

INDEPENDENCE MAYOR NAMES NEW OFFICERS

Independence — K. L. Williams was sworn into office for the next two years at a meeting of the council held in the city hall Wednesday evening. The oath of office was administered by B. P. Swope, who had served the city in the capacity of city attorney and recorder for a number of years.

Williams was accompanied into office by two new councilmen, James S. Robblee and Chester O. Sloper, who with the holdover councilmen, Carl Groth, and J. E. Hubbard, and two re-elected councilmen, A. W. Foster and W. A. Barnum, also received the oath of office. C. L. Carey will serve another term as city recorder.

Elmer Barnhart was named city attorney, to succeed Attorney Swope, and Bert Mosier appointed chief of police to succeed Oscar Moore, who has served for 12 years. He will be assisted by Ray Howard and J. M. Crabtree on the police force. L. D. Mix was reappointed city treasurer, and Z. C. Kimball city treasurer. Grant Murphy was named as representative of the local organization to the Stayton Cooperative Switchboard association.

Arrangements are being made to improve all of the remaining ground lines of the system during the coming year. The elimination of the ground lines also will eliminate the ground noises and hum which is carried into the telephone.

Mayor Williams is a merchant hop grower and wool buyer. He has a large dairy farm in conjunction with his hop industry a few miles south of Independence.

VISITORS ARE FETED BY SILVERTON FOLK

Silverton — Ladies' Aid guests of Mrs. Ed Holden at the Trinity Lutheran church social rooms Wednesday afternoon were Mrs. John Rorvik and son, John Jr., Mrs. Walter Hoffman, Mrs. Jennie Jorgensen and Mrs. Kenneth C. Hansen. Mrs. Rorvik sang two special songs with Mrs. M. J. K. Fuhr at the piano.

Mrs. Holden entertained at noon luncheon for Mrs. Hoffman, her cousin, Mrs. Hand Gorder had as her luncheon guests Mrs. Rorvik and Mrs. Jorgensen, and Mrs. Charles Fryar had Mrs. Hansen for noon luncheon guest.

Mrs. Rorvik and Mrs. Fuhr were classmates at St. Olaf's college at Northfield, Minn. The visitors and their hostesses were all former Grafton, N. Dak. residents. Mrs. Rorvik recently did radio singing at Calgary.

Members Receive Cards and Pins
Bethel — 4-H club pins and cards have been received by members as follows: Marcella Wolfe, Luella Nichols, Minalee Spranger, first year pins; Jean Hain, seventh year card; Charlotte Hain, Lorraine Kirschner, Dorothea Froehlich, second year cards; Freda Burech, The Mae Green, Werna Froehlich, fourth year cards; Lillian Hamrick, Jean Hain, Coralee Nichols, third year pins. These members have been under the instruction of Mrs. Carmalia Weddle, club leader.

Bridge is Played
Stayton — Mrs. Willis Brown of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, were invited guests when Mrs. J. H. Mieser entertained members of her bridge club at her home. A dessert luncheon was followed by several hours of contract. Mrs. John Fisher and Mrs. George Bell held the high scores. Those present besides Mrs. Brown were: Mrs. Eugene Spaniol, Mrs. V. R. Tuel, Mrs. Harvey Walker, Mrs. John Fisher, Mrs. George Bell, Mrs. Dave John, and Mrs. J. H. Mieser, hostess.

WAR VETERANS MEET
Dallas — Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars post No. 3303 and the Auxiliary met Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boydston. Short business sessions were held by both groups and later a social meeting was spent with the hostess serving refreshments at a late hour.

Highway Service Station Burned

Aurora — Fire of unknown origin early Thursday morning totally destroyed the service station and beer parlor adjoining the hotel and auto cabins known as the "7 Acres" on the Pacific highway on the Molalla river, near Canby. The Canby and Aurora fire departments responded to the call and it was due to their efforts that the hotel and cabins were saved.

PHONE COMPANY IMPROVES LINE

Stayton — Plans were launched this week for the improvement of several of the local telephone company lines during the coming season as the outstanding feature of the betterment program of the Stayton organization.

The plans were formulated at the annual meeting of the stockholders at which time all officers and directors of the organization were re-elected. The officers of the company are Harry J. Rowe, president; Charles Burmeister, vice-president; and E. D. Alexander, secretary-treasurer. Grant Murphy was named as representative of the local organization to the Stayton Cooperative Switchboard association.

Arrangements are being made to improve all of the remaining ground lines of the system during the coming year. The elimination of the ground lines also will eliminate the ground noises and hum which is carried into the telephone.

REVIVAL SERVICES WILL BE CONTINUED

Silverton — Rev. Frank W. Zook of the First Christian church is continuing the evangelistic services each Sunday evening with his subject for Sunday night, "God's Danger Signals." A song service of old favorite hymns will be a special feature of the program. The Sunday evening themes are planned particularly for seekers of religious facts and those who desire to solve their problems in a divine way. Services begin at 7:30 and the public is welcomed.

The morning sermon subject following communion will be "A Grand Investment That Pays Dividends for Time and Eternity." Sunday school is at 10 o'clock.

FLAG DEDICATORY SERVICE OFFERED

Silverton — At the meetings of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the auxiliary Wednesday night at the armory club rooms, a joint social session followed the separate business sessions with Elmer Johnson, post commander, appointing as his committee for the term, L. F. Tucker, William Swift and Lloyd Rappe to be in charge of entertainment and Mr. S. Chandler, A. Svarway and Lester Whitlock on the refreshment committee.

The auxiliary obligated a new member and accepted an invitation from Miss Harriet Smith to attend a dedicatory ceremonial of the flag the members presented to the room, Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Elsie Nelson, Beanie Service and Marie Solle will serve as a committee on a food sale of Saturday, January 16.

Two members were added to the post by transfer, one from the Tacoma post and one from South Dakota.

Keizer Sewing Club Spends Active Day
Keizer — The first meeting of the year of the sewing club was held at the home of Mrs. H. M. Broadbent on Thursday. There was a good attendance in spite of the cold weather. A buffet luncheon was served at noon. The women spent the day serving on children's garments and much work was accomplished.

Mrs. Helen Emmett, who recently came to the district from Colorado, and is now settled in her home that she purchased, was given a shower of canned fruit by the members of the club.

DR. LONG HOME
Independence — Dr. C. E. Long, who made an extended trip east to Kansas and Nebraska, arrived home here this week. He encountered some cold weather on the trip, also some snow. He was accompanied by his family.

Millsburg — Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Gourley were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Gourley and children, Geraldine and Donald, of Portland.

LEBANON CLUB SEASON OPENS WITH ACTIVITY

Lebanon — Mrs. Tom Dillard opened her home to the members of the Berean society of the Church of Christ, Wednesday afternoon. Sixteen members and one guest, Mrs. Marie Kelly, were present. The annual election was held with new officers: Mrs. Claude Stephens, president; Mrs. Hugh Olds, vice-president; Mrs. Tom Dillard, treasurer; and Mrs. L. T. Ward, press correspondent. A meeting of the executive committee will be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Stephens, to form the committees for the coming year. At the business meeting it was decided to purchase a Neon sign for the church building. During the social period a proverb contest was held and refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Denna Dillard. The next meeting will be on January 20, at the home of Mrs. Lida Osburn.

BIBLE CLASS INVITED
Lebanon — Mrs. Jack Haack entertained the Women's Bible class Wednesday afternoon at her home with Mrs. O. W. Ellenburg as assistant hostess. Thirteen members were present and one guest, Mrs. Henderson. After a business and devotional period a Bible story was read by Mrs. Stanley Stewart. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

SEWING CLUB GUEST
Lebanon — The Riverside Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. W. C. Skelton, Thursday afternoon. There are sixteen members in this club and it is entering its seventeenth year. This club does just what its name implies, sews for charity or the hostess. At this meeting plans were made to sew two quilts. After the business meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Skelton and Mrs. Lida Fisher.

STUDY CLUB MEETS
Lebanon — The Central Linn County's Study club met with Mrs. Alton Horner. Ten members were present and each answered roll call with a new idea or suggestion about teaching. This year's study subject is "Curriculum Development" and the speakers were Miss Virginia Hall and Marie Kelly. Mr. Bennett, superintendent of Linn county schools, was a guest of the club.

HUSBANDS INVITED
Lebanon — The Carmine club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Reeves for a covered dish dinner and an evening of bridge. The husbands were guests of the club.

LEBANON WOMEN ILL
Lebanon — Mrs. E. E. Regester has been confined to her home all this week with a severe case of bronchitis. At one time it was feared that pneumonia might develop but she seemed somewhat improved Thursday. Mrs. Amos Hauxwell has also been ill with a cold and has been unable to be out for about a week.

CLASS SEKS QUARTERS
Lebanon — Due to the raising of the Old Santiam academy it has been necessary for the adult education classes under the supervision of Miss Grace Geist, to find new quarters. The classes will now be held in the Scott home at 330 West Sherman.

LODGE PLANS PARTY
Lebanon — The Rebekah lodge will sponsor a Bingo party next Wednesday evening, January 13, in the lodge rooms.

PYTHIAN SISTERS ELECT
Lebanon — The Pythian Sisters held annual installation Tuesday evening. The installing officers were Mamie Bennett, assisted by Leoti O'Brien and Leota Whinery. The new officers are Lida Cotter, most excellent chief; Beanie Whinery, excellent senior; Madge Prum, excellent junior; Lena Burian, mistress of finance; Mildred Phelps, manager; Maxie Cox, mistress of records and correspondence; Stella Miller, guard; Lenora LaFond, protector; Frances Pierce, reporter; Frances Pierce, staff captain. The state convention will be held here sometime in May.

SOCIAL CLUB MEETS
Lebanon — The Tuesday Social club met at the home of Mrs. Harold Preston with fifteen members present. The game of Bunco was played during the afternoon and the prize was won by Mrs. Lucille Neely. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess. This club meets every other Tuesday.

Night Gown Fire Injures Resident Pratum District

Silverton — Mrs. Dennis Loganbill, who resides five miles from Silverton on the Pratum road, sustained serious burns Wednesday morning when her night clothing caught on fire as she was standing near the living room stove. She was wearing an outing flannel garment and before she could free herself from the flames was badly burned about the legs, hips, back and the right side. Mrs. Loganbill is the mother of a 4½ months old son. She is being cared for at the home of her mother and father-in-law in Silverton.

CORVALLIS LODGE OFFICERS PLACED

Corvallis — New officers of Barium lodge No. 7, I.O.O.F., were installed Tuesday night at the regular lodge session. Local members acted as installing officers, these including deputy grand master, Clyde Millspaugh; district deputy grand marshal, W. W. Lafferty; district deputy grand warden, S. H. Koelling; district deputy grand secretary and financial secretary, L. J. Flint; district deputy grand treasurer, Rader Roberts; district deputy grand chaplain, Calvin A. Ingle; district deputy grand guardian, H. E. Gove; district deputy grand herald, H. M. Crowhurst.

The new officers installed are past noble grand, Percy Miller; noble grand, Sam Millspaugh; treasurer, W. W. Lafferty; financial secretary, George K. Abraham; recording secretary, Glen F. Mumau; R.S.N.G., P. A. Eckman; L.S.N.G., L. J. Flint; R.S.V.G., Floyd Spurlin; L.S.V., C. E. Ransom; chaplain, Calvin A. Ingle; warden, Rader Roberts; conductor, H. J. Millon; R.S.S., Chesel Hatfield; L.S.S., Walter Johnson, inside guardian, A. L. Miner; outside guardian, Frank Cole.

GENTLE RETAINED
TOWNSEND CHIEF

Monmouth — Election of officers at the regular Tuesday night session of the Townsend club resulted in the reelection of the old officers with the exception of the vice-president. Thomas Gentle heads the group again as president for the third consecutive year. Mrs. A. W. Whiteaker is also serving her third year as secretary. E. M. Ebberts, who has been treasurer, probably since the club's inception in Monmouth, was again chosen to act in the same capacity. Mrs. S. R. Skeels, the one new member, was elected vice-president.

Arthur Moore, district organizer, addressed the group. Visitors present from Independence were Mrs. Black, president of the Townsend unit there. Mrs. G. E. Butcher and Mr. Smith.

It was announced that plans are under way to induce a Portland group to present the Townsend play, "The Fifth Commandment," here shortly.

Tuesday night's meeting was largely attended.

Millers' Residence Thoroughly Prowled

Albany — Mrs. and Mrs. Franklin Miller, 438 West Ninth street, left their home on a vacation trip last Saturday and arrived home Wednesday to find their home had been completely ransacked. Investigation revealed that the burglar had entered by prying open a front window and had ransacked that part of the house concealed from view of passersby. The only known missing articles are a collection of French and German coins, a collection of American Indian head pennies, a ring and a gold watch chain.

ARRIVES FROM BUTTE
Gervais — Mrs. Larry Manion who will be remembered as Margaret DeJardin, arrived from Butte, Mont., to spend two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. DeJardin. Manion will arrive in about a week.

WORK IN AFRICA WILL BE SHOWN TO SILVERTON

Silverton — The Christian and Missionary Alliance, Rev. James A. Pointer, pastor, is announcing the main event of the church year to begin Sunday in the missionary convention with Rev. Michael Kurak of French West Africa to be the featured speaker.

Rev. Kurak is a convert to Christianity from the Russian Orthodox church. He has a large experience in missionary work and has the advantage of a first hand knowledge of European affairs.

Among the subjects to be discussed by Rev. Kurak will be "The Contest of Timbuktoo," "My Conversion from Russian Orthodoxy to Islam," "Mohammedanism—Its Appeal to the African," "Christianity's Progress in French West Africa," and "The Lure of the Pagan Tribes."

Rev. Kurak will show pictures of the work of the church in Africa as the church labors against the forces that for hundreds of years have made the African the lowest human in the scale of civilization.

Rev. Kurak speaks Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and again at 7:45 o'clock in the evening. He also speaks on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights beginning at 7:45 o'clock.

The host congregation urges any interested to attend regardless of denomination.

Other missionaries and speakers will supplement the talks by Rev. Kurak.

MT. ANGEL FIREMEN SELECT NEW CHIEF

At the annual election of officers of the Mt. Angel Fire department Wednesday evening Anton T. Bigler was elected chief, the position held by Paul Schwab for the past five years.

Other officers are Joseph Berchold, assistant chief; Louis Schwab, secretary-treasurer; R. T. Blensius, quartermaster; and Leo A. Schwab, assistant quartermaster. The auditing committee includes Joseph L. Wachter, chairman; Albert Wilde and John Bigler; the grievance committee includes William Prosser, chairman; Paul F. Schwab and Al Skaffeld; and the special committee includes A. J. Butsch and Ben Travis.

Following the meeting a lunch was served to the members by the outgoing officers.

Boys Must Select
Trees for Planting

Aurora — The members of the forestry club, "The Aurora Hiking Club," will, at the next meeting, choose the 10 trees that they wish to grow. Each boy is required to grow 10 trees. The club has a list of 11 confifers from which to choose. The list follows: Douglas fir, Port Orford cedar, Ponderosa pine, Maritime pine, European larch, Japanese larch, Norway spruce, western red cedar, Austrian pine, Scotch pine, Arizona cypress. Mr. Harding, county 4-H club leader, will deliver the trees to Salem and Lloyd Girod, local 4-H club leader, will bring them to Aurora.

Manager Ashbaugh considers this gain a good one and says that it shows better conditions in business in the area. The local office has kept pace with all mechanical improvements during the past year, and equipment used in this city is first class. Visitors at the central office are welcomed, the manager says, and arrangements for visits through the business office, the company being glad to explain the service to groups of students, clubs, societies or individuals.

Play Cast Active
Mt. Angel — The students of Mt. Angel academy are hard at work on their five act play, "The Mystic Rose," which they will present Monday evening, January 18, at 8 o'clock, with a matinee performance on Sunday afternoon, January 17, at 2 o'clock.

STARTS TODAY!
LOOK WHO'S HERE!

The one and only "Mr. and Mrs." in the merry mad sequel to the "Thin Man"

Wm. POWELL
MYRNA LOY
"AFTER THE THIN MAN"

JAMES STEWART
ELISSA LANDI
JOSEPH CALLEIA
JESSIE RALPH

Added
All Color Musical
"Violets in the Spring"
News Events

From the story by
Dashiell Hammett

Added—Oswald Cartoon
"BEACH COMBERS"
News & Episode Six of Serial,
"Buster Crabbe as
"FLASH GORDON"

Woodburn Grangers Holding Benefit

Woodburn — Woodburn Grange No. 79 will hold a benefit "500" party at the grange hall tonight, the proceeds of which will be used to paint the hall. Prizes will be given for high score at cards and sandwiches and coffee will be served. Stanley Woodward is chairman of the committee on arrangements and will be assisted by Mr. Freeman and Mrs. Lloyd Waymire. Everyone is invited.

SILVERTON LODGES PLAN INSTALLATION

Silverton — Silver Lodge No. 21, I.O.O.F., and Tryphena Rebekah lodge will hold joint installation of officers at the Odd Fellows hall Saturday evening.

Officers to be installed are Clifford Snyder, N. G.; Jasper King, V. G.; John Gehrke, secretary; Roy Skaffe, financial secretary; and Elmer King, treasurer. George Busch, D.D.G.M., will be the installing officer for the Odd Fellows and Dr. R. Moore Stewart is the retiring noble grand.

Silver lodge will act as host for the affair with a number of friends invited specially to attend the meeting.

HUBBARD PYTHIANS GROUPS INSTALL

Hubbard — Arlon temple, Pythian Sisters, and Arlon lodge, Knights of Pythias, held joint installation ceremonies Tuesday evening with Mrs. Connie de Lespinasse, Mrs. George Leffler, Mrs. John Smolinsky, George Leffler, Frank Renfrew, Clarence Bevens and Red Schneider as installing officers for the two groups. The Aurora temple and lodge were guests for the evening. The social committee served refreshments under the supervision of Mrs. Elmer Stauffer.

Officers installed were Mrs. Lester Will, Mrs. Willis Berkey, Mrs. Herman Bontrager, Mrs. Mose Garren, Mrs. George Leffler, Mrs. Jan Friend, Mrs. Elmer Stauffer, Mrs. Amanda Dimick, Mrs. A. J. Smith, Herman Bontrager, W. E. Berkey, A. E. Bevens, A. F. de Lespinasse, Robert Brown, L. M. School, Elmer Stauffer, O. E. Erickson, Lester Pulley.

Regular services at the Four-square Gospel church, the Church of Christ and the Christian Science church.

TELEPHONE EXCHANGE REPORTS INCREASE

Corvallis — The Corvallis telephone exchange added 135 new numbers during the year 1936, reports Manager C. D. Ashbaugh. This makes a total of 2551 connections within the Corvallis city limits. Gain in rural subscribers was not so great.

Manager Ashbaugh considers this gain a good one and says that it shows better conditions in business in the area. The local office has kept pace with all mechanical improvements during the past year, and equipment used in this city is first class. Visitors at the central office are welcomed, the manager says, and arrangements for visits through the business office, the company being glad to explain the service to groups of students, clubs, societies or individuals.

Play Cast Active
Mt. Angel — The students of Mt. Angel academy are hard at work on their five act play, "The Mystic Rose," which they will present Monday evening, January 18, at 8 o'clock, with a matinee performance on Sunday afternoon, January 17, at 2 o'clock.

Boys Must Select
Trees for Planting

Aurora — The members of the forestry club, "The Aurora Hiking Club," will, at the next meeting, choose the 10 trees that they wish to grow. Each boy is required to grow 10 trees. The club has a list of 11 confifers from which to choose. The list follows: Douglas fir, Port Orford cedar, Ponderosa pine, Maritime pine, European larch, Japanese larch, Norway spruce, western red cedar, Austrian pine, Scotch pine, Arizona cypress. Mr. Harding, county 4-H club leader, will deliver the trees to Salem and Lloyd Girod, local 4-H club leader, will bring them to Aurora.

Manager Ashbaugh considers this gain a good one and says that it shows better conditions in business in the area. The local office has kept pace with all mechanical improvements during the past year, and equipment used in this city is first class. Visitors at the central office are welcomed, the manager says, and arrangements for visits through the business office, the company being glad to explain the service to groups of students, clubs, societies or individuals.

Play Cast Active
Mt. Angel — The students of Mt. Angel academy are hard at work on their five act play, "The Mystic Rose," which they will present Monday evening, January 18, at 8 o'clock, with a matinee performance on Sunday afternoon, January 17, at 2 o'clock.

ARRIVES FROM BUTTE
Gervais — Mrs. Larry Manion who will be remembered as Margaret DeJardin, arrived from Butte, Mont., to spend two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. DeJardin. Manion will arrive in about a week.

CHURCH OFFERS SPECIAL RITES FOR LODGEMEN

Woodburn — Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Woodburn will attend the Presbyterian church in a body and a special service will be held in their honor. Sunday school will be held at the usual hour.

The Bethel Presbyterian church will have Sunday school at 10 o'clock, evening worship at 8 o'clock, subject, "There is No Difference."

Special services at the Church of God, which began last Sunday, will continue through next week. Tonight (Friday) will be Bible night with mention made of those bringing the most Bibles, the oldest, the largest, the smallest and the oldest of other languages. No services are planned for Saturday but will be held at the regular hours on Sunday. Rev. Hooker, the speaker, is also a singer and with Mrs. Hooker makes a specialty of Hawaiian music.

Regular services will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church, beginning with Sunday school at 10 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Ralph G. Kleen, has been ill for the past week and will not be able to fill the pulpit Sunday but another speaker will be secured.

At the Free Methodist church Sunday school begins at 9:45 a. m. At the 11 o'clock service the pastor will stress the interests of evangelism and the offering will be taken for the same. Y.P.M.S. meets at 6:30 p.m. and evening service is at 7:30.

There will be services at St. Mary's Episcopal church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

St. Luke's Catholic church will hold low mass at 8 o'clock and high mass at 10 o'clock, followed by benediction.

Regular services at the Four-square Gospel church, the Church of Christ and the Christian Science church.

PIONEER FAMILY HOME FOR DINNER

Silverton — For the first time since they were children at home, the four Thomas brothers and their sisters were all together this season for a holiday dinner. The group includes Frank Thomas of Silverton, L. A. Thomas of Salem, G. R. and C. J. Thomas and Mrs. W. H. Hobson, all of Stayton. They met at the home of Mrs. Hobson. Additional guests were Dr. Everett Hobson of Salem.

The Thomases belong to one of the oldest pioneer families of Linn county. Their parents were Mr. and Mrs. Wash Thomas (Amanda Turner), pioneers of 1849 who took up a donation land claim not far from Selo along the stream, Thomas creek, that was named for the family.

The hotel was a prominent hostelry during the boom days of Gates, brought about by discovery of gold in the Quartzville mines. Gates, at that time, boasted two large hotels and more than a dozen saloons as a nucleus around which a considerably good-sized town was built.

Mrs. Ruef Honored On Birthday Date

Stayton — Mrs. Raymond Ruef was surprised on her birth anniversary when a group of friends gathered at her home Tuesday evening to celebrate the occasion. Games were played with a late supper being served at the close of the evening.

Those who made up the group were: Dale and Betty Hunt, Ruth, Evangeline and George Williams, Ronald Heater, Tex Kinney, Rex Kinney, Margaret Daugherty, Mary and Howard Detrick of Newberg, Miss Margaret Kimbrough, J. T. Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ruef.

Santiam Highway Grading to Start

Albany — Grading of the South Santiam highway section, known as the Storm creek-Lamb creek section extending eastward 108 miles from the east end of the Meyer and Golder contract will be started January 15. It was announced in Albany Thursday.

The contractors are Burke Brothers, Inc., who already have a crew of approximately twelve men at work on this road stumping and burning along the right-of-way.

PLAY AND MOVIES SLATED AT AURORA

Aurora — A faculty play entitled "Here Comes Charles" will be given in the near future under the direction of Miss Maria McKinnis. There are ten characters in the play. The troupes will begin next week. The older people in the community are requested to try out. The proceeds of this play will be used for 4-H club activities.

Tuesday night, January 19, a moving picture "The Silent Enemy" will be presented at the Aurora grade school. This is an historical picture of the struggles of the Indians before the coming of the white man. The upper grade students will sell the tickets and any student selling seven or more tickets will entitle him and his family to enter free of charge. This picture is sponsored by the various 4-H clubs.

BETHEL FARM UNION PRESENTED PROGRAM

Bethel — G. W. Mason of the Portland General Electric company was speaker at the meeting of the Farmer's union. Motion pictures with sound were shown. A reading was given by Harry Martin. The program was in charge of Arno Spranger.

Reports of the county convention which was held at Mt. Angel on Saturday were presented by Warren Creech, Arno Spranger and Clarence Page.

Mrs. Arthur Schulz, chairman of the educational committee, reported on the work in adult education. Refreshments were served by Mrs. James Lauderback and Mrs. John Burech during the social hour.

BOOM DAYS HOTEL WILL SOON PASS

Gates — The Gates hotel which of recent years has been used as an apartment house was sold recently by the owner, Joe Mombert, to a group of Mill City men who stated they would raze the building and salvage the lumber.

The hotel was a prominent hostelry during the boom days of Gates, brought about by discovery of gold in the Quartzville mines. Gates, at that time, boasted two large hotels and more than a dozen saloons as a nucleus around which a considerably good-sized town was built.

Dance
MELLO MOON

SAT., JAN. 9
Eddie Doyle's Eastern
12 Piece
Swing Band

CAPITOL Today and Saturday 2 BIG HITS

MURDER, MIRTH AND MATRIMONY
SMART BLONDE
Glenda Farrell
Barton MacLane

Winifred Shaw, Craig Reynolds,
Addison Richards, David Carlyle,
Joseph Crehan
Directed by Frank McDonald

And 2nd Hit
Hopalong Cassidy Rides Again

Trail Dust
WM. BOYD

Features Mary Astor in "Lady from Nowhere"

— and Mary Brian
in "The Lady from Nowhere"
— Russell Hulse in "IT"
— "LARGE"

Saturday Matinee
"Zollie's Gang"
Stage Show,
Serial and James Dunn in
"Welcome Home"

GRAND

JEAN ARTHUR GEORGE BRENT "MORE THAN A SECRETARY"

A COLUMBIA PICTURE

GRAND

GRAND

WRECKING THE RACKET

And Second Feature
Shakedown
JEW AYRES
LOAN PERCY