Medical Auxiliary Plans Affairs for State Session

The woman's auxiliary to the Oregon State Medical society will meet in Salem next Thursday, Friday and Saturday for the annual convention. The auxiliary will meet in the First Presbyterian church with registration taking place at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Hugh Dowd of Salem will give the greeting and Mrs. Charles Edwin Sears will respond. Following the roll call of delegates the usual reports will be given by Mrs. James Odell, Mrs. Ralph Stearna, Mrs. Alice Fisher and Mrs. C. E. McCain. Mrs. Burton Myers of Salem will give the report of registration and reports of state officers will also be given.

Mrs. George H. Bendshadler is the president-elect. District reports will be given by Mrs. Carl Emmons of Salem, Mrs. William Weese of Ontario and Mrs. C. J. Rademacher of Bend.

A luncheon will be held at the church at 12:30 o'clock with Dr. W. W. Bauer, national advisor of the national medical auxiliary and also advisor for the national Parent-Teacher association, as speaker. All members of the Salem P. T. A. groups are invited.

At 2 o'clock the afternoon session will resume with Mrs. John Abele of Portland in charge of the program. Following the session trips will be made to the linen mills and state institutions under the direction of Mrs. Horace Miller. From 5 to 6 o'clock the auxiliary members and their husbands will meet at the Capitol theatre to view a picture of medical interest.

Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock with Mrs. C. A. Downs arranging the program. Members will come in old fashioned costumes and a clever skit, reminiscent of olden times, "By Lamp Light," will be presented.

A breakfast will be held at 8 o'clock Friday morning at the Golden Pheasant. At 9:30 o'clock the business meeting will be called and county presidents will give their reports. Mrs. L. O. Clement of Salem is president of the Folk-Yamhill-Marion auxiliary and will make her report.

Reports will also be made by special committees on cancer control, McLoughlin house, resolutions, registration and credentials, nominating committee and finally, the election of officers.

Luncheon will be served at noon with Mrs. George Vehrs in charge. "An Ideal Program" will be the topic.

The home of Mrs. Charles G. Robertson on Fairmount hill will be the scene of a tea honoring visiting matrons from 3:30 until 5 o'clock.

An informal banquet will be held at 7 o'clock that night at the Hotel Marion.

Saturday morning the state officers will breakfast at the Golden Pheasant with the regular business session taking up at 9. Final reports will be given and officers installed. A post-convention board meeting and adjournment will complete the three-day session.

Mrs. H. K. Stockwell and Mrs. James Sears are arranging a golf tournament for 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Mrs. Carl Emmons, who has been serving as first vice-president of the state auxiliary, and Mrs. Hugh Dowd will be co-chairmen of the convention.

Mrs. Burton Myers, Mrs. Kenneth Power, Mrs. I. M. Sanders, Mrs. J. O. Mathis and Mrs. Barlow will serve on his registration committee.

The tea on Friday will be arranged by Mrs. Verdon Hockett, Mrs. R. Lee Wood, Mrs. Jerard Backstrand, Mrs. Robert Joseph, Mrs. Kenneth Power and Mrs. Vern Miller.

Mrs. Horace Miller is in charge of entertainment.
