

Westward the Course of Empire—Batting the most ferocious conditions ever experienced by mortal man, overcoming handicaps of Nature and scheming badmen of the Old West, the hardy pioneers who tamed an uncivilized wilderness and transformed the blessings of regular transportation routes from a vague, hoped-for dream into reality, are immortalized in Frank Lloyd's Paramount epic, "Wells Fargo," which opens this Saturday midnight matinee at 11:30 at the Hollywood theatre. Co-starred in the leading roles of "Wells Fargo" are Joel McCrea, Frances Dee and Bob Burns, and the splendid supporting cast is headed by Lloyd Nolan, Porter Hall, Henry O'Neill, Mary Nash, Robert Cummings, John Mack Brown, Ralph Morgan and Barlowe Borland.

Elks Take Hand In Situation At Linfield

McMinnville, May 21 (P)—Charges of Dr. Russell M. Brouger, New York evangelist, that a group of students at Linfield college had circulated petitions warning him not to speak in a chapel lecture about Russia resulted yesterday in an Elks lodge resolution asking care in selection by the school of a new president.

Dr. Brouger, addressing the Kiwanis club here, revealed the existence of the petitions and later, in an interview, he enlarged on the incident. He claimed that two petitions were circulated, one asking the faculty to prevent him from speaking and the other threatening to boo him if he did.

He addressed the student body last Friday. He said he was not booed but, when a hymn was about to be sung he asked the students to raise their hands to signify their belief in Christ. He estimated that 25 refused to do so and later he said one of the students who signed the petitions came to him and asserted he had "put them on the spot and they couldn't raise their hands because they didn't believe in Christ."

School officials, hearing Dr. Brouger's charges that a communistic group sought to inflict their opinions on other students, said there was no greater percentage of such students on the campus than in any congregation of 500 people and that the activities of a few should not be called a true cross-section of student belief.

Dr. H. C. Epley Elected Mayor

Jefferson, May 21—Dr. H. C. Epley was elected mayor of Jefferson yesterday over Mrs. Edna M. Allen, incumbent, by a vote of 93 to 46. L. L. Shield lacked one vote of a majority for the office of recorder and will run again in the November election.

J. J. Fontaine, with 87 votes, and C. J. Thurston with 76, were elected councilmen over A. D. Hines and D. M. Burnett who each received 68.

Mrs. Martha Hutchings was unopposed for the city treasurer.

Now Too Late Wallace Says

Washington, May 21 (U.P.)—Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace said yesterday that proposals for congressional action to make parity payments to farmers are too late to clear the way for establishment this year of marketing quotas on wheat.

Wallace said no wheat quotas will be established this year.

The new farm act provides that Falls City —Mrs. Jessie Moyer spent the week-end at Turner with Mr. and Mrs. Ike Stewart.

no wheat quotas can be imposed during the marketing year beginning July 1 unless provisions for parity payments have been made prior to May 15.

"Since no provision for parity payments has been made, there will be no wheat marketing quotas this year," Wallace said.

Reserves Will Meet Tonight

Eugene, Ore., May 21 (P)—The 17th annual convention of the Oregon department of the organized reserve officers' association opened officially here Friday evening when Carleton E. Spencer, president of the organization, presided at the past presidents' dinner at the Eugene hotel.

The convention started with a business session Saturday morning at 10 o'clock with sessions being held in the morning and evening.

Dr. Frederick M. Hunter, chancellor of high education for Oregon, will address the convention at the morning session Saturday. He will talk on the "Educational Worth of the R.O.T.C."

Two leading social features, the annual banquet and the annual ball will be held Saturday evening.

Sunday will be devoted to an air-ground problem, in which reserve officers will take part. A fleet of approximately 15 planes will come here from Pearson field and other northwest bases to participate in the maneuvers.

Silverton—The last in the series of card parties being sponsored by Ridgely Encampment No. 23, I.O.O.F., will be Tuesday evening with the families of members as special guests. The affair will be held in the Odd Fellows hall.

Stars in Color—Charlie McCarthy and Bergen in the technicolor musical extravaganza "The Goldwyn Follies," which opens today at the State theatre. Favorites of radio, stage and screen are included in the cast.
