

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by ROSENA RYER, Phone 3073.

Warrenton Girl Weds in Salem

Miss Kathryn West, daughter of Mrs. Albert E. West of Warrenton, and Lloyd King, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. King of Cottage Grove, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis West in Salem Sunday afternoon, July 11.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Willis West, wore a lovely gown of white silk with fitted bodice and a very full skirt. On her head she wore a halo of net and satin. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses, pink and white bouvardia and lavender sweet peas.

Miss Mary Roberts of Oregon City, the bridesmaid, wore a pastel chiffon frock and carried a colonial bouquet of sweet peas and bouvardia.

Lawrence King of Astoria was best man.

Assisting at the reception were Pauline Stanley of Clatsop Plains, Miss Nean West of Salem, Mrs. Ralph King of Forest Grove, Mrs. Merle Swearingen of Monmouth and Mrs. Willis West.

For going away the bride chose a light blue shawl suit with white accessories and a corsage of roses and bouvardia.

After a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe and points of interest in California, the couple will reside in Cottage Grove.

The bride is a niece of former Governor Oswald West.

The ceremony took place before the fireplace, flanked with fern and all white flowers and lighted white candles at either side.

The couple was unattended.

The bride wore a smart navy blue suit of crepe, made with full length coat, the costume being trimmed in white and worn with a blue hat with trimmed in white pique. For her flowers she wore a corsage of gardenias.

Following the service a breakfast was served. The table was set with a white lace cloth knitted by the bride's great grandmother, pink, blue and white sweet peas forming the centerpiece.

Mr. and Mrs. Bauer, who are well known to members of the university set, are to make their home in Portland at the San Carlos apartments, 531 S.W. Vista. Both are graduates of the University of Oregon where the bride is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority and of Theta Sigma Phi journalism society. Mr. Bauer is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi and other groups. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bauer of Pendleton.

Eugene Vows Of Interest Here

At a simple ceremony at the Eugene home of Dr. and Mrs. Sherman W. Moody Sunday morning the marriage of their daughter, Miss Roberta Moody, to Malcolm C. Bauer of Portland was solemnized. Dr. Norman K. Tully of the Central Presbyterian church reading the service at 10 o'clock before a group of twenty relatives and close friends.

The ceremony took place before the fireplace, flanked with fern and all white flowers and lighted white candles at either side.

The bride wore a smart navy blue suit of crepe, made with full length coat, the costume being trimmed in white and worn with a blue hat with trimmed in white pique. For her flowers she wore a corsage of gardenias.

Following the service a breakfast was served. The table was set with a white lace cloth knitted by the bride's great grandmother, pink, blue and white sweet peas forming the centerpiece.

Mr. and Mrs. Bauer, who are well known to members of the university set, are to make their home in Portland at the San Carlos apartments, 531 S.W. Vista. Both are graduates of the University of Oregon where the bride is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority and of Theta Sigma Phi journalism society. Mr. Bauer is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi and other groups. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bauer of Pendleton.

Russell Guettroy returned Monday morning from an interesting trip which took him to California points, Boulder dam, Salt Lake City, Chicago and Fargo, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Williston of Chicago, are visitors in Portland during July with Mrs. Williston's mother, Mrs. J. K. Havelly.

They drove across the continent, stopping at several national parks en route. They were accompanied by their sons, Horace Jr. and James.

Members of the Salem Junior Women's club will entertain with a picnic Wednesday evening at six o'clock at Riverdale park. All girls who have cars are to meet at the court house at six o'clock. A number of the girls are planning to bicycle out to the park.

Mr. and Mrs. William Poran and daughters, Ruth and Zoe, left for their home in Sorento, Ill., today after spending some time as guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck. The Porans will return by way of California.

THE PERFECT PICK-UP

MISSION ORANGE DRINK

Made from the juice of just one orange. Five for the price of four.

5¢

Distributed by GIDEON-STOLZ CO. PHONE 4458

Descendants of Ruby Bond and Jesse Looney, pioneers of 1843, and William Looney will hold a reunion in the Silverton city park Sunday, July 18.

Mrs. Farley Mogan is enjoying a sojourn in California in company with Mrs. Guy Bagley and small son, Robert, of Westfir.

Dr. and Mrs. John Griffith of Eugene were week-end visitors in the capital.

Jason Lee Women Meet

The women of Jason Lee church will meet jointly Wednesday for an interesting session. The ladies will convene at 11 o'clock and luncheon will be served at noon. The missionary society will meet at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. H. B. Carpenter will be in charge of the lesson and Rev. Lynn Wood will lead the devotion. Special music is being arranged.

Mrs. Zola Morgan Leaves for East

Mrs. Zola Morgan of Hillsboro, president of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's club, will leave Tuesday on the Union Pacific streamliner to attend the biennial convention of the national federation opening later in the week at Atlantic City, according to word reaching the Salem B. and P. W. club.

At that session new national officers will be elected for the coming two years, with Miss Earlene White, postmistress in the United States senate, being mentioned as the strongest possibility for president to succeed Miss Chari Ormond Williams.

Mrs. Helen Olson V.F.W. Historian

Mrs. Beatrice Shadon of Corvallis, who was elected as president of the Oregon department of the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars at its recent convention in Astoria, is announcing this week the completed list of her appointive officers and chairmen who will assist her during the coming year in directing auxiliary activities in the state.

The women she has chosen include, as secretary, Mrs. Hazel Walton; assistant secretary, Mrs. Cecile Hardie; chief of staff, Mrs. Cecile Foster; all of Portland; patriotic instructor, Mrs. Arvilla Adkinson of Eugene; musician, Mrs. Opal Bonnell of Corvallis; tea server, Mrs. Marie Dunn of Milwaukie; banner bearer, Mrs. Edith Devericks of Silverton; color bearers, Mrs. Theodora Williams of Portland; bookman, Mrs. Billie Langherry of Portland; and Mrs. Ona Lee Aldrich of Oregon City.

Chairmen are: Historian, Mrs. Helen Olson of Salem; state home fund, Mrs. Frances Bruce of Astoria; hospitals, Mrs. Rose Wood of Portland; and Mrs. Emma Van Court of Roseburg; Americanization, Mrs. Betty Hamrick of Portland; publicists, Mrs. Percy Backs of Portland; williers, Mrs. Iva McNeal of The Dalles; membership, Mrs. Mary Hayes of Portland; junior activities, Mrs. Kathleen Graves of Astoria; assistant conductress, Mrs. Alice Hoppe of Portland; guard, Mrs. Zora Glendinning of St. Helens; assistant guard, Mrs. Lida Erickson of Clatskanie.

Robert Baldock to Wed Miss Vaughn

Salem friends are interested in the news of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Vaughn, daughter of Mrs. Lillian D. Vaughn, of Salem, and Robert Baldock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Baldock of Salem, which was announced Sunday at a dinner given in Portland. The wedding will be an event of September 5 in Spokane.

The dinner Sunday was given at the home of Mrs. Ronald Hudkins honoring Miss Vaughn and 12 of her intimate friends. Gardenias, holding cards bearing the names of the betrothed couple, marked places for the guests.

Miss Vaughn is a graduate of Salem schools and the Fashion Art school in San Francisco. Mr. Baldock attended Oregon State college, where he was affiliated with Sigma Nu. At present he is connected with the Washington state highway department with headquarters at Colfax.

Bidden to bear the betrothal news were Miss Velma May, Miss Dorothy Blaisdel, Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman, Miss Dorothy Baldock, Miss Bonnie Baldock, Mrs. Robert Eyre, all of Salem; Miss Louise Grammer, Miss Helen Engel, Miss Angela Meyers, Miss Arlene Valliere, Mrs. John McLennan (Beulah Grammer), Mrs. Robert Colner (Doris McCallister), all of Portland, and the hostess, Mrs. Hudkins.

Mrs. Bergman is Invited to Receive

Honoring Mrs. Bernetta Johnson of Portland, the newly elected department president of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Mary Logan tent, No. 8, will entertain with a reception next Saturday night at the Portland home of Mrs. John H. Suttie.

Mrs. Johnson is a member of this tent and the party has been planned that her fellow-members may have an opportunity to felicitate her upon her election to the state presidency.

Presiding at the supper table will be Mrs. Mary Manning of Seattle, senior vice-president of the national organization, and Mrs. Alma Klapots of Albany, senior vice-president of the Oregon department. Assisting in receiving will be Mrs. Bertha Bergman of Salem, and other officers of the state department. Hours will be from 8 to 10 o'clock.

D. W. Pooles Hosts This Evening

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wiley Pooles are John Jester and Omer Jester of Alberta. This evening Mr. and Mrs. Pooles are entertaining informally honoring the visitors.

In the morning Mrs. Pooles and her brothers will leave by motor for Los Angeles. They will be accompanied south by Miss Bertha Baldock.

The American Lutheran Guild will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church for an interesting program.

Emery Stewart Hobson, son of Professor and Mrs. E. W. Hobson, a brilliant young pianist, will present an interesting concert tonight at the American Lutheran church at 8 o'clock.

Assisting Mr. Hobson on the program will be the Salem Women's Madrigal club and the Salem Civic Male chorus. Miss Ruth Bedford will be the accompanist.

Richard Dalton Is Christened

Christening services for Richard La Mar Dalton, year-old son of the Kenneth Daltons, were held at the Sunday morning service at St. Paul's Episcopal church with Rev. Mr. George H. Swift, rector of St. Paul's, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. La Mar E. Hobbs are Master Richard's godparents. The vested choir sang "Sweet Story of Old" during the christening.

Women Attend Lecture Monday

Many Salem women were present yesterday afternoon at the Woman's clubhouse to hear the home economics lecture and see the demonstration conducted by Mrs. Jerome Crays. "The Art of Homemaking" was her subject and she gave much valuable information on good housekeeping, budgeting and intelligent buying, selection of foods, balanced menus and advice on health, hygiene and correct dress.

Mrs. Crays emphasized the importance of cultivating and promoting harmony and happiness in the home.

Mrs. Crays comes highly recommended as a home economist. She is a sister of the late Senator Gus C. Moser of Portland.

David Williams Weds in England

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Kathleen Betty Kidner, daughter of Mr. Norman Kidner, The Crossways, Kettering, England, and David Carnahan Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Williams of Portland. The ceremony was an event of July 1 at the village church of Wadenhoe, England.

The bride was educated at Bedales, Petersfield, England, later attending London university.

Mr. Williams was graduated at the University of Oregon, was awarded a Rhodes scholarship for three years at Oxford, and won his master of arts degree at Columbia university. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi. He is well known in Salem.

After a honeymoon spent in England and France, Mr. and Mrs. Williams will return to Columbus, O., where Mr. Williams is a member of the engineering staff of Ohio State university.

M A R Y
Among recently returned voyagers to Europe was Mary Rogers, daughter of the late Will Rogers, shown at New York.

Popular Couple Formulates Plans

Salem friends are interested in news reaching Salem telling of the plans of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fisher of Portland. Mrs. Fisher, who is known professionally as Nancy Thielen, singer of note, will entertain September 1st for Oxford, Ohio, where she will head the voice department at Miami university, one of the oldest higher educational schools in the states.

Mr. Fisher will join her shortly after the first of the year and will then go on to Washington, D. C., where he will take post graduate work in law. The couple plans to return to Portland after Mr. Fisher has completed his work in Washington and he will again take up his law practice with the firm of Richmond and Fisher, of which he is a member.

Mrs. Fisher is the daughter of the F. D. Thielsen and Mr. Fisher is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher of Salem.

New Yorkers Visit Capital

Salem friends are welcoming Dr. and Mrs. Conrad Loehner of New York, who are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hrubetz, and a sister, Mrs. Ralph Steele. Mrs. Loehner will be remembered as Miss Caroline Hrubetz. Dr. Loehner is a member of the Columbia university faculty.

Camp Santaly by JEANETTE KROEKER

The Girl Reserve Camp Santaly was a scene of excitement and bustle Sunday when it opened officially at Lyons on the shady banks of the Santiam under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher.

Activities of the camp this year are centered about the theme, "Life Has Loveliness for Sale." Campers were immediately organized under efficient leadership into groups designated by colors represented by flowers.

Instructors are: Maxine Goodenough, swimming, lavender (lilies); Elizabeth Steed, swimming; Eileen Goodenough, art, white (snowballs); Elizabeth James, crafts, orange (tiger lilies); Ruth Reaser, music and dramatics, rose (roses); Jeanette Kroeker, music and dramatics, blue (delphinium). General assistant is Charlotte Eyre; camp mother and nurse, Mrs. Edward Weller; camp cook, Mrs. Carrie Ringo.

The girls enjoying camp this week are Gertrude Elin Reasoner, Sara Ann Ohling, Nyla Phillips, Martha Fuller, Sarah Morse, Jean Rowland, Lola Stacy, Mary Thaller, Arline Dodd, Pauline Morse, Mary Elizabeth Phillips, Janet Kirk, Betty Jean Wilson, Patsey Post, Leola Huddeston, Wanda Grant, Betty Zo Allen, Virginia Thompson, Charlotte Alexander, Shirley Parker, Doris Berwick, Clarice Bussell, Meriam Beck, Phyllis Eaton, Jeanne Busick, Dorothy White, Leota Vibbert, Ruth Ann Percy, Helen Yung, Mary Letty Parker, Leah Rae Smith and Roberta Paulus.

Mrs. George Lucas and Mrs. Ida Worrall of Santa Cruz, Calif., left Monday for a visit in Portland as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eby and son, Jack, formerly of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Shanks attended a Sunday school convention in Mehama Sunday. Mrs. Shanks spoke on "Christian Liberty."

The Catholic Daughters of America and their families will hold a picnic supper at Olinger field Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Garden Tour Future Event

Garden lovers are happy to learn that the Salem Garden club will soon sponsor another garden tour. The tour will be held on a Sunday afternoon in late July or early August, when Salem men, as well as women, may enjoy the affair.

The first garden tour of the season was held in mid-June and was so successful that public response and urging has made the Garden club decide to sponsor another such event, according to Mrs. William Everett Anderson, club president.

Special! Our Usual Wave 75c Complete
Perm. Oil Push $1.50
Wave, Complete
Open Thursday Eve
By Appointment
Castle Perm. Waves
PHONE 3663
307 1st Nat'l Bank Bldg.

Salem Folk at Stadium Concert

Among those motoring to Portland last night to attend the stadium concert, featuring Edith Knox, pianist, and Dr. Vladimir Bakalein-koff of Cincinnati, were Mrs. William Everett Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Paris, Miss Frances Paris, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jenks, Mrs. Turrell of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. William Burghardt, Wynn Jenks, and Miss Ida May Bennett.

W.M.S. to Hear Of South America

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Evangelical church will meet Wednesday, July 14, at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. J. P. Ulrich will lead the devotion, "Spiritual Values the Negro has Contributed to the Christian World."

Miss Helen Camacho of the Friends church, who has spent several years in Bolivia, will speak informally on her work and the people of South America.

There will be no meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft Friday evening, as previously planned.

Dr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Kelley of Corvallis are the parents of twin boys, born at Emanuel hospital in Portland, July 3.

The V. F. W. auxiliary, Marion post, 661, will meet at the armory this evening at 8 o'clock. Reports of the Astoria encampment will be given.

The Willing Workers class of the First Christian church met at the country home of Mrs. J. A. Reher Thursday for the afternoon. Special guests were Miss Vera F. Humphrey. (Continued on Page 8)

Schilling
PURE Vanilla
Queen of the kitchen

Ask for Modess
THE SOFTER, SAFER
SANITARY NAPKIN
AT ALL STORES

Double Green Stamps
On All Purchases Made
In Our Store
TOMORROW

WEDNESDAY

Worth's Dept. Store
"Where You Save Every Day"

Why should your Range have 3 OVENS?

See the New Automatic Electric Range with the amazing new
TRIPL-OVEN
Faster! Cheaper!

SEE HOW MUCH more convenient, how much more economical a "three oven" range can be and you will wonder why no one thought of it before.

The new 1937 General Electric Range has all-three-ovens combined in one.

SPEED OVEN for single shelf jobs—it's 10% to 30% faster and uses 10% to 45% less current!

MASTER OVEN has unusual capacity for biggest of jobs—accommodates two 15 lb. turkeys.

SUPER BROILER has greater flexibility in speed and capacity.

New 1937 G-E Range $95.95
Models for as little as

IMPERIAL Furniture Co.

For Receipts and Helpful Cooking Hints, tune in KSLM to hear our Home Economist, Lulu Walton, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 9:45 a.m. A direct broadcast from the Imperial Cottage, our model home.

467 Court

Phone 8419

Aroma
...different
from all the rest

Just as the savory aroma of appetizing food is half the pleasure of eating, so the fragrance of fine tobaccos is half the pleasure of smoking.

That's the reason we go half way around the world for the costly aromatic Turkish tobaccos that help give Chesterfields their more pleasing aroma.

Blended with mild sun-ripened home-grown tobaccos they make Chesterfields milder and better-tasting

...different from all the rest

...for pleasing aroma and all the good things smoking can give you... enjoy Chesterfields