

Activity Seen In Farm Deals, Construction

Silverton—Sale of real estate reported from the Homesteaders at the Piedler Service station and plot of seven acres on South Water street near the site of the old power house, to Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wardrip; and the O. E. Smith ranch on the Santiam river near Mehama to E. W. Maxwell of Dayton, Ore. There are 307 acres in the farm.

Highway Job Progresses

Aurora—Work on the 140-foot over-crossing spanning the Southern Pacific railroad track at Cook station, about four miles west of Oswego, on the Aurora-Willamette highway is nearly completed. Side-walks on either side of the viaduct were poured within the past week. Building contractors were Shattuck and Nelson of Portland. The grading contract will be in charge of Harold Blake, Portland contractor. Marshall Dresser, resident engineer, was in charge of the engineering work and George W. Askin of this city was foreman of the job.

Store Has Improvement

Scotts Mills—The Groshons of Earl's garage are building an enclosed walkway between the garage and house. They are also enlarging their supply of confectionery goods with the addition of ice cream.

Acreages Change Hands

Aurora—Three real estate deals were closed recently. Mrs. Dora McKinney, Lebanon, purchased four acres at Barlow from the Dentel estate; forty acres two miles east of Mullino were sold to C. H. Kirkpatrick of Parma, Idaho. James Stewart was the former owner. Purchase of a house and lot in Canby by Charles Harshman, Canby merchant, was announced. The property was bought from John Wormdahl.

Logging Resuming Soon

Falls City—Mr. Gazele of Portland is getting his trucks moved to his camp at Socialist Valley to begin his logging immediately.

Silverton

Call
Capital Journal
Main 2

A fire at the Otto Schwab home on North Second street was kept in control Friday noon by the volunteer fire department with no damage done.

Arland Schwab returned to his class work at the Oregon State college this week following a three months' vacation.

Members of the Silverton Hills community arranged a surprise shower of gifts and a social afternoon Thursday in compliment to Mrs. George Benson at the Anton Schacher home.

Fifty members of the First Christian church choir and their families met for a 6:30 o'clock no host dinner in the church social rooms Thursday evening and attended choir practice later. Mrs. John Skipper, Mrs. Kate Morley and Mrs. Zack Denison were in charge of plans.

The B. G. Gaffneys are at Newport on the coast for the week. Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gaffney, of Salem, will spend the week-end with them and will return Sunday evening.

Marvin Senier is spending the week-end doctoring a severe cold at the home of his grandparents, the C. J. Rosheims. He missed his high school classes Friday.

A. F. Hobart has returned from a visit at Sedro Woolley with his daughter, Mrs. Paul Dieck, and in Portland with his son, Alvin Hobart.

Both Mrs. Susan Grinde and Mrs. J. S. Starr, who have been very ill, are reported as showing some improvement.

The Silverton drug store, of which W. H. High is proprietor, is undergoing interior decorating and painting this week.

Sig Moe of the North Water street machine shop, is said to be improving satisfactorily from a major operation, which he underwent at the local hospital recently.

Bridge Evening Held At Country Residence

Jefferson—Mr. and Mrs. James G. Pate entertained the covered dish bridge club at a 7 o'clock dinner at their country home north of Jefferson.

Following the dinner bridge was played. High score winners were Mrs. Victor Looney and Mrs. Robert Sears.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Marion D. Looney and daughter Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Looney, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Looney, Mr. and Mrs. John Terhune, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cole of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sears and Miss Edith Libby of Salem, Miss Margaret Looney, Sr., and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Pate.

Health Clinic Monday
Sunnyside—A free health clinic will be held Monday. All school children will be examined and anyone in the community who desires a tuberculosis test will receive it. There have been several cases here and the nurse would like to check all.

Arrives From Dakota
Silverton—A. S. Wattier of Grotton, S. D., arrived in Silverton recently for an extended visit at the home of his son, the Al Wattiers, on North Church street.

She's Lovely-Gorgeous Marlene Dietrich in her latest picture "Angel," supported by Herbert Marshall, Melvyn Douglas and a brilliant cast, starting Sunday at the Capitol theatre with Buck Jones in "Hollywood Round-up."

Jefferson 4-H Clubs Are Busy

Jefferson—The Seven Sisters cooking club of the Looney Butte school met at the home of the president, Earline Woods, for their regular meeting. A demonstration on making milk toast was given by the members. A brief program followed the business meeting. Songs and readings were given by Delmer Woods, Earline Woods and Ethel Farnen. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. E. Woods.

The Sunshine health club of Looney Butte met Friday afternoon at the schoolhouse. "The Building of Bones and Muscles" was the topic discussed by the members. The club decided to have two booster nights. The first will be held on the evening of February 18, at the school. The following committees were appointed: Program, Hazel Jurgens, Violet Scott, James Nye, assistant helper, Marjorie Aeschlimann; decorating, Betty Aeschlimann, Ethel Farnen, Virginia Barnes, Earline Woods, assistant helper, Laddie Ehrlich; financial, Betty Aeschlimann, Ethel Farnen, Earline Woods, assistant helper, Hazel Jurgens; announcer, Earline Woods.

Holy Name Society Will Meet Sunday

St. Mary's—The members of the Willamette Valley League of the Holy Name society will meet Sunday evening following benediction in St. Mary's church at 7:30 p.m. The front pews on both sides of the center aisle are being reserved for the members.

After benediction the group will meet in the club rooms in St. Mary's school. An interesting program has been arranged and the morality of strikes will be the topic for discussion. Rev. Vincent Koppert, O.S.B., will be one of the speakers. Several selections will be given by the Mt. Angel octet.

Instruction School Offered For Lodge

Independence—Hallie Huntington of Eugene, associate grand conductor of the grand chapter O.E.S. of Oregon, will pay an official visit to Adah chapter, O.E.S., Tuesday evening and will hold a school of instruction in the afternoon with the officers.

The degrees of the order will be exemplified in the evening at 8 o'clock and the new officers who have taken over their work for the year will have an opportunity to exemplify their proficiency in the work.

Mrs. Paul Robinson, worthy matron, extends an invitation to all members and officers to be present, and any visiting Eastern Stars in the community are also cordially invited.

Carl Graves Home Scene For Party

Dallas—The Carl Graves home was the scene of a birthday dinner party in honor of the birthdays of the hostess, Mrs. Carl Graves, Edwin Graves, Mrs. Winnie Steffy and B. H. Evans.

Places were set for Mr. and Mrs. William Fudge and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Hill and daughter of Ballston, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Blanchard of Sheridan, Mrs. May Yocom of Ballston, Mrs. Winnie Steffy and B. H. Evans of Grand Ronde, Lee Toneyway of Ballston, Edwin Graves and Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Aldrich of Sheridan, Mrs. Harry Graves and sons, Jack and Richard, of Salem, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graves.

Portland Teacher Takes Place Monday

Woodburn—Miss Esther Hettlinger, instructor in freshman and senior English at Woodburn high school, has been released from her contract at her own request for the balance of the year and her place will be taken by Miss Winnifred Anderson of Portland who assumes her duties Monday. Miss Hettlinger, who is half owner of the Woodburn hotel, will devote her time to the hotel management. Her partner, Miss Mary Mattley, who has been operating the hotel, has accepted a position in the Pendleton junior high school for the rest of the year.

Chapter Meets Monday
Woodburn—The regular meeting of Evergreen Chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, will be held Monday evening at the Masonic Temple. Refreshments will be served by Lillian Blitney, Verna Dodge and Mary Whitman.

Sawmill Outlook Much Brighter For Lebanon

Lebanon—The Fir Lumber company sawmill, sold recently under the hammer to Maurice W. Seits of Portland to satisfy a judgment for his client, H. E. McCrany, anticipated steady operation with its full crew of 38 men in the future, according to an announcement of C. H. Walter, manager since December 15.

Since Walter took it over, the mill has been making a daily cut of from 50,000 to 60,000 feet.

The recent sale, made for $12,500 against a judgment of $18,933, involved only the personal property. Real property will be sold under the gavel February 5, following which a complete reorganization is planned.

Church Officers Named

Lebanon—The selection of officers to lead in the work of the Sodaville church has been completed with the naming of several by Rev. Leland Wilkinson, pastor. E. M. Crabtree was elected trustee of the church for a term of three years; Mrs. A. H. Parrish was selected treasurer and Mrs. J. L. Coyle will be class leader for the coming two years. Young people who will be responsible for much of the work of the Christian Endeavor include Zola LaForge, president; Audrey Coyle, vice-president; Dorothy Hurst and Clay Kau, secretaries; and Maxine Calahan, treasurer.

Planning Mill Leased

Lebanon—The planning mill on the south end of Main street, formerly owned by Grandall Brothers, has been leased by A. K. Cutts, who will continue operating it to supply the local market. Dressed lumber and all types of millwork will be handled as before. Cutts is continuing with the same crew employed while the plant was operated by the Lebanon National bank.

Berean Society Meets

Lebanon—Mrs. Claude Stephens began the reading of a book, "In Palestine With the Third Psalm," at the last meeting of the Berean society at her home Thursday afternoon and this will be a continued feature of the devotional lesson for several weeks in the future. Twenty-six members and five guests participated in the program. Meetings which have been held the first and third Thursday of the month, have been changed to the original time, the first and third Wednesdays of each month, and the next was announced for February 2 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Dillard with Mrs. Byron Scott assisting. Plans were also made for the new year books. A program of general interest was presented under the direction of Mrs. Hubert Crane, who read an article on "Planning the Early Spring Garden," and introduced Mrs. E. E. Regester, who played two piano solos. Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. J. V. Warden, who was assistant hostess, served refreshments.

Eagles Plan Social

Lebanon—The local Eagles lodge will hold the first of regular social meetings at the hall next Monday evening, this to be in the nature of a card party. The evening will start at 8 o'clock with those attending asked to bring a covered dish and cards. There will be a small charge and prizes will be awarded.

Officers are Named By Granger Club

Falls City—The Grange Economic club held its first meeting of the year Friday at the home of Mrs. Reeve Helm. Mrs. Chancy Ferguson, retiring president, was in charge of the meeting until the following new officers were elected: Mrs. Reeve Helm, president; Mrs. Claude Lorimer, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Holman, secretary; Mrs. Calvin Barnhart, treasurer.

It was decided to devote a part of each meeting this year to some educational study.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Claude Gillette, Mrs. Clay Guthrie and Mrs. R. E. Helm.

Steen Home Scene For Social Evening

Silverton—Mrs. Elmer Johnson and her mother, Mrs. Josephine Steen, entertained at dinner and a social evening at the Steen home on Friday evening, with those present including Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Byberg, Mr. and Mrs. George Benson, Dorothy and Maurice Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar J. Johnson and Darrell Dean and Ardell Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Gladwyn Hamre and Robert and Elaine Hamre, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. Alf O. Nelson, Mrs. Ingeborg Ormbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson and Mrs. Josephine Steen.

Power Line Extended

Marquam—The Molalla Electric company is extending a service line from Rural Dell south to accommodate twelve homes to include the Smiths, Lehmanns, and Carpenters, and east to include the Schwitter farm. These ranchers are now realizing an effort started ten years ago. More than 12 families will get the electrification.

Arrives From Dakota

Silverton—A. S. Wattier of Grotton, S. D., arrived in Silverton recently for an extended visit at the home of his son, the Al Wattiers, on North Church street.

Personalities in Paragraph

Intimate Items About Valley Residents and Their Friends Related with Brevity

Jefferson—

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Knight and son, Jack, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Shields will drive to Timberline on Mt. Hood Sunday for the winter sports.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Myers of Canby were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Skelton in the Parrish Gap district. The Myers family are former residents of this district.

Mrs. Laura Colegrove of Lake City, Iowa, who has been visiting her nephew, Walter Glasgow, and family, left Friday for San Francisco, where she will visit relatives before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Waltenpaugh of Corvallis were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bilyeu Wednesday.

Mrs. W. J. Ammon of the Green's bridge district has returned after a month's visit with her son, Walter Ammon and family, in Portland.

Salem Heights—

Rev. and Mrs. Stannard are entertaining their niece, Miss Bernice Pettit of Dayton, Ore., while Miss Pettit is attending the Capital Business college.

Mrs. Thomas LaDuke has taken her daughter, Maxine, who has been suffering from a nasal and throat infection, to Medford. They will stay with Rev. and Mrs. Walter Stram (Theima LaDuke) while there.

West Stayton—

Pauline Stewart has been seriously ill with measles for the past ten days.

Mrs. Joe VanCleave, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is reported slightly improved. Bernadine Forrester is assisting with the work.

W. E. Schafer, Maxine and Billy,

left for a short visit with his sister at Dayton.

O. E. Snider has left for Chicago to attend the carriers' convention. He will return February 2.

The Blue Lake cooperative of West Stayton and the Stayton cooperative gave an order for 13,600 pounds of twine through Paul McClellan, the local merchant. This will be used for twining the summer crop of beans.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McClellan entertained at dinner Tuesday evening. Plates were laid for Margaret Martin, Eva Neal, Ruby McClellan, Mrs. James, Mrs. T. Y. McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield, Gilbert Hensel, Gene, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McClellan.

Mrs. T. Y. McClellan was honor guest Friday evening when relatives joined her in celebrating her 76th birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clark were hosts at a card party. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Comstock, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson.

Scotts Mills—

Recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Brougher were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schurts and Mrs. Olive Smith and son of Salem, Mrs. Addie Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith and daughter, Gale.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Littlepage and infant son of Gates visited the first of the week here with Charles' mother, Mrs. Nora Littlepage. His sister, Margaret, went home with them for a few days.

Mrs. Sadie Tomlinson of Hood River was a guest the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Millard. Mrs. Tomlinson and Mr. Millard are cousins and had not seen each other for over 30 years.

A Bit of Latin Whimsy—Grace Moore looks on in amusement as Ed Gauscho Melvyn Douglas intimidates the droll Stuart Erwin in one of the scenes from Columbia's "I'll Take Romance," musical comedy, showing now at the Grand theatre. Others in the cast are Helen Westley, Margaret Hamilton and Esther Muir.

Methodist Booster Club Invites Guests

Independence—Social and guest night for the members of the Methodist club of the Methodist church was held at the home of Mrs. F. G. Hewitt. Mrs. P. L. Sterling was co-hostess with Mrs. Hewitt. The group was arranged in two teams for charades with Mrs. C. G. Irvine and Mrs. Garfield as captains. The winners' side was rewarded and this fell to Mrs. Byers.

Among the guests were Mrs. Tom Ray, who had been away from the club for many weeks, having been in the hospital for 17 weeks, Mrs. P. L. Hedges, and Mrs. Mary Kulander, who is making her home with Mrs. Ray.

Others in the group were Lottie McIntosh, Gertrude Davidson, Lulu Irvin, Carrie Smiley, Elsie Barnhart, Edna Byers, Sybil Henry, Emma Meyer, Vina Summers, Rita Farmer, Mary Smiley, Ulah Jones, Amy Moffitt, Susie Snyder, Lennie Turner, Adia Brown, Sophronia McLaughlin, Mrs. P. L. Sterling, Mrs. Ethel Cronn, Naomi Lyday, Pannie Honniet, Lizzie DeForest, Blanche Reed, Berigita Messenger, Marie O'Kelly, Olive Hedges, Edith Campbell and Jessie Hewitt.

Busy Kitchen Maids Working on Projects

Hazel Green—The "Six Busy Kitchen Maids" held a combined business and social meeting at the home of the leader, Mrs. Mildred Zahare. They filled out all of the cards covering the work accomplished on their cooking project and planned the remainder of business necessary to complete their work. The social half hour of games was in charge of the entertainment committee, June Johnson and Marie Phillips.

Miss Myrtle Kiele, a new pupil of the school, was accepted as a member. Present were Marion Wampler, June Johnson, Marie Phillips, Irene Wacken, Anne Ziebert and Cecelia Kasper.

Will Handle Publicity

Mill City—Mrs. W. E. LaVine has been appointed as local publicity chairman of the Rebekah lodge to act as assistant to Mrs. John Lau of Stayton, who was named district chairman by Mrs. May Jones, president of the Rebekah assembly.

Albany City Treasury Has Cash Balance

Albany—Albany's city treasury finished the year with a balance of $23,025.85 in all funds, including $10,426.96 in the general fund, and with no warrant indebtedness outstanding, according to the report of the city treasurer, Elmer B. Williamson, filed with City Recorder Karl Horton yesterday.

The general fund balance, in the estimate of the treasurer, should be sufficient to tide the city over until 1938 tax payments begin to come in, which, if true, will enable the city to remain on a cash basis.

During the last quarter, the treasurer's report showed, warrants totaling $18,706.13 and $8500 in bonds were retired during those three months ending December 31.

Street Closing Dismissed

Albany—Prospective closing of streets between LaFayette and Lyon streets by construction of the proposed new overhead crossing of the Pacific highway here was discussed in detail Friday at a hearing conducted by the Oregon public utilities commission.

The Southern Pacific railway company, highway commission and the city of Albany were the chief interveners. Discussion centered around the question of closing LaFayette street, at whose intersection with Eighth street the projected overhead approach will start to rise.

Loyal Guard Class Originates Move

Silverton—Mrs. Nettie Carpenter entertained the members of the Loyal Guard Sunday school class Friday afternoon. Mrs. E. A. Kern presided at the brief business session. Mrs. Carrie Townsend and Mrs. C. H. Whitman were received into the class as new members. The Loyal Lady move, a secret friend agreement for the year, was originated.

Present for the afternoon were Mrs. H. Bowen, Mrs. Sam Baller, Mrs. Troy Derickson, Mrs. C. M. Watson, Mrs. Ida Neuenburg, Mrs. C. H. Whitman, Mrs. Edith Schraeder, Mrs. H. J. Iverson, Mrs. Jack Tuggle, Mrs. Ed R. Adams, Mrs. J. Winter, Mrs. Lester Green, Mrs. Hallie Williams, Mrs. L. Melbye, Mrs. A. H. Smith, Mrs. Attie Lee, Mrs. Ed Morrison, Mrs. Will Graham, Mrs. Carrie Townsend, Mrs. R. D. Peck, Rev. and Mrs. D. Lester Fields, Mrs. Bert Day, Mrs. E. A. Kern, Mrs. Helen Comstock, Mrs. R. Morrell and Mrs. R. O. Bond of Lodge Pole, Nebr. Mrs. Morrell and Mrs. Bond were special guests.

MacLay Econ Club Hears Miller Talk

MacLay—Mrs. J. F. C. Tekenburg and Mrs. M. M. Magee were hostesses for the regular meeting of the Home Economics club at the MacLay hall. Dr. Vern Miller spoke to the group on Social Hygiene and Mrs. Leona Dolese, county health nurse, answered the questions of the group on health and social hygiene.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. J. L. Amort, Mrs. Albert Mader, Mrs. George Hager, Mrs. H. E. Martin, Mrs. W. Welch, Mrs. Thomas Jones, Mrs. J. F. C. Tekenburg, Mrs. M. M. Magee, Mrs. W. A. Jones, Mrs. Marvin Wells, Mrs. W. H. Humphreys, Mrs. Stella Culver, Mrs. E. Service, Mrs. V. McAllister, Mrs. S. R. Perry, Mrs. Lloyd Keen, Mrs. Celia Perry, Mrs. W. B. Prink, Mrs. Ted Olson and Mrs. Thomas.

Robisons Are Hosts For Pinnole Party

Jefferson—Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Robison entertained a group of friends at their home two miles north of Jefferson at a pinnole party. The high score prize went to Mrs. Fred Vandenberg and the low score prize to Mrs. Mack Hamby. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Robison of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hamby, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vandenberg and children, Robert and Mary Jane, Melvin and Lester Lang, Mrs. and Mrs. T. O. Kester, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Robison and children, Richard and Iva Bess.

Husbands Are Asked For Bridge Evening

Woodburn—Mrs. Bernard Miller and Mrs. Harold Miller were joint hostesses Thursday evening to their bridge club at the Bernard Miller farm home with husbands of the members additional guests.

High score at bridge for the women went to Mrs. LaVerne Otjen and for the men to Jess Rigdon. Lunch was served.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Whitman, Captain and Mrs. Elburn Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Otjen, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Lansden, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Renn, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rigdon, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Miller.

Student Taken Ill

Mill City—Miss Bonnie Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carter, was taken suddenly ill at school Thursday. It was found that she was suffering from a heart attack. She is a student at the Mill City high school and has been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lawson during the absence of her mother in Seattle, Wash.

Johnnie Davis who does his best scatting—which is another style of hotcha singing—with Benny Goodman's Swing Band in "Hollywood Hotel," starring Dick Powell and starting next Sunday at the Elsinore.

Hubbard Gym Contract Let

Hubbard—The contract for the new gymnasium which is to replace the one razed by fire in October was let to C. J. Schlabach of Oregon City. He has contracted to build the gym for $1671, and building will be started the latter part of this month. The contracts for heating, wiring and plumbing have not yet been let.

The present plans call for a number of changes over the one destroyed. Tentative plans call for the heating to come from the furnace in the school building. The roof is to be of oval type carried up by rib trusses. Dressing rooms will take up the space which was occupied by the furnaces. The seating arrangements will be changed, the seats lower to the floor. In the southwest corner there will be a home economics room and in the southeast a mechanical drawing room. The north side, under the bleachers, will be excavated to form a basement for storing various equipment. The outside of the gym is to be of shake construction. Other than these changes the new gym will be almost the same as the former one.

Gervais Responds To Benefit Party

Gervais—A benefit card party was given by the Sacred Heart parish in the high school auditorium for Mrs. Anna Reuscher, who lost her home and all its furnishings a short time ago by fire. The sale of tickets was well responded to and during the evening 17 tables of "500" were played and six tables of pedro, with high scores in "500" going to Mrs. Volner of Mt. Angel and Reubon DeJardin. Those having high scores in pedro were Mrs. George Muth and Andrew Miller. During the refreshment hour Mr. Ungar of Mt. Angel furnished and served the refreshments and he was given a vote of thanks for his generosity by all those present. Ungar also donated the prizes which were given during the evening. The proceeds will be given to Mrs. Reuscher to help rebuild her home.

Dallas Missionary Group Entertained

Dallas—Mrs. L. A. Bollman, Mrs. A. M. Larsen, Mrs. R. M. Murphy and Mrs. Don Robinson entertained the members of the M. E. missionary society at the latter's home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Murphy presided over the business meeting. Worship was led by Mrs. C. S. Graves.

Mrs. Ross Chapin of Perrydale was in charge of the program, which consisted of talks by Mrs. Walter Duff, Jr. and Rev. John A. Linn.

Tea was served to the following members: Mrs. Howard Eastman, Mrs. C. W. Low, Mrs. E. Brockway, Mrs. Christina Bennett, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Wes Elliott, Mrs. Cecil Riggs, Mrs. G. L. Hawkins, Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. Milton Miller, Mrs. Randall Buell, Mrs. H. J. Elliott, Mrs. E. Miller, Mrs. P. J. Voth, Miss Evangeline Voth, Rev. and Mrs. Linn, Mrs. Bollman, Mrs. Larsen, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Jack Naylor, Mrs. Peter Berg and Mrs. Robinson.

Switchboard Group Will Elect Officers

Stayton—All members have been asked to attend the annual meeting of the Stayton Cooperative Switchboard association, which has been scheduled for 2 o'clock Monday at the city hall.

Election of officers and the naming of two directors of the association will be the main business of the session, other than the receiving of annual reports.

Directors of the organization urged subscribers to settle all long distance accounts so that the company's financial reports would be in good condition.

Debaters for Rotary
Silverton—The University of Oregon debating team from the English department will be speaker guests at the Monday noon luncheon of the Silverton Rotary club at Tony's banquet room.

Polk Political Aspirants Come Out of Hiding

Independence—The political pot is beginning to simmer and stir in this vicinity as candidates announce their intentions to try for the offices made vacant as their terms expire.

Judge Arlie Walker announced his intention to contest for re-election as circuit judge for Polk and Yamhill. He will run on the non-partisan ticket, but so far as is known now there will be no opposition.

Bruce Spaulding, present district attorney, stated that he would be a candidate to succeed himself. He will seek the democratic nomination in the primaries. He has no competition so far.

County Surveyor Ed J. Himes is expected to file for the office for another term, with no opposition in sight.

Other county offices to be contested will be those of commissioner, representative and probably senator. Fred Gibson of West Salem, a democrat, will probably seek election, according to some of his friends, and Lyle Thomas of West Salem and Mrs. Joe Rogers, Sr., will enter the primaries for the post of