PTA Session Interests Salem Folk

Mrs. C. W. Walls of Portland, the new president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, will head a contingent of state officers and chairmen who will motor to Salem Saturday to conduct a school of instruction in conjunction with the day's meeting of the Marion County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations, to be held at the Y. M. C. A.

Others making the trip will include Mrs. F. W. Blinn, vice-president; Mrs. Bert V. Chappel, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. B. Ward, membership chairman, all of Portland; Mrs. Sam Bellah of Oswego, and Mrs. R. P. Rasmussen of Hillsboro. The group will be joined here by Mrs. Otto Lance of Albany, a vice-president.

"What It's All About," "It Depends on You," and "Ask Mr. Quiz" are just a few of the intriguing titles announced for various phases of the instruction to be offered to parent-teacher members who plan to attend.

The program is designed to offer inspiration as well as information as to the policies, aims and mechanics of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, and is just one of several institutes which have been conducted in every section of the state during the past year.

Mrs. Lane will install presidents of local units at the council meeting preceding the school of instruction.

Mrs. Mae Dimmick of Scotts Mills, president of the Marion council, will preside, and Mrs. Newell Williams of Salem is chairman of the hosts committee.

Mrs. E. S. Coates Hostess to Club

The final meeting and installation of the new officers of the Pringle Woman's club was an event of Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. S. Coates, 1451 State street. New officers for the year are Mrs. E. S. Coates, president; Mrs. J. W. Keys, vice-president; Mrs. F. R. Clarke, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. George Adams, reporter. A pleasant social afternoon followed a brief business session with the newly elected officers presiding.

The guest list included Mrs. George Adams, Mrs. Charles Greenbush, Mrs. O. T. Sealey, Mrs. E. A. Hoare, Mrs. Paul Gurgurich, Mrs. H. C. Stapleton, Mrs. J. W. Keys, Mrs. Charles Spurling, Mrs. Emma Webster, Miss Ruth Stapleton, Miss Nancy Spurling, Mrs. F. R. Clarke, Miss Virginia Coates, Mrs. Vernon Coates and the hostess, Mrs. E. S. Coates.

After a recess during the summer months the club will again resume activities the first Wednesday in October.
