

COTTON WINS UNOFFICIAL WORLD'S GOLF PENNANT

BRITON BEATS DENNY SHUTE 72-HOLE PLAY

Walton Heath, Eng., July 13 (AP)—Henry Cotton, British open golf champion, today defeated Denny Shute, United States P. G. A. titleholder, 6 and 5, in their 72-hole match for a purse of $2,500 and "the unofficial world championship."

After making the last turn with a four-hole advantage, Cotton went down six by sinking 15-foot putts for birdies on the 65th and 66th holes. They halved the last hole with par fours.

The victory, following his sensational triumph in the British open last week, gave Cotton $2,500 of the purse. The other $500 went to Shute, who never was in front after the half-way mark. They entered the final 36 holes today with Cotton leading by two holes.

Their cards:
Shute in 543 4
Cotton in 432 4

COOPER WINS HEAVY TITLE

Woodburn—Tiny Cooper of Hubbard won the northwest heavy-weight boxing championship when he pounced on an 8-round decision over Chuck Nickason of Vancouver, B. C., in the main event of the American Legion fight card at Legion Park Monday night. Although neither man scored a knockdown, Cooper constantly bothered Nickason with his left to the face and soon had blood running out of the Vancouver boy's nose. After the bout Cooper was presented with a belt signifying the northwest championship by Woodburn Post No. 46, American Legion. Cooper weighed in at 181 and Nickason at 178. The Vancouver fighter had previously knocked out Cooper in a match in British Columbia.

Bud Peterson, 144, of Independence, and Eddie Norris, 138½, Salem, went to a draw in a very fast semifinal that saw Peterson register the only knockdown of the card when his left connected with Norris' jaw in the first round and the Salem scrapper took the count of 8. He came back fighting and soon overcame the knockdown and referee Jack McCarthy called the bout a draw.

Kid Thornley of Silverton and Danny Murray of Vancouver, B. C., went six exciting rounds to a draw in a special event that saw both boys slug it out throughout the match.

Ted Peterson of Independence and Roy Subram of Portland fought four rounds before referee McCarthy halted Peterson's hand. Subram amused the large crowd by a line of chatter directed mostly at Peterson.

Johnny Armstrong of Independence and Martin Kivie of Portland fought a fast four-round draw in the curtain raiser that furnished lots of excitement. Both boys weighed 140.

Ashby Team Leads Dallas Softball

Dallas, Ore. — Hubert Ashby's Shell Oilers, leaders in the city softball loop, undefeated until this occasion, went down before the Siemens Insurance squad in the first game Friday night 8-5. A batting rally by the Oilers brought in two runs in the final innings but it fell short by three tallies. Eckman, pitching for the winners, turned in a nice game. Vines, hurler for the Shell, was absent from the mound.

The automobile rivals, Shreeve Garage and Inglis Motor Co., staged a regular slugfest with Shreeve winning by 15-9. Adams, after a hard drive in deep center, was the victim of a spectacular throw by Merle Plummer. Plummer's peg was perfect and R. LeFors, Ford receiver, nicked Adams at the plate.

Batteries: Shell: Cook, Ashby and Kroeker; Siemens: Eckman and Peters; Shreeve: Adams, Seiple and Goode; Ford: Craven and R. Le Fors.

McCullough Beaten In Vancouver Bout

Vancouver, Wash., July 13 (AP)—Bob Powell, 156, Prineville, won the feature event of the C.M.T.C. boxing eliminations here last night, scoring a technical knockout over Wayne McPaul, 153, Echo.

Lorenz McDuffee, 135, Portland, defeated Lloyd McCullough, 134½, Salem, in the semi-final.

In other bouts Edgar Berlin, Salem, won by a technical knockout from Elmer Collier, Portland, in the 135 pound class, and Thil Kerns, Vancouver, defeated Ben Schoenfeld, Corvallis, at 139 pounds.

All-State Amateurs to Play Professionals in Portland Sunday Night

Silverton—The All-State team to be selected at the Oregon semi-pro tournament will be more than a "dream team." It will take the field and play a game at the Vaughn Street park in Portland Sunday night. The official all-state team will be composed solely of amateurs, and each will receive a certificate of merit signed by Hannu Wagner, high commissioner of semi-pro baseball.

This team will play an all-professional team which also will be selected from the tournament. The game Sunday night between the amateur and professional stars is

WAIT'S DEFEAT BROTHERS, 6-2

WEDNESDAY NIGHT:
Engels vs. Papermakers
Man's Shop vs. Wait's

Unable to find the ball in the clutch, Hogg Brothers lost a 6 to 2 decision to Wait's softball club on Sweetland field last night. The game was well played and was worthy of a much larger crowd than was in attendance. Kitchen limited the Brothers to six hits, while Roth was found for 10. Three hits and an error gave the winners two runs in the opening frame. They scored again in the fourth, seventh and added two more in the eighth. The losers scored in the second and sixth.

With Vern Gilmore pitching four hit ball, the Man's Shop blanked Square Deal 7 to 0.

MEANIES HOPE REPEAT HERE

Scotty McDougall and Sailor Moran flattened Otis Clingman and Marshall Carter in a team wrestling exhibition. The Scot and the gob will undoubtedly employ all of the tricks known to the profession to humble their opponents. Clingman and the Japanese, earmarked as pure and virtuous mat artists, are not expected to turn the other cheek many times during the evening.

Danny Russo and Wild Bill Mandell have been assigned the 30 minute spot on tonight's card. The preliminary will bring together Ace Abbott, one time football player with Southern Methodist U., and Andy Tremaine of Tucson, Ariz.

FARMER TIED FOR 2ND PLACE, GOLF

Portland, July 13 (AP)—Touring the Riverside in 79, Ed Bates of Corvallis topped boys' division medalists in the qualifying round of the 10th annual Oregon State junior golf championships here Monday.

Two more up-state entrants, Walter Bennett, Corvallis, and Ray Farmer, Salem, tied for second place with 80s.

In the junior division, for boys between 16 and 18 years of age, Raymond Carlson of Columbia-Edgewater led the field with a 76, two over par.

Other qualifying scores included: Boys—Craig Randall, Salem, 94; Ray Farmer, Salem, 80; Carl McLeod, Salem, 88.

Juniors — Leonard Holmes, Eugene, 83; Benny Bates, Corvallis, 86; Mack Mason, Salem, 94.

SILVERTON TO TACKLE FRUIT SQUAD TONIGHT

Silverton—The Oregon semi-pro tournament at Silverton has been a wondrous success, and tonight's program promises to be one of the best yet.

Only five teams remain in the championship running now, and three of them will finish in the money, which, by the way, will be more than expected.

Reliable Shoe already is assured of at least second money, and the winners of tonight's game each will be assured of no worse than third money. Guaranteed first prize money was $300, but it is 15 per cent of gross receipts and probably will run around $500.

The 10 per cent for second place will run around $350—which is more than guaranteed the winner—and the third place team will receive five per cent, or around $175.

Tonight Silverton plays Pacific Fruit and Consolidated Freight plays St. Helens.

Tonight's winners and Reliable Shoe will take the cash prizes, and there will be a merry battle to see which wins. In addition to top prize money, the winner will play the Washington champion for the right to enter the national semi-pro tournament at Wichita.

St. Helens' and Pacific Fruit remained as possible contenders for first place honors in the tournament when they ousted Cornelius and Sellwood, respectively, last night. The Saints won 11 to 7 while the fruit distributors won over Cornelius 12 to 4.

Sellwood apparently had the game in the bag as the two clubs entered the seventh inning with the suburban team out in front 3 to 2. A wild seventh, however, completely reversed the picture. Six hits, two walks and two errors resulted in nine players denting the home plate. Sellwood came back in its half of the seventh to score four runs, including a circuit clout by Abbott, first baseman. It was the first homer over the fence in the tourney.

Pacific Fruit took control of the situation early in its contest with Cornelius, scoring four runs in the first inning. Helmer, Pacific Fruit moundsman, turned in one of the best pitching exhibitions of the series, holding Cornelius to four hits. Bases on balls and errors were responsible for two of Cornelius' runs in the early innings.

Dog Given Credit For Saving Lives Of Naval Airmen

Cherokee, Okla., July 13 (AP)—A mascot dog was given credit today for saving the lives of Lieut. Paul Bass, naval reserve flier from San Diego, Calif., and B. P. Ternicks, Seminole pilot.

The two narrowly escaped death yesterday when their plane caught fire at an altitude of 1,000 feet. Ternicks, who was at the controls, was able to bring it down in a meadow before the flames destroyed the control surfaces.

Ternicks said the dog, which was riding in the rear of the fuselage, barked frantically to attract the fliers' attention to the flames, which started near the tail surfaces.

SHINING LIGHT BURNING DIMLY

(By the Associated Press)
From a shining light to a feeble flicker in two short seasons—that's the strange, sad story of Hal-Schumacher. In 1933, his first full season with the New York Giants, Schumacher won 19 games. The following year he chalked up 23. Two years ago it was 19 again and each time Schumacher kept his percentage above the 600 level.

Today he is in a terrific nose dive. Sixteen times he has been sent into action as Bill Terry's starting pitcher. On all but three occasions—the last on June 1, when he hurled a ten-hitter to whip the Dodgers—he has failed to finish.

He failed again yesterday, against the Phillies, a club the Giants had beaten in six out of nine games. Schu pulled out of a bad hole by a Mel Ott-initiated triple play in the first inning, dropped out of sight in the seventh. When he bowed out he had put on base five of the six runs the Phils scored in that inning to win the ball game 6 to 3.

The defeat cost the Giants a chance to draw up virtually on even terms with the rained-out Chicago Cubs. In addition, it may have sealed Schumacher's fate for the balance of this season. It was, they say, the last chance to prove his claim as a starting pitcher. There even is talk of converting the 180-pound 6-footer into an outfielder.

Terry, who yesterday was tossed out of the first ball game in his career for protesting Umpire Bill Klem's decisions too violently, needs the Schumacher of 1933-34-35—or someone else equally effective—to catch the Cubs and again win the National league bunting.

Monday's results:
National—St. Louis 6, Pittsburgh 5; Philadelphia 6, New York 3; Chicago-Cincinnati, Boston-Brooklyn, rain. American—No games scheduled.

Helen Moody Establishes Nevada Home

Reno, Nev., July 13 (AP)—Mrs. Helen Willis Moody, former tennis queen, was established at a Nevada resort today but was non-committal about reports she planned to divorce wealthy Frederick S. Moody, Jr., of San Francisco.

"Mrs. Moody is living in Nevada and expects to be here for some time. All that I can say now is that she was at my office and consulted with me and she may later on seek a divorce."

The former women's tennis champion of the world was less definite. She said she had established herself at Glenbrook, a Lake Tahoe resort, merely "to rest."

Mrs. Moody's sister-in-law, Mrs. Corbett Moody, said in San Francisco that a divorce was contemplated. "Yes, it's true," the sister-in-law declared. "Helen has gone to Nevada to get a divorce."

YOU'LL GET A BANG OUT OF THIS ONE!

Do you get a kick out of a golf ball's click when you really lean into one on the tee? Does your heart beat faster when the big fish strikes, and your singing reel almost smokes? Can a brisk breeze and a taut sail make you feel like a kid again, forgetting care in the sheer joy of action? Mister, if you're like that, what a bang you'll get out of this big Buick!

You'll go for the way it goes for you. You'll like the quick, eager spurt of its get-away, the buoyant, swaysless steadiness of its travel. You'll thrill to the businesslike manner in which it settles to the pull, its quiet, dogged competence in long, tough going.

You'll welcome the way it cradles you over the bumps, the neat, compact, handy mobile feel of it. You'll be proudly aware of its beauty, of the picture you make riding in its this-minute style.

But don't forget this major thing—it's the buy of the season, price-wise as well as on performance! It's still selling at the lowest price in all Buick history—you can still get a big Buick eight for less than some sixes would cost you.

So don't hold back. Good things, you know, can't last forever. Don't pass up a buy such as Buick is at its low prices now.
