

BANDS FEATURE HOP FESTIVAL, INDEPENDENCE

Independence—The largest number of bands ever to appear on a single celebration program in this section of the state will be heard during the annual Hop Fiesta, which takes place at Independence August 28 to 29, inclusive.

Musical organizations scheduled to play here during the four day hop harvest celebration, are the Independence-Monmouth Twin City band, ladies' drum corps of Toledo, Lebanon boys and girls' band, Tillamook American Legion drum corps, Hopland Musical Maniacs, Silverton boys' band, Albany high school band, Salem high school band, Starr's juvenile band of Portland and the Master Bread Junior band of Salem.

A total of over 325 musicians comprise the membership of the 10 bands.

While the various bands will appear on different days of the Fiesta, all will march in the grand floral and industrial parade on Saturday afternoon, August 28.

Many uniformed civic bodies will also participate in this colorful cavalcade. These include the Eastern Cherrians, Newberg Bersians, Portland Rosarians, Devils Lake Devils and Devilsites and the Tillamook Cheesemakers.

A full program of interesting attractions insures visitors to the Hop Fiesta, of witnessing a celebration in which events will be run off in a rapid-fire manner.

Much interest is being shown in the midwest auto races, a major feature of the Fiesta. Twenty-five of the leading northwest pilots are entered in the races on which points will be officially counted in the championship competition.

Other events scheduled to be held during the festival are motorcycle and horse and buggy races, queen coronation ceremony, hop pickers' sports meet, Hopland fairy pageant, grand floral and junior Fiesta parade, boxing matches, midnight matinee, moonlight bathing beauty contest, ball games, dances and a carnival.

PASTOR WILL TEACH INSTEAD PREACHING

Dallas, Or.—Rev. A. B. Cromwell, pastor of the First Christian church for the past ten months, has turned in his resignation preparatory to accepting a position on the faculty of the Northwest Christian college at Eugene. The pastorate will be taken over by the Rev. Oris D. Harris of Hood River.

The Rev. Cromwell plans to leave Dallas during September. The Rev. Harris, his successor, has been at Hood River for the past three years. Former charges held by him were Kallisp, Mont., Everett, Wn., and the Christian temple in Portland.

ST. LUKE'S PARISH WILL HOLD PICNIC

Woodburn—The annual picnic of St. Luke's parish will be held at the Woodburn city park Sunday, August 15. This is one of the popular events of Marion county which was inaugurated about 10 years ago by the late Father Rubis and always draws a large crowd.

One of the main attractions of the day will be the usually excellent chicken dinner served by the women of the parish from 12 to 2:30 p.m. There will be music, refreshments and a variety of attractions for young and old. One of the features of the day will be a baseball game between Father Dies' Golden Phoenix boys of Salem and the local CYO boys which will be played at Legion park. Everyone is invited.

Stayton Minister Is Welcomed Home

Stayton—Rev. George Sniderhorn was welcomed home following a vacation trip to the middle west when members of the Men's Catholic Order of Foresters assisted by women of the Catholic Order of Foresters arranged a party in his honor in the church basement. Tables were set up for cards with high scores at the close of the play held by Mrs. Ben Baal and Joe Brand. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Rev. Sniderhorn gave an interesting account of his trip to his home in Cayuga, Ontario. During his six weeks' absence he visited the Ontario quintuplets at Colander, Ontario. On his return trip he purchased a new car in Detroit and made stops in Chicago, St. Paul and Yellowstone park.

The committee making the arrangements for the affair included Ed Kerber, Frank Kerber, George Spaniol, Mrs. Gilbert Wourms and Miss Edna Fery.

WOMAN SAVED BY ASSISTANCE OF FAMILY DOG

Lebanon—If it had not been for the friendly assistance of the family dog and the timely arrival of her husband who had been hauling hay at a neighbor's, Mrs. Harvey Boggs, resident of the Gore district, would have probably lost her life late Wednesday afternoon. The woman entered an enclosure at the rear of her farm home to take water to a young heifer who had a small calf.

When she entered the corral the heifer attacked her with her horns, knocking her to the ground and battering her about the head and chest. The dog nipped at the heels of the cow which diverted her attention and played a part in preventing her from being killed.

Her husband drove into the barn yard just as the remainder of the cows in the pen started to rush on her.

The victim is resting easily and is under the care of a doctor.

INFANT GETS SPOON

Lebanon—A baby daughter weighing a trifle over six pounds, was born last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Vehrs at the Lebanon General hospital and because she was the 100th infant to be born since August 23 of last year when the new building was occupied, she received a silver spoon.

During the period which lacks 16 days of being a complete year, 40 boys and 51 girls have been born to parents most of whom are of Lebanon. Among these 100 future presidents, motion picture stars and experts on home economics of the year 1959, there were but two sets of twins, a boy and a girl, born to Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Long, and a pair of girls born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crover.

The Misses Mary and Martha Schuler, nurses in charge of the Lebanon hospital, have announced that every 100th child will, figuratively speaking, be born with a silver spoon in its mouth. Baby number 200 will receive the next spoon and each succeeding 100 will also be entitled to that award.

The first birth was Richard Roy Weeks, tilted-haired, blue-eyed son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weeks of Lebanon, who is now nearing his first birthday anniversary.

LEBANON VISITORS

Lebanon—Mrs. John A. Neely and daughter, Doris Ann, who are returning to their home in Sacramento, Calif., after a trip of two months during which they visited principal cities of the U. S., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bilyeu near Lebanon. Included in the itinerary of the California travelers were Richmond, Va., Washington, D. C., New York City and Chicago in the U. S. and Toronto, Lake Louise and Banff in Canada. Miss Neely is a member of the staff of a Sacramento paper, the largest daily in the California capital and also the most important daily in the northern part of the state.

RECEPTION OFFERED

Lebanon—Members of the Methodist church congregation and others of the community attended a reception held in the church parlors for Rev. R. A. Spence and Mrs. Spence on Wednesday evening. Rev. and Mrs. Spence have recently come here from Jewel City, Kas., to be in charge of the local church.

Marion—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Maine and son, Bobby Ray, of El Reno, Okla., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones and daughter, Blanche. Mrs. Maine is a sister of Mrs. Jones.

Large Litter Sold To Eastern Buyer

Silverton—Thirteen St. Bernard puppies arrived in one litter from the fine female belonging to Miss Marie Stadell of the Evergreen district, several weeks ago. Wednesday Miss Stadell disposed of eleven of the puppies to a dealer in large dogs for an average price of $10.50. The buyer will sell the dogs in the east.

FLAX CARAVAN TOURS VALLEY FOR CEREMONY

Mt. Angel—More than 30 cars participated in the Mt. Angel post of the American Legion and the Flaxarian caravan to Albany Thursday announcing the second annual Flax Festival here which begins tonight with the crowning of Queen Louann Hassing at elaborate coronation ceremonies which will be conducted by the Salem Cherrians at 9 o'clock on the open-air dance floor at Elmer ball park.

Queen Louann and her princesses, Lois Coomler, Margaret Welton and Dorothy Lee Wilkins accompanied the caravan to Albany which made stops at Silverton, Salem and Jefferson enroute, and included a large number of Legion and Auxiliary members, flax and city officials. The group from here took part in the Grand Legion parade at 7 o'clock Thursday evening and other festivities of the state convention of the American Legion.

Following the queen's coronation will be the queen's ball. On Saturday open house will be held until noon at the flax plant where guides will be on hand to show the visitors the plant and experts will explain the workings of the various machines. The grand festival parade is scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon and will feature floats in the flax, commercial and bicycle divisions. A number of floats are expected from Washington. The parade will end at the ball park where addresses will be given by Governor Melton, E. J. Griffith, Rev. Alvin Heibel, O.S.B., and a number of other speakers after which the prizes will be awarded for the floats. After the prizes have been awarded an interesting program will be presented by WPA professional acrobats.

The festival will close Saturday evening with the flax play given by the Federal Theaters Players of Portland in an open air performance at 8:30 p.m. followed by a fireworks display.

LYONS LUMBER MILL GIVES EMPLOYMENT

Lyons—The Bridal Veil lumber company has leased property from R. P. Lyons across the tracks where the Sim Etzel mill was formerly located, for a mill site and will begin building immediately. Mr. Magnesson of Portland who will be the millwright was in Lyons Tuesday looking over the property. From here he went to Bridal Veil to make arrangements to have the machinery shipped immediately. The mill will be of medium size and will employ approximately 60 men in the mill and woods. H. B. Hallin of Portland will be in charge of operating the mill and Byron Wolfe, also of Portland, will take care of the logging operations. The timber is located on the little North Fork of the Santiam and the logs will be trucked into the mill.

BOYS' CAMP ENDS

Monmouth—Back from the boys' camp at Turner are Junior Booi, Wayne Tripp, Perry Carmichael, Eugene Young and Carl Caldwell. The expenses of Junior Booi were sponsored by a Sunday school class of the First Christian church in Salem.

HIGHWAY WORK SHOP PROTEST GIVEN COUNCIL

Albany—Protest was lodged with the city council when it convened last night by residents of the neighborhood surrounding the state highway work shop in West Albany, concerning conditions attending operation of the shop.

V. L. Goodnight, head of the state highway maintenance department, conferred with Victor Olliver, city attorney, today and stated he would do all possible to alleviate the conditions.

Through the spokesmen of the delegation, they complained of the noise of an early morning crew of workers, charged that the building was a fire hazard and especially objected to sulphur fumes from the boiling pots.

The early morning crew of workers has been discontinued. Goodnight said, and he promised henceforth tar-pots will be used on the highways and not at the shop.

Immediate evacuation is impossible, he stated, because of a large gas tank and other equipment installed on the present site, but a move will be made soon.

GOVERNOR AT CONVENTION

Albany—Expressing enthusiasm on the Santiam highways today, Governor Charles H. Martin arrived here this morning to participate in the American Legion convention.

Governor Martin toured both the north and south routes Tuesday. "It was one of the most scenic drives I have ever taken," he said, "and when completed will be one of the most beautiful highways in the state."

The governor drove from Salem this morning with Wallace Wharton, his executive secretary. He visited with Willard L. Marks, president of the state board of higher education, before participating in the Legion activities.

BIRTHDAY DATES ARE MOTIF FOR PARTIES

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hill were hosts Tuesday evening at a garden dinner complimenting Mrs. B. McKnight on the occasion of her natal day.

Bidden to honor Mrs. McKnight were members of her family as follows: Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McKnight and their two children of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Van Den Bosch and daughter Lona Lee of Pelee; Charlotte McKnight and Mr. and Mrs. Hill.

Another birthday anniversary observed on Tuesday was that of Marlene Williamson, who celebrated her sixth, by inviting in eleven small playmates for the afternoon.
