

INITIATION TO BE BIG EVENT; SPECIAL RITES

Woodburn—Seventy-one students of Woodburn high school will be initiated Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in a double ceremony which promises to be particularly impressive when the Future Farmers of America and the Home Economics club will initiate candidates for membership in their organizations.

The ceremony will take place at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. Fifteen boys will be prominent members of the F.F.A. organization and some 56 girls have declared their intention of becoming members of the Home Economics club.

Parents, teachers and students have been invited to attend in addition to the speakers, Mrs. O. D. Adams, state director of vocational education; Miss Bertha Kohlhaas, state supervisor of home economics; and Earl Cooley, state supervisor of agricultural education.

Miss Kohlhaas will be given the honorary membership award of the Woodburn Home Economics club. A colorful chalk talk will be given by Morris Buchanan.

Entertainment for the evening will consist of films on "Canning Nature's Finest," "Game Bird Farming," and "Marketing of Oregon Prunes." The pie club will give two numbers, "Twilight on the Trail," taken from the picture "Trail of the Lonesome Pine," and "We Certainly Did," by Richey. Howard Miller will direct the numbers.

COURT MARION INVITES TEAM

Mt. Angel—Members of the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Marion No. 718, held their regular meeting in the music room of St. Mary's school.

The degree team of the Mt. Angel court was invited to put on the degree work for the Eugene court on January 31. Mrs. Joseph L. Wachter was appointed to head the committee to arrange the entertainment after the next business meeting.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS CLUB ENTERTAINED

6c. Mill—Mrs. Annette Hicks entertained the Royal Neighbor club Friday with an all-day meeting. Due to the cold weather a small group was present. A hot dinner was served at the noon hour.

The business meeting was called in the afternoon by the vice-president, M. J. Jackson, the president being absent. Mrs. J. E. Saulstess was secretary pro tem in the absence of Mrs. W. A. Saulstess, secretary. The February meeting will be with Mrs. Levi Kellis, and all are requested to bring material for rug rugs.

Meeting with Mrs. Hicks were Mrs. Wm. Fry, Mrs. Floyd Shepherd, Mrs. J. N. Amundson, Mrs. Pauline Swartout, Mrs. J. E. Saulstess, Mrs. Edith Kellis, Mrs. Ada Gerst, Mrs. Amanda Noberg, Mrs. Vina Lottinger and Mrs. Zella Smith.

Drill Team Appears

Chemawa—The Roberts' drill team will be present at the regular business session of Chemawa grange Thursday night. The meeting is called for 8 o'clock in the M.W.A. hall. The drill team will put on the first and second degree in full form. Following the business meeting, the Chemawa lecturer, Mrs. Fannie McCall, will present a program consisting of numbers by both Roberts and Chemawa granges. The Home Econ club will serve refreshments.

CLUB MEETS THURSDAY—Woodburn—The Q. W. T. club will hold an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Nancy Carpenter, 729 North Front street Thursday. A pot-luck dinner will be served at noon.

GRANGE PLANS CARDS—Butteville—Butteville Grange will give a "500" card party in their hall at Butteville Thursday evening.

Bible Display Feature Of Woodburn Evangelist's Campaign During Week

Woodburn—A large display of Bibles was a feature of a meeting during the series of evangelistic services being conducted at the Church of God by Evangelist M. J. Hooker. More than 70 Bibles of various sizes, ages and languages were exhibited.

Rev. G. G. Edwards, pastor of the Free Methodist church, brought a Bible 212 years old, one of the original editions of the authorized King James version. He also showed a Bible that Mrs. Edwards had bought in Bombay while they were there as missionaries. It is written in an Indian dialect, and was carried by Mrs. Edwards through monsoons and many interesting experiences in India.

Mrs. J. C. Wagemen was present with a Bible that was salvaged from a ship wreck and carried to Alaska. It has the family record of Matt-inally, dated 1749.

Other Bibles exhibited were: Largest, Mrs. Lou Calhoun; second, Mrs. Wagemen; third, B. F. Shrock; fourth, S. Shanbeck. Smallest, Mrs. Will Livingston; second, Mrs. Julia Layman; smallest testament, Mrs. Lou Calhoun; second, Mrs. B. F. Shrock; oldest, Rev. Edwards, 212 years; second, S. Shanbeck, 134 years; largest number brought by one family, B. F. Shrock, 13; in foreign languages, German, 6, including four different versions of dialects; French 1, Mrs. S. A. Hoer; Hebrew and Greek 1, Mrs. Julia Layman.

Other events are being planned for the remainder of the week. The meetings close Sunday night.

STRIKE TOPIC LEBANON CLUB

Lebanon—The Lebanon Commercial club held its first meeting of the year under its new officers. The Pacific Coast maritime strike came up for discussion, and following a survey of the damage being done to business, a resolution was adopted that a telegram be sent President Roosevelt, asking him to intervene in the strike settlement.

Two new members were admitted, Ivan Ayers, and Merrill V. Smith. The former runs a dairy, the latter is postmaster. The usual committee chairman made routine reports, showing progress in road improvement, and satisfactory industrial expansion.

A specially painted map of Linn county, showing the setting of Clear Lake with the Cascade peaks, was donated to the club by Lottie Arnold, who had used it at the International Livestock show. The painting, 8x8 feet, will be framed and hung in the club room at the Lebanon hotel.

HEALTH DIVISION GETS INSTRUCTION

Bethel—The 4-H club members are receiving instruction in the health division. Mrs. Weddie, club leader, directs practical demonstrations training the members in emergency and first aid work.

The cooking clubs are busy in the school kitchen. Division I has prepared prunes and baked apples. Division II has made French and baked omelets. Division III has prepared and served a complete dinner. Camp cooking division has prepared and served a breakfast.

As a result of the 4-H judging contests held recently, the following judging teams, which won first places, attended the meeting at the Salem Chamber of Commerce on Saturday. Luella Nichols and Fay Ann Kircher represented the sewing club; Jean Hain and Carolee Nichols the cooking club; Marcella Wolfe and Minalee Spranger the room improvement club. Two state champions of last year, Lillian Hamrick and Charlotte Hain, also attended the meeting.

Tobogganing Proves Painful Activity

Silverton—Mrs. F. Glenn McDonlad is staying indoors the remainder of the cold spell. She joined members of her family in a coasting and skiing party and sustained a strained knee in a bad spill from her toboggan during the first days of the snow.

A number of pedestrians have fallen on the icy streets about town with only minor bruises and bumps reported.

Lodge Gets Trowel

Turner—Pearl lodge, No. 86 A. F. & A. M. represented by H. S. Bond, delivered the Masons traveling trowel to the master of the Dayton lodge. Accompanying Mr. Bond were H. R. Peetz, Fred Mitchell, Fred Brown, U. E. Denyer and Joe McKinney.

Soup Being Served

Turner—The soup kitchen for the Turner schools was opened this week with cooks being supplied by the WPA. Food is donated by the patrons of the school and the school board provides cooking facilities and dishes.

F. T. A. POSTPONED

Scotts Mills—Parent-Teachers meeting, dated for Thursday evening, has been postponed until the following Thursday evening, as it was necessary to close the local schools Monday because of water shortage.

Selo—Mrs. Jesse Nichols will be hostess January 16 at her home near Shelburn for the local card club.

LEBANON ARMY MAY DRILL IN FINE ARMORY

Lebanon—Former Mayor T. W. Munyan, heading a special "new armory" committee reports that assurance had been given that if WPA money or other funds were made available for the list of new armories in Oregon, as announced some months ago, that Lebanon would secure the $40,000 sum earmarked for a new armory in this city. He said this assurance had been transmitted to him last week by those in charge of the movement.

PARK TOPIC DEBATED

Lebanon—The question of a city park for Lebanon was discussed before the chamber of commerce by J. C. Mayer, Lebanon banker, and other civic leaders. It was finally determined that a park, costing from $15,000 to $20,000 would be needed by the city, but that first the need would have to be felt by the citizenship, so that a bond issue might receive favorable action. Other plans to secure a temporary site with general funds available, were set aside as unfeasible.

However, the city council has already decided to build a community hall, costing several thousand dollars, on the old Lebanon cannery site, where civic and county-wide meetings may be held.

CLUB MEETS FRIDAY

Lebanon—The Mystic club will meet Friday, January 15, at the home of Mrs. Alvina Michelson. The leader will be Mrs. Bertha Reeves and her topic will be "Good Pictures."

R.N.A. WILL INSTALL

Lebanon—The Royal Neighbors of America will meet at the lodge rooms Friday night for the January meeting and installation of officers. After the meeting a supper will be enjoyed by the members.

OPERATION PERFORMED

Lebanon—E. R. Mayes of Halsey underwent a major operation at the Lebanon hospital Sunday. Mayes is 94 years old and in spite of his advanced age withstood the operation very well and is reported as making splendid progress toward recovery. Lyle Fielshney of Lebanon is in the hospital for treatment for a severe case of polson oak.

THEATER PARTY HELD

Lebanon—The Sunshine class of the Presbyterian church, in charge of Mrs. Ed Bohle, held a theater party at the Kuhn theater. As a theater party is never complete without some sort of refreshments the girls decided, because of the very cold weather, to forego the cooler foods and choose hot hamburger sandwiches.

TALKS ABOUT INDIA

Lebanon—The Methodist church had an unusual treat Sunday evening. Mrs. Nellie Randle Jones gave a talk on her experiences as a missionary in India. Mrs. Jones lived in Lebanon as a girl and is the sister of George Randle.

Weather Delays PTA's Gathering

Donald—Owing to the stormy weather no regular Parent-Teacher meeting was held. The teachers and pupils are rehearsing for a play to be given in the hall on the evening of January 22. A small admission charge will provide funds for some athletic equipment. A committee to have charge of the sale of candy includes Mrs. G. B. Ackerson, Mrs. Earl Felier and Mrs. Frisby.

PORTER VERY ILL

Silverton—On account of the condition of E. S. Porter who is critically ill, the Silverton Hills sewing club that was to have met at the home of Porter's daughter, Mrs. L. M. Elliott, Thursday will be postponed, the date of the next meeting to be announced later.

IOWA WOMAN GUEST

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Blust have as their house guest a sister of Blust, Mrs. H. C. Hogelin of Guthrie Center, Iowa.

Munyan Selected Berry Fair Head Replacing Alvin

Lebanon—Former Mayor T. W. Munyan was elected president of the Lebanon Strawberry Fair association at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. He replaces Walter Alvin, president for several years, who recently left Lebanon to accept a position in the Oregon land board at Salem.

Munyan was elected from a field of candidates composed of Walter Alvin, Lottie Arnold and himself. Two others nominated, Dave Strimater and Elmer Fitzgerald, withdrew from the race before balloting started. A committee representing the local chamber of commerce will seek a new place to hold the annual festival, and report its findings at the next meeting of the body, the second Monday in February.

CHURCH WOMEN HEAR PROGRAM

Woodburn—Mrs. F. W. Settlemier entertained the Federated Women of the Methodist Episcopal church at her home on Settlemier avenue Tuesday afternoon. She was assisted by Mrs. E. A. Lytle and Mrs. Ivan C. Beers. The meeting was advanced one week from the regular date for the convenience of the speaker, Mrs. Bunch, wife of the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Forest Grove. Mrs. Bunch gave a report on the convention of the Methodist church of the United States and its auxiliary unions which met recently in Indiana, which she attended as one of two delegates from the Columbia district.

Mrs. James Livesay, president of the Federation, presided and the meeting opened with group singing, followed by a devotional service led by Mrs. A. E. Austin.

Honors were paid to two "sunshine sisters," Mrs. Austin and Mrs. Ida Brennan with a special vocal solo by Mrs. J. Melvin Ringo, and a reading by Viola Mills. The program was in charge of Mrs. E. N. Hall.

Additional guests were Mrs. J. J. Hall, Mrs. Saren Nelson, Mrs. Jones and the speaker. Refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistants.

STUDENT OFFICERS DISCUSS PROBLEMS

Woodburn—The student body officers of the schools in the Willamette Valley league will meet at Woodburn Thursday at 1 o'clock p. m.

A tentative program has been arranged which includes a report of the student officers' conference at the Oregon State Teachers' association in Portland by Canby high school, and discussions led by various schools to bring out their practices in handling the following student activities:

Student body tickets, West Linn; high school publications, Newberg; dances and social activities, Woodburn; school elections and eligibility, Molalla; letters, awards, and certificates, Independence; handling crowds at school events, Silverton; budgeting of school finances, Dallas; student meetings and assemblies, Canby.

Warrant is Issued For Till "Tapper"

Independence—The till in the Wells Service station, recently purchased by John Kosanke, was robbed of about $10 Saturday afternoon, supposedly by a young man who was loitering about the station.

The owner of the station had a warrant issued for his arrest but he could not be found at his home or at his usual haunts. He was seen spending money freely, after it was known that he had been broke previously.

The money was in small coins. The warrant was issued out of the local justice court.

STUDENTS WILL PRESENT PLAYS NEAR MT. ANGEL

Mt. Angel—Sponsoring a five act drama, "The Mystic Rose," Sunday afternoon, January 17, at 2 o'clock and Monday evening, January 18 at 8 o'clock, the M. A. A. vocal club presents in the academy auditorium its first dramatic performance this year. The play has a religious theme centering around a miraculous rose in the time of Christ, when persecution was rampant with Romans against Christians.

Supported by a cast of 25 vocal club members, Irene Berning takes the lead in the role of Pilate's daughter, Claudia. Important characterizations are taken by Margaret McGuire as Pilate's wife, Mary B. Zollner as Leah, the maniac, and Mary Beth Brockhaus as Afra, a sorceress.

Among the features during the performance will be musical numbers and dances by Katherine Clouse and the vestal virgins. Especially attractive will be the new scenery and the beautiful costuming of the cast.

MONITOR GETS PLAY

Mt. Angel—The Young People's society of the Trinity Lutheran church near Mt. Angel will give a play in the I. O. O. F. hall in Monitor Sunday, January 17, at 8 o'clock. There will be a small admission charge.

The title of the play is "Think It Over," written by the popular author, G. L. Wind. The drama is a comedy of American life in three acts, written on the theme that money does not make happiness.

The leading parts are played by Erwin Nickodemus and Lucinda Romann. The other characters are Max Schlotman, Margaret Westendorf, Viola Willis, Lynn Simon, Margaret Wanner and Olinda Doherty. The play is under the direction of Albert Nickodemus.

AUTO KNOCKS DOWN ELDERLY RESIDENT

Albany—Mrs. Elizabeth M. Phillips, 70, was reported as resting easy yesterday at the Albany General hospital, after having been struck Monday night by a car driven by R. V. Hamilton of Albany, as she was crossing the eastside Albany-Corvallis highway near the Albany college campus.

Hamilton reported at the police station that he saw Mrs. Phillips walking on the highway and that his car skidded on the icy roadway. The rear fender of his car struck Mrs. Phillips and knocked her down.

Mrs. Phillips lives near the campus. She sustained a fractured nose, a cut chin, other facial cuts and bruises. Her condition was not believed to be serious.

STREET GRAVELING WILL START SOON

Lebanon—WPA funds will be available about January 18, when a force of men will be put to work graveling streets in the northwest section of Lebanon. Several street culverts will also be replaced. The aid was secured by former Mayor T. W. Munyan, and will be finished by the new council and Mayor J. C. Booth, who will soon furnish the name of the foreman selected to the WPA administration. Robert Culbertson has applied for the position, and the name is now before the city council for consideration. The former mayor and council has recommended his appointment, which, however, must be made by the administration which was sworn in January 4.

GRANGE PLANS SOCIAL

Woodburn—A social meeting of Woodburn grange No. 79 will be held Thursday evening at the grange hall. Lunch will be served at a small charge. The public is invited.

Benefits Arranged For Lodge, Grange

Monmouth—The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Monmouth are announcing a benefit chicken pie supper and dance to be held in the hall Friday evening. Following the supper there will be a program followed by a dance. Proceeds are to be used in helping to fit up the hall. The supper price includes the remainder of the evening's program.

At the Grange New Year meeting Master C. O. Allen announced a pie social on the evening of January 23, funds to go to the Grange building fund.

NEW DISTRICT IS PROTESTED

Lebanon—A proposal to organize a new school district immediately east of Lebanon will meet with some opposition from a group of citizens that prefer to be in the present city school district.

A delegation, representing 30 families in the Golden Valley district, met with Lester Wilcox, superintendent of schools in Lebanon and members of the county court, in Albany. During the discussion several differences of opinion were voiced. Members of the Lebanon school board were interested participants because the new district would involve some of the present Lebanon district.

Grange school children of the Golden Valley section now attend the Mt. Hope school, which the proponents of the new school say is too far removed, and which is reached by the children over a difficult trail.

WATER COMMISSION HAS NEW SCHEDULE

Silverton—By action of the Silverton water commission and with the approval of Mayor Wilbur Moffett, the office of the commission will be closed each Saturday afternoon beginning with the new schedule this week. Dr. A. W. Simmons is chairman of the board and Elgin McCleary is superintendent.

Dr. Simmons explained that when the 12th of the month occurred on a Saturday the privilege of the usual discount would be extended until Monday to the water users.

SUBLIMITY TO WITNESS PLAY

Sublimity—For the past few weeks eleven members of the St. Boniface Young People's club have been rehearsing a play which will be presented in the C.O.F. hall Sunday. The play chosen to be the first of a series that will be given this year is entitled "Civil Service." It is a comedy-drama consisting of three acts with a postoffice setting.

The different characters that are to be portrayed by the players are Steve Aulaine, a clerk in the post-office, John Keenly, Octavia Reynolds, J.L.'s daughter, Benita Hassler; Kate Kenyon, stamp clerk, Helen Lambert; Slim Peavy, mail clerk, Harold Wolf; R.F.D., rural carrier, Leo Sussauer; J. L. Reynolds, postmaster, Lawrence Boedighelmer; Birdie Bivins, a small town girl, Walmeta Hafner; Miss Goldstein, collector, Rita Sussauer; Mrs. T. R. Jeffs, a commanding woman, Alma Hassler; Cochran, a government postal inspector, Bernard Wolf; Goldie Wex, all-around green-horn substitute, Walter Brettenstein.

This play is also under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Benedict. The proceeds will go to boost the building fund of the new church. Two performances will be given, at 2:15 and 8:15 o'clock.

Churches to Join In Union Service

Turner—The Methodist and Christian churches will hold union services at the Methodist church next Sunday. The Portland Bible Institute Gospel Team consisting of four students and a faculty member will be in charge of the services.

Aumsville—Mrs. Bland Spear is ill with flu. Viola Bradley is staying with her.
