"Book Chat" Is Highlight Of the Week

An affair which always stands out in the memories of wives of legislators is the annual "Book Chat" given each session by Miss Harriet C. Long, state librarian. The enjoyable affair was given last night at the residence studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts and preceding the splendid book reviews given by Miss Long, Prof. Roberts played Handel's Largo and Schubert's By the Sea. Following her talk Prof. Roberts again played and refreshments were served.

Miss Long's list of books was as follows:

OF OREGON INTEREST
Fee—Chief Joseph.
The Oregon, or Passages in the Life of Ruth Boyer.

Miller-Yergen Vows Exchanged

Woodburn—A quiet wedding took place Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Catholic rectory when Mrs. Emma Lenore Yergen and George G. Miller, were united in marriage by Rev. Father Deis of Salem, formerly of Woodburn. Attending the bridal party were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, brother of the bridegroom and niece of the bride. Others in attendance at the ceremony were Jake and Lawrence Miller and Miss Mayanna Miller.

The bride wore a modish frock of aqua blue with a corsage of rosebuds and a black caraco coat with matching hat. Mrs. Miller wore a model of wood violet with hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller left immediately on a wedding trip to Boise, Idaho, where they expect to visit relatives for two weeks. The bridegroom is one of the outstanding farmers in this vicinity and both are well known and popular. They will make their home on the Miller farm adjoining the city limits on the northwest.

Betrothal of Couple Told

Of interest in Salem is news of the announcement of Miss Marie Ring's engagement to Martin Erickson. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Ring is an instructor at the Oregon Normal school. Her fiancé also is a member of the Normal school faculty at Monmouth.

Independence Club Hears Fine Program

Independence—At the regular meeting of the woman's club Tuesday afternoon a group of young people from Albany college entertained with a musical and literary program, under the direction of Miss Blanche Cohen, instructor in music in the college.

The program consisted of baritone, tenor and soprano solos, and a mixed quartette, all being accompanied by Miss Cohen. A representative from the public speaking department of the college gave a number of readings taken from characters in the Mother Goose rhymes. The next meeting of the club will be held the evening of February 2 and will be husband night of the club. Cards and refreshments will be the order of the evening.

The matter of increasing their contribution to the scholarship fund of the normal school was discussed and it was voted to raise the contribution to $28. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. R. M. Walker, Mrs. E. E. Tripp, Mrs. E. M. Wundt, Mrs. Joe Oberzon.

Miss Lucille Barnes Weds Robert Harris

Jefferson—Miss Lucille Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barnes, and Robert Harris, son of Mrs. Paul Harris, all of Jefferson, were quietly married in Salem Sunday afternoon at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Guy Drill. The single ring ceremony was read by Rev. Drill in the presence of the immediate families.

Harold W. Renn sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Drill at the piano.

The bride was attractive in a blue suit with matching accessories and wore a corsage of pink sweet peas and tulle and tulle roses.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Harris are graduates of the Jefferson high school. Mr. Harris with the class of 1933 and Mrs. Harris with the 1935 class. Harris has been engaged in farming on his mother's ranch east of Jefferson since finishing school.

Best Cough Remedy Is Easily Mixed at Home

It's So Easy! Makes a Big Saving. No Cooking. To get the quickest relief from coughs due to colds, mix your own remedy at home. Once tried, you'll never use any other kind of cough medicine, and it's so simple and easy.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. A child could do it. No cooking needed. Then get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any druggist. This is a concentrated compound of Norway Pine, famous for its prompt action on throat and bronchial membranes.

Put the Pinex into a pint bottle, and add your syrup. Thus you make a full pint of really better medicine than you could buy ready-made for four times the money. It never spoils, and children love its pleasant taste.

And for quick, blessed relief, it has no equal. You can feel it penetrating the air passages in a way that means business. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the inflamed membranes, and eases the soreness. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you get restful sleep. Just try it, and if not pleased, your money will be refunded.

St. Mary's Scene Of Beautiful Rites

Mt. Angel—At a pretty ceremony in St. Mary's Catholic church Wednesday morning at 8:15 o'clock, Miss Ann Nag, daughter of Mr. John Nag, became the bride of Joseph Doran, son of Mrs. Mary Doran of Gervais.

The nuptial vows were read by Rev. Father Alcun, O. S. B. Large baskets of laurel and ferns decorated the vestibule of the church and bouquets of chrysanthemums were used on the altar. The processional and recessional wedding marches were played by Rev. Father Placodus, O. S. B., who presided at the organ during the high Mass, which was sung by the St. Mary's choir.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a heavy white satin gown made princess style with a long train. Her tight-fitting sleeves were lace puffed at the neckline which was finished with a stand-up lace collar. Her long lace-edged tulle veil was arranged in a cap effect with a halo of tulle and pearls and she carried a bridal bouquet of tallinn roses.
