

OLD SANTIAM ACADEMY HAS BIG REUNION

Lebanon—Plans were completed here yesterday for entertaining more than 250 persons expected to turn out for the high school campus tomorrow for the third annual reunion of students of the old Santiam academy.

In a program beginning at one o'clock, a series of events, including speakers, music, a business session and a picnic dinner have been scheduled by the committee in charge.

It will be the first reunion conducted since the old building was razed to permit greater playground facilities for present-day students.

The chief speaker for the occasion will be E. F. Carlton, secretary and editor of the Oregon Education Journal. Other talks will be made by Rev. George Simons, who is to extend the benediction; J. G. Swan of Eugene, who will welcome the former students, and talks by the students themselves on "Old Memories."

Election of new officers will be another feature of the day. Present officers, who have served the past year, are Albert Wilson, president, and Jack Ralston, secretary.

Besides the president and secretary, those making arrangements for the occasion include Mary McCormick, Mrs. Maude Kirkpatrick, James Burtenshaw, Mrs. Nettie Grandall and S. C. Myers.

DIRECTING SWIMMING

Lebanon—The Red Cross and the city recreational project will again conduct swimming tests at the city pool on the South Santiam river next Tuesday, Mrs. Ferris White, examiner, and Reed Clark, recreational director, have announced.

The tests, held once last Monday, will be held again to give those who failed to take them before one more opportunity, it was explained.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN AID BIDDEN GUESTS

Silverton—Miss Hannah Olson and her sister, Mrs. Ida Doyle, are opening their home Thursday afternoon to members of the Immanuel Lutheran Ladies Aid society and friends as an annual affair in memory of their mother, Mrs. Olivia Olson, who served on the visiting committee of the society for many years.

An informal program and a social hour in the gardens of the home are planned by Miss Olson and Mrs. Doyle.

Mrs. Olson's dues in the society have been kept up by her daughters since her death as was her special request.

Mrs. L. Opedal is president of the aid; Mrs. K. Furrue is vice-president; Mrs. A. T. Gunderson is secretary and Mrs. R. O. Solum, treasurer.

Founding Observed By Forester Orders

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Mary Stupfel of St. Paul was hostess Thursday evening to the Mt. Angel and St. Paul orders of the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters.

Thursday was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Mt. Angel order and Mrs. Stupfel, who was a charter member in the Mt. Angel order, is now a member at St. Paul.

Following the silver jubilee meeting the Mt. Angel group will not convene next week but will hold their next regular meeting the fourth Thursday in September.

TUCKERS ARE HOME Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Tucker have returned from several weeks spent at the coast where they made extensive repairs on their summer home.

JACK BENNY STARS—"Artists and Models," musical film coming to the Esinore today, features Jack Benny, Gail Patrick, Ida Lupino and Richard Arlen. In addition there will be an animated cartoon, news and comedy reels.

Grand Floral Parade Comes End of Fiesta

Independence—Beautiful floats, uniformed bodies, bands, cowboys and cowgirls and gaily decorated automobiles will form the grand floral parade, one of the feature-events of the annual Hop Fiesta at Independence August 28 to 29, inclusive.

Paul Robinson, general chairman of the parade committee, has already obtained eighty entries for the Hopland procession, and expects the total to reach over 100.

Uniformed civic bodies that will march are the Salem Cherrists, the Devil's Lake Devils and Devilettes, Tillamook Cheese makers, Jefferson Jayhawkers and the Taft Redheads.

A total of 11 bands will be in the cavalcade. These include Independence-Monmouth band, Toledo ladies' drum corps, Tillamook American Legion drum corps, Esler's Juvenile band, Lebanon band, Hopland Musical Maniacs, Silverton boys' band, Albany high school band, Master Bread juniors and the Corvallis drum corps.

Trophies and cash prizes will award winners in the various divisions of the parade, which is to be held Saturday afternoon, August 28. Many other events are scheduled to be staged during the four-day hop-harvest festival, chief among which are midge auto and motorcycle races, horse and buggy races, moonlight bathing beauty contest, sports meet, boxing matches, dances, a carnival, and the famed "Midnight Matinee," the Fiesta fun show.

The Fiesta opens with the queen coronation ceremonial Thursday evening, August 26.

DALLAS TAKES STEP TO IMPROVE SERVICE

Dallas—The city of tomorrow, as visualized by Norman Bel Geddes, engineering expert and the traffic problems of today as presented by Dr. Miller McClintock of Harvard University, was shown for the benefit of the members of the Chamber of Commerce at the noon luncheon Friday, L. C. Pitcock of Shell Oil company was in charge of the presentation and made a brief introductory talk. A number of visitors were present for the luncheon.

At a directors' meeting which followed, the civic committee was instructed to investigate the possibilities of a better mail from outside points during the afternoon. R. S. Kresson also spoke briefly on the sesqui-centennial constitutional observance September 17.

HENNING'S ARE HOSTS Gervais—Mrs. J. V. Kaler of Berkeley, Calif., is visiting for a couple of weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Henning.

YOUNG OFFENDER GOES TO PRISON FOR FIVE YEARS

Dallas—Albert Teal, ringleader of a quartet of youthful offenders from Falls City, was sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary by Judge Arlie G. Walker in circuit court Friday. Teal, in company with Gilbert Morgan, 18, Henry Kordalewski, 18, and Carl Teal, 18, ran wild recently when the quartet stole automobiles in Benton and Wallowa counties in addition to committing larceny not in a dwelling in Polk county.

Sentencing of the other three members of the party was held up meantime pending their appearance in Wallowa and Benton courts. Wallowa has first claim upon them as the warrant for an escapee in Enterprise takes priority over the Benton county warrant for the theft of three cars in Corvallis.

Albert Teal is a former offender. Kordalewski came to Polk county first as a member of the Civilian Conservation Corps and his home is in Providence, R. I.

Robert Goyke, another youthful offender, was given one year in the penitentiary for forgery. Roy Gray of west Salem, charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, waived all grand jury preliminaries and pleaded not guilty when arraigned. Date of his trial has been set for October 1, the opening day of the October term of court.

MISSIONARY GROUP HEARS ABOUT CHINA

Gervais—The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church had one of the most interesting meetings of the summer season Wednesday in the social hall of the church when Mrs. Bartholomew, who has only recently returned from China, was the guest speaker.

The group held its regular business session presided over by Mrs. S. Stevens, the society's president. Mrs. Robert Harper led the devotional, after which the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Bartholomew who gave a most interesting talk on the conditions and habits of western China where she has lived the past few years. Her small son, just three years old, sang, Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. A. B. Minaker gave a few fitting remarks to the departure of Mrs. Regele and Mrs. Morgan who are leaving soon to make their home in other parts of the state.

Miss Beulah Barner sang at the close of the program. Mrs. Minaker, Mrs. Sawyer and Mrs. G. J. Molson were named to serve on the flower committee for the society. During the refreshment hour Mrs. J. B. Bowen and Mrs. E. S. Marsh, who had birthdays this month, were especially honored.

Other members present were Mrs. Virginia Booster, Mrs. William Allison, Mrs. A. B. Minaker, Mrs. Sporalsky, Mrs. J. E. Cutsforth, Mrs. Ross Cutsforth, Mrs. A. R. Siegmond, Mrs. C. A. Sawyer, Mrs. A. Morgan, Mrs. J. Lutz, Mrs. S. Stevens, Mrs. I. V. McAdoo, Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth, Mrs. A. St. John, Mrs. Regele, Rev. Hood. Visitors were Miss Iris Cutsforth, Mrs. U. S. Armstrong, Mrs. Larson, Mrs. Meyers, Mrs. Mendenhall, Mrs. John Bannick, Miss Margaret Hood, Mrs. Howard Long, Mrs. Bruce Titus, Mrs. Allan, Mrs. F. Haynes and Mrs. J. Hood were hostesses during the refreshment hour.

PLAN FISHING TRIP

Rickreall—John Oliver, Los Angeles, and Gilbert Oliver of Walla Walla arrived here Friday for a week's visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Oliver. John, who has been in Los Angeles for the past year, plans to return there to enter Loma Linda medical college September 1. Gilbert is a junior in Walla Walla college. Oliver and his sons plan to leave Monday for a few days' fishing in the North Umpqua river.

ALLENS START EAST

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Allen left this week for Geneva, Neb., to help celebrate the 90th birthday anniversary on August 23 of Mr. Allen's mother, Mrs. E. Allen. They will also visit Mrs. Allen's mother, who lives in the same town and who is also quite old.

FACULTY HAS CHANGE FOR SHORT VACATION

Monmouth—A four weeks' vacation for faculty staff and members of Oregon Normal school was begun Friday when the school's sessions for the current school year closed, terminating two terms of summer school.

Formal commencement was held in June for the entire year, and no formalities marked the closing. Students retired to their homes and faculty members, accompanied by their families and close friends, are preparing for motor trips and journeys.

Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Jensen, accompanied by guests from Los Angeles and Seattle, will motor north to various points in Washington. Dr. Norman Carlis is returning to his Illinois home by train, first visiting Michigan, where he will purchase a car, and motor back in September.

CE CONFERENCE CLOSES SUNDAY

Turner—The 18th annual Christian Endeavor leadership conference of Oregon closes Sunday afternoon. It has been in session at the Turner Memorial tabernacle grounds since August 16 with an enrollment of 90, with 60 taking the full course.

Serving on the administrative committee were Dr. Walter L. Myers of Eugene, as dean; Viola Ogden cashier; Rosella Straub, class registrar; Lawrence Mitchellmore, pastor of the Presbyterian church, at Moro, dean of men, and conducted a class in the principles of recreation; Hulda Anderson, dean of girls; Elog Walker, business manager; Mrs. Walter L. Myers, hostess.

Rev. J. A. Smith had charge of Bible class morning; Rev. Chester P. Gates led discussions in the evening. He comes from Portland of the Ladd Evangelical church. Others taking part in the educational work were Mrs. C. W. Stacy in temperance education; Ruth Towne and Lois Lovett, Mrs. Ira Warner and Howard Cole.

In talking to the young people they express the beneficial results of the conference as being Christian fellowship, friendships formed and among those of common interests, and many are lasting, inspirational addresses and discussions impress the desire to be of greater Christian influence.

Turner—The Mennonite national convention will be held on the Turner Memorial tabernacle grounds commencing August 23. Several thousand delegates are expected. Automobiles from distant states have arrived and are already on the grounds.
