Spencer Tracy, Luise Rainier Win Honors

Hollywood, March 11 (U.P.)—Best novie performances during 1937 were by Luise Rainer and Spencer Tracy, balloting by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences

Motion Picture Arts and Sciences had decided today.

Tracy, who won first prize for act-ors by his performance in "Captains Courageous" was in a hospital re-covering from a minor operation when the committee called him up last night. He said he was mighty jast night. He said he was mightly pleased. Then he went back to sleep. Miss Rainer, who carried off first honors for actresses by her portrayal of a Chinese peasant woman in "The Good Earth." was sitting in her house slippers when the committee announced her the victor. She'd had an invitation to attend the dinner announced her the victor. She'd had an invitation to attend the dinner in the Biltmore Bowl, but she said "no thanks." When she learned she'd won she changed her slippers, put on an evening grwn and hastened downtown for her doll.

These dolls, which are in the form of an immodestly clothed youth about six inches tall, are known fa-about ax increase tail, are known is-miliarly to Hollywood as "Oscara." They look gold, but aren't. Warner Brothers got one for "The Life of Emile Zola," judged the best production of 1937. Other awards in-

Joseph Schildkraut best supporting actor, in "The Life of Emile Zo-la": Alice Brady, best supporting actress, in "In Old Chicago"; Leo McCarey, best director for "The Awful Truth," and William A. Wellinal story, for "A Star Is Born."
