

SOCIETY

By ROVENA EYRE

THOSE who come and go continue to interest Salem society circles. Thursday Oregon's first couple, Governor and Mrs. Charles H. Martin, left for a visit in Bremerton with their son-in-law and daughter, Lieutenant and Mrs. Schuyler Pyne. They expect to return home the first week in September.

Greeting those who have been away is also evincing the interest of Salem folk. Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary are coming in for their share of warm greetings from Salem folk. The McNarys, with their lovely young daughter, Charlotte, returned Monday from Washington, D. C., and are now domiciled in their country place, Fircroft.

Brides continue to be feted with a round of parties. Esther Wood, attractive daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. Lee Wood, is the center of a whirl of informal entertaining before she descends the ranks of the spinsters, of which she is president, September 1, when she will become the bride of William Bodner of Corvallis.

And so the Summer draws to a close with happy memories of visitors, travelers, weddings, informal luncheons, teas and splash parties. Soon the young things will be packed off to school and club activities will commence again for matrons and maids. No matter what the season is life in Oregon's capital is always exciting. . . .

CHARMING VISITOR—Mrs. John Evans of Denver, Colo., who is in the capital with Dr. Evans to visit his parents, Dr. and Mrs. John C. Evans. Several informal affairs have been arranged for the couple's pleasure.

The Rainbow Girls will sponsor a picnic and splash party at Riverdale next Saturday. Those wishing to make reservations are asked to call Miss Helen Kestly, 6746, or Miss Esther Vehrs, 5198.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Collins motored to Eugene today where they were the guests of friends.

Much interest is being evinced in the approaching wedding of Miss Kathleen Lindbeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck, and Ivan W. Crum, son of Mrs. Mary Crum of Medford.

The ceremony will be held next Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lindbeck home in South High street. Dr. James E. Milligan will read the service in the presence of the two families and a few intimate friends. Mrs. Walter A. Denton will play the wedding march and Miss Willette Sneed will sing "I Love You Truly" and "Oh, Promise Me."

The bride will be given in marriage by her father. She will wear a striking model of white satin, fashioned with a stand-up collar embellished with pearls, long sleeves and train. Her veil will be caught in a cap with orange blossoms and she will carry a bouquet of bride's roses.

Miss Madeline Slepny will be the honor attendant. She will wear a gown of bronze taffeta and carry an arm bouquet of Tullman roses.

Lester Lynch of Corvallis will be the best man. A large reception will be held from 3 to 4 o'clock. Assisting in serving will be the Misses Adelaide Liddle, Veva Schattuck, Mrs. Hoyt Snyder, Mrs. Alex Cruickshank and Miss Evelyn Hesse, sorority sisters of the bride.

Later the couple will leave for a short wedding trip. The bride has chosen as her going away costume a gray tulleur with green hat and accessories. After September 1 the couple will be at home in Oakridge.

Miss Lindbeck is a graduate of Salem schools and was a member of Alpha Xi Delta at Oregon State college. Mr. Crum is a graduate of Oregon State and is now in the forestry service. He is a member of Beta Kappa.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hardy are being felicitated upon the birth of a son, James Stewart, at the Salem General hospital August 19. Mrs. Hardy will be remembered as Dorothy Reed.

MRS. WILLIAM J. GRIGG presided at luncheon in her Saginaw street residence Wednesday in compliment to Mrs. Lynn D. Lambeth, who sailed Friday for Alaska with Mr. Lambeth.

During the afternoon contract was in play with honors going to Mrs. Lambeth and Mrs. R. D. Paris. A kerchief shower for the traveler was a surprise feature of the afternoon.

The attractive table was centered with an arrangement of pastel sweet peas and tall tapers.

Those bidden to bid Mrs. Lambeth bon voyage were Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee, Mrs. K. W. Heinlein, Mrs. L. V. Benson, Mrs. William Schlitt, Mrs. M. Y. Brooks, Mrs. H. L. Staver, Mrs. R. D. Paris, Mrs. L. D. Gilbertson, Mrs. William Mott, Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mrs. H. G. Brock, Mrs. R. L. Edwards, Mrs. A. L. Adolphson, Mrs. Elzora Smith, Mrs. Carl Gloss, Mrs. Howard G. KING-MARTIN The First Evangelical church will be the scene of a beautiful ceremony Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when Miss Irma Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney S. Martin, becomes the bride of Joseph Jerome King, Jr., son of the J. J. Kings of Portland, formerly of Salem. The Rev. Mr. John Rudin will officiate.

The altar will be banked with gladiolus in soft pastel colors and cathedral tapers will cast a soft glow over the wedding party as they witness the exchange of vows.

Mrs. J. H. Bennett will play the organ and preceding the service William Wright will sing "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Linden Martin. She will wear a gown of white moire, designed with tight bodice, full skirt, long train and off the shoulder effect. A Juliet cap will hold the full length veil in place. The bride will carry an old-fashioned nosegay.

Miss Janet Frye will be the maid of honor. She will wear a gown of leaf green taffeta made along princess lines.

The bridesmaids will include the Misses Esther Vehrs, Shirley Knighton, Virginia Wassam, Harriet Pointer and Mrs. Maurice Heater. They will wear princess frocks in yellow and bronze trimmed in brown velvet ribbon. They will also carry old-fashioned bouquets.

Gay Riggs, niece of the bride, will serve as flower girl.

Fritz Amman of Los Angeles will act as best man for Mr. King. Ushers will include Buster Herren, Don Cannon, Howard Adams and Glenn Wilbur.

A reception will follow at the Alpha Phi Alpha house with members of the wedding party and the two families receiving informally.

Dispensing hospitalities at the urns will be Mrs. Earl Riggs and Mrs. George Vehrs. Mrs. John Rudin and Mrs. Vern Wells will cut the bride's cake.

Assisting in serving will be Miss Muriel Stewart, Miss Alice George, Miss Beth Holcomb, Mrs. Homer Freeman and several others of the younger set.

For going away the bride has chosen a brown tulleur with dark green accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The couple will leave by motor for Black Mountain college in North Carolina, where Mr. King has an instructorship in economics. The bride, who was an Alpha Phi Alpha at Willamette university, will matriculate at the college.

En route to their new home the couple will stop in San Francisco to visit Mr. and Mrs. Lee Coe (Claudia Buntin), formerly of Salem, and will also spend some time at Leland Stanford, from which Mr. King was graduated. They will visit in Cheyenne with relatives and also stop in Chicago. After a short stop at Lexington, Kentucky, they will be at home at Black Mountain.

BIB 'N' TUCKER

By ROBY LAUGHLIN
NEW TREND . . . of slender silhouette is evidenced in practically every new gown one sees these days. . . . And if you want to look as though you had just stepped off the boat from Paris you'll very quickly get yourself a slim, long-lined black dress. . . . All the stylists are agreeing that the fitted formula, accentuating slim waists, flat diaphragms, shaped busts and "caved in" tumblers, is the fashion ideal for the coming season. . . . Molyneux calls the new style "pencil straight;" Alik, "Straight and narrow, long, thin diaphragm;" Schiaparelli, "clear cut, scanty as to skirt;" Patou, "narrow, slender, moulded;" Chanel, "straighter cuts;" Rochas, "slim, severe;" Lelong, "supple, slender. . . . Just remember that it doesn't matter whether the waistline of the slim dress is high, low or medium, as long as it is the right waistline for your figure. . . . If your legs are short you can make them appear longer by wearing a higher waistline—a real Empire line turned in under the bust, with no belt to show where the real waistline is. . . . If you're long-legged and short waisted you'll probably find a lowered waistline more becoming. . . . Accentuate the latter by a molded effect, now (Continued on page 12, column 6)

HERE 'N' THERE

THE HOME . . . of Mr. and Mrs. Adolphe A. Dekum in Portland was the scene of a beautiful christening service Wednesday afternoon, for their granddaughters, Linda Dekum and Mary Francesca, two-and-a-half-year-old twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Tibbets Mills (Francesca Dekum), who are in Oregon from Bucharest, Rumania, where Mr. Mills is connected with the American consulate. An unusual, though lovely, feature of the ceremony was that it was performed by the little girls' grandmother, the Rev. Mary Mills, pastor of the First Church of Truth in Pasadena, Cal., who was assisted by Dr. James E. Dodd, pastor of the Church of Truth in Portland. The children were named for their grandmothers, and the godparents were relatives and old family friends. Mrs. Edward H. Peck of Warren, Ohio, a girlhood friend of Mrs. Dekum, and Fred Bickel are the godparents of Linda, with Mrs. J. R. Meyers, Mr. Dekum's sister, acting for Mrs. Peck. The Rev. Erma Wells, pastor of the Church of Truth in Spokane and an old-time friend of the Mills family, and Charles Tibbets of Longview, brother of Mrs. Mills, are the godparents (continued on page 12, column 6)
