CHURCH WOMEN MAKING READY FOR AID RALLY

Woodburn—Mrs. Paul Pemberton entertained the Federated Women of the Methodist Episcopal church at her home on Young street Tuesday afternoon. Assisting Mrs. Pemberton were Mrs. Walter Miller, Mrs. J. Sidney Johnson and Mrs. Herman Stone.

Mrs. L. C. Buchner presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. James Livesay. Devotions were led by Mrs. A. E. Austin. Special music was a vocal solo by Mrs. Herman Stone, accompanied by Mrs. Pemberton.

During the business session plans were completed for the sub-district rally of the Ladies' Aid society which will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church here Thursday, beginning at 10:30 o'clock.

The calling committee reported 165 calls made during the month. For next month the calling committee will be Mrs. L. C. Buchner, Mrs. Jeanette Zimmerle and Mrs. J. Sidney Johnson. Three "sunshine sisters" were honored, Mrs. Savilla Waldron, Mrs. Mary Whitman and Mrs. Jouen.

An invitation was accepted to hold the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul Burkart on Elliott Prairie.

Mrs. Oscar Allen was in charge of the program which included a report on the study book "A Preface to Racial Understanding," by Charles Johnson. The subject for the afternoon was "The Negro and His Accomplishments."

Tea was served from the daintily appointed table centered with a crystal bowl of pink tulips, guarded with white and blue tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Katherine Powell and Mrs. Florence Goulet presided at the urns.

MONEY OVERLOOKED BY NIGHT PROWLER

Dallas, Ore.—Joe Violette's poolroom and beer parlor was entered sometime Tuesday morning and 15 cartons of cigarettes, two boxes of cigars and $2 in change taken from one of the tills. Whoever did the job apparently overlooked the second till which contained some more cash.

According to reports entrance was obtained from the rear where two doors, one double, were forced apparently with a wrecking bar as the tool used to pry the door open. It is presumed the robbery took place between 1 and 5 o'clock as the place was open until almost midnight.

PROPERTY OWNERS RECEIVE NOTICES

Dallas, Ore.—Forty property owners in the city are slated to receive notices this week advising them that the sidewalks on their property are in need of attention. This action was authorized at a regular meeting of the city council Monday evening. An ordinance, prohibiting the operation of radios or other mechanical devices of a similar nature, was read for the first time. The ordinance also covers and applies to loud speaking equipment on moving vehicles.

Members of the council also took action in regard to 24-hour police service and elected Tony Neufeldt to the position. Neufeldt is a former city marshal and resigned the office in order to enter business for himself.

Mill City Bakery Will Start Soon

Mill City—An all-day bake sale was held by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor in the store owned by Miss Daisy Hendricson. The Taylors have begun plans and actual work on a bakery to be located in the building formerly housing the Hammond Lumber company offices, a part of the structure being occupied by the postoffice. Present plans are for the bakery to be open by May 1, with additional bake sales to be held at the Hendricson store on each Wednesday and Saturday until that time. The baked products are to be prepared at the Taylor home until proper equipment is installed.

Grange Has Social

Fairfield—Fairfield grange will holds its monthly social meeting Friday night for members, families and invited guests. Mrs. D. B. Ballweber and Mrs. J. W. Johnston are in charge of the affair and have arranged for a no-host supper to be served from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock. Games and dancing will be the diversions of the evening.

DANCE IS PLANNED

Silverton—Bert Swanson and Helmer Brokke are announcing a dance at the K. P. hall Saturday night with the Mulkey orchestra to play for both modern and old-time steps.

HOLLYWOOD PHONE 6058
FAMILY NIGHT 30¢
TWO FEATURES
Carole Lombard and Fred MacMurray "Hands Across the Table"
Boris Karloff in "Man Who Lived Again"
—Added—
Voice of Experience and Metrotone News

ROMANTIC INTERLUDE

Sylvia Sidney and Henry Fonda as they appear in a thrill-packed screen drama "You Only Live Once," a human story of a lone man and woman against the world, in a double feature program at the Elsinore theatre for three days starting Thursday. The other picture is "Private Lives of Henry the Eighth," with Charles Laughton.

AURORA CLUBS DISPLAY WORK

Aurora—The 4-H club fair was held in the Aurora grade school gymnasium with the entire year's work of each club member exhibited and judged. At the conclusion of the evening program Clay Taylor of the state police gave a talk on law enforcement.

Prizes were awarded as follows: Leland Stouer, 1st in forestry group No. 1; Billy Nast, 2nd and Ronald Mohning, 3rd, also 2nd in camp cookery, biscuits baked in reflectors. Dan Fleischhauer, 1st in forestry group No. 2, and 1st in camp cookery, biscuits baked in reflectors; Larry Dufette, 2nd in forestry group No. 2; Edward Yarno, 3rd in group No. 2, and 1st in camp cookery, biscuits baked in reflectors.

Howard Yarno, 3rd in forestry No. 2, and 1st in camp cookery, biscuits baked in oven; Janet Fleischhauer, 1st in sewing No. 2, and 2nd in cooking No. 2; Vernice DeFoen, 2nd in sewing No. 2, and 2nd in posters on posture; Verna Keil, 3rd in sewing No. 2 and 3rd in cooking No. 2; Phillis Danielson, 1st in sewing No. 1, 2nd in cooking No. 1, and 1st in posters on food; Irene Sinnet, 2nd in sewing No. 1; Rosetta DeFoen, 3rd in sewing No. 1; Lowell Sayre, 3rd in camp cookery, biscuits baked in reflectors, and 2nd in posters on safety; Jerry Yodder, 2nd in camp cookery, biscuits baked in oven; Charles Gooding, 3rd in camp cookery, biscuits baked in oven; Evelyn Oliver, 1st in cooking No. 1; Mabel Kauffman, 3rd in cooking No. 1; Lorraine Fredrikson, 1st in cooking No. 2; Bob Hunt, 1st in older calves; Billy Miles, 1st in younger calves; Leland Armstrong, 3rd in younger calves, and Robert Richter, 2nd in younger calves.

Benson Yarno 1st in posters on cleanliness, and Walter Colvin, 2nd; Mary Lou Dufette, 1st in posters on safety; Wilma Marsh, 2nd in posters on food; Billy Cole, 1st in posters on posture; Richard Bland, 1st in posters on exercise and Jean Snyder, 2nd; Walter Koenig, 4th in camp cookery No. 1, and forestry No. 1; Harriet Colvin, 3rd in posters on safety.

Emblems were awarded each club member.

PROMISE OF DINNER HEARD BY SCOUTS

Silverton—The report of the Boy Scout committee of the American Legion post Monday night at the regular session, made by F. M. Powell, chairman, showed a meeting of the committee including Powell, C. E. Jaqua, Olaf Boime and Cliff Dickerson, during the week. Because of the dissolution of troop 20 instead of the transfer of the members to another newly organized troop of town made by Scout officials of the area, the Legion committee found themselves with funds on hand amounting to sufficient to meet all financial obligations of the troop and a balance sufficient to stage a supper and social time for the boys who had composed Troop 20. The auxiliary members will furnish the supper for the boys at a date to be named in the near future. Around 30 boys will be eligible to attend.

CLUB PLANS DINNER

Independence—The Booster's club of the Methodist church will give a benefit chicken dinner Wednesday night at 6:30 o'clock to which all are invited.

North Santiam—Mildred McNeal who recently underwent an appendicitis operation at the Stayton hospital is recovering satisfactorily.

STATE THEATRE 15¢
BETTER PICTURES—PERFECT SOUND
—Today and Thursday—
2 BIG FEATURES!

For Once—A Good Double Bill—
ROMANCE COMES TO A SHOP WORN ANGEL!
"Along Came Love"
with IRENE HERVEY CHAS. STARRETT

Mother Rescues Infant Daughter From Deep Water

Mill City—A near-tragedy occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Daley when their three-year-old daughter, Lonna Fay, fell into four feet of water which had seeped into the basement of the house during the recent heavy rains.

The frantic screams of the child, however, brought her mother who managed to rescue her before any serious damage had been done. An older daughter, Betty, had run to a neighbor for help but upon her return found that his services were not needed for the child, who was hurriedly wrapped in a blanket, but for the mother who had nearly collapsed from the shock.

The outside entrance to the basement had been left open in the hope that the evaporation of the water would be speeded up.

MRS. KERNS LEADER LOYAL GUARD CLASS

Silverton—Mrs. E. Kerns was elected president of the Loyal Guards Sunday school class of the Methodist church at the regular business and social meeting held at the home of Mrs. Louis Melby in the country. Assisting officers are Mrs. Louis Melby, vice-president; Mrs. D. Bowen, secretary-treasurer. During the program hour, Mrs. Jack Tuggle led in devotions and Mrs. A. H. Smith presided.

Present were Mrs. Albert Grince, Mrs. Attie Lee, Mrs. E. G. Morrison, Mrs. D. Bowen, Mrs. H. J. Iverson, Mrs. Frank Moore, Mrs. C. Davis, Mrs. Jack Tuggle, Mrs. M. S. Chandler, Mrs. Will Graham, Mrs. Troy Derickson, Mrs. A. H. Smith, Mrs. L. Harris, Mrs. A. Oakey, Mrs. L. Green, Mrs. D. Lester Fields, Mrs. A. Peek, Mrs. Oscar Wigle, Mrs. A. Krug, Mrs. G. Bowman and Mrs. P. W. Nottsker.

ARRIVE FROM TEXAS

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mack of El Paso, Texas, arrived in Woodburn by train Monday night and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Mack's sister, Mrs. Ella Clark, and her niece, Mrs. Alice Rofmot. They are interested in Woodburn property and may purchase a residence while here.

STATE MUSIC CONTEST WILL CALL SINGERS

Lebanon—The high school will be represented by 48 members of boys' and girls' glee clubs in the annual state contest to be held at Forest Grove Friday and Saturday. According to Irene Moore, voice director, the group will encounter keener competition this year than ever before in the history of the state meet. Because of classification changes, the Lebanon singers will compete against those from the larger schools of the state such as La Grande, Oregon City and Park Rose of Portland.

Eleven entries from the local high school have been made, including many who won honors in the event during the past two years. Three combinations of glee clubs will compete; mixed, 32 voices; boys, 24 voices, and girls, 24 voices. The boys quartet consisting of Dave MacMillan, Bruce Stacey, Bill Skinner and Dean Stephens will also compete as will the girls' quartet, Pauline Pengra, Grace Zartruff, Sena Edwards and Marjorie Pearson. Solo appearances will be made by Virginia Rae, Grace Bartruff, Bruce Stacey, Bruce Stacey and Dean Stephens. Betty Keebler will act as accompanist.

Lebanon won honors last year in the state meet, being presented with the ensemble cup for Class B and placing second in the sweepstakes. Both girls' and boys' quartets won first honors.

HONOR COURT POSTPONED

Lebanon—In deference to the Little Theatre performance here Wednesday evening, the Boy Scout court of honor was postponed from Wednesday night to a week hence according to the decision of Scoutmaster Albert Simons. The change in date was made to avoid conflict with the local players' performance in the high school auditorium, a portion of the profit from which is to be added to scouting funds.

ROUND-UP PLANNED

Lebanon—Children who will enter school for the first time next fall are to be the subject of the summer round-up planned by Mrs. Nova Young, county helath nurse, for dates set in late May. Early summer examination will leave ample opportunity for correction of defects before opening of school, according to Mrs. Young's planning. Weight, height, vision, posture, hearing and inspection of eye, ear, nose and throat are some of the points to be stressed. Condition of teeth will also be one of the survey points.

BLAZE THREATENS

Lebanon—A blaze which threatened to assume serious proportions broke out about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning in the blacksmith shop of Hoffman & Son on South Main street, but prompt action by the Lebanon fire department saved it from spreading to large nearby storages of gasoline and oil. Damage to the Hoffman property was slight.

FINE IS LEVIED

Lebanon—Charged with disorderly conduct, Hayman Gaines, plead guilty in Judge Victor Oliver's justice court and was fined $5 and costs.

Lebanon—Admitted to the Lebanon General hospital this week for surgical treatment were Troy Putnam of Shedd, Faye Sturtevant of Lebanon, Karl Carlson of Brownsville and Mrs. E. A. Looney of Sweet Home.

Revival Campaign Starts at Hubbard

Hubbard—Revival services will begin in the Gospel hall Sunday morning and will continue with afternoon and evening services for Sundays and every evening service during the week. The revival will be held for two weeks, with the local pastor, Rev. J. L. Green, as conductor. He will be assisted in the services by visiting ministers.

Mello Moon Tonite
RADIO'S ROLLICKING SWINGSTERS!

Ellis KIMBALL AND HIS GENTLEMEN of SWING
Direct From 2 Years At TOPSY'S ROOST SAN FRANCISCO featuring . . .
MARY ANN HARRIS
"Swingiest Little Songstress"

Veteran Journal Carrier's Record Is Enviable One

Silverton — Maurice Stamey has completed his seven years as carrier of the Capital Journal in Silverton. Maurice began his job April 19, 1930. His smallest number of customers was 38 and the largest, 156.

No time has been taken out for illness during the seven years and only a few weeks during the summer has he employed a sub when he took vacations.

He is a prize trumpet soloist, a sophomore in the senior high school, handy man around the Silverton laundry of which his parents are propietors, and an altogether fine lad. He organ carrier work at the age of eight years.

LOONEY BUTTE GIVES PROGRAM

Jefferson—The Looney Butte 4-H Camp Cookery club, under the leadership of Mrs. Earl Woods, and the Stitch and Stitch 4-H sewing club led by Mrs. Earl Miller, held its achievement and booster night at the Looney Butte school house.

The program included readings by Delmar Woods and Violet Farmen; poem by Mary Casto; play, "A Surprise Cake," by Violet Farmen, Laddie Eulrich, Earline, Billy and Delmour Woods; two numbers by Lorena Oleman on the slide trombone, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Nellie Wiederkehr; "What the 4-H's Stand For," by Virginia Barnes; a patching demonstration, Earline Woods and Louise Looney; National 4-H songs by Billy and Delmour Woods and Laddie Eulrich; song by Violet Farmen and Mary Casto, "History of the Looney Butte Camp Cookery Club," by Billy Woods.

The following prizes on the past year's work were awarded the following members of the Stitch and Stitch club: Virginia Barnes, first year handcraft, 1st prize; Ethel Farmen, second year sewing, 1st prize; Earline Woods, 2nd prize; Hazel Jansen, third year sewing, 1st prize; Violet Farmen, 2nd prize; Mary Casto, fifth year sewing, 1st prize; Louise Looney, room improvement, 1st prize.

The following prizes were awarded to members of the Camp Cookery club: Jack Blann, biscuits, 1st prize; Delmour Woods, 2nd prize; Doris Blann, 3rd; Laddie Eulrich and Billy Woods tied for 4th.

Pies, cakes and candy were sold. The money will be used to help defray the expenses of another summer school scholarship. Counting the $14.30 made at a previous program, the two clubs have earned $36.70, which will be used to pay on three scholarships from the Looney Butte school district. The school board is also giving one which makes a total of four members who will receive scholarships.

STUDENTS REHEARSE ON GRADE OPERETTA

Gervais—Practices are being held almost daily on the operetta "Tom Sawyer," which the grade school will present in the high school auditorium, Friday, April 30. Mrs. Paul Daughty, primary teacher, and Mrs. Eugene Myers, wife of the upper grade teacher, are directing the operetta.

A poster contest has been held, with two students working on each poster. Janet Saucy and Sarah Lee Ferguson's poster was awarded first prize; Johnny Brown and Gerald Sporalsky's poster was judged second best, and Leona Keppinger and Doris Polanski received third place.

Miss Doris Neptune and Howard Tong, high school teachers, were judges.

SOCIAL IS PLANNED

Woodburn—The Oregon Workers' Alliance, local No. 1 of Marion county, will hold an entertainment and pie social at the Forresters' hall in Woodburn Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

LEGION WOMEN MAKING FIRST BOW TO PUBLIC

Albany—Albany's recently organized American Legion auxiliary chorus is to make its first public appearance Friday night when it appears in two numbers at the living picture and musicale sponsored by the auxiliary and Theta Sigma sorority at Albany college. The proceeds of the affair are to go toward a Theta Sigma scholarship loan fund. Lorance Dossett is director of the chorus and Mrs. Fred Duncan is to arrange the living picture tableaux.

Members of the chorus are Mrs. E. P. Edwards, Mrs. Gleeda Spoor, Mrs. Stanley Bayliss, Mrs. Hazel Ewing, Mrs. W. H. Kurtz, Mrs. E. B. Williamson, Mrs. Ralph Coleman, Mrs. Wallace Eakin, Mrs. Laurie and Mrs. Forest Campbell. The event is to be held at the Veterans' Memorial hall and is open to the public.

365 LINN PENSIONERS

Albany—Old age assistance totaling $6,913.25 will be dispensed to a total of 365 recipients, according to Caroline Doolittle, executive secretary of the Linn county relief committee. These totals were compiled at the April meeting of the relief committee. The committee approved six new applications for assistance and refused two. The approvals, however, were offset by two transfers out of the county and three deaths. One transfer to the county yields a net gain of but two recipients over the total who received aid March 1.

REEVES SURPRISED

Albany—Mandell Reeves is employed here on a WPA project compiling records of circuit and justice court dispositions of criminal cases. When his research took him to the justice court yesterday he found a notation regarding the case of the state vs. Marsell E. Reeves, in which the defendant was charged with passing an auto without having proper clearance, for which he was fined $5 and assessed an additional $5 costs. Reeves was arrested by State Officer McDonald for allegedly passing an automobile on a curve near Murder creek Monday.

EVANGELS ATTRACT SILVERTON CROWDS

Silverton—Large crowds attended the first two meetings of the evangelistic services being conducted by Roy S. Newlin and Walter Lindgren, graduates of the Moody Bible institute, at the Christian and Missionary Alliance Monday and Tuesday.

Special attractions for tonight will be a sermon by Newlin on the theme, "The Scarlet Line." Lindgren will sing as a special solo, "A Pilgrim and a Stranger." The young evangelists, known as the Harvester Duo, will feature an instrumental musical specialty when the two will play four instruments.

Lindgren will speak Thursday night and Newlin will appear in vocal solo. Rev. and Mrs. James A. Pointer of the pastorate of the Christian and Missionary alliance, are host pastors for the evangelists.

PAULSON SELECTED PORTLAND OFFICER

Silverton—Mark A. Paulson, attorney, received an appointment Monday in Portland by Donald E. Long, circuit judge, as his chief probation officer in the court of domestic relations.

Although Paulson started his duties the first of the week, his definite appointment is conditioned upon a civil service examination to be taken in the near future.

Paulson is a brother of Mrs. M. G. Gunderson of Silverton, and spends much time here. He received his master's degree from the University of Oregon in 1913 after finishing courses in the University of Minnesota and DesMoines university. He has been a member of the Oregon bar since 1911. He served in the state legislature from Marion county in 1927, has taught in high schools and served for a time as dean of men and instructor in sociology in the junior college at Lancaster, California. He more recently served as head of the business administration department in the University of Portland.

COMEDY READY AT MT. ANGEL

Mt. Angel—The college and normal students of Mt. Angel Normal and Academy will present a three-act comedy, "His Women Folks," in the academy auditorium Sunday afternoon, April 25, and Wednesday evening, April 28. The production is under the direction of Sister M. Beatrice, O.S.B.

The story concerns the "women folks" of William Breckenridge, a young man whose life has been completely dominated by the feminine members of his family.

The cast of characters includes Mary Jo Weishaar as Mrs. Martha Lewis, his grandmother; Marie Grosjacques as Mrs. Lucinda Lewis Breckenridge, his mother; Katherine Kenny as Miss Jane Lewis, his aunt; Paulina Helvey as Miss Edith Breckenridge, his sister; Maxine Morgan as Miss Polly Breckenridge, his sister; Ruth Thompson as Mrs. William Breckenridge, his second wife; Madge Massey as Mammy, his cook; Mary Bell as Liza, his maid, and Agnes Torvend as Patience Trent, his neighbor. Musical numbers between acts will be by the orchestra.

MIDDLE GROVE CLUB TO NAME OFFICERS

Middle Grove—The Middle Grove community club held its April meeting at the school with a large crowd in attendance. The Merry Minglers' club, an organization of local women, were in charge of the program for the evening, with Mrs. Carl Snyder as general chairman. A diversified program of music and readings was given. Vera Bassett is president.

A nominating committee was appointed including Mrs. Lee Dow, Mrs. Robert Wagers and Mrs. Cleo Keppinger. They will present their report at the club's final meeting which will be held in May, the exact date to be announced later. The community club's program will be given in conjunction with the local eighth grade commencement exercises. In charge will be the teachers, Miss Elverta Minton, principal, and Mrs. Mildred Yunkers, primary instructor.

PURCHASE OF LOTS DOWNED BY VOTERS

Woodburn—At the special school meeting held Monday evening to vote on the question of whether or not the school district should purchase two lots adjacent to the high school athletic field on the north, the measure was lost by a vote of 45 to 36. The purchase of the two lots was first voted on and lost and then the question of buying just one of the lots was voted on and it also lost. The purpose of purchasing the lots was to enlarge the present athletic field, which is now of irregular shape.

AGAIN HELD OVER

A Love that will live forever
SIMONE SIMON
JAMES STEWART
in
"SEVENTH HEAVEN"
SALEM'S NEW GRAND A HOME OWNED THEATRE

PLAYERS OFFER SERIES, PLAYS

Monmouth — The Crimson "O" players of the Oregon Normal school will present three plays, two comedies and a drama Friday night. Mrs. E. F. Barrows and Richard Averill are advisers for the group in the absence of Mrs. Beulah Thornton, the regular adviser.

"The Machine Age," by Estella Kelley, is the first comedy in the series of three plays to be given Friday night. The cast consists of Belle Hufford as Granny; Ruth Fulgham, Sophrony; Charles Coleman, Mr. James; Bob Cody, Bud; Thelma Ramsey, Molly; Gerald Newton, Tom Greene.

The second play, "The Darkest Hour," by Charles George, is a story of a young man sent to prison to await death on the gallows. In the cast are Warren T. Elliott, prison attendant; Alvin Hulse, warden; Warren Conyne, John; Alice Johnston, Ellen; Genevieve Bodine, Mrs. Madison.

"Wild Hobby Horse," by John Kirkpatrick, is as funny as it sounds. Included in the cast are Nurse Torens, played by Eleanor Stayton; Mr. Carew, taken by Gordon Russell; Mrs. Carew, Twila Heimers; Arthur Errol Hassell; Anne, Ruth Young; Don, Kenneth Lunday; Emma, Lida Whitcomb.

Genevieve Bodine, Warren T. Elliott and Errol Hassel are stars of previous plays. Charles Coleman and Gordon Russell are new players to be starred this term.

CAPITOL
Today and Thursday
WARNER BROS. present
ANTHONY ADVERSE
by HERVEY ALLEN
starring FREDRIC MARCH with OLIVIA De HAVILLAND
Directed by MERVYN LEROY
COMING FRIDAY
One Day Only — Mat. & Eve
On the Stage
Sheriff LOYAL UNDERWOOD (IN PERSON) presents
ORIGINAL STARS of KNX and featured on the HOLLYWOOD BARN DANCE
GLENN HARDY
DRURY LANE
BUDDY BUMPKIN
JOE BISHOP
RAY WHITLEY'S 6 BAR COWBOYS
PHELPS BROS.
KEN CARD and his BANJO
—ON THE SCREEN—
A Rollicking Comedy! ! !
"Too Many Wives"
with Ann Shirley
PRICES
Matinee All Seats 25c
Evening All Seats 35c

ELSINORE
TODAY THURSDAY FRIDAY
2 Big FEATURES
A Dramatic Punch You'll NEVER FORGET! !
Like a savage, she Fought for her man . . Against a Nation Aroused for Vengeance! ! !

"YOU ONLY LIVE Once" with
SYLVIA SIDNEY
HENRY FONDA
Barton MacLANE
Warren HYMER
UNITED ARTISTS RELEASE
—AND 2ND BIG HIT—
Brought Back by Popular Demand
CHARLES LAUGHTON in
"The Private Life of Henry the VIII"