Salem Man And Roseburg Girl Wedded

At a beautiful wedding solemnized at 8 o'clock last Saturday evening in the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority house in Corvallis, Miss Wanda Harding, daughter of R. R. Harding of Roseburg, became the bride of Thomas B. Massey of Salem, son of Dr. and Mrs. George A. Massey of Klamath Falls. Dr. E. W. Warrington officiated and read the service in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives.

Palms banked before the fireplace formed a green foil for white gladioli, the dainty blossoms of the lace vine and white cathedral tapers in candelabra. The staircase was wound with the lace vine, and the service was performed in soft candlelight.

With Miss Norma Baker of Klamath Falls at the piano, Miss Roberta Borland of Grants Pass sang "I Love You Truly." Miss Baker played Lohengrin's wedding march.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her honor attendant was her sister, Mrs. Eldon Ogle of Roseburg, while George Massey of Klamath Falls acted as her brother as best man. Ushers were Don Johnson and William Kuykendall.

Gowned in white lace, floor length, the bride wore an exquisite veil fashioned with long train. She carried white pom dahlias and gladioli with a shower of the white lace blossoms and moire grain ribbon. Mrs. Ogle wore lavender lace and carried gladioli bouquets of orange hue.

During the reception which followed Mrs. Arthur Fisher and Mrs. Lyle Porter Beardsley of Portland served, and Mrs. William Kuykendall, a sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake. Serving were sorcery sisters of the bride, including Miss Madge Marshall, Miss Marybelle Barrett, Miss Ona Carmine, Miss Marjorie Behrens and Miss Penny Mulligan.

Mr. and Mrs. Massey left later in the evening for a wedding trip in California. They will make their home in Salem where Mr. Massey is employed with the Capital Drug store.

Mrs. Massey, who was graduated from Oregon State college, has been employed as the secretary to Dr. W. L. Powers, on the college campus. Mr. Massey, too, was graduated from Oregon State, completing the course in pharmacy.

Book Review Class Opened

The Book Review class, sponsored by the Salem Woman's club and opened to the interested public, will open Wednesday in the Women's clubhouse at 2 o'clock. Miss Eve Knapp will again be the commentator and books to be reviewed include "The Flowering of New England" by Van Wyck Brooks, and "American Dream" by Foster.

Mrs. C. W. Stacey will entertain the Salem W.C.T.U. at her country place at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Sundown Stories

By Mary Graham Bonner Finding Plans

"We'll make our finding plans right away," began Willy Nilly. "I'll get out my automobile Two-Ways and travel around the roads that lead in all directions from Puddle Muddle."

"Jelly Bear, you choose the woods that lie to the right of Puddle Muddle, and you go through the woods that are to the left of Puddle Muddle. Honey Bear, you, Jupiter and Blacky Bear, make a complete search of our own woods. He might have fallen and hurt himself, and he might be near at home. I really don't imagine that Chubby would go far, far away from home—although of course I don't know."

"I think Top Notch should go around to the neighboring barnyards and ask them if anything has been christened Chubby."

"Christopher Columbus Crow had better take to his wings again and fly close enough to the earth so that Chubby can hear him, and you'd better keep cawing that we're looking for him."

"That'll do," cawed Christopher. "The ducks might waddle around—"

"Quack-quack" they all quacked, "quack-quack."

"And you, Sweet Face, had better stay here in Puddle Muddle and be ready to greet Chubby."

They all could picture this chattering. They could see their dear Chubby in Puddle Muddle and all of them hurrying back after a search to find him sitting in the sun with Sweet Face.

"We'll meet here tomorrow night," continued Willy Nilly. "It's warm enough to sleep in the open."

Tomorrow—Looking and Looking!

CARRYING THE MALE SUIT pattern into women's clothes, this fall attire consists of a link-fastened black wool jacket, a pique edged waistcoat, and a striped skirt in men's suiting. The bow-tie blouse is saucy and the beret is black felt. Inspiration probably came from tailoring shops for men.

Mrs. Leon Brown Takes Office as Auxiliary Head

The American Legion auxiliary installed its officers for the ensuing year at impressive ceremonies held last night in the Fraternal temple. Following the installation Mrs. Leon Brown, the newly-installed president, announced her standing committee for the ensuing year. Judge George Rossman was the speaker of the evening. His talk concerned the Constitution of the United States.

Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, accompanied by Mrs. Ted Gordon, sang a group of numbers. Following the session of the auxiliary, followed the dancing and a late supper.

The new officers for the auxiliary include Mrs. Leon Brown, president; Mrs. R. D. Woodrow, first vice-president; Mrs. Don McLeod, second vice-president; Mrs. Earl T. Andrews, treasurer; Mrs. George Averett, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Glenn Porter, finance officer; Mrs. Mem Pearce, chaplain; Mrs. Herman Brown, historian.

The executive board will include Mrs. Harold Perkins, Mrs. Fred Gahndorf and Mrs. Paul Ficke. Standing committees will be as follows:

Student Rates Made For Concert Series

Students, in public schools and at Willamette, will have the opportunity to hear the world-famous artists being brought to Salem by the Community Concert association, which begins its membership drive September 27 and closes October 2. The adult price will be $5 for the concert, students will be $1.50. Headquarters for the association will be Jaquith music store at 456 Court street.

The association's object in offering membership for sale, without any single admissions being sold, is to guarantee adequate funds for hiring of artists. This plan has proved very successful in some 300 cities in the United States, including Spokane, which has two series to handle the memberships: Klamath Falls, Longview, Everett and Tacoma, Wash.

With 1000 paid members Salem will enjoy five concerts.

White Shrine Has Four New Members

White Shrine of Jerusalem initiated four candidates including Mrs. Earl Snell, Mrs. Jennie Eberling, Mrs. Bertha Bergman and Mrs. Cora Scott, at impressive ceremonies said last night in the Fraternal temple.

A no-host dinner was served earlier in the evening with covers placed for 80 members. Special guests were Dr. and Mrs. Winkler of Portland, Mrs. Freda Carlson of Spokane and Mrs. Thelma Ryder of Vancouver.

Mrs. Miller Hayden, worthy high priestess, presided during the evening.
