

MT. ANGEL ENTERTAINS COUNTY LEGION MEMBERS

STATE LEADERS WILL TAKE PART IN CONFERENCES

MT. ANGEL—Final preparations for the district conference which is being held here Thursday afternoon and evening were completed at the regular meeting of the Mt. Angel post of the American Legion and Auxiliary.

The afternoon session will begin at 2:30 o'clock with the officers and members of the Legion meeting in the city hall and the officers and members of the Auxiliary meeting at the school auditorium.

Officers who are expected to be present for the conference are Mrs. Mabel McIntosh of Marshfield, state secretary; Mrs. Blanche Jones of Sherwood, state president; Mrs. Mae Waters of Salem, state vice-president; Guy Cordon, state commander; and Miss Palmer of Salem, state vice-commander.

At 8:30 o'clock a banquet will be served in the school dining room and at 8 o'clock a mass meeting will be held open to the public.

After the meeting the members went to the funeral parlor to pay respect to the deceased Herman H. Keller, husband of Mrs. Elizabeth Keller-Annen, a gold star mother.

The members of the Legion are planning a "shoot" with Cletus Butsch, Frank Durschmidt and Frank Walker in charge, at the Carl Ertel place next month.

It was announced at the Legion meeting that the local post has gone over the top in membership. Ralph Hook was appointed to head a committee to get grave markers for the ex-service men.

Purebred Bantams Start Cold Trip

Silverton—Five tiny residents took a cold trip to Wisconsin, leaving here Tuesday forenoon. They were four hens and a cockerel from the aristocratic flock of Richard F. Larson's white-crowned black Polish bantams, and went by express, which promises the best of care enroute. The consignee is A. W. Abbott of Fort Atkinson, Wis., bantam fancier.

MASONIC GROUP ASKED TO HELP

Independence—Independence Chapter R.A.M. met in regular convocation Tuesday evening with their new officers for the year taking their respective stations. Several petitions for the degrees were received and after the chapter was closed a lodge of Most Excellent Masters was opened and the degree conferred upon two candidates.

An invitation will be extended by the local chapter to members of Multnomah chapter, Salem, to be guests of Independence chapter and confer the Royal Arch degree upon two candidates at the next regular convocation, February 16.

H. W. Hagemeier, King-elect, and W. C. Hill, who was appointed Master of the First Veil, were installed into their respective stations by J. G. McIntosh, a past Excellent High Priest of the chapter, by request of W. L. Smith, E. H. P. Dr. M. J. Butler acted as installing marshal.

At the close of the convocation refreshments were served in the club room, and a social hour spent at cards and billiards.

VENUS CHAPTER HAS RITUALISTIC WORK

Donald—Mrs. Hazel Ingram, associate grand matron, was the guest of honor at the regular meeting of Venus chapter, No. 129, O.E.S. Mrs. Ingram held a school of instructions for the officers who exemplified the ritualistic work.

Mrs. H. C. Thompson and L. W. Harris, as candidates, were escorted through the ceremonies by Mrs. Matilda Pendleton and Mrs. M. H. Evans, conductress. In the absence of the matron, Mrs. W. Shaw, the chair was filled by Mrs. F. J. Dolson, associate matron, who presented a gift to Mrs. Ingram on behalf of the members. Mrs. Ingram delivered an interesting address.

Refreshments were served by a committee composed of Mrs. Alma Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Harris, Miss Eva Swan and M. H. Evans.

Lingston Social Club Entertained

Stayton—Mrs. John Fery entertained members of the Lingston Social Hour club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Quitting occupied the afternoon, followed by a refreshment hour. Mrs. Gilbert Finley has invited the group to her home for the next meeting, February 2.

Guests present were: Mrs. Hoffman and son, Mrs. Joe Hendricks, Miss Alma Hendricks, and Mrs. Andrew Fery. Club members who attended the meeting included Mrs. Merle Aronson, Mrs. Gilbert Finley, Louis Gassner, Mrs. Aletta Sandner and the hostess, Mrs. Fery.

BALL MACHINE LICENSES ARE ALL COLLECTED

Lebanon—Shasta Arnett, chief of police, has completed his collection of pool hall and pin ball machine licenses. He turned over to the city treasury $241 in tobacco and pool hall licenses, and $60 for pin ball machines for one month's operation. While the pin ball machines are illegal, according to a ruling of City Attorney F. D. Mayer, yet the council decided it would be better to collect monthly licenses than to have them operated under cover in or near the city.

FIRE TRUCK RECEIVED

Lebanon—Lebanon's newly improved fire truck has been returned to this city, completely outfitted with new devices, which will match the equipment of the new $5,000 pumper recently received. After the fire department practices with the new equipment for a period of thirty days, insurance rates will be lowered in many instances, especially on residences along the water canal, which previously were without fire protection, and which carried terribly high insurance ratings.

Ordinary householders in other parts of the city will not benefit, but several of the larger mills and industries will be given substantial reductions.

WITMAN CITY BUYER

Lebanon—C. H. Witman, present city recorder of Lebanon, was elected purchasing agent of the city at a meeting of the council Tuesday night. The practice of city employees making small purchases, as a few cents worth of nails for a repair job, will be done away with. "We will buy in larger amounts, and have materials on hand," explained the new purchasing agent. Heads of departments will issue requisitions on articles needed, the new office then making the purchase.

PUBLICITY ASKED

Lebanon—City Attorney F. D. Mayer has recommended to the council that further passage of ordinances of a general public interest be given publication in the local weekly paper so that those affected may know what the law is. The cost will be paid from the general funds of the city. The publication of such ordinances is not required by the city charter but the city council accepted the suggestion, ordering a new bi-cyclic ordinance printed at a cost of five cents a line.

CITY ATTORNEY REPORTS

Lebanon—The annual report of City Attorney F. D. Mayer shows he appeared for the city in twelve criminal actions, collecting $274.00 in fines. During the year he drew up 16 ordinances, and prepared 30 resolutions for the council. His report was accepted by a unanimous vote of the new council.

CLUB ENTERTAINED

Lebanon—The Sunshine club met with Mrs. Floyd Connert Tuesday afternoon with twelve members present. Mrs. Jack Haek was program leader and gave a very interesting talk on "Utah." After the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Jane Fitzwater.

SOCIAL CLUB GUEST

Lebanon—The Tuesday Social club met at the home of Mrs. Katherine Simons Tuesday afternoon. Twelve members were present to enjoy an afternoon of bunco and Mildred Mackey won high score prize.

Farmers are Needed To Pen Game Laws

Silverton—Judge A. C. Nelson today suspended the $25 fine levied last week against James Cully of the Crooked Finger country, after Cully had been arrested for killing a coon which he suspected had killed some of his chickens.

The suspension was made upon the condition that Cully immediately buy his 1937 hunting license. This requirement was promptly complied with by Cully.

Commenting on the law which requires a hunting license to kill any kind of a wild animal and which provides for a $25 minimum fine, Judge Nelson said, "I can see no reason for such a heavy minimum fine or why anyone should be penalized for killing a pest. Gophers, weasels and skunks fall in the same class. Evidently this law was not written by a farmer."

COLE CLUB PLANS MONTHLY MEETING

Stayton—A committee was appointed at the meeting of the Cole Community club Monday night to make the arrangements for the meeting which will take place February 19 at the hall. The committee, which includes Lydie Christman, Pete Mertz and Mrs. Clarence Neatry, will arrange a program made up of numbers from at least one member of each family in the group. The plan was carried out at the meeting Monday night with interesting results.

Included in the program was: Harmonica and piano numbers by Ed. Roberts and Mrs. Clarence Stanley, violin selections by Ernest Angler and Clarence Neatry, skit by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Vernon and son, Glen, a demonstration of memory work by Arthur Sandner, a negro reading by Arthur Walls, and a song by the two little Ray girls.

RADIO ANNOUNCER TO ADDRESS CLUB

Hayesville—The Hayesville Community club is sponsoring a benefit supper and carnival evening on Friday, January 29, to be given in the school auditorium.

Art Kirkham, KEX radio announcer from Portland, will be the evening's feature-program number, which promises to be an entertaining one for those who attend. Booths with carnival ideas will be placed in various parts of the school rooms. The teachers, Mr. Kennedy, Mrs. Parkes and Mrs. Shaner, with their assistants will have charge of the carnival part of the evening.

Missionary Group Meets At Gervas

Gervais—An all-day meeting was held by the Ladies' Missionary society Wednesday. A pot luck dinner was served at noon.
