

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by ROSA BRYE, Phone 5212

Dinner is Event of Tuesday

The St. Cecilia Guild will entertain with a gay dinner and Christmas party this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Spears in Chemeketa street.

Additional guests will include Mrs. George H. Swift, Miss Eleanor Swift, Mrs. Russell Catlin and Miss Sybil Spears.

Members present will include the Misses Eleanor Fundman, Virginia Williams, Mabel McColloch, Josephine Cornoyer, Shirley Evenston, Barbara McLaughlin, Marie and Jeanne Patton, Margaret Bell, Maxine Rankin, Dorothy Kibbe, Patty Otten, Barbara Benson, Ruth Melson, Helen Langille, Margaret Hinkle and the hostess, Mrs. Frank H. Spears.

Legion Groups Have Christmas Party

Over 300 members of the American Legion, auxiliary and juveniles met at the fraternal temple last night for their annual Christmas party and program. Christmas decorations were arranged about the rooms and centered the tables at the supper hour.

The program included carols by a quartet composed of Ewald Franz, Bob Smith, Paul Pilke and Walter Lehnera, accompanied by Marguerite Gueffroy; numbers by the junior chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Leif Bergavik; tap dance by Helen Smith; accordion numbers by Donald Peary and Marimba numbers by Russell and Charles Beardsley, with Oscar and Robert James playing the accompaniments.

The child welfare committee reported that codliver oil is being bought for use at the Highland nursery school.

The auxiliary quartet will sing at the Veterans' hospital in Portland, the Old People's home and the state tuberculosis hospital during the week.

Miss Nancy Archbold Honored Guest

Mrs. Jack Spence of McMinnville and her daughter, Mrs. Mark Temple of Pendleton, will entertain Sunday evening at the Spence residence complimenting Miss Nancy Archbold, whose marriage to Boyce Stanard will be an event of December 28 in Portland.

Several Salem maids and matrons are planning to drive to McMinnville for the affair.

Cecil Thompson Home For Holidays

Friends of Cecil Thompson of San Francisco are happy to learn that he will spend the Christmas holidays in Salem with his mother, Mrs. Alma Thompson, and his sister, Mrs. Arthur Knox.

Additional guests for dinner at the Knox home Christmas day will be Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis and daughter, Judith, of Corvallis.

Falls City—Sam Speerella, a Willamette student, spent the week-end with his mother.

Miss Betty McCain Party Hostess

Miss Betty McCain entertained with a gay birthday party Saturday evening in celebration of her 15th birthday anniversary. The Christmas motif was carried out in the appointments and carols were sung during the evening. Mrs. W. W. McCain assisted her daughter at the supper hour.

Bidden were the Misses Jerry Wolfe, Marjorie Pratt, Nadine Wyatt, Barbara Ricketts, Dorothy Longenecker, Mildred Beatty, Norma Furber, Barbara White, Barbara Spaulding, Elaine Murry, Lucille Reed, Betty Mercer, Hazel Cooper, Margaret Foraythe.

Exhibit of Christmas Decorations Draws Many

Salem folk and many from out-of-town points evinced tremendous interest yesterday in the display of Christmas decorations at the old Patton mansion in Court street, which was sponsored by the Salem Garden club and Salem General hospital auxiliary. High praise was heard on all sides for the beauty of the show and the originality of design displayed by exhibitors. Mrs. William Everett Anderson, garden club president, and her committee should take their respective bows for the success of the show.

A high point of the afternoon was the singing of carols by the boys' vested choir of St. Paul's Episcopal church on the stairway in the hall of the stately old mansion.

Mrs. Mervin Fidler won first honors in the centerpieces with a group of carved soap angels, the madonna and child, guarded by cathedral tapers. Mrs. Lester Barr took second with an arrangement of snowberries in a silver casket displayed on a red tablecloth.

Mrs. Max Page won first honors in the Della Robbia wreath section with Mrs. Carl Nelson placing second for a wreath of lady apples and love apples. Mrs. Page also won first for her arrangement of laurestinus and mistletoe in twin vases. Mrs. Chester Cox won the miniature vase class and Mrs. Lee Canfield took honors with an arrangement in Grecian pottery.

Mrs. G. F. Chambers and Miss Edith Schryver took first and second honors in the adult package class and in the children's division Miss Marjorie Becke and Miss Jeanne Busick placed first and second.

Mrs. Lester Barr won first, for a wreath of cedar, heather and berries and Mrs. G. F. Chambers won second for her wreath of mistletoe. Mrs. Chambers also placed in the bowl arrangement and Mrs. Chester Cox took second in this class with bamboo branches, Christmas ornaments and silver jug.

Mrs. Paul Hendricks and Mrs. Clifford Brown won first and second honors in the small wreath division.

Exhibiting madonnas were Mrs. Lowell Keri, who showed a Russian madonna in a dark wood shadow box, and Miss Elizabeth Lord, who displayed a wooden Mexican madonna against a blue satin background.

One marble mantel was arranged by Mrs. Chester Cox and Mrs. Clifford Brown. An old-fashioned arrangement of flowers under a celophane dome, white candles in crystal holders, holly dipped in snow and white balls made up the decorations.

Miss Margaret Brown Hostess at Dinner

Miss Margaret Brown will entertain at dinner and cards this evening honoring a small group of friends.

Covers will be placed for Miss Jean Eastridge, Miss Frances Martin, Miss Marie Patton and the hostess, Miss Brown.

Mrs. H. G. Carl, Mrs. A. A. Keene and Miss Helen Litchfield will be hostesses for the East Central Circle of the First Methodist church for the General Aid tea Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. T. S. Roberts is arranging a Christmas program for the event.

Stewardess Married to Dispatcher

Woodburn — Miss Betty Jane Proctor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Proctor of Woodburn, became the bride of John S. Linscott, son of Mrs. E. G. Linscott of Portland, at a quiet wedding at the Proctor home Monday afternoon.

The service was read at 4 o'clock by Rev. Henry G. Hanson, pastor of the Independence Presbyterian church, formerly of Woodburn, in the presence of the relatives and close friends. The rooms were attractive with Christmas greens and large yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride, who has been employed as a stewardess with the United Air Lines for almost three years, was married in her uniform, with a corsage of gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Lois Proctor, who wore a dark gray tulle, with a corsage of Tulliman roses and violets. E. M. Edwards of Portland was best man for Mr. Linscott.

Following the ceremony light refreshments were served after which Mr. and Mrs. Linscott left for a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will be at home at 3804 North Haight avenue, Portland.

Mrs. Linscott graduated from Woodburn high school in 1931 and entered St. Vincent's hospital in the fall of that year, graduating as a registered nurse in June, 1934. She was employed at the hospital until April, 1935 when she took the position of air stewardess in the United Air Lines flying between Los Angeles and Oakland until August and since then she has been on the Pacific northwest run between Portland and Salt Lake. She resigned her position in November. Mr. Linscott is dispatcher at the airport.

Telephone Employees Have Gay Party

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company employees and their families enjoyed a gala party in Miller's hall recently. The affair was in the nature of a Christmas party and a Christmas tree was a feature.

Games, dancing, cards, moving pictures and vaudeville acts were the diversions of the evening. Over 140 guests enjoyed the affair.

The P. T. & T. club will hold its annual Christmas party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. D. P. Slater, 745 North Capitol street. All Pythian Sisters and Knights are invited to attend.

Mrs. Blanche Jones will have as Christmas guests Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jones of Portland and Miss Florence Jones of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. John Withycombe of Arlington are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jones. They were among the out-of-town folk at the Monday Night Dancing club dance last evening.

MacDowells Sing Christmas Carols

Wednesday noon the Salem MacDowell club will sing carols at the regular meeting of the Rotary club and later in the afternoon will sing at the state office building.

At 4 o'clock that afternoon they will broadcast over a local radio station in behalf of the local tuberculosis seals' sale and at 7 o'clock will sing for the Kiwanis party at the residence of Dr. David Bennett Hill.

Harn-Dickey Vows Exchanged

Miss Dorothy Dickey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Dickey, became the bride of Wayne Harn of Fontana, Calif., at a pretty candle-light ceremony Saturday night read by Dr. Perry C. Hopper at the Dickey home, in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

Mrs. William C. Kerron played the wedding march. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess dress of white brocaded corded silk, and fingertip tulle veil held in place by a cap of the same material caught with clusters of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley, bouvardia and roses.

Mrs. Dykeman White, matron of honor, wore a dress of powder blue taffeta with quilted bolero jacket to match. Miss Virginia Dickey, her sister's maid of honor, wore a similar frock of dubonnet taffeta, with matching jacket. They both carried nosegay bouquets.

William Bodner of Corvallis acted as best man.

At the reception which followed, the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Fred J. White, received with the wedding party. Among those assisting was Katherine Laughridge of Salem.

For traveling the bride wore a Forstmann wool two-piece black suit trimmed with leopard, black accessories and corsage of orchids.

The bride attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta. Mr. Harn is a graduate of Oregon State college and a member of Beta Theta Pi. Both are well known in Salem.

White Shrine Honors Officers

The White Shrine of Jerusalem honored Elen Gabriel, state sunshine chairman, Jennie Smith, supreme third handmaiden, Essie Snyder, deputy supreme worthy high priestesses and all past worthy high priestesses and watchmen of shepherds, last night with a gala Christmas party at the Masonic temple.

Holly, mistletoe and Christmas greens were arranged about the reception rooms and centered the serving tables.

The committee in charge included Mrs. Clio Cashatt, Mrs. Lana Beechler, Mrs. Theima Green, Mrs. H. Clay Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore.

Wenderoth-McGahan Ceremony Sunday

Mrs. Mabel McGahan became the bride of Harry Wenderoth at a simple ceremony said in the First Christian church Sunday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock. Rev. Guy L. Drill officiated. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a smart ensemble of black and gold with matching hat and accessories. Her corsage was of Tulliman roses.

A wedding dinner followed at the Golden Pheasant. A reception was held at the bride's home in the afternoon. Later the couple left for Seattle and other northern points.

Upon their return from their honeymoon the couple will be at home at 1595 North 17th street.

Macabees, No. 122, will meet at the K. P. hall Wednesday night at 8 o'clock for a Christmas tree and exchange of gifts. The Mitchell orchestra will play for dancing later in the evening.

Silverton Group Observes Salute

Silverton—The American Legion auxiliary voted to observe the formal salute to the flag during the singing of the national anthem, an act optional with each unit in the state, according to instructions by the department president, Mrs. Mae Waters.

Other business of the Monday night meeting included reports of the McMinnville district conference by Naomi Hewitt; membership of 70, making 5 above quota; Christmas welfare donations to the children's home, made by Mrs. A. J. Titus; and of the sewing club by Mrs. Harry Wilson.

The girls of the junior auxiliary met previous to the unit session and reported preparations being made for gladdening one home for Christmas day with gifts for an entire family being collected at the Jim Scarth home in West Main street. Margaret Scarth is chairman of the cheer committee. Donations will be received for this undertaking.

From the Girl Reserves were Beatrice Leonard, president; Julia Hutton, vice-president, and Betty Francis, asking the auxiliary to chaperon a dance to be given during February. The request was granted.

Mrs. Al Leford, president, named as her social committee for the month, Mrs. Dewey Allen, Mrs. C.

(Concluded on Page 7)

Wenderoth-McGahan Ceremony Sunday

Mrs. Mabel McGahan became the bride of Harry Wenderoth at a simple ceremony said in the First Christian church Sunday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock. Rev. Guy L. Drill officiated. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a smart ensemble of black and gold with matching hat and accessories. Her corsage was of Tulliman roses.

A wedding dinner followed at the Golden Pheasant. A reception was held at the bride's home in the afternoon. Later the couple left for Seattle and other northern points.

Upon their return from their honeymoon the couple will be at home at 1595 North 17th street.

Macabees, No. 122, will meet at the K. P. hall Wednesday night at 8 o'clock for a Christmas tree and exchange of gifts. The Mitchell orchestra will play for dancing later in the evening.

Silverton Group Observes Salute

Silverton—The American Legion auxiliary voted to observe the formal salute to the flag during the singing of the national anthem, an act optional with each unit in the state, according to instructions by the department president, Mrs. Mae Waters.

Other business of the Monday night meeting included reports of the McMinnville district conference by Naomi Hewitt; membership of 70, making 5 above quota; Christmas welfare donations to the children's home, made by Mrs. A. J. Titus; and of the sewing club by Mrs. Harry Wilson.

The girls of the junior auxiliary met previous to the unit session and reported preparations being made for gladdening one home for Christmas day with gifts for an entire family being collected at the Jim Scarth home in West Main street. Margaret Scarth is chairman of the cheer committee. Donations will be received for this undertaking.

From the Girl Reserves were Beatrice Leonard, president; Julia Hutton, vice-president, and Betty Francis, asking the auxiliary to chaperon a dance to be given during February. The request was granted.

Mrs. Al Leford, president, named as her social committee for the month, Mrs. Dewey Allen, Mrs. C.

(Concluded on Page 7)

Wenderoth-McGahan Ceremony Sunday

Mrs. Mabel McGahan became the bride of Harry Wenderoth at a simple ceremony said in the First Christian church Sunday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock. Rev. Guy L. Drill officiated. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a smart ensemble of black and gold with matching hat and accessories. Her corsage was of Tulliman roses.

A wedding dinner followed at the Golden Pheasant. A reception was held at the bride's home in the afternoon. Later the couple left for Seattle and other northern points.

Upon their return from their honeymoon the couple will be at home at 1595 North 17th street.

Macabees, No. 122, will meet at the K. P. hall Wednesday night at 8 o'clock for a Christmas tree and exchange of gifts. The Mitchell orchestra will play for dancing later in the evening.

Silverton Group Observes Salute

Silverton—The American Legion auxiliary voted to observe the formal salute to the flag during the singing of the national anthem, an act optional with each unit in the state, according to instructions by the department president, Mrs. Mae Waters.

Other business of the Monday night meeting included reports of the McMinnville district conference by Naomi Hewitt; membership of 70, making 5 above quota; Christmas welfare donations to the children's home, made by Mrs. A. J. Titus; and of the sewing club by Mrs. Harry Wilson.

The girls of the junior auxiliary met previous to the unit session and reported preparations being made for gladdening one home for Christmas day with gifts for an entire family being collected at the Jim Scarth home in West Main street. Margaret Scarth is chairman of the cheer committee. Donations will be received for this undertaking.

From the Girl Reserves were Beatrice Leonard, president; Julia Hutton, vice-president, and Betty Francis, asking the auxiliary to chaperon a dance to be given during February. The request was granted.

Mrs. Al Leford, president, named as her social committee for the month, Mrs. Dewey Allen, Mrs. C.

(Concluded on Page 7)

Wenderoth-McGahan Ceremony Sunday

Mrs. Mabel McGahan became the bride of Harry Wenderoth at a simple ceremony said in the First Christian church Sunday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock. Rev. Guy L. Drill officiated. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a smart ensemble of black and gold with matching hat and accessories. Her corsage was of Tulliman roses.

A wedding dinner followed at the Golden Pheasant. A reception was held at the bride's home in the afternoon. Later the couple left for Seattle and other northern points.

Upon their return from their honeymoon the couple will be at home at 1595 North 17th street.

Macabees, No. 122, will meet at the K. P. hall Wednesday night at 8 o'clock for a Christmas tree and exchange of gifts. The Mitchell orchestra will play for dancing later in the evening.

Silverton Group Observes Salute

Silverton—The American Legion auxiliary voted to observe the formal salute to the flag during the singing of the national anthem, an act optional with each unit in the state, according to instructions by the department president, Mrs. Mae Waters.

Other business of the Monday night meeting included reports of the McMinnville district conference by Naomi Hewitt; membership of 70, making 5 above quota; Christmas welfare donations to the children's home, made by Mrs. A. J. Titus; and of the sewing club by Mrs. Harry Wilson.

The girls of the junior auxiliary met previous to the unit session and reported preparations being made for gladdening one home for Christmas day with gifts for an entire family being collected at the Jim Scarth home in West Main street. Margaret Scarth is chairman of the cheer committee. Donations will be received for this undertaking.

From the Girl Reserves were Beatrice Leonard, president; Julia Hutton, vice-president, and Betty Francis, asking the auxiliary to chaperon a dance to be given during February. The request was granted.

Mrs. Al Leford, president, named as her social committee for the month, Mrs. Dewey Allen, Mrs. C.

(Concluded on Page 7)

FOR HIM!

A GIFT WITH A NATIONALLY KNOWN NAME

- + HOLEPROOF SOCKS!
- + INTERWOVEN SOCKS!
- + MANHATTAN SHIRTS!
- + CHENEY NECKTIES!
- + SHIRTCRAFT PAJAMAS!
- + HANSEN GLOVES!
- + MUNSINGWEAR!
- + DUPLEX NECKTIES!
- + MCGREGOR SWEATERS!
- + Buxton Leather Goods!

Special Our Usual Wave 75c

Complete Perm. Oil Push $4.50 Wave Complete $1

Open Thursday Eve by Appointment

Castle Perm Waves PHONE 3663 307 1st Nat'l Bank Bldg.

Slippers Slippers

May we say and suggest nice comfortable Slippers? ... A Special Selling of these Good Looking Slippers ...

98c and 1.69

In the Popular Color Leathers

Hosiery

GOLD STRIPE HOSIERY

Charming Quality - Fashionable Shades Pleasing to Give

Gotham Gold Stripe Hosiery

Buster Brown Shoe Store

Practical Gift Suggestions

Give Yourself

A GLAMOROUS HOUSECOAT

Sizes 12 to 20 $4.50 up

Rest assured, young lady, you will be glamorous in one of these suavely fitted housecoats! Figured damasks, moires, tafetas. Lots of exciting styles.

Miller's 2nd Floor