

75 PRESENT AT BASKET DINNER FOR GRANGERS

Union Hill—The annual grange picnic held at Silver Falls state park Sunday was well attended. A basket dinner was served at a long table at noon.

About 75 attended, including Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Humphreys and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. McElhenny and son Walter, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Darby and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gilmour, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd T. Fox and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. Scott and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Krenz and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Krenz, Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Neal, Mr. and Mrs. George Woolley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pezley and son Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Porter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Steinberger, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tate and Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Merrifield, Mr. and Mrs. Will Gulvin, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. White and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rabens, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodwin, Mrs. Theodore Fisher and son Donald, Mrs. Jessie Pendleton, Miss Elizabeth Krenz, Miss Cleo Baller, Patricia and Phillip Alexander.

DAHL CLAN IN ANNUAL MEET

Silverton—Behrend's picnic ground on the Abiqua was the gathering place for the second anniversary of the Dahl clan last Sunday. After a basket dinner, horseshoe games, swimming and visiting was enjoyed with ice cream being served later in the afternoon. Arthur, Otto, and Fred Dahl put on a skit. Readings were given by Arthur, Otto and Fred Dahl, Vally and Jack Martin.

A business meeting was held to elect officers for the coming year. Mrs. Conrad Dahl was elected chairman; Otto and Arthur Dahl to select the time and place for the next meeting, Ruth Satren to keep the scrap book.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hartwick Dahl and Kathleen, Ole Dahl, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Dahl, Orlando, Marvin Allen, Ann Dahl, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Dahl, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Salern, Marshall and Wallace, Halvor Dahl, Ocean Lake, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Osund of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dahl, Kenneth and Fred, Val Dahl, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dahl, Arthur Jr. and Raymond, Mrs. John Martin (Mabel Dahl) Jack and Vally of Mt. Vernon, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. John Kubermeyer, Grace Holman, Jimmy Ekman.

REEDER GUILTY IN WEST SALEM COURT

West Salem—Elmer Reeder, who was arrested last Friday for participating in the building trades picketing at the Beutler-Quilstad plant on Wallace Road, yesterday was found guilty at trial of violating ordinance 86, amended by No. 170, of displaying a banner or placard without a permit. He was fined $5 and costs.

The city of West Salem, in arresting Reeder, was enforcing a recently adopted amendment to a billboard ordinance, whereby display of signs and banners on streets, sidewalks and alleys without permission of the council is unlawful.

W. L. Patterson, of the city council, states that there probably will be some reaction to the enforcement of this amendment and the matter will come before the council at its next meeting.

BROUGHER AGAIN LEADER OF CLUB

Scotts Mills—Monday evening Townsend club met as usual. The election and installation of officers was held. O. H. Brougner was reelected president. E. A. Doolittle was elected vice-president, and J. E. Saueressig was reelected secretary-treasurer. Elected on the advisory board were Albert Groshong, Mrs. Al Wyland, Arthur Rich, Claude Johnson, Ed Clough and Mrs. Lida Brougner. Mrs. Goulette of the Silverton club was the installing officer.

Arthur Moore of Monmouth congressional district manager was the speaker of the evening. Plans are being made for a basket dinner in the near future to be held in the park.

Sunday Spent With Relatives on Coast

Rickreall—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hill, son Walter and grandson David, spent Sunday at Newport visiting with Vaughan's sister, Miss Libbie Vaughan, formerly a teacher in the Port Angeles schools. The group also called on Mrs. Susie Bonner Emmons, who is spending the summer with her parents, Mrs. Emmons, rural supervisor of Portland schools, was a critic teacher here for several years.

HOSTS AT DINNER

Lebanon—Dr. and Mrs. N. E. Irvine were dinner hosts Thursday evening honoring Dr. Irvine's father, Dr. William Irvine, on the occasion of his 80th birthday. Covers were laid for a large group of friends and following dinner the evening was spent informally.

Passion Play to be Seen by Methodists

Lebanon—The moving picture film, "The Life of Christ," will be presented in the First Methodist church at 8 p.m. Monday, August 2, church officials announced yesterday. Announcement that the Passion Play will be shown here is attracting the interest of hundreds of residents of this vicinity.

EIGHT INJURED WHEN 2 AUTOS CRASH ON ROAD

Aurora—Eight persons were seriously injured, one critically, at 6 o'clock Monday evening when two automobiles collided at the intersection of the Monitor-Barlow and Woodburn-Needy highway at the Ninety-One schoolhouse at Needy, in Clackamas county.

The cars were driven by Ben R. Wolfert of Needy, route 2, who was traveling east, and Oliver King, Hubbard, route 1, who was going south. Both vehicles were knocked into the ditch, but the King car hit a telephone pole and was demolished.

Those injured were Ben R. Wolfert, Needy, route 2, shock, bruises about head and chest. Oliver King, Hubbard, route 1, several fractured ribs, cuts, bruises and shock.

Mrs. Oliver King, compound fracture of right shoulder, scalp and leg injuries, shock. Her condition is critical.

Norma King, 21, and Beulah King, 71, bruises and lacerations. Doris King, 13, Hadley King, 9, and Eunice King, 4, minor injuries.

Wolfert was treated by Dr. E. A. Hendry at Canby and members of the King family were taken to the Woodburn hospital. Phil Miller, who was riding with Wolfert, was not injured.

TRIBUTE PAID AT LAST RITES

Mill City—All members of his family and scores of personal friends attended funeral services for Ellsworth Dunivan, 67, Tuesday afternoon at the Mill City Christian church. Beautiful floral pieces filled the chapel of the church that Mr. Dunivan was foremost in establishing 15 years ago.

Rev. C. Arthur Bates of Klamath Falls, son-in-law of Mr. Dunivan and first pastor of the Mill City church, gave in eulogy the story of his association with Mr. Dunivan in the church and civic work of Mill City that was the home of the Dunivans for 21 years. Rev. Ernest Ralston, local pastor, assisted. Mrs. Robert Schroeder was at the organ and Mrs. Eddie Drapella sang. Pallbearers were Jim Dawes, Wes Mason, Arthur Allen, Tom Allen, Chasles Haseman and Harry Woods.

Interment was at the Fox Valley cemetery where Mrs. Dunivan, who was Anne Glenn, was buried eight years ago.

Aside from numerous relatives from Tacoma and Portland who attended the services, all Mr. Dunivan's immediate family were present. These include his two sons, Lloyd and Floyd of Stockton, Cal., a daughter, Mrs. Fern Bates and her son, Marvin Dunivan Bailey, of Klamath Falls, a grand daughter, Betty Ann Dunivan of Klamath Falls, three other daughters, Mrs. Janice Powell of Salem, Mrs. Dorothy Wilson of Mehama, and Miss Lulu Bell Dunivan of Tacoma, Wash. Arrangements were in charge of the Weddle mortuary of Stayton.

UNIQUE MESSAGE COMES FROM ISLES

Monmouth—Mrs. Darrel Elkins, a visitor from the Hawaiian islands in the home of Rev. W. A. Elkins, pastor of the First Christian church, brought to the minister and his wife a unique message which consisted of photograph records of the voices of their children and grandchildren.

The records had been well arranged and the language thought out so the voices of Darrel Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. Troy and the latter's children were easily recognized. The voice of the 6-year-old grand daughter was heard in a brief talk and in two native songs. The baby gave her communication in a cry which was somewhat difficult to register.

Park at Silverton Place of Outing

Mt. Angel—The members of the Mt. Angel post of the American Legion and Auxiliary entertained at a picnic in the Silverton park Sunday afternoon.

All the children who took part in the activities of the Mt. Angel post and unit throughout the year, and the children of the members were enjoyed during the day with a number of prizes being given. A lunch was served by the members at noon and in the evening. Approximately 30 children were present.

ON VACATION

Independence—Glen C. Smith, postmaster, and his family are enjoying a two weeks' outing, part of which time will be spent at Crater lake and at the coast. Glen expects to do considerable fishing.

LEADER AT CAMP

Brush College—Corydon Blodgett, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Blodgett of Brush College, is among those who are at the Y.M.C.A. camp at Ocean side this month. Corydon is one of the leaders.

EX-SOLDIERS ENJOY PARTY AT SILVERTON

Silverton—A jolly time was had by all at the all-men's breakfast at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at Toney's when Ray Dorris, commander-elect of Portland post No. 1, Kenneth Hawke, finance officer of Rose City post, Portland, and Ben Fleischmann, past commander of Rose City post, all of the American Legion, and their fishing trip guests were entertained by a group of men from the Silverton Delbert Reeves American Legion post.

Special guests of the three Portland men were from the fleet and included Capt. W. R. Carter of the Marblehead, rounding out his 35 years of service; Lt. G. R. Shaver of the U.S.S. Chicago dental department, and Lt. A. B. Barrows of the Marine attachment of the Chicago.

The visitors are on their way to the Clear Lake district at the headquarters of the McKenzie river and are going by way of Mill City and Detroit for a fishing vacation of a few days.

Presiding as hosts for the local post were Harry Wilson, commander; Roy Davenport, commander of district No. 2; Frank Wray, adjutant; George Manolis, James A. Scarth, Dr. P. A. Loar, Lewis A. Hall, C. E. Jaqua and Ernest L. Starr.

SCHOOL SESSION ONLY ONE DAY

Silverton—Marvin Senter, Marion county Christian Endeavor educational superintendent, is announcing a change in the time of school of instruction that had been planned as a three-day affair. The school will be for one day only, Saturday, July 31, at the Silverton First Christian church, beginning at 8:30 o'clock in the forenoon. Only half the book, "Leadership Through C. E.," by Bert H. Davis, will be studied at this time.

Senter attended the county executive meeting in Salem Monday evening at which Mary Kruger presided where plans were made to change the school to the one day session. Other plans are to sponsor a picnic supper and social evening at Silver Creek state park South falls grounds, Friday evening of this week with all members of the Marion county union of Christian Endeavorers and school of instruction delegates of the county were to attend.

State officers to attend Saturday's school will include Opal Yates, state stewardship superintendent; Howard Cole, state president, and Helen McClay, school instructor, and regional vice-president.

Others from Silverton attending the executive meeting at Salem were Rev. Frank W. Zook, Bernice Gay and Eileen Rahn.

SWEGLE DISTRICT CALLS ELECTION

Swegle—Notices have been posted calling a district school meeting July 30 for the purpose of voting an additional budget. It will not only care for another teacher but it will also involve some additional lighting improvements in the present school building and the purchasing of necessary equipment and supplies for the recently leased building, belonging to L. Jung Sing, which is located directly south of the Swegle school on the Garden road and will be used for school purposes this fall.

Many new homes have been erected within the last few years and several are now under construction. A number of children of school age will be in the school this fall from the property recently acquired from the Middle Grove district through a boundary change.

STORMS REDUCE MOVING OF LOGS

Silverton—The trains from the Gates and Detroit sections that bring logs to the Silver Falls Timber company are doing about half the regular business since the heavy storms in the mountain section of Sunday and Monday.

The workmen are taking a vacation from logging and are aiding in putting out the more than 150 spot fires set by lightning. The most damage was done Sunday. The heavy rains of Monday that accompanied the electric display held the additional blazes to less than fifty.

The storm was definite over thousands of acres of timber in the logging districts.

All fires are under control.

Memmoth—Registration for the second half of summer school at Oregon Normal school is 300. The enrollment a year ago for the same period was 303.

STATE THEATRE

WAKE UP AND LIVE
WRITTEN BY WINCHELL
BEN BERNIE

WAITING FOR ANOTHER DAWN—You'll thrill to an unforgettable love when you see Kay Francis and Errol Flynn, the screen's newest romantic team, try to put a lifetime of love into one fleeting moment in "Another Dawn," a Warner Bros. hit which comes to the Esplanade Theatre on Thursday with Patsy Kelly, Jack Haley, Laurel and Hardy in "Pick A Star," as the companion picture on the same program.

MOTHERS TO JUDGE SHOW

Woodburn—Parents are invited to visit the exhibit at the Woodburn playgrounds Friday afternoon from 2 to 4 at the Lincoln school. Mothers will act as judges of the exhibit. All children are requested to bring all finished work for exhibit and also their unfinished work.

The following program has been outlined for next week:

Monday, oil painting 9-11; story telling, 9-10; games, 10-11; knitting, 11-12; free play, 11-12; scrap book, 2-3; games, 3-4.

Tuesday, clay modeling, 9-10; story telling, 9-10; games, 10-11; knitting, 11-12; free play, 11-12; scrap book, 2-3; games, 3-4.

Wednesday, woodwork, 9-11; story telling, 9-10; games, 10-11; knitting and crocheting, 11-12; free play, 11-12; pet show, 2-3; dress up, 3-4.

Thursday, soap carving, 9-10; story telling, 9-10; community sing, 10-11; knitting, 11-12; free play, 11-12; scrap book, 2-3; games, 3-4.

Friday, oil painting, 9-11; story telling, 9-10; games, 10-11; knitting, 11-12; free play, 11-12; exhibit and visiting hours, 2-4.

JUNIOR LEAGUERS WILL PLAY SUNDAY

Dallas, Ore.—The Dallas American Legion Junior League will travel to Hazel Green Sunday to play against the Silverton Junior League as one of the feature attractions at the annual picnic of the Delbert Reeves post of Silverton. The Dallas team, sponsored by Carl B. Penton post number 20, has an average age of 15 years. It made its first appearance in the state competition this year against Woodburn and Hillsboro in the district competition.

Coach Almon LePors announced that the following will make the trip: Art Hass, Billy Blackley, Louie Nicol, Ralph Lindahl, Melvin Donmecker, Jack Eakin, Jr., Warren Bennett, Kenneth Steele, Junior Rowell and Don Low.

DOCTOR JAILED BY OFFICER IN ALBANY

Albany—Dr. Gail S. Newsom, Halsey, picked a poor place Tuesday to voice his threat that he was going to poke a cop in the nose, for Chief of Police Perry Stellmacher, who stood in the doorway of the city hall, heard Newsome tell his companion that he intended to do that very thing.

Chief Stellmacher asked Newsome what he had said and the declaration of the intention was repeated, it was said.

"All right let's get to work," the chief said as he collared Newsome. Newsome was then led into the city hall without difficulty, Newsome's companion disappeared.

The physician was booked on a drunkenness charge and was to appear in court later. He was placed in the city jail.

GUESTS AT LINCOLN

Lincoln—Guests this month at the home of Mrs. Alice Simpson of Lincoln are her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Crangle of Salem, former Lincoln resident, and Robert Smith of Portland, a grandson. Mrs. Crangle is returning home this week but young Smith plans to spend the summer here.

HOME OWNED
HOLLYWOOD
HELD OVER
Today and Thursday
Matinee Each Day 2 P. M.

JEANETTE MACDONALD
NELSON EDDY
MAYTIME

Pengra Family Has Reunion at Lebanon

Lebanon—Members of the Pengra family gathered at the A. H. Pengra home here last Sunday for a family reunion, the first to be held in many years when the entire family could be present. Included in the family group were Mrs. W. J. Pengra and all of her six children. At 1 o'clock, dinner was served from a large table on the lawn.

Those present were Mrs. W. H. Pengra of Eugene, Mrs. Lemuel Allen and Miss Margaret Allen of Weiser, Idaho; Mrs. Joel Absher and sons, Joel and Paul, of Goldendale, Wn.; Mrs. Harry Bockes of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pengra of Corvallis, Mr. Norton Pengra and children, Mahlon, Jane, Alice, Margery, Byron and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Pengra and children, Arthur Jr., Pauline Ann and Billy and Dean Stephens.

TESTIMONY ENDS IN LABOR DISPUTE

Dallas—Testimony on the case of the Industrial Employees union, local No. 40, mostly employees of the Foster mill at Willamina, against local 2652 of the lumber and sawmill workers of Willamina, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, ended Tuesday night when the matter was taken under advisement by Judge Howard Zimmerman, sent here to hear the case.

Early in June the employees of the mill filed an injunction seeking to eliminate picketing of the concern. The local hearing was an outgrowth of this application for an injunction.

A list of questions concerning the case will be submitted to the Foster company by attorneys for the defendants, Judge Zimmerman and the rival attorneys. Any of the questions may be ruled out by Judge Zimmerman. The reply of Foster will be in the nature of a deposition.

The case is expected to be brought to a conclusion within the next 30 days.

Residents of Idaho Guests at Lebanon

Lebanon—Mrs. W. J. Pengra of Eugene, mother of Principal Arthur H. Pengra, of the Lebanon high school faculty, and Mrs. Pengra's sister, Mrs. Lemuel Allen, and daughter, Margaret of Weiser, Ida., have been visiting the past week at the Pengra home here. They departed Tuesday for Eugene where they will visit other relatives.

2 GREAT HITS "FIND THE WITNESS"

with Chas. Quigley Rosalind Keith

MIDNIGHT TAXI

with BRIAN DONLEVY FRANCES DRAKE

GRAND

NEVER A SHOW SO GREAT—SO GOOD—AT PRICES SO AMAZINGLY LOW.

WONDERS OF THE WORLD OF WHITE TOPS AT THEIR THRILLING BEST

RUSSELL BROS. CIRCUS

GAY GLORIOUS GLITTERING
• HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE
• SCORES OF FINE HORSES
• DOZENS OF FUNNY CLOWNS
• TONS OF GREAT ELEPHANTS
• ACRES OF WEATHERPROOF TEXTS
MAMMOTH FREE MENAGERIE
THRILLING WILD WEST—MUSEUM
2 P. M.—TWICE DAILY—8 P. M.
DOORS OPENING AT 1 AND 7 P. M.

GRANGE FAIR AT RICKREALL EARLY IN FALL

Rickreall—Plans for the fourth annual grange fair scheduled for early October, were discussed at a meeting of the grange Friday night. Farmers were urged by Agricultural Chairman F. E. Pence, to begin selecting seeds and grains for the farm exhibit. Committee chairmen include: Mrs. Lillie Larkin, textiles; Mrs. E. A. Stenson, publicity; Mrs. J. P. Hamilton, canned foods; Mrs. R. F. Gorbett, baked foods; Mrs. Ora Lantz, flowers; Mrs. A. G. Adkins, antiques; Mrs. George Van Santen, 4-H clubs; W. W. Rowell, premiums. The farm exhibit is in charge of the agricultural committee.

Mrs. J. B. Riney was elected and installed as Flora taking the place of Mrs. Arthur Beaver, who resigned.

A flower shower was planned for Mrs. Beaver, who is confined to her home by illness. A song practice was held at the close of the meeting with Mrs. H. A. Dempsey at the piano.

SCOTCH PEOPLE MEET AT DALLAS

Dallas, Ore.—The second annual Scotch picnic for residents of the Willamette valley was held in the city park Sunday with an approximate attendance of 250 people on hand for the occasion. Fifty of this number were from Portland.

A particularly interesting program was given during the early afternoon hours. It included the address of welcome by William McGilchrist, Sr., of Salem and talks by John Jolly, chief of the Clan MacLeay in Portland; Bill Gray, Mrs. McElvogue, chief daughter of the White Heather lodge, Daughters of Scotia, in Portland and Rob Robinson, chairman of the clan amusement committee. A detachment from the clan pipe band gave a number of selections and four of the number, Bill Gray, John Jeffries, Jim Jeffries and Dr. McKenzie carried a reel.

Bill Stevens played the pipes for the dance. The group was led in a community sing by William McGilchrist and he also sang a number of songs accompanying himself on his concertina. Donald Harris also sang a number of old favorites included in the list of songs made popular by Harry Lauder. Jacqueline Smiley gave two solo dances, the sword dance and the Highland fling to end the program. Games of all kinds were enjoyed and a number of foot races were provided for the children.

C. H. Fowler of Salem was general chairman in charge of the affair.

CHURCH FOLLOWED BY HOME MEETING

Silverton—The country home of the Curtis Coles near Salem was the scene of a gathering of members of the family Sunday following church services at the First Christian church with dinner served on the lawn and an informal social afternoon enjoyed.

Present were Miss Ina Harold, Silverton, Mrs. Minnette Austin and two grandsons, Richard Austin Miller and Dennis Arthur Miller, of Albany; from Oregon City, John Mead and Jimmy and Jack, Mr. and Mrs. C. Aldridge, and Mrs. Julia Mead; daughter, Margaret of Weiser, Ida., Harold and Clara Marie and Kathleen, and G. F. Harold; Dennis Caldwell of Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mead and Eddie of Wash-

YOUTHS HOME FROM CAMP IN HIGH CASCADES

Monmouth—Three high school boys, Richard Perry, John Irving and Carl Bond are back from the Beaver Boys' State of the American Legion of Oregon at the camp of the High Cascades, near Monmouth Falls. The boys were sent by the Monmouth Legion post, expenses paid. None of the boys are sons of veterans.

BEACH FESTIVAL DRAWING CARD

Independence—Among those attending the Tillamook Beaches Festival from Independence were Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh, Mrs. E. G. Davidson, Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. C. Charbonneau and daughter, Patsy, Eugene McCarthy and others.

The crowning of the Festival queen took place at the fairgrounds Saturday evening and was followed by a dance in the evening at Rockaway. On Sunday all enjoyed the clam and oyster feed at Bay City and the water program at Wheeler and the bathing beauty contest at Twin Rocks attracted record breaking crowds. The day's program closed with a treasure hunt at Neahkahnie mountain.

Sam Slacum, manager of the Festival handled the program and crowds in splendid manner and never missed an opportunity to put in a boost for the Hop Fleets at Independence. Record crowds attended the Tillamook Festival and were most orderly in every respect. Independence folk will never forget the hospitality of the coast people. The weather was ideal and many took advantage of the week-end vacation to go fishing in the Tillamook streams.

EL SINORE Starts TOMORROW! -2 Major Features-

ONE MAN'S LIFE... AGAINST ANOTHER MAN'S HONOR! KAY FRANCIS ERROL FLYNN

WAKE UP AND GRIN! It's fantastic... with 7 grand stars in a swell laugh-and-music show! MAL ROACH presents

PICK A STAR with PATSY KELLY JACK HALEY ROSINA LAWRENCE LYDA ROBERTI

STAN LAUREL and OLIVER HARDY Directed by Edward Sedgwick An MGM Picture

LAST TIMES TODAY MARX BROS. "A DAY AT THE RACES"

DOORS Open 6:45

CAPITOL STARTS TODAY • for 4 Big Days 2 GREAT FEATURES!

ARE YOU THE ONE IN A MILLION HE'S LOOKING FOR? Will your name be the next to go up in lights from coast to coast? If you've got what Hollywood wants, the talent scout will find you—wherever you are!

Talent Contest on Stage Friday Night

JEANNE MADDEN FRED LAWRENCE ROSALIND MARCUS

AND HIT NO. 2 Hopalong Cassidy on the Warpath

RUSTLER'S VALLEY

WILLIAM BOYD