Hughes-Powers Vows Said in California

Old St. Mary's church in San Francisco saw the simple wedding service of Miss Margaret Powers, daughter of Mrs. A. H. Powers of Marshfield, and Patrick Hughes, son of Mrs. Anna Erhart of Portland, on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Henry I. Stark.

The bride wore a wool ensemble of oyster rose shade, with a corsage of orchids. With it she wore a hat of shiny black straw and black accessories.

Both young people are graduates of the University of Oregon. Mrs. Hughes was affiliated there with Phi Gamma Delta. He later went east for graduate work at Harvard and University of Chicago. Both are well known in Salem.

Following the wedding, dinner was served at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Boodell (Hazel Powers), 414 Hillcrest, San Mateo, and the young couple left on a wedding trip through southern California. They are to be at home in Portland.

Beta Sigma Phis Meet This Evening

Mrs. Thomas J. Drynan will entertain the Beta Sigma Phis at her home this evening. Plans will be made for the annual Fashion show, which will be held this year at the Elks temple on Wednesday, March 23. Mrs. George Scales will be in charge of the event.

Bank Groups at Woodburn Dinner

A group of more than 100 bank officers, employes and friends gathered at Woodburn Thursday evening for a forum dinner meeting of the Marion county chapter of the American Institute of Banking with L. C. Buchner, manager of the Woodburn branch of the First National Bank of Portland, presiding.

Members were present from Mill City, Silverton, Mt. Angel, Woodburn and Salem.

Dr. Burt Brown Barker, vice-president of the University of Oregon, was the speaker of the evening, and was introduced by Lawrence Mann, assistant vice-president of the First National Bank of Portland.

Dr. Barker's talk, "The Money Changer's Table," was made extremely interesting due to the fact of his having with him a genuine money changer's table dating back to the 16th century. He explained the mechanism of the table to the group, and outlined the progress of the system of money handling from the time of the early Biblical days of money changes on until the first banking organizations came into existence.

Miss Bessie C. Smith, president of the Marion county chapter, announced that the annual banquet for the organization would be held in Salem during April in the form of a dinner followed by an informal dance. Arrangements are in charge of the women employes of the three Salem banks, with Mrs. Cordie Wimper of Ladd & Bush in charge.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Fuhrer, Earl Deue, Lucille Jaskowski, Leah Suing, Cordie Wimper, Maryellen Ritchie, Lawrence Maves, Michael Fitzpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ornum, Walter McCune, Bob Powell, Horace Jewett, William McElarity, Berten Atkins, Frank Crawford, Ray Hoffmann, Carl Steelhammer, Clarice Jackson, E. C. Greig, Roger Kellogg, Paul Lip-poid, Harry Tuttle, Edward Zakara, Burt Dutton, Sy Suing, Mr. and Mrs. Linn Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Selwyn Imiah, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thompson, Bessie Smith, Luella Fruit, Beulah Van Oulder, Paul Allen, Don Douris, Jack Bush, Margery Inman and Gladys McKay.

Professor Frank Childs of Willamette university, instructor for the group in economics this year, was a special guest at the meeting.

D.A.V. Auxiliary Has Many Events

Mrs. Vern Ostrander, department head of the woman's auxiliary of Disabled American Veterans of the World War, returned recently from a trip to Forest Grove and Oregon City, where she made plans for the forthcoming membership drive.

The sewing club of the woman's auxiliary of the World War met at the home of Mrs. Leon Hansen Friday afternoon. A shower was given Mrs. Theodore Peeranboom.

Tuesday, February 22, United States Veterans' hospital, Portland, will be host to Salem unit, woman's auxiliary of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War. The officials of the hospital have arranged an inspection tour of the hospital.

Oregon Woman Wins Coveted Honor

Announcement of the appointment of Mrs. Dana D. Backes of Klamath Falls as special representative of the International Federation of Business and Professional Women for the state of Oregon was made today by Miss Lena Madasin Phillips of New York City, International president. Appointment of these International representatives, of whom there will be one in each state, is made with the approval and concurrence of the state president, who, in this instance, is Mrs. Zola F. Morgan of Hillsboro.

Duties of the International representatives are to acquaint the clubs throughout the state with the work of the International Federation, to assist in the arrangement of International night on February 25, and to stimulate interest and membership in the International Federation, which was founded by the National Federation of the United States in 1936 and now has branches in 25 countries.

Mrs. Backes is a former president of the Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's club and a former corresponding secretary and treasurer of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's club. She is a graduate of Alberta, Canada, college and is by profession a fire insurance agent. She has been long identified with the Oregon Federation and has the reputation of being an unusually able executive, so that her appointment as International Federation representative is regarded as an appropriate one.
