HOWELL SCHOOL NEARING CLOSE

Central Howell - Leaders of the various 4-H clubs of the school invited parents and patrons to call at the school house Thursday as the club members are observing Achievement day. The teachers are also planning the annual open house for the same time. Commencement activities are also in order as the 1937 class of graduates will receive diplomas Monday evening. There are eleven in the class, including Hazel Bell, Rita Steffen, Ruth DeSart, Dorothy Ruggles, Frances King, Helen Dettwyler, Alfred Dettwyler, Ralph Nafziger, Alvin Hansen, Roy Herr and Odin Hollin. Baccalaureate services will be held at the Pratum Mennonite church on Sunday evening, May 16, with the Rev. Whisman of the Pratum Methodist church, giving the address of the evening. These services will also include the class of the Pratum schools. The annual dinner given the graduates by the seventh grade at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Grace Selon, will be held soon, with the seven pupils of the seventh grade as hosts and hostesses. These pupils will also serve as ushers at the baccalaureate services and at the graduation exercises. Closing of the school is also the occasion of the annual picnic at the school house. Announcement will be made at a later date, but it is thought that it will be held next week.
