Reception Event Of Thursday Night

Of paramount interest to the legislative contingent is the reception being given Thursday evening from 8 until 11 o'clock by Governor Charles H. Martin and Mrs. Martin at their residence in Fairmount hill. Legislators and their wives and members of the press have been bidden to call.

Mrs. Martin has invited a group of prominent women to assist her in the dining room and about the drawing room.

Eugene Gleemen To Sing Here
Mark Daniels, noted Portland baritone, will be soloist with the Eugene Gleemen who will give a concert in Salem Wednesday night, January 27. Eighty voices compose the chorus, which is sponsored by the Eugene chamber of commerce. Dr. John Stark Evans is the conductor.

The Gleemen's concert has come to be regarded as an outstanding musical event of the season in Salem. Last year the chorus was unable to come because the illness of Dr. Evans prevented more than a limited number of appearances. This year only three concerts are booked, with one of them in Salem.

The Salem Rotary club is sponsoring the Gleemen in Salem as a benefit for the Boy Scout council. The Gleemen donate their services out of their love for music and with a desire to show a friendly interest on the part of Eugene in other cities of the valley.

Dr. Getzlaff Club Speaker
The Salem Junior Woman's club met Monday evening at the clubhouse for its regular meeting. The applied education department of the club arranged the program and Miss Ellen Sirmio was chairman.

Dr. E. E. Getzlaff, a physician in Japan for seven years, showed interesting films of the Japanese people and the country. Miss Maxine Goodenough gave several violin selections and was accompanied by Ellen Goodenough.

L. S. Lamberts Dinner Hosts
Stanton—Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lamberts were hosts Thursday evening to a group of friends at a dinner marking the occasion of their fortieth wedding anniversary. During the afternoon and evening friends from the vicinity called to offer their congratulations. Among the many gifts and cards received were flowers from Acacia Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, the Happy Hour club and the Stanton Grange. Mr. and Mrs. Lamberts have been members of these organizations for many years.

During the afternoon and evening, Miss Maxine Minton and Miss Helen Porter played a program of steel guitar music. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Martha Glover, Mrs. Mabel Leffler, Mrs. Amelia Van Erman and Mrs. Leona Porter.

Covers were placed at the dinner for Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beauchamp, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Glover, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leffler, Mrs. Amelia Van Erman, Mrs. Ellen Reynolds, Frank Tate and son and daughter, Aline Miller, Edward Hallock, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porter, and Miss Helen Porter. Mr. and Mrs. Tony Minton and Miss Maxine Minton and Mr. and Mrs. Lambert.

Calling during the day were A. A. McKinnis, Master of Stanton Grange, Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Pound, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sandner and son, Arthur, Miss Ida Sandner, Miss Ida Sandner, Miss Ella Williams, Miss Phyllis Darr, Miss Sunie Kearns, Miss Ida Nipple, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Edler and daughter, Mrs. Edna Sloper, John Nielson of Los Angeles, W. A. Weddell, Mrs. Hal Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tate and Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Beauchamp.

The Willing Workers' class of the First Christian church will be entertained Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. C. Perry, 833 North Summer street.

Members of Delta Phi sorority entertained at dinner recently for the pleasure of Miss Betty Boylan, who is leaving Sunday to study music at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. Miss Boylan is a member of Delta Phi sorority.

Honor guests for dinner were Miss Boylan, Miss Jeanette Scott, Miss Frances Virginia Melton, Mrs. Roy S. Keene, Miss Lois Burton, Miss Josie Acklin and Miss Helen Woodfin.

The Social club of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, enjoyed several informal hours Tuesday afternoon in the Masonic temple. Mrs. Louise Flack was chairman of the affair.

The program consisted of a piano selection by Miss Lola Burton, a book review by Miss Helen Baird and violin and cello numbers by Mrs. Clarence Bowes and Miss Alena Bremner.

Mrs. George A. White spent last week-end in Astoria as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Emigh, Jr.

Program Is Announced For Woman's Club Dinner

Friday evening is being marked on the calendar as an important date for Salem clubwomen. At that time members of the Salem Woman's club will entertain at 6:30 o'clock with a smartly arranged dinner in the clubhouse honoring husbands. This is the fifth annual affair given by the group and is always greatly anticipated. Mrs. I. M. Schanney is president of the Woman's club and she has asked Mrs. D. D. Olmsted to take charge of the arrangements. The Rev. George H. Swift will serve as toastmaster and a welcome will be given by Mrs. Schanney, with response by Judge George Rossman. The address of the evening will be given by J. M. Devers. Mrs. David Bennett Hill and Ivan Martin are in charge of the music. Greeting the guests will be Mrs. C. C. Geer, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, Mrs. David Wright, Miss Eula McCully, Mrs. Clifton Mudd and Mrs. Glenn S. Paxson.

Assisting Mrs. Olmsted will be Mrs. James J. Jennings, Mrs. Harry T. Love, Mrs. Mary Bayne, Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mrs. O. W. Emmons, Mrs. George E. Lewis, Mrs. Lester I. Pearmine and Mrs. H. O. White.

Junior Women Guests of Club
Silverton—More than 30 members attended the regular meeting of the Silverton Woman's club Monday evening at the city library reading room when the young women of the Junior Woman's club were guests of the group with Mrs. E. B. Latham as program chairman. The session was an annual affair in the interest of the library which the Woman's club established 20 years ago.

Mrs. Latham is chairman of the library board, a position she has held since the library was opened. Her topic for discussion was on the history of books. Mrs. G. B. Benson, also a member of the library board for 25 years, led the women in group singing. Three young women employees of the library told of their work of making scrap books. Alice Jensen demonstrated book mending and Lillie Madsen told of the latest books on the shelves.

The February meeting will be at the W. R. Tomlinson home in McLaine street with Mrs. W. Dale Lamar as chairman of program plans. Mrs. A. P. Solie is president of the Woman's club.

Civic Group Holds Meeting
Lebanon—The Women's Civic club held its first meeting in the new club room in the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon, with about thirty women present. An exhibit of hand-work and a scholarship loan benefit tea was given by the members. The exhibit consisted of many beautiful quilts, rugs, afghans, linen pieces, knitted garments, tapestries and cushions. The committee in charge of the exhibit was Mrs. P. T. Tweed, Mrs. J. C. Mayer, Mrs. Hattie Cruse and Mrs. Ed Bohle. Mrs. Bohle presided at the meeting in the absence of the president. The Civic club had charge of the Christmas seal sale in Lebanon and a sale of $120.25 worth of seals was reported. A benefit tea for the club will be given at the meeting on February 8, and Mrs. J. C. Mayer will be chairman in charge of the committee. The loan fund tea was in charge of Mrs. Frances Phelps, assisted by Mrs. Will Bohle. Mrs. M. N. Newport presided at the tea table which looked very lovely with its centerpiece of snap-dragons and ferns.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will meet at the home of Mrs. William Everett Anderson, 1377 Court street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. January birthdays will be celebrated.

Mrs. Harry Rowe will entertain the Woman's Missionary society of the Englewood United Brethren church Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Sarah Oliver will be assisting hostess.

Parties Honor Miss Bowman
Silverton—Mrs. Merritt Barth was home hostess to a group in honor of Mrs. Lee Harrington (Agnes Barth) of Salem, at a post-nuptial kitchen shower as a recent afternoon affair.

The guests were served at the luncheon table which was covered with a white table cloth, centered by a low bowl of pink sweet peas flanked by lighted tapers in topaz holders. Mrs. Reuben Jorgensen assisted the hostess about the rooms and at the luncheon hour.

Present were Mrs. Harrington, the complimented guest, Mrs. Lloyd Moser, Mrs. Chris Bischof, Mrs. Lloyd Larson, Mrs. Nettie Vinson, Mrs. William Francis, Mrs. Reuben Jorgensen, Miss Gertrude Gregerson and Mrs. Merritt Barth.

The wedding ceremony will take place in St. Mary's Catholic church Wednesday morning, January 20.

Tea Arranged to Fete Ivan Whites

Miss Mary E. Eyre will entertain informally at tea Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ivan B. White, who are guests in the capital, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. H. White. The couple will leave in the near future for Yokohama, where Mr. White will serve as vice-consul.

Assisting Miss Eyre will be Mrs. L. D. Walker, Miss Ola Clark and Miss Lillian Davis.

Miss Rickman To Sing Tonight
Friends of Miss Bernice Rickman will be interested to know that she will sing over station WGN, Chicago, this evening at 9:30 o'clock. Central standard time. She will be presented over the Fireside Theatre hour.

Miss Rickman was a student of Miss Lena Belle Tartar while in the capital and was prominent among music circles of the city.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. R. P. Bolse will entertain tomorrow in compliment to members of the Thursday club at the home of Mrs. Bolse in North Summer street.

Mrs. E. Gale Sanders will open her home at 1050 Lamberon street Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to members of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

The Delta Phi Mothers' club met Monday afternoon at the chapter house in Court street for an informal social and business meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Gordon Black, Mrs. Don Upjohn and Mrs. C. L. Sherman.

Those present in addition to the hostesses were Mrs. Fred Alban Well, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, Mrs. C. S. Emmons, Mrs. Albert F. Noth, Mrs. James McGilchrist, Mrs. J. P. Hunt and Mrs. A. N. Chapman.

Stanton—Mrs. Louis Pooler was hostess to members of her bridge club at her home. At the close of several hours of bridge, Mrs. Kentin Thompson and Mrs. Virgil Moorehead of Salem held the high scores.

Included in the group were Mrs. Virgil Moorehead, Mrs. Lee Killian, and Mrs. Ralph Curtis of Salem, Mrs. Kentin Thompson, Mrs. Fred Davey, Mrs. A. M. Dozier, Mrs. Louis Dawes and Mrs. Louis Pooler.

Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary will meet this evening in the Woman's clubhouse at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present for initiation.

Japanese Wedding Event of Sunday
Independence—A Japanese wedding was held in the local Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday afternoon last at 2 o'clock, when Rev. Mizutani, a Japanese preacher from Portland, officiated at the ceremony of N. Okito and Kazuo Umomoto.

The ring ceremony was read in the usual Oriental custom, and the bride was attended by a maid of honor and a little girl about 8 years of age as ring bearer.

The bride was beautifully attired in a white satin gown with long tulle veil, and carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds and white Oriental lilies. Her maid and ring bearer were gowned in pink silk, and carried rosebuds and white carnations.

The entire ceremony was in Japanese, and afterwards the wedding feast was observed at the home of K. Chikuo in the Oak Point district, where the young couple will make their home for the present.

The usual decorations of the Orientals were in evidence.

There were about eighty persons present at the wedding and feast, all Japanese with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph, owners of the ranch which Mr. Chikuo is managing.

Still Coughing?
No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)
