Miss Elizabeth Lewis Plays in California

Friends of Elizabeth Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lewis, Salem pianist and teacher, will be interested to hear that she has received very favorable notice in several recent recital appearances in Los Angeles.

Miss Lewis, who is a pupil of Oleg Steeb, internationally known concert pianist, played the Grieg concerto, with Miss Steeb playing the orchestral parts at the second piano on a concerto recital series March 16. Tonight she will appear in recital at Steeb Fine Arts auditorium, and plans several programs on her return north this summer.

Percy Grainger Plays in Concert Tonight

One of the musical events of the season will be the Percy Grainger concert at the Leslie auditorium this evening at 8:30 o'clock. The MacDowell club is sponsoring the Australian composer-pianist.

A reception will honor Mr. Grainger in the Leslie library following the concert. The public is invited to attend.

Tonight's program has been announced as follows:
Fantasia and Fugue in G Minor
Symphonic Studies, op. 10
Schumann Ballade, op. 24
Grieg Concerto
When Yuletide Came
Olsen Shepherd's Boy
Lullaby from Tribute to Foster

Elkins Club Plans Benefit

Monmouth—Plans for a benefit to be given shortly to aid in advertising the power district proposal were discussed at Wednesday's session of the Elkins' Women's club.

An invitation was accepted to meet with the Independence Rural Women's club Tuesday, April 26, at the home of Mrs. C. A. Allen.

Committee reports were heard and hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. T. McElowney and Mrs. Hare. Mrs. J. C. Wilson read a St. Patrick's poem and room decorations and tea appointments honored St. Patrick.

P.E.O. Luncheon Is Gala Event

Lebanon—Mrs. John Gill and Mrs. Louis Bennett entertained at 1 o'clock luncheon for members of chapter V, P.E.O. Sisterhood, last Tuesday afternoon at the Gill home in Ash street. During the afternoon business and a program occupied the time.

Mrs. Harold Whelan presented the program on the topic, "The House of My Dreams," and the ensuing discussion included the ideas that each member considered essential in the home.

Mrs. Katherine Reed of Corvallis, Mrs. H. Corrihan of Portland and Mrs. Dewey, member of a Redmond chapter, were present at the meeting. Luncheon was served from a beautifully appointed buffet table at which Mrs. Hugh Kirkpatrick and Mrs. E. Payne presided.

The Women's union of the First Congregational church will meet Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock in the church parlor for a covered dish lunch. Mrs. Mary Bayne and Miss Oda Chapman have charge of arrangements. The apron committee, of which Mrs. F. E. Neer is chairman, expects to have work for all. Any one interested is invited to attend.

In Concert This Evening—Percy Grainger, eminent pianist-composer, who will appear in concert at the Leslie auditorium this evening, under the banner of the Salem MacDowell club.
