-up.

Las were listed for backfield action. Collins sparked the team to one touchdown in the 12-12 tie against Southern Oregon Normal last week.

MAPLE PREDICTING AIR GAME FRIDAY

Corvallis, Oct. 21 (AP)—Football coaches seem to have a habit of making idle pre-game forecasts of passing attacks but Coach Howard Maple vows he is in earnest when he says the Oregon State rooks will take to the air in the "little civil war" tussle with the University of Oregon fresh on Bell field Friday night.

Maple has selected Frank Chase, 155 pound quarterback, to do most of the throwing.

Jim Rogers, former Klamath Falls star, Cliff Collins, reserve quarterback from Roseburg, and John Wal-

INJURIES AND DISCIPLINE HIT SALEM HI TEAM

Hit by injuries and disciplinary measures, Salem high school's griders will be at reduced strength when they play McMinnville Thursday night on the latter's gridiron. Bench- ed because they did not come home on the bus with the remainder of the team following the Albany game, Chapman and four others will not make the trip to McMinnville. The injury list contains Tom Hill, end; Spencer, tackle, and Miller, tackle. There is a possibility that Miller may be back in the lineup Thursday night.

With Chapman out of the backfield temporarily, Darrell Hasbrook will draw the main ball packing assignment. Hasbrook was a powerful offensive man during his Par-rish high school days, but has not carried the ball much since then. Teaming with Hasbrook in the backfield will be Cotew, Nelson and Moore. Moore will play the wing back position and Hasbrook tail back.

The players are coming to the realization that football is a tough game. Coach Hawk believes, if they hadn't reached that decision following the Albany game they have had it ground in during three hard work-outs this week. Special emphasis has been placed on tackling and blocking.

"We will get along O.K. providing none of the boys get hurt Thursday night," the coach cheerfully declared. "Of course we will be short of reserves, but I believe we will give the Grizzlies a good game."

Tommy Luke, chairman of the Portland committee, said the University of Oregon band and the Portland Ad club gleemen would be aboard the northbound special.
