Delta Phis at Babcock Home

Delta Phi alumnae club was entertained at dinner last night when Mrs. Marion Moore and Miss Bertha Babcock entertained at the latter's home in South Commercial street.

Spring flowers in pastel tones were arranged about the guest room.

Attending were Mrs. Vernon Bain, Mrs. George Rhoten, Mrs. Albert Cohen, Mrs. Joseph Felton, Miss Marian Bretz, Miss Doris Unruh, Miss Gwen Hunt, Miss Dorothy Lippe, Miss Evelyn Haag and the hostesses, Miss Babcock and Mrs. Moore.

W. U. Seniors to Honor Graduates

Willamette University campus—Willamette university seniors and members of the graduating class at Salem high school attending first church will be honored guests at the annual formal banquet given by University Vespers at the First Methodist church this evening at 8:30 o'clock. Lawrence Morley will act as toastmaster for the banquet.

Decorations on the tables and about the rooms will carry out the forget-me-not motif.

Miss Jessica Kinsey is in general charge of the banquet and is assisted by Miss Beth Hall, Miss Gertrude Cannell, Miss June Braisted, Bob Howe and Ed Cone.

Golden Wedding "At Home" Held

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gatens celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home in Dallas Tuesday with an "at home" from 2 until 5 o'clock and from 7 to 9 o'clock. Just 50 years ago Tuesday Miss Alena Guilliams became the bride of Mr. Gatens at a ceremony held in Ona, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gatens are the parents of Mrs. Roy Bremner of Salem, Mrs. Floyd Linden of Ocean Lake, Felix Gatens of Tillamook and Francis Gatens of Ocean Park, Wash. Another son, John, passed away in 1910.

Assisting about the rooms at the affair were Mrs. William Mott, Mrs. Anna Stipl, Mrs. Gus Erickson, Mrs. George Dietz, Mrs. Chester Mulkey, Mrs. Clarence Dimzey, Miss Alena Bremner, Mrs. La Verne Leighton, Mrs. Amos Timinly, Mrs. Esther Brown and Mrs. Ronald Saunders.

The serving table was centered with an arrangement of gold flowers and tapers. A wedding cake also added to the festive note. Music was provided by John and Ben Friesen, Henry and Walter Wall, Mrs. Ronald Saunders and Miss Alena Bremner.

95th Birthday to Be Celebrated

Henry Steuermagel will celebrate his 95th birthday anniversary Sunday and in his honor Miss R. Steuermagel will entertain with an at-home at her residence, 1193 North Fifth street, between the hours of 1 and 5 o'clock.

Mr. Steuermagel is one of the last two surviving Civil war veterans in Salem. A special invitation is being extended to the Women's Relief Corps, Daughters of Union Veterans and Sons of Union Veterans.

Club Elects New Officers

The Pringle-Pleasant Point club was entertained at luncheon Thursday at the home of Mrs. O. T. Seeley with Mrs. William McCarroll sharing hostess honors. The luncheon table was centered with yellow tulips and tall tapers.

Election of officers was held with Miss Grace Robertson named president; Mrs. W. H. Grabenhorst, vice-president; Mrs. George Grabenhorst, secretary; Mrs. George Guerne, treasurer; Mrs. E. S. Coates, reporter. Mrs. C. E. Duffield is a new member of the club.

Special guests were Mrs. Leslie Newton, Mrs. M. L. Goble, Mrs. W. Rippl, Mrs. J. W. Brashor, Mrs. E. A. Hoge, Mrs. H. M. Draper and Mrs. E. Brashor.

Club members present were Mrs. E. S. Coates, Mrs. J. M. Coburn, Mrs. E. G. Clark, Mrs. L. W. Potter, Mrs. Clifford Jones, Mrs. Homer Harrison, Mrs. J. W. Keyes, Mrs. W. H. Grabenhorst, Mrs. Harry Wechter, Mrs. J. N. Robertson, Mrs. George Guerne, Mrs. J. W. Yates, Mrs. Grace Robertson, Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. Vernon Coates, Mrs. Rue Drager, Mrs. George Grabenhorst, Mrs. O. T. Seeley and Mrs. William McCarroll.

Mrs. Harrison will entertain the group at her home in a fortnight. It will be the last meeting of the season.

Miss Crookham Fetes Miss Sargent

Willamette University campus—Miss Barbara Crookham entertained with a handkerchief shower at the Delta Phi sorority house Wednesday evening honoring Miss Mary Jeanette Sargent, whose marriage to Charles Neville will be an event of June 12.

Guests bidden to honor Miss Sargent were Mrs. Fred A. Well, Miss Lela Burton, Miss Ruth Tharner, Miss Alene Fairclough, Miss Virginia Pugh, Miss Lyle Bogardus, Miss Gwen Hunt, Miss Dorothy Lippe, Miss Melba Ripelle, Miss Frances Faber, Miss Lorene Tompkins, Miss Helene Trulsson, Miss Martha Okuda, Miss Margaret Magee, Miss Helen Marcy, Miss Roberta McOlellan and Miss Enid Winningham.

Engagements Evince Interest of Salemites

Two engagements and approaching weddings have been announced at out-of-town points during the past week which are of particular interest to Salem folk. Tuesday in Klamath Falls the engagement of Miss Jennie Delsell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Delsell of Portland, formerly of Salem, to Harold Savage, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Savage of Fresno, Calif., was revealed.

Miss Delsell is the sister of Thomas W. Delsell of this city. The announcement was made at the home of Mrs. C. I. Roberts on Pacific Terrace in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Roberts is Miss Delsell's aunt.

Forty guests called for tea at the Roberts home and upon entering were presented with a small, old-fashioned nosegay with the betrothal announcement concealed therein. Little Miss Nancy Jean Newbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbury, gave the nosegays. The tea table was attractively appointed with a centerpiece of rosebuds in shades of pink.

St. Helens Club Endorses Mrs. Martin

The St. Helens Woman's club has formally sent word to Mrs. C. C. Geer, president of the Salem Woman's club, of its vote to unanimously endorse Hannah Martin of Salem as president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs.

The St. Helens club says, in its correspondence, that it feels Mrs. Martin has the qualifications and the background for a very successful president.

Mrs. Martin will be the guest of Mrs. Eldon C. Steele, president of the Portland City Federation of Women's clubs, at the annual federation luncheon at the Congress hotel in Portland tomorrow. Officers of the group will be elected during the afternoon.

Mrs. John Houston Wharton and Mrs. Guy Bagley departed Thursday morning for a several weeks' visit in Texas and other southern points.

California Folk Visit in Capital

Popular guests in the capital the past week have been Mr. and Mrs. Glen Goodrich of Oakland, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Serling of Stockton, Calif., who have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Patton. Mr. Goodrich is a brother of Mrs. Patton.

Several informal affairs were arranged for the visitors, who left for their homes in the south this morning.

Iota Sigma of the W.C.T.U. will meet Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the organization's headquarters. Mrs. Viola Burson will be in charge of the program and Mrs. Fred Cashion will lead the devotion.

Bertha Junk Darby Hostess to Group

The Willamette auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church was entertained with a waffle supper Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby.

A business meeting followed the supper and Miss Lulu Conover, missionary from China, spoke informally to the group. A special guest was Mrs. A. O. Condit. Twelve members were present for the affair.

Lyons—Levi Garrison and son, Alvin Garrison, left Thursday morning for a week's visit in Lakeview. They were accompanied on the trip by Miss Juanita Bass of Mehama and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heart of Salem.

Songmen Present Program Soon

Appearing in their annual "home" concert, the Willamette University Songmen will be heard Wednesday night, May 18, in Waller hall. With a well established reputation for their splendid singing, music lovers should fill the small auditorium.

Following their recent concert at Benson high, Portland, the Oregonian said: "Tonal quality and balance, with a fine interpretation, always mark the singing of the Songmen."

25th Anniversary Event of Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Charles DuVal will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday at their home, 705 South street, with a smart "At Home." Hours will be from 2 to 5 o'clock and all friends are being invited, through the press, to call. The DuVals will be assisted by their two daughters, Miss Doris DuVal and Mrs. Viola Wilkenson, who will be home for the occasion.

Silverton—At the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Artisan's Woman's club Mrs. Chris Beugli, president, announced her fall bazaar committee to include Mrs. Charles Waltman, Mrs. William Hannan, Mrs. Ray Davis, Mrs. Chris Beugli, Mrs. Verlin White and Mrs. Bert Swanson.
