

RAINBOW GIRLS SEAT OFFICERS SPECIAL RITES

Woodburn—Impressive installation services were held by Evergreen Assembly No. 12, Order of the Rainbow for Girls at the Masonic temple Wednesday evening. Miss Marjorie Faulconer, the retiring worthy advisor, was the installing officer. She was assisted by Marie Strike as installing chaplain; Elsie Lytle, installing recorder; May Strike, installing marshal, and Minnie Richards, installing musician.

Officers installed were Jean L. Beers, worthy advisor; Betty Ackerson, worthy associate advisor; Jean Simmons, Charity; Lou Jane Ringo, Hope; Annette Lytle, Faith; Geraldine Smith, recorder; Avon Simons, treasurer; Carmel Ottoway, chaplain; Marjorie Wright, drill leader; Jean Ann Carter, red; Bernadine St. Helen, orange; Catherine Cowan, yellow; Helen Moeding, green; Pearl Porter, blue; Mary Jane Dunn, indigo; Corinne Gill, violet; Viola Mills, confidential observer; Marjorie Faulconer, outer observer; Donna Dunn, musician; Shirley Seely and Patricia Yergen, choir.

Miss Elsie Lytle was installed as Mother Advisor. Members of the advisory board installed were Elsie Lytle, Maude Mochel, Mabel Settemier, Thomas Sims, E. Aline Beers, Nina J. Ringo, Prudence Ackerson, May Strike, Myrtle Gill, Beulah Lessard and B. W. Dunn.

Miss Beers was crowned in a beautiful crowning ceremony written by Mrs. Mochel, the retiring mother advisor. B. W. Dunn, worthy patron of Evergreen chapter, placed the crown upon her head and was assisted in the ceremony by members of the advisory board. Gifts and flowers were presented to the new worthy advisor at the time of her installation.

Following the installation a vocal solo was given by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller and a vocal solo by Mrs. Miller with Mrs. Nina J. Ringo accompanying. Talks were given by Mrs. Mochel, Miss Elsie Lytle, Miss Jean Beers, B. W. Dunn and Mrs. Myrtle Gill.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Elsie Lytle, in charge of the arrangements.

Elderly Members Get Grange Pins

Aurora—Nine members of Warner Grange, all of them holders of silver star (25 year) certificates and more than 70 years old, were elected honorary members of the Grange Saturday at New Era. The oldest of the nine is David MacArthur, Civil war veteran, who is 95 years old, and his 95 year old wife, to whom he has been married more than 71 years. Elected were Mr. and Mrs. MacArthur, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chin, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McCord and Mrs. William Dustin.

Gervais Community Club Plays Cards

Gervais—The Community "500" club met Monday evening with 36 in attendance. Mrs. John Perschewer, Miss Jewel, Mrs. A. DeJardin and Mrs. Fred Gallely were acting hostesses and served a pot-luck supper at 7 o'clock. Cards followed and prizes were given Mrs. Ward Lundy, Perry Seely, Mrs. Perry Seely and J. C. Teddar. The club will meet again Monday evening, February 8, and Mrs. Joe Bonn, Mrs. Georgia Keping, Miss Neptune and Mrs. L. J. McAdoo will be assisting hostesses.

Postal Crew Ill

Silverton—Sick from the flu at the postoffice are the postmaster, Henry Alm, Clarence Reed and Rhinold Cooley. Although Roy Davenport was ill during last week he was on the job Monday. George Lovett is the man having to do double carrier duty about town as no subs are available. A. C. Breckhammer, one of Silverton's oldest citizens, is said to be very ill. He is the father of George Steelhammer, local druggist.

WATSONS ENTERTAIN

Clear Lake—A 7 o'clock supper was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Watts near Hayesville Monday evening. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Will Davenport of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith of Clear Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Robb Massey of Quincy.

MRS. GARVER HOSTESS

Silverton—Mrs. E. W. Garver entertained the members of her bridge club Monday afternoon at her home on Lewis street. Seating at play were Mrs. C. J. Cooley, Mrs. Oscar Storazzi and Mrs. J. H. Stayner.

A Home Owned Theatre HOLLYWOOD

Tonight Family Night
Mon. Pop and Unmarried Kids 30c
TWO FEATURES
"Abdul the Damned" John Wayne
Nils Asther & Adrienne Ames
in "The Sea Spoilers"
Friday and Saturday
Two Features 15c
"Sitting on the Moon" Johnny
Roger Frye and Mack Brown
Grace Bradley "Undercover Man"

Social Sewing Club At Robinson Home

Mills City—Mrs. W. J. Robinson was hostess at her home to the members of the Social Sewing Club. Refreshments were served by the hostess following several hours of sewing and visiting.

OAK POINT PEOPLE ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Oak Point—Mrs. D. Eggleston was honored with a surprise dinner Sunday, complimenting her on her birthday anniversary. A basket dinner was served and guests included the children of Mr. and Mrs. Eggleston and friends. Covers were placed for Mrs. Eggleston, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Eggleston and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowman and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Winston. All of Monmouth, and D. Eggleston. Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Lauderbach entertained with an informal dinner Sunday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hultman and Delores of Buena Vista.

Guests at the A. B. U. Hughes home were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wampler, Clinton and Marion of Hazel Green.

Hiram Joy, father of Mrs. Clyde Comstock, is the guest of his daughter and family for an indefinite period.

"DELIRIOUS NIGHT" PRESENTATIONS SET

Silverton Hills—The community play, "One Delirious Night," will be given at the hall Wednesday, February 3, and Saturday, February 6. Miss Agnes Walker is directing the play and is assisted by Mrs. C. V. Murray as manager.

The drama is a three-act comedy with plenty of wholesome fun. The affair is sponsored by the Grange Economic club with the proceeds to be used for the remodeling of the basement rooms of the hall. Dancing will follow the play each evening. Light refreshments will be sold. Included in the cast of players are Lillie Clark, the maid, Mrs. Virgil Techman; Letty Deane, the cook, Joe Bonner; Mrs. Arnold, grandmother, Mrs. George Benson; Hannah, the nurse, Mrs. Gertrude Anderson; Patricia Arnold, the granddaughter, Mary Lasham, Sally Wheeler, her chum, Gladys Anderson; Colonel Del Ray, an old southern gentleman, C. J. Teese; Dick Del Ray, grandson, Al Tinsley; Fred Fawcett, Dick's pal, Roy Davis; Paul Hammond, butler, Al DeHart; Miss Jordan, secretary, Mrs. Bruce Hadley; Doctor Green, an osteopath, Gordon Parsons; O'Brien, the policeman, E. Tzipper.

Pinochle Players Guests Mertz Home

Stacyton—Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Mertz were hosts Sunday evening to members of the pinochle club at their home. At the close of the play, high scores were held by Mrs. Gilbert Wourms and John Perry. Mrs. A. M. Dozier and Gilbert Wourms were awarded the consolation. Members include Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dozier, Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Dozier, Mr. and Mrs. John Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gehlen, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scranton and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Mertz.

Waffle Breakfast Served to Class

Clear Lake—The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mason was the scene of a waffle breakfast Sunday morning when Mrs. Mason entertained her Sunday school class of young people. Those present were: Mena Beckner, Aral Smith, Betty Jean Smith, Evelyn Cain, Loretta Smith, Nellie Clement, Ada Mae Smith, Esteline Smith and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Mason.

Class officers were elected as follows: President, Evelyn Cain; secretary, Loretta Smith; treasurer, Mena Beckner; social, Nellie Clement.

School is Resumed

Gervais—G.U.H. resumed school after a four-day holiday on account of illness of students and teachers. The entire building was fumigated during the enforced vacation and the enrollment now is nearly normal.

STATE THEATRE Last Day Today DOUBLE BILL

WHEELER & WOOLSEY
MUMMYS BOYS
Extra! Revival Picture
CLAUDETTE COLBERT
In "The Torch Singer"
Friday - Saturday
Big Time
Vaudeville
—Plus—
JANE WITHERS
In "CAN THIS BE DIXIE"

70c FULL PINT
$1.30 FULL QUART
$2.55 HALF GALLON
Distilled Grain Neutral Spirit 75%
So Smooth You Can Sip It
COBBS CREEK
90 Proof BLENDED WHISKY
CONTINENTAL DISTILLING CORPORATION, PHILA., PA.

NEW OFFICERS GIVEN PLACES; LEBANON BUSY

Lebanon—The Rebekah lodge held its installation Tuesday evening. This installation was to have taken place several weeks ago but was postponed because of the cold weather. A covered-dish dinner was served at 7 o'clock by a committee composed of Dora McKinney, Deborah Secek, Virginia Reed, Amanda Gwathney, Bertha Reeves and Mrs. Gould.

Officers installed were: Christine Smith, noble grand; Lucille Neely, vice noble grand; Nellie Butler, recording secretary; Gladys Phelps, financial secretary; Neva Young, treasurer; Mrs. Horace Preston, past noble grand; Louise Groves, chaplain; Clara Surrey, inner sentinel; Deborah Secek, outer sentinel; Sylvia Stewart, musician; Emma Newport, right support to noble grand; Avo MacMillan, left support to noble grand; Alice Elliott, right support to vice noble grand; Wilma Richards, left support to vice noble grand; Bertha Irvine, publicity member; Mattie Golden, Leda Fisher, Mrs. Gould, Wilma Richards, finance committee; Katharine Simons, Amy Bennett and Sylvia Stewart, for good of the order committee. Mrs. Gladys Phelps was the installing officer.

BRIDGE CLUB GUEST

Lebanon—Mrs. Jo Muetze and Mrs. Thelma Butler entertained the Hi-Bidders bridge club. Mrs. Opal Humphreys won first prize and Mrs. Babs Hutchinson, second prize. At the close of the game refreshments were served by the hostesses.

LEGION WOMEN SEW

Lebanon—The American Legion Auxiliary is meeting at the home of Mrs. Dave Strimatter for an afternoon of sewing Thursday. The Auxiliary has been sewing for the veteran's hospital and at present is making pillow cases.

INFECTION SERIOUS

Lebanon—Mrs. Lee Cooper is in the hospital recovering from an operation, removing her arm from just below the elbow. She suffered an infection from a needle prick while quilting and it spread to her arm.

DINNER PARTY HELD

Lebanon—Mr. and Mrs. Victor Muetze and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Downing entertained a group of 16 friends at a dinner party Wednesday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scroggins, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Reeves, Mrs. Zola Arehart, Wilbur Muetze, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Southard, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knowlen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bohle, Jack Stuber, Mrs. Bernice Wallace and the hosts.

ENJOY WINTER SPORTS

Lebanon—The J. G. Gill cabin above Cascade was the scene of another winter party. At noon a no-hostess dinner was served, after which an afternoon of skiing was held. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilcox and son, Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Reeves, Harry Miller and son, Harry, Mrs. Reed and daughter Eloise and Mr. and Mrs. Gill.

GUESTS GILL HOME

Lebanon—Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gill have as their guest, Mrs. Gill's mother, Mrs. Anna Calavan, of Sumner, Wash.

LEBANON WOMAN ILL

Lebanon—Word has been received from Eugene of the serious illness of Mrs. Jane Fitzwater of Lebanon. Mrs. Fitzwater went to Eugene last week for eye treatment and while there underwent a tonsil operation. Sunday she started for home when she was taken ill very suddenly and had to remain in Eugene. It is thought that the tonsil operation is not the cause of her sickness as she has not been well for about three years. Her daughter, Mrs. Tom Dillard, went to Eugene to be with her mother and at the last report, Mrs. Fitzwater was in a very serious condition.

OPERETTA POSTPONED

Lebanon—Due to so much illness among the cast members, Miss Irene

Birthday Observed At Larson Home

Sublimity—Mrs. Andrew Larsen entertained with a party at her home Sunday evening in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in playing cards after which refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Bass and sons, William and Albert, Clyde Morgan, George Bass, Vivian and Nellie Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koenig, Agnes, Joe and John Koenig, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Krenner, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Krenner, Miss Evelyn Krenner, Mrs. Mike Toepfer, Julia and Joseph Toepfer and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Larsen.

LAUNDERING TAUGHT TO CLUB MEMBERS

Bethel—Mrs. Carmalita Weddle opened her home in Salem Saturday afternoon for the meeting of the Happy Homemakers, a division of 4-H club work, of which she is leader. The meeting was conducted by Lillian Hamrick. Record cards were checked, reports given, and the members worked on new lunch cloths.

Each member has completed six weeks of room work in her own home, and has done her 10 selected tasks five times each.

Laundrying is now being learned. Each member must launder 10 garments, one of which must be a boy's or man's shirt, and 12 towels.

JEFFERSON READY FOR CHURCH FOLK

Jefferson—The Jefferson district Sunday school convention will be held Sunday afternoon at the Friends church in Marion.

Mrs. Charles Fogg of Jefferson, district president, announces that an interesting program will be presented. "Onward and Upward" is the convention theme, and talks on the subject will be given by Rev. W. F. Willings of the Jefferson Methodist church, Rev. Charles Fogg of the local Evangelical church, and Rev. Robert Morrill of the Marion Friends church.

Awarding of banners will be a feature of the business meeting. A good attendance is expected from schools in the district, including Marion, Jefferson and Talbot.

Ready Response is Made to Red Cross

Dallas—The Polk county quota toward the fund being raised to help sufferers in the flood areas has now been set at $400. The original request for $50 was met promptly and a check mailed at once to headquarters. The quota was then doubled and then another wire came, placing it at the $400 mark. Dr. A. B. Starbuck has solicitors in the field right away and it is anticipated that little difficulty will be encountered in raising this amount.

Progress Reported Clear Lake Church

Clear Lake—The Clear Lake church and Sunday school is progressing rapidly. The attendance is much better than last year. Efforts are being made to bring it to 100 by Easter Sunday with 57 present last Sunday.

Church services are held each Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock. Sunday school follows. Prayer meeting and Bible study are held each Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This week the 10th chapter of Job was the study. Rev. Herbert Bennett is pastor.

Lyons—Mrs. Robert Schroeder presented Louise Grafe and Constance Bodeker in piano recital at her home Monday night.

Moore, vocal instructor of the high school, has announced the postponement of the operetta, "The Nightingale," was to have been presented Thursday and Friday evenings but will now be given sometime during the middle of February.

LEBANON'S QUOTA FOR RED CROSS GETS INCREASE

Albany—Lebanon county's Red Cross quota has been raised from its original sum of $20 to $1000. It was announced here today by Mrs. Edwin Fortmiller, local chairman. Mrs. Fortmiller stated that the new amount was asked for in a message received from Admiral Carey T. Grayson, national Red Cross executive.

The Lebanon county chapter sent in $150 last night, all raised locally, and had another $50 cash on hand today. Contributions were still coming in, but soliciting will continue, according to Albany officials. In regard to a house-to-house canvass, it was said such a campaign would not be carried on if it can possibly be avoided.

CHRISTIAN LIFE EASIER

Albany—Forty-three percent of the students of Albany college believe that Christian life is easier in college than in high school. It was revealed in an investigation by the college committee of the Oregon Presbyterian synod, headed by Dr. J. Hudson Ballard, Portland.

The investigation, in the form of a questionnaire, is an initial step in determining the value of removing the site of Albany college to another location, probably Portland. Although no definite plans have been announced as yet, it is believed that the issue will be settled upon the return of President Thomas W. Bibb, who at the present time is on an extended tour of the eastern states in behalf of the school. Dr. Bibb is expected to make a statement on the situation January 30, the date of his return.

SCHOOLS ARE CLOSED

Albany—Classes in Albany's public schools have been suspended until next Monday morning, when the second semester will open. Today was devoted to completion of this term's work, and students will enjoy a brief four-day vacation. This is the first mid-term period when exercises have not been held in several years. This was due to prevalence of influenza and other diseases in town.

Woodburn Library Board Has Ballot

Woodburn—Mrs. T. C. Poorman was elected president of the Woodburn library board at the regular meeting held Tuesday night which was the annual election of officers. Other officers elected are Mrs. A. E. Austin, vice-president; Mrs. W. D. Simons, secretary; Mrs. Rodney Alden, treasurer. The annual report of the librarian, Mrs. Maude Mochel, was read. Standing committees will be announced by the president later.

Fairfield Grangers Will Present Play

Fairfield—The play entitled "Neighbors" by Zona Gale, will be presented to the public Friday evening February 5 at the Fairfield grange hall. The cast of characters is as follows:

Mrs. Allen Nelson, Mrs. Abel; Mrs. Floyd Hill, Grandma; Mrs. Mike Mahoney, Inez; Abel; Michael Mahoney, Peter; Donald B. Duffette, Ezra; Duke Ballweber, Mrs. Trot; Mrs. Merle Lucas, Mrs. Elsworth; Mrs. Albert Girard, Maran.

Second Matrimonial Venture Hits Skids

Albany—Terminating their second marital venture as unsuccessful as their first, Evelyn Page today filed suit for her second divorce from Chester Page in two years. The complaint reveals the two were first married January 1, 1931, and divorced in 1935. They were re-married at Salem May 2, 1936. Page charges cruelty and asks the custody of their two minor children, $57 a month alimony and $35 a month for support of the children.

PUPILS ON VACATION

Salem Heights—The school has been closed until February 1 due to the prevalence of influenza. Two teachers have flu as well as many of the pupils.

West Stayton Club Observes Birthdays

West Stayton—Mrs. Mary Hinkel and Helen Gilbert entertained the Birthday club members at Mrs. Hinkel's home. Mabel Royce, Edna Wilkinson, Julia Schlemmer and Katherine Ruggles received birthday gifts. The next meeting will be at the home of Carol Lacy with LeOma Lacy assistant hostess. It will also be the end of the club year and election of officers will be held.

A two-course lunch was served to the following members and guests: Rose Goss, Sally Goss, Lottie Constock, Ida Clark, Mabel Royce, Ada Stewart, Minnie Allen, Jennie McClellan, Pearl Darley, Edna Wilkinson, Lera Snoddy, Carol Lacy, Julia Schlemmer, LeOma Lacy, Dee Chamberlin, Bertha Wilson, Helen Gilbert Hinkel, Helena Perrin and Carol Hinkel.

EIGHT CARD TABLE EVENING ENJOYED

Stayton—Mrs. Barbara Boedigher, Miss Rita Gehlen and Mrs. Martin Gehlen shared hostess honors at the home of the former at a benefit "500" party. Eight tables were in play. Miss Clara Spaniol drew the door prize and high and low scores were held by Mrs. Eleanor Stewart and Mrs. John Gries.

Those making up the tables were Rev. George Sniderhorn, Mrs. Eleanor Stewart, Mrs. John Dozier, Mrs. Ernest Dozier, Mrs. Ambrose Dozier, Mrs. Kate Boedigher, Mrs. Andrew Keidel, Mrs. Peter Deldrich, Mrs. Henry Gescher, Mrs. Ed. Bell, Miss Clara Spaniol, Mrs. Ben Gehlen, Mrs. Joe Hendricks, Mrs. Albert Dozier, Mrs. John Gries, Mrs. William Kerber, Mrs. Joe Kerber, Mrs. John Schumacher, Mrs. Frank Schumacher, Mrs. Amelia Van Ermen, Mrs. Chris Cramer, Mrs. Alva Fery, Mrs. Fred Fery, Mrs. Alva Fery, Mrs. Nick Fehlen, Mrs. Paul Fehlen, Mrs. Leo Odenthal, Mrs. Anna Barkmeyer and Mrs. Ralph Scranton.

MISSIONARY LEADER IN MONMOUTH PULPIT

Monmouth—The all-day meeting at the Baptist church featured Dr. T. H. Hagen, the young people's missionary director of the state, in the pulpit for the morning session. Dr. Hagen included facts in his sermon pertinent to his work.

For the afternoon worship a male chorus of 25 voices from the German Baptist church of Salt Creek appeared in several selections and Dr. Hagen again addressed the group. Dr. F. W. Starring, secretary of the Oregon state convention of the Baptist church, told of his work and also gave the address for the evening worship.

A dinner, which was no host, was served in the basement dining room at noon.

Legion at Woodburn Starts Upon 'Home'

Woodburn—Work began Monday upon the remodeling of the upper rooms of the city hall which has been leased by the American Legion and auxiliary for a permanent meeting place. Two unfinished rooms are being lathed and plastered, one of which will be used for a kitchen and the other for auxiliary meetings. The main auditorium will also be improved. A 10 year lease for the new quarters has been signed by the Legion, and the expense of remodeling is borne by the post.

Full Year's Work Planned by Class

Monmouth—The Martha class of the Evangelical church Sunday school has planned a full program for the year's work. Mrs. John Fuller and Mrs. George Baun were hostesses to the meeting, which was an afternoon affair at the Fuller home with 24 members and one guest, Mrs. F. Bell, present. Mrs. Fuller presided, after which the entertainment committee, Mrs. E. Yarnell and Mrs. V. Wood, led the group in a series of clever games.

ADAH CHAPTER HAS CEREMONY

Independence—Despite the snow about 25 members of Adah chapter, O. E. S., braved the weather and attended the regular meeting of the chapter Tuesday evening. This was the first appearance of the new staff of officers.

Three of the officers who were unable to be present at the regular installation ceremony were initiated. These were P. M. Schweizer, associate patron; Mrs. O. P. Chief, chaplain; and Mrs. Homer Dodds, as secretary. Mrs. A. H. Dickson acted as installing officer and Mrs. A. A. Wolverson, as installing marshal. Mrs. Vanden Bosch as organist.

Five past matrons who had served the chapter, with P. M. Schweizer as their patron, presented him with a gift. J. G. McIntosh, also a past patron of the chapter, presented him with a past patron's jewel. Balloting upon a candidate for initiation resulted in the election of the candidate who will present himself before the chapter February 15, when the grand officer will make an official visit. Two members from Eugene chapter petitioned for application.

Mrs. C. D. Calbreath, who has acted as secretary for the chapter for the past ten years, in surrendering her office to the newly-elected secretary gave a brief report. She declined to be re-elected at the annual election, as she expected to take an extended vacation trip to California and other states during the year.

A no-host supper was served at 6:30 o'clock.

SNOW FALL KEEPS POLK PEOPLE BUSY

Dallas—More snow fell in this community Tuesday night and Wednesday morning to a depth of between two and three inches. The snow was also reported to be at least six inches deep in Falls City and vicinity.

SNOW PLOWS NEEDED

Independence—The county snow plow was put into operation on the streets and highways Wednesday morning, removing the surplus snow that fell during the night.

The streets were made very slushy and unpleasant to travel upon. Local residents got out their last winter's snow shovels and made trails from their homes to the streets. By noon much of the snow had melted.

Happy Hour Club Guest Porter Home

Stayton—Mrs. Otto Burson, newly-elected president, presided at the meeting of the Happy Hour club held at the home of Mrs. Roy Porter. Several hours of quilting followed the business meeting with refreshments in the late afternoon. Mrs. Harry Porter will entertain the group at her home February 4.

Circle Spends Time Busy with Needles

Dallas—The Circle "B" of the Presbyterian church met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harvey Carpenter. Sewing was the diversion of the work hour. Afternoon tea was served by the hostess to the following members: Mrs. Maurice Dalton, Mrs. W. C. Leith, Mrs. Wayne Hawke, Mrs. W. A. Grim, Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Mrs. Roy Donahue, Mrs. E. V. Dalton, Mrs. E. W. Cruson, Mrs. Oramel Shreve, Mrs. Walter L. Walte and Mrs. J. E. Spooner.

Masquerade Dance Scheduled Saturday

Waldo Hills—Mrs. Dan F. Hillman, president of the Community club, is announcing a masquerade dance Saturday evening at the hall. A five piece orchestra will furnish music.

The pie social held last week at the hall was a success financially and the members had an enjoyable time though the crowd was small on account of the prevalence of flu among families of the members.

Lyons—Ralph Trask and Mr. Perrin left Wednesday for Campbell, Calif., where they will visit at the home of Trask's brother, Walter Trask and family.

Forestry Specimens Collected by Boys

Hazel Green—The boys of the upper grades who belong to the Four-H Forestry club held an outdoor hike in the snow with the leader, Rev. H. Hashimoto. Their trip ended in Gilbert's woods where the leader treated with a wiener roast. Following the social period the boys collected leaves and specimens, which will be mounted at the next regular meeting in two weeks. The exhibit boards will be the main feature of the Achievement day exhibit and with their record books complete the project requirements. Members of the club are Sanford Moss, Frank Miles, Archie Rutherford, Keith Miles and Erwin Kasper.

SUNSHINE SEWING CLUB ENTERTAINED

Hazel Green—The Sunshine sewing club of West Hazel Green was entertained at the home of Mrs. Daniel Walker with her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Wacken, as assistant hostess. Final plans were discussed for the supper the women of the community are giving at the January meeting of the Community club. Mrs. Theodore Wacken (Mary Inskip), a recent bride and member of the club, was presented with a gift from the club members.

Assisting the hostesses at the tea hour was Mrs. Venita Perrine, Mrs. Ray McLaughlin was a special guest for the afternoon. Mrs. McLaughlin, who is a sister of Mrs. Luella Van Cleave, formerly resided in this community for a number of years, occupying the place now owned by Miss Ruby Woodard. Members present were Mrs. Dorothy Zielinski, Mrs. Melvin Van Cleave, Mrs. LeRoy Worden, Mrs. Marie Stettler, Mrs. Ralph Worden, Mrs. Hattie Van Cleave, Mrs. Venita Perrine, Mrs. Dorothy Wacken, Mrs. Luella Van Cleave, Mrs. Theodore Wacken and the hostess, Mrs. Walker. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Margery Looney with Mrs. Anna Williamson as assisting hostess.

Improvement Club Girls Entertained

Hazel Green—The girls home improvement 4-H club was entertained at a combined social and business meeting at the home of Mrs. Katherine Zielinski, who also acted as leader, due to the absence of Mrs. Shaefer, the regular leader. These girls have as their object the improvement of their rooms at home, and are about halfway finished with their work. Some of them have made dressing benches, curtains and dresser scarfs, and various other objects. Most of the articles made will be put up for exhibition, when the five local clubs stage their annual Achievement day program.

Circle Spends Time Busy with Needles

Dallas—The Circle "B" of the Presbyterian church met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harvey Carpenter. Sewing was the diversion of the work hour. Afternoon tea was served by the hostess to the following members: Mrs. Maurice Dalton, Mrs. W. C. Leith, Mrs. Wayne Hawke, Mrs. W. A. Grim, Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Mrs. Roy Donahue, Mrs. E. V. Dalton, Mrs. E. W. Cruson, Mrs. Oramel Shreve, Mrs. Walter L. Walte and Mrs. J. E. Spooner.

Masquerade Dance Scheduled Saturday

Waldo Hills—Mrs. Dan F. Hillman, president of the Community club, is announcing a masquerade dance Saturday evening at the hall. A five piece orchestra will furnish music.

The pie social held last week at the hall was a success financially and the members had an enjoyable time though the crowd was small on account of the prevalence of flu among families of the members.

Lyons—Ralph Trask and Mr. Perrin left Wednesday for Campbell, Calif., where they will visit at the home of Trask's brother, Walter Trask and family.

JACK HOLTS NORTH OF HOME

GRAND

ELSNORE 500 Good Seats 25c
T