VICTOR POINT ATTRACTS BIG CROWD SUNDAY

Silverton—Between 400 and 500 people attended the homecoming and business meeting at the annual picnic Sunday at the Victor Point grove near the schoolhouse. J. O. Darby was elected president; Mrs. Phillip Fischer, first vice; Elam Smatutz, second vice; Mrs. W. P. Krenz, secretary-treasurer, and Alice Jaquet, historian.

During the formal memorial hour, Mrs. Pearl Givens was presented flowers for the grave of her father, Albert Theodore Savage.

Clay Darby of Roseburg gave the address of the day, lauding the work and principles of the pioneer residents of the community. Elam Amstutz, attorney of Portland, gave the response to the address of welcome by J. O. Darby; the singing of "America" by the audience; Mrs. W. F. Krenz accompanied by Helen Goodknecht, sang; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eaton with Mrs. Eaton at the piano, sang; Zephne Givens played a piano solo; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Labore of Wren gave a vocal selecton; Patricia Alexander of Albany gave a piano number; the Kuper-Eaton male quartet with Mrs. Richard Eaton at the piano, gave a number of selections; a talk by Frank Bowers; concert by an old-time orchestra, composed of L. J. Davenport, Theodore Fischer, Ray Charlesworth of Toledo and Van Slack of Salem.

A basket dinner was served at noon and the afternoon program was given over to games and various forms of sports.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of Cherry street, Silverton, were present. Miller was the only old-timer there that helped build the Victor Point school in 1905.

Others from Silverton were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Riches, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Givens, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Givens, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dahlen, Mr. and Mrs. George Lovett, Mrs. Arthur Hester, Frank Thomas, L. J. Davenport and Mrs. Nona Skaife.

BUCHANAN CONTRACT REMAINS UNSIGNED

Silverton—To make a correction, it was stated from the offices of the school board Monday morning, that Maurice Buchanan had been offered the position in the Smith-Hughes department, but had not signed the contract. It was stated that he had been elected for the vacancy made by the resignation of Warren E. Crabtree, who will go to Junction City after being head of the department here for 11 years.

Buchanan was at Bandon three years and did substitute teaching in Silverton for Mr. Crabtree during the past year. He was in California before accepting the Bandon position.

Miss Lucille Hinkle and Miss Katherine Slawson will return after a year's leave of absence to attend school, and will teach in place of Miss Blanche Hubbs and Miss Cecelia Steele, who have resigned to be married this summer. Dorothy Elliott also resigned to be married. Rosemary Larson has accepted a position at Roseburg and Esther Wilcox at Medford.

Mrs. Tuel Hostess For Bridge Players

Stayton—Guests for three tables of bridge were invited to a dessert luncheon Thuraday at Mrs. V. R. Tuel's apartment. Later in the afternoon bridge was played on the lawn at Goode's Floral gardens. Mrs. Harvey Walker and Mrs. Burl Betzer held the high scores at the close of the play.

Guests included Mrs. Wendel Weddle, Mrs. Eugene Spaniol, Mrs. George Duncan, Mrs. Kenton Thompson, Mrs. Hal Cuffel, Mrs. Luke Hurd, Miss Harriet Pascha, Mrs. Burl Betzer, Mrs. Miles Austin, Mrs. John Fisher, Mrs. Harvey Walker and the hostess, Mrs. Tuel.

Pope Cabled Best Wishes

Mt. Angel—A cablegram expressing the best wishes of the alumni of Mt. Angel college was sent to His Holiness Pope Pius XI, since he was celebrating his 80th birthday on the same day that Mt. Angel college was celebrating its golden jubilee.

The suggestion was made by Father John Waters and carried out by Umbert T. DeMartini, alumni of the school, after the alumni banquet Monday.

FINAL SCHOOL RITES TONIGHT

Mill City—Baccalaureate services were held at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening honoring this year's graduating class of the Mill City high school. The address was given by Rev. M. M. Stocker, D. D., who has been pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Albany for a number of years. Rev. Ernest Ralston of the Christian church and Rev. James McAuley of the Presbyterian church also took part in the evening's program. Musical numbers for the affair included: Processional and recessional, by Mrs. Robert Schroeder at the piano and Arthur Mason at the organ; selection on the organ by Arthur Mason, and a special number by the choir.

The graduates were also honored last week at the annual Junior-Senior banquet at the Oddfellows hall. The affair was given by members of the Junior class for the Seniors, with Miss Marie Hildeman, the Junior adviser, in charge of arrangements. Miss Hildeman is completing her sixth and final year as commercial instructor in the Mill City high school. Miss Kathryn Smulley of Willamette university having been secured in her place.

The climax to the graduating festivities will take place in the school gymnasium Tuesday evening, when commencement exercises will be held for both the grade school and the high school graduates. Members of the high school graduating class, whose adviser is Miss Louise Fletcher, include: Nancy Jane Faust, JoAnne Crabtree, Donald Jenkins, Rose Lalack, Helen Bodeker, Daisy Weitman, Robert Dolezal, Claudine LaVine, Barbara Allen, Colita Heath, Phyllis Scott, Lorris Hollis, Lawrence Labenz, William Henderson, Rex Julian, Carolyne Rada and Virginia Slater.

PROPERTY CHANGES MADE AT MONMOUTH

Monmouth—Miss Dora Scheffskey, sixth grade supervisor in the Training school of the Oregon Normal, has purchased the small residence on north Monmouth avenue from Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Haley. Miss Scheffskey will take possession this fall.

The Haleys also report the rental of their large residence in the same section of town to Mr. Thompson, the new high school principal, and they themselves are moving to Hillsboro, where they will locate near their son, Harold.

Another property sale is the disposal by Chris Marks of his 20-acre place on the Elkins road west of the junction with the Pacific highway.

Negotiations now await only the approval of title for the sale of a piece of ground on east Main street, from E. N. Keeney to A. C. Stoubrough, of the Oregon Normal school staff. With the deal complete, a house will probably be erected.

Four Generations Make Sunday Visit

Silverton—Four generations were present at the home of the Arthur Nelsons and Mrs. Elsie Simeral Saturday when members of the family visited from Portland. These were Mrs. Elsie Simeral, her daughter, Verne Simeral-Lewis, her granddaughter, Catherine Lewis-Bowers, and her great grand-daughter, Dorothy, Chester and Alvin, of Portland. Mrs. Elsie Simeral and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nelson and Richard.

LEGION GIVEN ADVANCE NOTE ON CONVENTION

Silverton—The first nomination of officers for the coming year named at the Monday evening meeting of the American Legion auxiliary included Mabel Lerfald, president; Myrtle Lorenzen, vice-president; Naomi Hewitt, secretary; Ida Pitney as treasurer, and Emma Elliott as sergeant-at-arms. Election and installation of officers will be completed previous to the state convention at Albany August 14, 15 and 16. The local unit was awarded a navy plate for going 23 members over the top in quota.

Following brief routine work the session was held jointly with the members of the post when the Albany unit and legionnaires were program guests.

Zed Merrill, chairman of the convention commission, introduced by Carl Connett, commander of the Albany post, gave preview of the state convention.

The Albany unit women's chorus, directed by Lawrence Dossett, appeared in several selections with Edith Gilchrist at the piano; a male quartet, including Dr. Leslie Gatchell, Stanley Peterson, Glenn Taylor and Phil Lehman, with Mrs. Hazel Ewing at the piano, gave several numbers; Lawrence Dossett, a student of Petrie of Corvallis, appeared in request numbers, with Miss Gilchrist accompanying him. Mrs. Lenore Talbott gave a number of readings in Scotch and Italian dialect; Mrs. Stanley Bayliss, accompanied by Mr. Bayliss, gave two vocal numbers; and Ruby Schantz of Silverton, gave two readings.

A supper was served to the group of more than 150 late in the evening.

HAZEL GREEN ALUMNI HOLDS SCHOOL PICNIC

Hazel Green—The school held its annual picnic and sports meet at the Hazel Green Amusement park, through the courtesy of the owners of the park, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Clemens. The morning was devoted to a track meet with Joseph Yada in charge assisted by Donald Zielinski. The school girls' softball team played the alumni and won the game by a large score. A picnic lunch was served at noon with the mothers of the community in charge of the refreshments and Mrs. Ralph Worden in charge of arrangements. The boys' softball team played a game with the alumni during the afternoon with the alumni victors. Clinton Wampler arranged the ball game assisted by Waldo Gilbert and Edward Yada. Following the game the entire assembled group were treated to an ice cream feed by the local school board. The picnic was held for the first time Saturday so the alumni girls and boys could attend and the arrangement proved such a success that it will be observed on Saturday in the future.

TRAINING SCHOOL HOLDS GRADUATION

Hubbard—The eighth grade commencement at the state training school between Hubbard and Woodburn was held Friday evening with 12 boys graduating. These, with the first year high school boys, sat on the rostrum and took part in the singing. One of the boys, Cecil Austin, gave the class prophecy which proved to be highly entertaining.

The complete program consisted of the processional played by the Hubbard community orchestra under the direction of Dr. A. F. de Lespinasse; singing of one verse of "America;" flag salute; invocation by Father Reedy; singing by the boys; class prophecy, Cecil Austin; solo, Mrs. Ferguson; introduction of the speaker, Dr. P. O. Riley of Salem, by Superintendent Laughlin; vocal medley by the boys; presentation of diplomas and the recessional.

Boys cited for special scholastic work were Alfred Carmichael, Robert Ausmus, Cecil Austin, William Robinson, John Stewart and Robert Beard.

Evergreen Assembly Meeting in Gervais

Woodburn—The regular meeting of Evergreen Assembly No. 12, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, will be held at the Gervais Masonic hall Wednesday evening, at which time the majority degree will be conferred upon Miss Iris Cutsforth of Gervais. A party for the girls will be held after the meeting. All Eastern Star members and Masons in good standing are invited. Members of Venus chapter of Donald will be special guests.

UNION SCHOOL VOTE DATE IS SET JUNE 21

Albany—Voters of nine school districts and parts of two other districts around Scio will ballot on June 21 on the question of organizing a union high school district with a high school at Scio. This became assured Monday when the district boundary board found that all petitions favoring the proposal, and the four opposing it, were valid.

Scio district will not vote, as that district has already expressed itself favorably by a huge majority.

PIONEERS TO MEET

Albany—Sons and daughters of Knox Butte pioneers, organized now into an association, will hold their annual reunion at the home of Margaret Geisendorfer near Knox Butte Sunday, June 13, it was announced Monday. The event will be the occasion of an informal program and of a basket luncheon to be served at noon. The reunion was held in Bryant park last year and more than 50 attended.

DOG BITES INFANT

Albany—Charles, 18 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Freese, R.F.D. No. 4, was brought to the Albany general hospital this weekend to be treated for a severe dog bite, which the child sustained at the home of Emma Ridders, also in northern Benton county. The dog inflicted a deep gash on the child's head, extending to the eye. It was found that the child's eyesight was uninjured. The little boy was playing on the ground, when the dog, a stock animal, made a leap and sunk its teeth into the boy's head before he could be pulled off, witnesses stated.

WOODBURN JUSTICE COURT HAS CASES

Woodburn—Jack Perry Moran, arrested for reckless driving, appeared before Judge Overton and entered a plea of guilty. He paid a fine of $25 and costs.

Frank Joerg was arrested on a complaint filed by John Schafer of Parkersville for trespassing on property not his own. He pleaded not guilty and his trial will be held on Wednesday morning.

Six drivers have been arrested during the last few days for driving with defective brakes, most of them being truck drives. Fines imposed were: John Levi Lozier, $25 and costs; Walter George Kime, $25 and costs; John Marshal Sturtevant, $25 and costs; Joe Charles Nixon, $20 and costs; Chester Clell Lowther, $25 and costs; and Warren Glen Miller, $25 and costs.

Ted C. Hall paid a fine of $5 and costs for driving without an operator's license.

Gillanders Leave For Eugene Home

Woodburn—Rev. and Mrs. D. J. Gillanders and son, Charles, are leaving Woodburn to make their home at Eugene, where they have taken over a small grocery store in the suburbs. Both Rev. and Mrs. Gillanders have been active in church work during their five years residence here and will be greatly missed. Miss Gertrude Wampole will take Mrs. Gillandera' place as superintendent of the primary department and teacher in the Presbyterian Sunday school.

Union Will Meet

Zena — Spring Valley Farmers' union No. 242 will hold an open meeting at the Zena school house Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Polk county president, L. H. McBee, and county officers plan to be present. Members are requested to bring sandwiches and cake.

Middle Grove—Officers who will serve the community club for the coming year are: President, Vera Bassett; vice-president, Mrs. Lee Clark; secretary-treasurer, Gladys Cage. The club agreed to finance the sending of a pupil to the Four-H summer school to be held at Corvallis. Other Four-H members who plan on attending, paying their own way, are Carol Snyder and Elaine Harms. The girls will be accompanied by the school principal, Miss Elverta Minton. Miss Minton has been reelected to serve as principal and teacher of the advanced grades. Miss Yvonne Gardner will be the new primary teacher replacing Mildred Yunkers. Mrs. Yunkers who has been primary teacher for past three years, will not teach this coming year. Members of the school board are Lester Dudley, Fred Scharf and Orton Hilfiker.

Resume Woods Work

Silverton — Reports from Silver Falls camp Monday forenoon were that the humidity had risen to 80 and that the woods work was being resumed after a vacation called Friday when the humidity dropped as low as 20 or 25. The general weather report from camp was cool and cloudy.

Dog Aristocrat Jailed as 'Vag'

Albany — A thoroughbred Irish setter languishes in the city jail and so far, guilty as charged — vagrancy. The dog was found wandering about at the end of a rope on the other end of which was tied a piece of picket fence.

The dog is being held, the police officers stated, pending arrival of the owner, if such can fe found.

LAYMEN WILL HOLD RETREAT

Mt. Angel—The annual laymen's retreat at Mt. Angel college will begin Friday morning at 10 o'clock with the exercises being conducted by Rt. Rev. Abbot Cuthbert Goeb, O.S.B., of Assumption abbey, Richardton, N. D., retreat master. The retreat will close Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

Judging from advance news and received applications, Father Paul Benedict, O.S.B., who has charge of accomodating the men, figures on about one hundred and thirty-five men.

All available space in the seminary building is being turned into dormitories so as to accomodate the retreatants. The 135 who are expected do not include all the men from Mt. Angel who will make the retreat. If advance indications prove to be true, this year's retreat will enjoy the largest attendance ever had.

The fathers of St. Benedict's abbey completed their retreat Friday. Most of the priests of the abbey came home from their parishes and missions for the retreat but immediately afterwards they returned to their posts.

SISTERS ARE HOSTS FOR ANNUAL AFFAIR

Monmouth—The sixth annual reunion and homecoming of the Oregon Normal school students, both men and women, who have lived in the Misses Maggie and Alice Butler home in East Main street, while obtaining their education in the teachers' institution, was held Sunday with the sisters.

About 30 participated and paid their respects to their benefactresses at the big white and green shuttered house. At noon they gathered around one large table in the beautiful garden which surrounds the old home. More than 40 students have called the Butler residence "Home" during the past four decades and the sisters now advanced in years, look forward each year to the day when their large family will return.

Election of officers resulted in Harold Cooper of Newberg being chosen president, Mrs. L. Miller of Balston, vice-president; Mrs. Edmunston, Carlton, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. W. Smith, Portland, social secretary.

PINBALL MACHINES TOPIC OF COUNCIL

Silverton—Pinball, pro and con, held the center of the stage for the mayor and aldermen Monday night when visiting representatives around twenty strong, attended the regular meeting of the city council and gave argument in friendly discussion when the mayor, Wilbur Moffett, urged the guests to each present his side of the question. The story ended by the question being left in the hands of the judiciary committee, of which W. L. McGinnis is chairman, for decision. A petition was read from the Lutheran Brotherhood, asking a discontinuance of the permission of the use of pinball machines in the town.

Lyons—Miss Virginia Warden of Kelso, Wash., is visiting at the home of her brother and family, the John Wardens'.

LEBANON LIFE AGAIN NORMAL AFTER JOLLITY

Lebanon—The business and social life of Lebanon and surrounding area resumed normal channels yesterday following the two-day festivities of the 28th Annual Strawberry festival in which virtually all residents participated in one form and another.

Many residents remarked how vacant the streets appeared after the huge crowds had jammed them during the two days and evenings.

Today not a vestige of the festival remained. The Browning carnival of Salem swiftly moved its equipment from the streets Sunday, and crews as quickly tore down the speakers' platform, cleaned up and flushed the streets.

A final meeting of the general fair committee has been called by Chairman T. W. Munyan for tonight in the city hall. The chairman has already extended publicly his gratitude to the committee, its assistants and to all others who contributed time, labor and effort, for making the festival a success.

POST DANCES SUCCESS

Lebanon — The Santiam post of the American Legion netted approximately $200 from the two dances it sponsored each night of the Strawberry festival, Hap Southard, chairman of the committee in charge of the affairs, announced yesterday. The dances were unusually orderly, with not a single person ejected for rowdyism or for any other cause, Southard said. The dances were held in the Legion hall and in the armory.

FISH FEED PROMISED

Lebanon — Several members of the Santiam post of the American Legion and the auxiliary will journey to Newport this weekend to take part in the district meeting of the organizations, according to Geary Ellenberg, adjutant of the local post. The meeting is attracting unusual interest here because of the promise of a "fish feed."

TEACHER TO STUDY

Lebanon—Lena Medler, girls' physical education director at Lebanon high school, plans to leave Lebanon Friday for the University of Southern California at Los Angeles, where she will take a six weeks course.

DR. DEVON PREACHES

Lebanon—Dr. R. J. Divon, formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church here and now retired, delivered the sermon at the local church last Sunday. Dr. Divon was accompanied by Mrs. Divon and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Harden, in their trip here.

Lebanon—Miss Margaret Phelps, a teacher in the elementary school here, left yesterday to visit at San Leandro, Calif., and will go to Camp Chaparral at Big Basin to act as a counsellor at the beginning of the season opening about June 28. Camp Chaparral is the regional Girl Scout camp and numbers among its attendants during the summer many from the western states as well as some girls from Hawaii and Alaska.

Little Girl Falls From Speeding Car

Scotts Mills — Little Genevieve Shilts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shilts, fell from the car Sunday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Shilts and parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Shilts, were coming home from Silver Creek falls. The car was going about 55 miles an hour when the door came open throwing Genevieve into a berry bush. She was bruised and scratched and two large gashes on her head.

Seventh Birthday Observed at Party

Woodburn—Miss Hazel Mae Engle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Engle, celebrated her seventh birthday anniversary with a party at the home of her parents on Hardcastle Avenue.
