

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by Rovena Eyrre. Phone 3172.

Miss Bettie Brant Bride of Saturday

The Evangelical Tabernacle will be the setting for a pretty wedding Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock when Miss Bettie Brant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Brant, becomes the bride of Frank A. Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sanders of Portland. Rev. C. G. Weston will read the service before an assemblage of friends and relatives.

Preceding the ceremony Wilfred Hagedorn will sing and Miss Jeanette Arehart will play his accompaniments and the wedding march.

Mr. Brant will give his daughter in marriage. Miss Brant has asked Miss Reona Christenson of Nebraska, Miss Lorene Propst, Miss Hazel Sheridan and Miss Verabeth Clendening to be her attendants. Vera Propst of Oswego will be the best man and ushers will include Ollie Nefstinger, Wilfred Hagedorn, Buster Propst and Beryl Dutton.

A reception will follow at the home of Mrs. Esther Hagedorn. Later the couple will leave by motor for southern California points. Upon their return they will make their home in Portland.

Miss Brant was graduated from Salem high school this June. Her fiancé is a graduate of the Benson Polytechnic school in Portland.

Mrs. Clara Harnisch Now Mrs. Flory

Albany—Miss Clara Harnisch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harnisch of Dever, and Keith Flory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Flory, were married in Albany at the First Christian church parsonage last Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Virgil Halbig read the ceremony.

The bride wore a pink tailored suit and a corsage of Tallman rosebuds and white orchids.

She is a graduate of Albany high school and Oregon State college at Corvallis. She is a member of Talons Service club and Alpha Gamma Delta, national social sorority. Since graduation she has taught in the home economics department at the Salem high school.

Mr. Flory also attended Oregon State college and was graduated in 1930. He is now employed with the state highway commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Flory will make their home in Albany until next September, when they will move to Salem where Mrs. Flory will again teach. Attending the wedding were the bride's mother, and Miss Mary Harnisch, and the bridegroom's mother, and Miss Dorothy Flory.

Miss Gertrude Clark Tells of Betrothal

Monmouth—The engagement of Miss Gertrude Clark and Lloyd Oberon was announced Sunday at a gathering of the families of the couple at Helmick state park.

Miss Clark is the daughter of Mrs. J. Atwater of Monmouth. She is a senior in the Oregon Normal school. Mr. Oberon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oberon of Independence.

Participants in Sunday's affair were Mrs. Atwater and son David, Mr. and Mrs. Oberon, Maxine Oberon, Donald Newton and the engaged couple, Miss Clark and Mr. Oberon.

No date was named for the wedding.

The Junior Macabees will hold a picnic at Olinger field at 5 o'clock Thursday. Those attending are asked to bring buns.

Smart New Item

W. ROGERS ★ Ice Bowl and Tonga

A genial pair that will help you serve those cool refreshing drinks on the hottest summer day... heavily silver-plated... beautifully designed with pierced scalloped edges... perfect as a gift... ideal for use in your own home.

Our supply is limited. Get your set TODAY at this extraordinary price.

$3.95

Now on display in our Liberty Street window

Hartman Bros. JEWELERS

Corner State & Liberty

MAY, JUNE, JULY. The May marriage of June Lang looked like a July divorce suit. The complaining husband of Hollywood's prettiest May bride, Vic Orsatti, said she was "wonderful," but since their Honolulu honeymoon, "outside influences were too much."

Fidelis Class Has Party

The Fidelis class of the Jason Lee Memorial church met recently at Leslie park for a regular social and business meeting.

A no-host supper was served followed by swimming in the pool. A short business meeting was held and later Cleona Naderman served refreshments in honor of her birthday.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Klemple, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Cummings, Mrs. Herman Rehnus, Mr. and Mrs. George Naderman, Cleona and Jack Naderman, Miss Sylvia Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Dierking and daughter, Mr. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burke, Lyle Burts, Rev. Lynn A. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Truax, George Bonner and son, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Brinkley and daughter, Miss La Von Gardner, Mrs. Marie Putnam and children, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Brock and family, and Mrs. Ina Thornquist and son.

Several interesting features were arranged and refreshments were served in the late afternoon. Enjoying the affair were Miss Sullivan, Miss Dorothy Holman, Mrs. Irma Coover, Miss Marion McCrea and the hostess, Miss Marguerite Miller.

Home Ceremony Event of Today

At a charming home ceremony said at 2 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Maxine Dancer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dancer, became the bride of Elmer Griepentroz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griepentroz. Rev. Henry W. Gross read the impressive service at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white sheer celanese embellished with blue bows. Her corsage was of gardenias and carnations. Directly after the ceremony the couple left for a motor trip to San Francisco, Yosemite national park, Crater lake and the Oregon caves. Upon their return they will be at home in Salem.

Mrs. Mason Honored Guest

For the pleasure of Mrs. Frances Swegle Mason of Illinois, who has been the house guest of Mrs. C. M. Fuller, Mrs. R. S. Melson and Mrs. Fuller were joint hostesses to a group of girlhood friends at the country home of Mrs. Melson Friday evening.

Those present to greet Mrs. Mason, after an absence of over twenty years, were Mrs. Dean Schomaker, Mrs. Leo Childs, Mrs. Jessie Keck, Mrs. Walter Davis, Mrs. Bert Bressler, Mrs. William Luckinbeal, Mrs. M. W. Welch, Mrs. Emma Whedbee of Jefferson and the hostesses.

Additional guests were Leo Childs, M. W. Welch, Dean Schomaker, Charles Fuller, R. S. Melson, Lewis, Ruth, Evelyn and David Melson.

George Kingsbury Visits in Salem

Being greeted in Salem as an interesting visitor is George N. Kingsbury of Boise, Idaho, formerly of Norton, Kansas, who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bower at their home, 200 South 14th street.

Mr. Kingsbury is 93 years of age and is assistant adjutant general of the Grand Army of the Republic, being a volunteer from the Indiana Ninth Regiment, company E. He will be in Salem for several days and then will go to Madison, Wis., to attend the G. A. R. convention there.

Country Home Scene of Wedding

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Watkins was the scene of a charming wedding ceremony Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Lotus Valentine became the bride of George Milton Hill.

The service took place in the garden under a huge arch of pastel flowers, and was read by the Rev. Eric Eichmann of Portland.

The bride entered the garden on the arm of J. Lyman Steed, and wore a gown of Eleanor blue silk lace, toe length, with corsage of lilies-of-the-valley, sweet peas and rosebuds. Her only attendant was a niece, Mrs. Jessie Bartruff of Long Beach, Calif., who chose a yellow lace gown, also toe length, with corsage of orchid sweet peas and rosebuds.

W. C. Johnson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. W. P. Watkins sang "I Love You Truly." Marjorie Watkins accompanied her mother at the piano and also played the wedding march.

A reception followed, with Mrs. W. P. Watkins, niece of the bride, Mrs. W. C. Johnson, sister of the bridegroom, and the bridal party receiving. Refreshments were served on the lawn, the serving table being decorated with pastel flowers and tapers.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Clyde Johnson, Mrs. R. A. Erickson, Mrs. William Toll, Mrs. Arthur Rabbatke, Mrs. William Hunt, Marjorie Watkins, Aretta Pickin and Sylvia Eisenbach, with Mrs. T. A. Lindstrom, Marial Lindstrom, Mrs. Thelma Ball and Mrs. A. J. Nixon assisting about the rooms.

The bride chose a rust knitted dress, with gray accessories, for her going-away costume. After a few days at the Oregon beaches the couple will return to make their home in Salem.

Mrs. Hill is a graduate of the Oregon school for the deaf and has been employed at the deaf school for several years and has a wide circle of friends. Mr. Hill is a graduate of the Colorado school for the deaf and has made his home in Salem the last few years.

The Council of Church Women will hold a no-host luncheon at the home of Mrs. Lena Scharff, 2037 Nebraska street, next Tuesday noon. An interesting program will follow the luncheon hour.

KEEP COOL WITH KOOL-AID
THE SUPPLEMENTARY DRINK WITH VITAMIN D
MAKES 10 BIG GLASSES AT GROCERS 5¢

IT'S NOT ALWAYS THRIFTY TO SAVE PENNIES

IT'S THRIFTIER to pay a little more for toilet tissue that absolutely protects against discomfort and harmful irritation. You purchase real economy when you buy M. D. (Super-refined) TISSUE. It is safe to use, highly absorbent (more cleansing), sterilized many times and strongly textured. No waste, therefore, thrifter.

M. D. TISSUE

3 Rolls, 25¢

The Court Street Christian church Sunday school picnic will be an event of Thursday afternoon at Paradise Island. Those wishing transportation are asked to meet at the church at 3 o'clock. A basket dinner will be served. Those attending are also asked to provide their own table service.

The N. A. L. C. auxiliary members and their families will meet at the home of Mrs. Roy Yung, 539 North 21st street, Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock for a basket dinner. Those attending are asked to provide their own table service.

Mrs. J. O. Bailey of Portland was a visitor in Salem Tuesday after spending a week at Breitenbush Springs. The Bailey family were residents of Salem for some years when Justice J. O. Bailey of the Oregon supreme court was an assistant attorney general. Mrs. Bailey motored home, accompanied by her

(Concluded on Page 8)

DUBAIN FUR COMPANY Second Annual Pre-August

Fur Sale

IS NOW IN PROGRESS!!

We invite you to inspect these individually tailored coats and compare them with those made in mass production.

Individually Tailored Coats at PRICES that again PROVE Our Recognized Fur-Value Leadership

ONE GROUP CONY COATS

Swagger and Princess Models in Gray and Brown. Large sleeves with saucer collars. Sale Price $39.50

ONE GROUP BLACK LAPIN COATS

In Black, Brown and Gray, Swagger and Princess Models. Small collar with pleat detail and high shoulder sleeves. Sale Price $59.50

During This Sale We Open Our Store at 8 A.M.

ONE GROUP Super Giant Hollander FRENCH SEAL COATS

Graceful collars with special emphasis placed on the sleeve top treatment which literally produces new angles that are really smart. These coats are made of choice quality skins and the Sale Price is $89.50

ONE GROUP CARACUL COATS

Designed in the new Box Silhouette and Princess Models, wide shoulders give added charm. These Coats are made of imported Chinese Lamb Skins, fashioned in the season's latest models. Sale Price $95.00

ONE GROUP LEOPARD CAT COATS

Popular Box Swagger Silhouette, in loose flare types. These coats are smart and the skins very durable. We challenge comparison. The Sale Price for these beautiful coats $79.50

ONE GROUP MOIRE CHINESE KID SKIN COATS

In new Jigger Models with accentuating sleeves, jaunty sweep; altogether new collar reverse. Made of individual skins designed and cut in our own workrooms. The Sale Price is $195.00

For those hard to fit we still have enough skins on hand to tailor your coat to suit your individual measurements and personality

Other Coats Included In This Sale

Cross and Red Foxes $39.50
These Cross Foxes should retail from $75.00 up
Shop Early and take advantage of this Unusual Sale

KRIMMER CARACUL—Light Grey, Dark Grey, Black, $65.00
Priced from

PONY SKIN & PAW COATS, MOLE & MARMINKS, $195.00
GREY SQUIRRELS, SQUIRREL LOCKS, up to

Designers and Creators of High Grade Furs... Repairing, Restyling, Cleaning and Storage Rooms 3 and 6 - Miller Store Building

BUY YOUR FURS FROM A FURRIER

DUBAIN FUR COMPANY

Rooms 3 and 6

Miller Store Building, Salem

Phone 6846

WHY BUY FURS IN JULY

Because it is a between season period when pelts are at their lowest prices of the year... because there is bound to be a steady rise in prices as the season advances... because our fur coats are perfect samples of the styles that will prevail during the coming winter. The wise woman will take advantage NOW of these SPECIAL VALUES.