San Francisco, Nov. 4 (P)—Dan-ger of violence hovered over the atrike-bound waterfront today, as the creeping paralysis of shipping continued to spread over the coun-

One peace move made late last night was considered a hopeful sign. when the joint maritime strike committee agreed to unload all perish-able foodstuffs from vessels tied up here. Union labor will do this work. But counter-basancing this development was a deadlock still in force on the question of furnishing skeleton "safety crews" for west coast ships at the docks.

Assistant Secretary of Labor Ed-ward P. McGrady continued to urge these crews be supplied by the unions, to avert possibility of vio-lence should ship-owners attempt to put non-union personnel aboard. A settlement on this question was considered near at one time in nego-liations, vesterday when reports

Union leaders demanded investigation of the reports and assurance attempt would be made to "blacklist" such strikers.
