

Gates Pupils Launch Season Class Program

Gates—The Gates High Lights, a publication of the Gates high school pupils, made its first appearance October 8. The news staff consists of the following: Editor-in-chief, Willis Grafe; assistant editor, Gale Carey; business manager, Kenneth Dike; social and society editor, Elliott Knutson; sports editor, Louis Gilne; joke editor, Clyde Barney; grade school editor, Virginia Davis; art editor, Alfred Meyers; freshman class editor, Charles Blackburn; sophomore class editor, Doris Shelton; junior class editor, Melvin Asche; senior class editor, Vivian Shelton.

At a recent meeting of the junior class Louis Gilne was elected as president, Winifred Brown as vice-president, and Violet Landwing as secretary, and Melvin Asche as class editor. On October 8, the members of this class entertained the student body presenting a short play.

The senior class presented a quarter hour of entertainment during a recent student body meeting in fulfillment of the plan to have some type of entertainment at all student body meetings. The first number on the program was a lively song, "She'll Be Comin' 'Round the Mountain," by Willis Grafe, Eugene Carey, Kenneth Dike and Clarence Landwing. The song was followed by a tap dance, "Whispering," by Audrey Johnson and Virginia Davis; a pantomime, "Three Little Pigs," by Geneva Blackburn, Mary Thomas, Lucille Fox, Elliott Knutson, Vivian Shelton, Willis Grafe, and Alfred Meyers; a tap dance, "Sidewalks of New York," by Annabelle Mobley and Elliott Knutson. The program ended with the song, "Little Brown Jug," by Willis Grafe, Kenneth Dike, Eugene Carey and Clarence Landwing.

The senior class officers for the year are: President, Mary Thomas; vice-president, Kenneth Dike; secretary-treasurer, Virginia Davis; class reporter, Vivian Shelton. There are 12 members in the 1938 senior class which includes four new pupils enrolled from outside schools. The personnel of the class are: Geneva Blackburn, Neulaka, Okla., Eugene Carey, Virginia Davis, Kenneth Dike, Lucille Fox, Willis Grafe, Audrey Johnson, Elliott Knutson, Clarence Landwing of Scotts Mills, Annabelle Mobley of San Francisco, Alfred Meyers, Vivian Shelton from Mill City and Mary Thomas.

There are 56 pupils enrolled in the grade school this year. In the primary room there are three in the first grade and seven in the second with Mrs. Marshall-Evystone as teacher. In the intermediate room there are nine in the third grade, ten in the fourth and eight in the fifth with Miss Twila Remmers as teacher. In the upper grade room there are five in the sixth grade, eight in the seventh and six in the eighth grade with Mr. Fred Weber as teacher.

The pupils of the upper grades have formed a harmonica band under the leadership of Robert Wakefield. The members of the band hope to be able to perform for the public in a few weeks.

The boys are playing softball and are going into the gym to commence foundation work for basketball in a short time. Robert Wakefield is coach this year.

Members of the sophomore class will be ruled by Norman Carey as president; Bob Kelle, vice-president; Francis Young, secretary, and Doris Shelton, class editor. There are two new students in this class this year: Marvin Helvey from Mollala and Doris Shelton from Mill City.

There are six freshmen in the Gates school this year. They are: Raymond Asche, Charles Barney, Charles Blackburn, Carl Book, Robert Wilson and Rex Harmon.

At 8 o'clock Friday, October 22, the Gates high school student body will present an all-star amateur radio program in the high school auditorium. The admission is free and the public is urged to attend. This is a completely new type of program at Gates and all are looking forward to it with great interest. Mr. Robert Wakefield and Miss Lillian Potter, the high school instructors, will assist the students in this work.

Robertson Acquires Mattson Ice Plant

Woodburn—Elmer Mattson, proprietor of Oak Park ice plant, grocery, fountain, cold storage plant and gas station, has sold his business to Robert Robertson of Portland, who takes possession this week. Mr. and Mrs. Mattson and two sons, Floyd and Marvin, are moving to Portland. They have not decided upon their future plans but expect to take a vacation trip before starting in business again. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mattson have been active in civic and social affairs and the sons are well known in musical circles. They will be greatly missed.

Lebanon Forum Seeks Erection Highway Signs

Lebanon—The highway committee of the Lebanon Commercial club and of the Lions club will hold a joint meeting to decide if it is feasible to erect two large signs clearly directing the way to Lebanon. This was determined in the second fall meeting of the Lebanon Commercial club in the Lebanon hotel.

The signs would be placed in at least two strategic points in the county. Similar signs were placed a number of years ago at Tangent and at Albany but have now disappeared.

Although measures were taken to correct the condition nearly a year ago, signs pointing the way to Lebanon are still lacking or badly in need of repair. It was reported in the meeting. Measures will be renewed immediately.

The club decided to continue to sponsor entertainment programs in nearby communities. Members declared the annual cost well worth the benefits.

Immediate steps will be taken to incorporate the club.

Frank Groves, chairman of the Legion committee in charge of Harvest Jubilee arrangements, reported in detail on plans for the event this Saturday, and answered a number of inquiries.

About 30 Lebanon businessmen were present. A dinner preceded the meeting. President Harold Irvine presided.

Pierpont Clan Gathers—Lebanon—The tenth reunion of the children of the late James and Rachel Pierpont, pioneer residents of the county, was held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Blackburn, eight of the ten children were present. The birthday of Virgil Evans was also observed on this occasion. Present of the ten sons and daughters of the Pierponts were James Pierpont, Newport; Mrs. Walter Dalley, Newport; Mrs. E. M. Rodgers, Albany; Mrs. Daisy Hyland, Portland; Mrs. Gene Pierce, Eugene; Martin Pierpont, Harriburg; Mrs. Ida Evans, Lebanon; and Mrs. H. E. Blackburn of Lebanon. Others among the guests were Virgil, Edson and Merlyn Evans, Audrey Heimerdinger, H. E. Blackburn, Theron Blackburn, Mrs. Don Standley and children, David and Donald.

Bereans Change Dates—Lebanon—Members of the Berean society of the Church of Christ, who have been holding meetings twice monthly on the first and third Wednesdays, have changed the date to the first and third Thursdays for the convenience of those who found the original date difficult. Beginning with the meeting scheduled for the home of Mrs. Hubert Crane on Thursday of next week this same day will be kept for future meetings.

Sheridan Freshmen Are Initiated—Sheridan—Freshman initiation day was held in Sheridan high school.

At noon on the athletic field the Sophs easily won over the Freshman team in the annual tug-of-war between a team of ten boys on each side. The student body president, Bill Atwood, held the hose and opened the spray on the losing freshmen.

The exercises of the day included an inspection on the campus by sophomores at 12:30 until 12:55. In the evening the initiation took the form of a student body affair in the gym in which sophs furnished the entertainment in the form of initiation stunts; the juniors furnished the refreshments and the seniors did the decoration. Herbert Wilson was master of ceremonies and Russell Sackett, sophomore president, assisted him.

All members of the faculty were present and parents were witnesses of the evening's fun in large numbers. All present were served by the juniors.

Pratum Club Called—Pratum—The first fall meeting of the Pratum Community club will be held Friday, October 15 at 8 o'clock. Carl Vogt, the new president, promises to inaugurate many new and novel features during the year. A lunch will be served at the close of the meeting.
