

SOCIETY

By ROVENA EYRE

SOCIETY'S eyes today were cast on Corvallis and the big game. The annual football classic drew hordes of socialites to the Bell field stadium this afternoon. This evening cocktail parties and dinners will predominate the scheme of things when sports enthusiasts return to the capital.

Romance, too, has played a big part in the week's activities. Miss Priscilla Fry, member of an old and prominent Salem family, has announced the date of her impending marriage to William Hugh Shattuck of Portland, formerly of Salem, as December 5. The ceremony will be solemnized at "Bright view," the Fry residence, at 8 o'clock that evening.

Thanksgiving will tend to make capital city residents think primarily of home and the family hearth. Large dinner parties will be the order of the day next Thursday and that evening the younger contingent will make merry at the Junior Woman's club dance at Hazel Green.

Mrs. H. G. Mabson was hostess to members of her contract club and several additional guests at luncheon yesterday. Special guests included Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Thomas De Beck Livesley, Mrs. Lowell Kern, Mrs. John Carson and Mrs. Albert F. Berni.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet, Sr., will entertain with a large dinner Thanksgiving day in compliment to Miss Margaret Ardis Ulrich and her fiancé, Walter Williamson, both of Portland.

One table will be centered with white chrysanthemums and silver and blue appointments. The other table will be centered with a striking arrangement of fruit and tall yellow tapers.

Bidden are Miss Ulrich and Mr. Williamson, the honored guests, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Williamson, Mrs. T. A. Norwood, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Anders, Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. James Norwood, Miss Jean Anders and Roderick Norwood, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet, Jr., Mrs. J. A. Norwood and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet, Sr., the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad W. Paulus will entertain with a family dinner at their Fairmount hill place Thanksgiving day. Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas De Beck Livesley, Miss Patsy Livesley, Roderick Livesley, Tommy, Larry and Peter Paulus, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad W. Paulus.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., will be hosts at a large family dinner Thanksgiving day in their West Lefelle street residence.

One hundred new Girl Reserves will be welcomed into membership at impressive candlelight ceremonies to be held in the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. All interested persons are invited.

Miss Betty Taylor will have charge of placing the candles. Miss Margaret McCarty is in charge of the ushers and the music is being arranged by Miss Gwen Gallaher and Esther Peterson. Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, Y. W. C. A. secretary, is in charge of the general arrangements.

The Sketch class and the Painting section of the Salem Arts League will not meet until Monday evening, November 30. At that time members will be entertained by Mrs. E. C. Hathaway at her home at 7:30 o'clock.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Margaret Marzfield to Orin Otjen was made Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Otjen. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Marzfield and Mr. Otjen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Otjen.

Games were played during the evening, and the announcement was made in wrapped candies served during the supper hour. Miss La Verne Proctor and Miss Elizabeth Otjen assisting the hosts.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Otjen, Mr. and Mrs. Tennie Otjen, Miss Irene Marzfield, Orin Otjen, Miss Elizabeth Otjen, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nichols, Chester Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hamilton, Mrs. Elton Birch and Burrell Birch, Raymond Danielson, Newton Marzfield, Miss La Verne Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Marzfield, Miss Vivian Marzfield, Miss Emily Elossen and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Otjen.

Miss Virginia Cross will arrive home Wednesday from the St. Vincent's Nurses Training school, Portland, to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross.

Silverton—Miss Ruth Rue, superintendent of the Silverton General hospital, has returned to work from a two-weeks' vacation spent with her brother, Laurence Rue, and Miss Verda Oeder on an automobile and train trip as far south as Los Angeles.

Miss Rue arrived home in time to attend a number of social affairs in compliment to her sister, Miss Esther Rue of Salem, who left Wednesday evening for Minneapolis, where she will be married on November 24.

HERE 'N' THERE

FROM NEW YORK—comes word of Mrs. John J. Roberts and her daughter, Mildred Roberts, concert violinist. At present they are domiciled at 7 Park Avenue, after spending three months at Music Mountain, Falls Village, Connecticut. Mildred gave two concerts in Connecticut in October and this month she is to play with the Hartford Symphony orchestra as guest artist. The next few months Mildred will devote to going on tour in the South and Midwest . . . and a concert to follow at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York. Both Mrs. Roberts and Mildred have a tremendous yen to get back to Salem and their old friends—but with Mildred's concert appearances coming so fast it is doubtful if they will get here until at least next Spring.

BEING WELCOMED—are Colonel and Mrs. John Leader, who have arrived in Portland from Vancouver, B. C., where they have been visiting for a short time following their arrival from their home in England. Colonel Leader was in Oregon in the Spring, but returned to England and on this trip is accompanied by Mrs. Leader, who has not been in the state since their departure from this country to make their home abroad. The Leaders expect to visit in Salem, Dallas, and Eugene during their sojourn and will be warmly welcomed. (Continued on page 10, column 6)

TO PLAY CONCERTO

—Passage Studio
MISS ELIZABETH BOYLAN, brilliant young pianist, who will appear as guest artist with the Salem Philharmonic symphony orchestra when it gives its first concert of the season December 4.

The Delta Phi Mothers' club entertained with an informal tea Thursday in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church. Calling hours were from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock. The affair was arranged honoring the Faculty Women's club and Alpha Phi Alpha and Beta Chi mothers' clubs.

Mrs. M. C. Findley received the guests at the door and was assisted by Mrs. James McGilchrist, Mrs. David Pugh, Mrs. Carl Armpriest, Mrs. Sidney Stevens, Mrs. King Bartlett and Mrs. Stuart Johnson. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Charles Sherman, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, Mrs. Lee Unruh, Mrs. D. C. Burton, Mrs. O. W. Emmons, Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mrs. L. H. Laws, Mrs. H. S. Boshard, Mrs. W. H. Bretz, Mrs. O. H. Oehler, Mrs. Rose Babcock and Mrs. A. M. Chapman.

Holly and red candles were attractively arranged about the reception rooms and the tea table was centered with snowballs tied with red ribbons and flanked with red tapers. Mrs. W. H. Smith and Mrs. W. R. Speck were in charge of decorations.

A program was presented by Jeanette Scott, Elizabeth Boylan, Martha Hottel, Catherine Smullin, Ina Bennett and Martha Warren.

Presiding at the tea urns were Mrs. Fred Alban Weil and Mrs. Paul H. Hauser. Younger matrons assisting in the serving were Mrs. Otto Paulus, Mrs. George Rhoten, Mrs. Gus Moore, Mrs. Vernon Sackett, Mrs. Albert Cohen, Mrs. Robert Wolf and Mrs. Roy Lockenour.

Among those motoring to Corvallis for the Oregon State-Oregon football classic today were Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Long and Miss Dorothy Alexander.

Interesting visitors in the capital this week-end are Commander and Mrs. D. A. York and their two children, Hilda and Henry of Portland, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis B. Cross in Fairmount hill.

This afternoon the Portland folk, Mr. and Mrs. Cross and Frank Cross attended the O.S.C.-Oregon grid classic at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Erixon will entertain at dinner this evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, who will leave Sunday on an extended trip east.

They will visit in San Francisco and from there will go to Tulsa, Okla., where they will visit her brother, W. D. Moore. In Gasconade, Mo., they will visit another brother, W. M. Moore, who is superintendent of the United States Shipyard there. In Kansas City they will visit an uncle, E. Woodmansee, a brother of Mrs. Erixon.

Bidden to honor the Montgomerys tonight are Arthur Montgomery, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Montgomery, Nancy and Jerry Montgomery, Mrs. Margaret Montgomery, Frank Lovell and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lovell.

Mrs. Max Gunter announces the resumption of the Elks contract tourney at the State-street temple on Monday nights, as previously held.

At the luncheon party for which Miss Alix Wilder was hostess in Portland Friday announcement was made by the honor guest, Miss Katharine Hart, of the date for her marriage to Albert E. Stephan. It will be an evening ceremony at the Church of Our Father, Unitarian, in Portland, on December 30.

A dozen friends of the bride-elect were bidden to the luncheon, which was given at the Town club. The engagement of Miss Hart, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hart, to Mr. Stephan, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stephan of Washington, D. C., was announced last month. The bride-elect is well-known in Salem.

Saturday Miss Hart shared honors with Miss Elizabeth Clark at the luncheon for which Miss Alice Ann Thomas will be hostess at her home. All three are brides-elect.

Miss Josephine McGilchrist will arrive in the capital next Wednesday from the University of Oregon to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr.

Elizabeth Boylan, brilliant young pianist and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berne B. Boylan, will be the guest soloist with the Salem Philharmonic Symphony orchestra when it appears in its first concert of the season December 4 at the Salem armory.

Miss Boylan is one of the most promising pianists along the Pacific slope. She is a student of Frances Virginia Melton and during the summer coached with Jacques Gerahkovich, conductor of the symphony. The young artist is a graduate of Salem high school and Willamette university. She won the state and district piano contest for students given by the National Federation of Music clubs in 1932-33. In early January she will leave for the east to take advanced work at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music.

Monday night Miss Boylan will play the Mozart D minor Concerto, which was composed in Vienna February 10, 1785, and performed there the following day at a Mozart subscription concert.

The concerto is in three movements—Allegro, Romance and Rondo, with two brilliant cadenzas written by Hummel.

Miss Boylan is a talented pianist. She has remarkable dexterity and strength in her small hands and apparently always strives for absolute correctness, clearness and warm expression. The orchestra score is musical and its melodious characteristics will make a pleasing background for the piano.

The American War Mothers will meet at the American Lutheran church Wednesday from 11 until 3 o'clock to fill baskets for Thanksgiving. Mothers are asked to bring their gifts during that time.

The Hotel Marion Mirror room will be the scene of a brilliant affair this evening when Sigma Tau fraternity entertains with a formal dinner dance. Members of the university set will make up the guest list for the most part and an elaborate decorative motif is being worked out by the directorate.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair are Dr. and Mrs. Robert M. Galke and Prof. and Mrs. Egbert S. Oliver.

Guests will include the Misses Catherine Faxon, Lunelle Chapin, Betty Savage, Betty Howe, Alice Speck, Clara Letach, Charlotte Hill, Charlotte LaDue, Helena Schneider, Jane Fisher, Alene Gairloch, Helene Trulsen, Marian Clenaghan, Betty Lou Lacey, Dorothy Wright, Virginia Beaton, Anna May Unruh, Ina Bennett, Harriet Childs, Dorothy Dingle, Elise Sharp, Betty Williams, Melva Belle Savage, Barbara Chapler, Joy Cooley, Jeanne Probert, June Charboneau, Maxine Ogden, Wanda Landon, Maxine Goodenough, Birdena Begley, Ruth Arney, Geneva Pond, Jean Morrison, Dorinne Wilson, Helen Drake, Jeryme Upston, Muriel Stewart, Virginia Moore, Enid Winingham, Ethel Denham, Marguerite Clark, Harriet Waisman, Betty Hamilton, Sue McKensie, Mary Coleman, Rosemary Genesie and Jean Hollingsworth.

Those talking topics will be Mary Pale, Lawrence Maves, Mrs. Oscar Hayter, Mrs. Saul Jantz, Mrs. Charles Kinzer, Mrs. Ray Walz, Mrs. Kenneth Murdoch and Miss Antoinette White.

MacDOWELL SINGERS

Active in capital music circles is the MacDowell club trio, which includes Mrs. John Minto, Miss Gretchen Birchard and Miss Catherine Snapp. Mrs. Kenneth Dalton is the accompanist and Miss Katharine Metker (extreme right) is the business manager.

THANKSGIVING day will be marked by the marriage of Miss Frances Park, daughter of Mrs. Lenore Park, and Milton Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker of Oregon City.

The vows will be exchanged at the Knight Memorial church at 9 o'clock Thanksgiving morning with Rev. H. C. Stover reading the service. One hundred and twenty-five guests will assemble to witness the impressive service.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Marie Stutesman will sing "Oh, Promise Me." Henry Clement will play the wedding marches. The bride will be unattended and will be given in marriage by her brother, Rupe Park. Glen Sauter will serve as best man for Mr. Parker and ushers will include Glen Parker and John Bone.

The bride has chosen for her wedding costume a blue tulle trimmed in silver fox. Her accessories will be gray and her hat will be of blue, trimmed with a short nose veil. She will wear a corsage.

Mrs. Park will be gowned in black, embellished with blue, and Mrs. Parker will wear blue.

A reception will follow at the Park apartments at the Royal Court for members of the two immediate families. Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. John Bone and Mrs. Ward Graham.

The couple will leave later for a wedding trip in Washington. Upon their return they will be at home in Salem after December 15.

Miss Park is a popular member of the younger set. She attended schools in Oregon City and Salem. Mr. Parker is a graduate of Oregon City schools and is now in business here.

Thanksgiving night will be marked by the Salem Junior Woman's club dance at Hazel Green. The hours are from 9 to 12 o'clock and members, their escorts and guests will swing to the music of Ed Torgerson and his band. Elaborate Thanksgiving decorations will be in evidence about the ballroom.

Patrons and patronesses will include Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Schanpen, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mudd.

Those wishing tickets for the distinctive affair are asked to procure them from the Misses Marcelle DeMyt, Madge Reid, Jennie Lindros June Edwards, Emyln Frazer or Jean Bahlbarg.

Mr. and Mrs. William Everett Anderson will spend Thanksgiving in Portland with Mrs. Fred T. Lisco.

Salem society folk will hold next Saturday night open in their date books for the second Subscription club dance of the season. The affair will be held in the Mirror room at the Hotel Marion and a no-host dinner is being planned to precede the affair.

The Golden Pheasant will be the setting for a smartly arranged no-host dinner Tuesday night preceding the Tillecum club dance.

Making up the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Lampert, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bonesteel, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Drynan.

BIB 'N' TUCKER

By Roby Laughlin

THRILLS A-LENTY . . . this week for Priscilla Fry who, as the popular bride-to-be of Hugh Shattuck of Portland, was the incentive for much smart "hostessing" . . . At one of the many gay soirees Priscilla was stunning in a dazzling cocktail frock of dubonnet and gold metal cloth, with which she wore a very striking pair of dubonnet suede oxfords. . . . And another mighty charming person was Charlotte Zieber, who wore a swank black crepe model embellished with jet beads and a dash of red scarf at the neckline. . . . GET A WHIFF . . . of these exhilarating evening sheers for the junior maid. . . . Thanksgiving holiday season is always the time for much stepping out by the young miss, and this year she'll find clothes that make her look romantic, glorious, conquering, breathtaking (that should be enough) . . . There are dresses with skirts that swirl to dance music, wraps with tremendous sleeves and sky-scrapping collars, coronets for her hair, bright gems for her ears—in fact almost everything to bring forth gasps of surprise. . . . There's a darning embroidered taffeta with off-the-shoulder décolletage; a coquettish taffeta with a puff-sleeved, fitted jacket; a romantic Chantilly type lace over a slim tube of taffeta in black, flame, hyacinth and royal; and (Continued on page 10, column 6)
