

GERMAN PRESS AGAIN CRACKS AT AMERICANS

What is regarded as even more probable is that the state will move against organizations, rather than individuals, if it can establish what it deems to be culpability.

The controlled Nazi press renewed its broadsides against American Jews and Catholics and demanded that the Vatican "call to order" Cardinal Mundelein for attacks on Adolf Hitler.

The outbursts were extended to include not only the cardinal but Catholics and Jews generally and Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia, of New York, in particular.

Under the caption of "hair-raising immorality in New York high schools," the official news agency distributed an item through Germany describing an investigation into charges that there had been wholesale bootlegging of contraceptives among students of Brooklyn high schools.

"This action by the board of education," the dispatch said, "is further evidence of what unheard of things are possible in this city under the eyes of the Jew LaGuardia."

(An investigation is being made by District Attorney William F. X. Geoghan of Brooklyn into what he termed "immorality among high school students in that borough.")

The press generally insisted on a definite showdown with the Vatican over Cardinal Mundelein's description of the renaissance as "an Austrian paperhanger, and a poor one at that" and of German trials of priests and lay brothers on immorality charges as worse propaganda than the atrocities tales of the World War.

The Catholic church was described as defending the condition it was powerless to end because of "the question of prestige."

States Attorney Matting in an interview tabulated more than 1,000 alleged sex offenders which resulted in charges against priests and lay brothers of the church.

About 150 offenders were sent abroad, he said, while 150 cases were passed by the statute of limitations. Three hundred of the remaining 700 were reported to have been brought to trial including 80 on which sentences have been passed.

New York, May 21 (AP)—District Attorney William F. X. Geoghan, of Brooklyn, today labeled the attack of the Nazi press on school conditions in Brooklyn and on Mayor LaGuardia as "silly and baseless."

New York schools are above reproach, he said, save for certain "outside evil influences" which his office is combating.

"My purpose is to reach those outside influences but it is difficult to do so unless cooperation is given to me on the inside."

"I am happy to state that the board of education is helping me in every way it can."

Geoghan declined to amplify this statement. His charge, made last Friday, that an "unusual moral condition" existed in Brooklyn public schools brought indignation denials from school officials.

Geoghan said his office unearthed the "condition" during an investigation of sex crimes. He refused to divulge details, but promised an "intensive probe" in the immediate future.

School authorities took issue with Geoghan at once. Dr. Emil Altman, chief medical examiner of the board of education, said:

"I think Mr. Geoghan's statement is greatly exaggerated."

San Francisco, May 21 (AP)—Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York suggested today that German press comment on asserted immorality in New York high school be referred to the New York sewer commissioner.

"Statements such as those made in the German press," said LaGuardia, "can only be referred to Commissioner Blinger who has charge of the sewage disposal in New York City."

"No decent person can answer, or even comment, on such filth."

Steel Workers Cast Votes

Steel workers at the Jones & Laughlin Steel plant in Alliquippa, Pa., were checked off on long lists, as shown here, as they received ballots to vote in a collective bargaining election.

CIO VICTOR IN STEEL ELECTION

(By the Associated Press) The committee for industrial organization hailed its victory in the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation election today as a forerunner of collective bargaining throughout the steel industry.

Out of 24,412 votes cast by employees in the biggest election conducted under authority of the Wagner labor relations act, 17,028 ballots favored the C.I.O. steel workers' organizing committee as bargaining representative.

The majority vote made the S.W.O.C. the exclusive bargaining agency for all J. and L. employees.

Phillip Murray, C.I.O. chief, said: "It should be a warning to other independent steel producers that the wave of favorable sentiment for the C.I.O. and organization of the workers cannot be thwarted by opponents of true collective bargaining."

With the election out of the way, C.I.O. officials renewed their drive for collective bargaining contracts from other large independent producers—Bethlehem, Republic, Inland and Crucible, Youngstown Sheet and Tube.

While ballots were being counted in Pittsburgh, approximately 500 miners entrenched themselves 360 feet underground at Gillespie, Ill., in a dramatic bid for concessions from the Superior Coal company.

Spokane, Wash., May 21 (AP)—Ruth Holmes always wanted an unusual wedding and now she's going to have one.

Held firmly in a cast on a hospital bed, she will marry Walter Crank of Medford, Ore., Sunday afternoon. The southern Oregon woman received a broken leg in an automobile accident.

The "unusual" ceremonies fit in perfectly with the circumstances of the romance. Miss Holmes says she had her first "date" with Crank last New Year's day in a cast. He courted her, proposed and will marry her all within the confines of four hospital walls.

Rev. Henry A. Van Winkle of Spokane will perform the double ring ceremony.

"I've always wanted an unusual wedding and I guess this will be it," she said. "Walter must be branded the same as me."

PACT APPLIES TO 13,000 WORKERS

Portland, May 21 (AP)—An agreement providing for wage increases, arbitration and recognition of the Loggers and Lumber and Sawmill Workers' union as the sole bargaining agent was in effect today for 13,000 workers in the Columbia river area.

The agreement, which will remain in effect for one year, was reached through a three-man negotiation committee and its terms were announced by the Rev. George Thompson, neutral member of the board.

The terms, he reported, included a 40-hour, five-day week, 10 percent wage increases retroactive to March 22, 1937; continuation of the hiring hall, voluntary arbitration instead of compulsory arbitration, and appointment of a committee of three workers in each plant to negotiate with employers.

Continuation of—Bonneville Bill charges on the $25,000,000 allocated to flood control until after amortization of the remainder of the projects costs.

In lieu of percentage payments out of excess revenues, allow either or both the states of Arizona and Nevada to elect, by legislative action with two years from June 1, 1937, to receive each the sum of $300,000 annually during the entire period of amortization.

Presentation of the proposed "rider" followed a statement by Chairman Mansfield, D. Tex., in which he said he believed Secretary Ickes would withdraw previous objections to inclusion of the Boulder provisions in the Bonneville bill.

"It is intended not to effect the other states at all," Senator Key Pittman, Nevada, said.

"A very strenuous effort has been made," he added, "to preserve all the rights they now have."

Pittman told the committee he believed that unless it attached the legislation to the Bonneville bill as a rider "it cannot be enacted at this session of congress."

"It will aid rather than hinder enactment of the Bonneville bill," he predicted.

Representative Nan Wood Honeyman of Portland, Ore., said while she was sympathetic to the desires of the California and Nevada delegation she would oppose attaching the Boulder rider to the Bonneville legislation.

After the hearing she said: "It is most certainly should be separate legislation."

She questioned Senator Pittman closely to learn why he was so anxious that the bill be added to the Bonneville legislation.

He replied that the legislative situation in the senate justified it; that present indications are that very few measures will be approved by the upper house and then only when they are brought up by unanimous consent or originated in the house.

NO RELIGIOUS CEREMONY TO FOLLOW CIVIL

(Continued from page 1) ding guest. Just ahead of her were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bates, described as Americans who are "personal friends of the duke." They will stay over the week-end.

The duke and Bates set out for 18 holes of golf with Mrs. Warfield and Mrs. Bates trailing. When "Aunt Bessie" arrived, Mrs. Warfield left the course to greet her.

Britain's government was reported meanwhile to have denied the former monarch the protection of the British navy for a honeymoon cruise down the coast of civil war torn Spain.

Windsor, his friend said, was considering turning to a foreign nation for the guarantee of safety which he was unable to get from the naval empire he once ruled.

The original honeymoon plan was said to have called for Windsor and his duchess to leave Chateau de Candie immediately after their wedding June 3 for an automobile trip to Biarritz, a French resort on the Bay of Biscay whose waters also wash the Basque coast of northern Spain.

Members of the British royal family, prevented from attending the wedding by the British government which refused to allow Edward the king to wed Mrs. Warfield, were planning to meet Windsor and his bride at Biarritz to give unofficial approval, at least, to the marriage, a friend of the duke said.

London, May 21 (AP)—Agents of the Duke of Westminster declined today to either confirm or deny reports that the Duke of Windsor was planning to use Westminster's luxury yacht, the Cutty Sark, for his honeymoon cruise.

(A source close to Windsor in France reported the British owner of the yacht he planned to use for his cruise through Spanish waters had insisted a British naval escort be provided.)

(This, the reports from Monts said, the British government had declined to provide, indicating permission for the yacht's use had been withdrawn.)

The Cutty Sark, built as a destroyer, was bought by Westminster in 1920 and converted into a pleasure craft. He made it one of the world's most beautiful yachts, spending thousands of pounds to refit for his own wedding trip in 1930.

OSZARK SLAYER TELLS OF DEATH ON SCAFFOLD

Alena, Mo., May 21 (AP)—Roscoe (Red) Jackson, a native son of the Ozarks who turned robber and killer, stood on the gallows just after daybreak today and told a crowd of 1,200 of his people how it felt to die.

"To be killed accidentally is not so hard," he said. "But to have death come on gradually like this is trying."

"It's hard to die like this." The crowd stood silently in the cool morning air. Jackson spoke for about two minutes and then was led to the trap. A black hood was dropped over his head and Sheriff I. H. Coib sprang the trap that dropped him eight feet, where he swayed, dangling 10 minutes.

The rope was cut at 6:15 a. m. "I realize this whole affair is centered in me. The reproach of a community is upon me but I die without ingratitude toward anybody."

He spoke falteringly, but appeared to grope for words rather than courage. "I ask everyone to forgive me."

WEISER, IDAHO, THEATRE BURNS

Weiser, Idaho, May 21 (AP)—Firemen from three towns battled flames 300 feet high which destroyed the $75,000 Wheaton theatre here early this morning. Spectators said the flames were visible 15 miles.

A dust explosion scattered the flames to a neighboring grocery store and 10 occupied apartments on the second floor. Firemen were knocked from their feet.

Firemen rescued A. D. Walker, 70, bedridden cabinet maker, from an upper story room a few moments before it burst into flames. He was slung by a small boy in the street. Fire apparatus from Huntington, Ore., Payette and Weiser confined the fire to the theatre block.

Telephone and telegraph service was disrupted by flame destroyed wires. An adjacent hardware company and a Montgomery Ward store were badly damaged by smoke and water, managers said.

Defective wiring was given as the cause of the fire.

MOTT ISSUES WITNESS CALL

Washington, May 21 (AP)—Representative James Mott of Salem, Ore., said he would call witnesses today at the house public lands committee hearing on reworked Oregon and California grant lands administrative bill to testify against revenue features of the measure.

Mott contended the interior department is claiming too large a share of the funds now going to the counties in lieu of taxes formerly paid by the Oregon and California Railroad and the Coos Bay Wagon Road company.

The measure provides 25 percent of the revenue from timber and land sales to go for administrative purposes and a like amount to the treasury after eight years to reimburse it for a deficit incurred in tax payments totaling more than the revenue.

The interior department agreed to an amendment to the proposed measure providing for fire protection, but declared the proposal of private lumber operators to be unsatisfactory.

Rufus Poole, assistant solicitor for the department, offered a substitute to make federal and state requirements uniform.

Continuation of—Grant Lands

$250 an acre or to meet entirely tax and tax subsidies paid the counties. Under the proposed bill, revenue from grant land timber and land sales would be divided to give the counties 50 per cent, the treasury 25 per cent after 8 years and until the deficit has been liquidated, and the interior department 25 per cent for administration. Administration would include inauguration of a sustained yield policy on timber lands.

The interior department estimates present revenues at $600,000 annually.

He said Judy was a "bad cat," and had attacked him during a performance in Los Angeles, inflicting chest wounds.
