SHERIFF'S NOTICE OF SALE NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT I will, on February 19, 1938, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of said day,

The West 50 feet of Lots 9 & 10, Block 2, Hugh Owen's Addition to the City of Salem, Marion County, Oregon.

Said sale will be by virtue of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Marion County in that suit heretofore pending therein in which City of Salem, a municipal corporation, is plaintiff, and Juanita Crawford and Joe Doe Crawford, her husband; also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property here-in described, are defendants, the same being Clerk's Register No. 26682.

Dated and first published January 21, 1938.

A. C. BURK, Sheriff of Marion County, Oregon. By Kenneth L. Randall, Deputy. Jan. 21, 26, Feb. 4, 11, 18

Counter Control Plan Offered Washington, Jan. 21 (AP)—The project committee of the national rivers and harbors congress advocated yesterday a flood control and waterway program sharply out of line with President Roosevelt's budget recommendations.

Members of the committee, concluding a two-day meeting preliminary to the congress' annual convention, said they would propose expenditure of $275,290,000 during the 1939 fiscal year as recommended by the army engineers.

Their proposals, to be presented to the convention tomorrow, will supplement a report on scores of rivers and harbors and flood control projects that would cost a billion or more dollars over a period of years.

President Roosevelt, in his budget message, recommended that 1939 fiscal year federal expenditures be limited to $143,500,000, of which $78,000,000 would go for flood control projects and the remainder for rivers and harbors work.

Army engineers had recommended $146,800,000 for rivers and harbors and $127,900,000 for flood control.

Friends Invited To Thurston Home Jefferson—Mrs. Harvey B. Thurston entertained a group of friends at her home in Second street honoring the birthday anniversary of her husband. Three tables of triopoly were in play during the evening. High score prize was awarded to Mrs. L. L. Shields and Mrs. George Potts, Jr., won the low score prize.

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Schunk and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gerzik of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George Potts, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hart, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Dixon Vose, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wynd and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Looney.

Officers are Called Silvertown—Celia Hannan, master Artisan, is announcing a meeting of her assisting officers at the home of the Martin Hannans in Geiser addition Tuesday evening when the list of appointive officers will be made up. Regular meeting of the Artisans was held Wednesday night with only routine business taken up.

Fears Too Rapid Recovery From Slump

Hoover and all of the agents participated.

St. Paul, Jan. 21 (AP)—An amazing story of kidnappings, slayings and bank robberies attributed to Peter Anders, surly, swarthy former lumberjack, was related today after recovery of the bodies of Charles E. Ross, abducted Chicago manufacturer, and James Atwood Gray, from a cave deep in the northern Wisconsin woods.

Whisking Anders back to St. Paul after a tortuous two-day foray into the frozen fastness of Minnesota and Wisconsin, J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said virtually all of the $50,000 ransom paid in vain for Ross' release had been recovered.

The 30 year old one-time logger in the Pacific northwest detailed each of numerous crimes in a confession covering thousands of words, said Hoover, adding that Anders had slain his accomplice, Gray, during an argument.

The FBI chief said Anders had confessed kidnaping John Borcia and his wife, Olivia, of Chicago, and robbing one Minnesota and three Wisconsin banks. The Borcias were released without payment of ransom.

When arrested Friday at Santa Anita racetrack near Los Angeles, Anders possessed about $14,000 of the ransom money, Hoover said. An additional $30,000 was found hidden in Minnesota. Anders said $3000 of the balance was stolen from his car in New York City.

The bodies of Ross and Gray, the latter nude, were found just before dark yesterday in a small, brush concealed cave in a desolate section about 12 miles northwest of Spooner, Wis. Hoover said the killer slew Gray first and then shot the 72 year old kidnap victim.

Anders chained the bodies in the vault-like burial place and then covered them with brush and debris, said the federal chief.

Detailing the search for ransom loot and the bodies, Hoover said the trail led beyond St. Cloud, Minn., about 70 miles north of here. In a wooded region near Emily, Minn., Hoover said the prisoner led federal agents to a dugout where Ross was confined immediately after his kidnaping September 25 and then to a brush heap where $30,000 of the ransom money was found in a portable typewriter case.

Then the federal men drove to Superior, Wis., arriving there at 1 a. m., yesterday and departing at 7 a. m., for the Spooner vicinity. The trail to the cave was broken with horses and bobbed.

Anders was returned to the FBI headquarters here about 12:30 a. m. today, handcuffed to an agent and chained about the waist and shoulders. Hoover said he would be returned to Chicago, either today or Saturday.

Hoover said Anders then took Gray's $20,000 share of the $50,000 ransom, along with most of the accomplice's clothing, covered the bodies with leaves and twigs and headed back into Minnesota to hide his $30,000 share in the typewriter case. From there, declared Hoover, Anders began a tour of the country, finally losing about $3,000 of cash when his car was raided while parked in a garage near the Holland tunnel in New York City.

The federal official said Anders talked willingly about the Borcias' kidnaping, telling how he seized them at the point of a pistol near Lake Geneva, Wis., about sixty miles north of Chicago, September 1. He promptly released the husband with instruction as to how much ransom to obtain and how it should be paid. Hoover said Anders finally was persuaded by the husband to release Mrs. Borcia because he lacked funds to pay ransom.

Pressed about reported attempts to link Anders with the Lindbergh baby kidnaping, Hoover said: "So far as we know there is no such connection."

Concerning the Arthur Fried disappearance at White Plains, N. Y., and the kidnaping of young Charles Mattson of Tacoma, Wash., Hoover replied: "It is not my policy to make announcements relative to cases that have not been solved."

Dramatic Club Tryouts Offered at Seminary Mt. Angel—Rev. Gabriel Morris and Rev. Damian Jentges, directors of drama at Mt. Angel college and seminary, are holding tryouts for the college dramatic club's play, "The First Legion," which will be given during the latter part of February.

The cast will be chosen
