Former Salem Girl Married In Portland

Miss Helen Laurgaard, formerly of Salem, daughter of the Olaf Laurgaards, became the bride of Joseph Elliot Keyser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Keyser, at a ceremony solemnized at 4 o'clock last Sunday afternoon in the Church of Our Father in Portland. Rev. Mr. Steiner read the impressive service.

Her bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length model of aquamarine satin, fashioned with draped sleeves and neck. Her turban was of the same material and she carried pyramidal and yellow orchids.

Miss Peggy Munger of Salem was the honor attendant. She wore a floor-length gown of old rose ribbed taffeta and carried a bouquet of violets and freesias.

Blake Hopwood served as best man and usher; included Theodore Crawford and Alex Culbertson.

A reception followed in the Channing room of the church. Later the couple left for a wedding trip to California.

Mrs. Keyser attended the University of Oregon, where she was affiliated with Delta Gamma. She later was a member of the Oregon State library staff. Mr. Keyser attended the University of Oregon and studied in Paris and Rome.
