Spinsters' President—Miss Margaret Simms, attractive debutante daughter of Mrs. Catherine D. Simms who has been named president of the Spinsters, philanthropic organization, for the ensuing year.—(Kennell-Ellis Portrait).

THE chapel of St. Joseph's Catholic church was the scene of an impressive ceremony at 10 o'clock this morning when Miss Peggy Amort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Amort of Monmouth, became the bride of Chester L. Fritz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fritz of The Dalles.

Father John J. Reedy officiated in the presence of the two families. Miss Alena Bremmer played the wedding marches. The altar was graced with peonies and cathedral tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a model of powder blue crepe with jacket. Her accessories were of Parisian and she wore a corsage of Transvaal daisies.

Miss Margaret Amort of Salt Lake City was her sister's honor attendant. She wore a smart model of black and white with a small black hat. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Ben L. Calloway of The Dalles was the best man. Mrs. Amort, mother of the bride, wore a black ensemble trimmed with dusty pink, and a corsage of Cecil Brunner roses. Mrs. Fritz wore a Spring print and a corsage of seasonal flowers.

A wedding breakfast followed at the Golden Pheasant. Mr. and Mrs. Fritz left directly afterward for San Francisco and other southern points. Upon their return they will be at home in Salem.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fritz have been active members of the capital's younger set. Mrs. Fritz attended Oregon Normal school. Mr. Fritz attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. He is connected with the Secretary of State's office.

Delta Gamma alumnae will be entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Silas Gaiser, 825 North Winter street. Assisting Mrs. Gaiser will be Miss Esther Wilcox and Mrs. Vivian Bartholomew. All Delta Gammars are invited.

Chapter G, P.E.O. Sisterhood, was entertained with a dessert luncheon by Miss Sylvia Leonard at the home of Mrs. J. J. Nunn Thursday afternoon. A special Mother's day program was presented and Mrs. Earl Cooley, accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Findlay, sang a group of numbers. Miss Annette Lang spoke concerning the W.P.A. nursery school.

Mrs. G. W. Lafar, who has recently moved to Portland, was feted with a kerchief shower. Special guests were Mrs. A. M. Snyder of Corvallis, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. Keith Brown, Mrs. Gray, Miss Jenks, Mrs. R. W. Waterhouse and Mrs. T. McKenzie.

BIB 'N' TUCKER

BEACH . . . resorts will soon open their doors and set the summer season in motion. . . . From then on until after Labor day play togs will be the chief concern of the feminine minds. . . . While it's a few weeks yet until you'll take your first dive into the water, you might as well plan your beach paraphernalia along with your other summer ensembles. . . . Dirndls will be seen everywhere; they will be worn over shorts and play suits and there seems to be no particular partiality as to fabrics, cottons, rayons and pure silks being used. . . . Humble hopperskin no longer holds a lowly station. . . . It has leaped right into the fashion scene and, considerably refined in the process, is now being used for fishing jackets to go with canvas slacks, and also is converted into attractive accessories to accompany smart beach clothes. . . . Then, too, don't forget that mattress ticking will be going to the beach also this season and will furnish some mighty amusing accents to the beach regalia. . . . You'll see it in a most dashing plainer's shirt, to be worn with navy or white slacks. . . . Or a tricky hat with navy linen crown and a mattress ticking brim. (concluded on page 10, column 6)

MAY, it seems, is as romantically inclined as June, the proverbial month for brides. Thursday evening Miss Mary Jane Adams became the bride of Jack Walter Lampton. This morning Miss Peggy Amort became the bride of Chester L. Fritz at a beautiful ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Sunday evening the marriage of Miss Helen Worth and Dr. Charles B. Pomeroy will be solemnized at a stellar ceremony at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Several other debs are making plans for their marriages to take place next month, with details to be announced at informal parties within the next week or so.

The party whirl is really just starting and the social picture takes on much color as the month progresses. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lachmund are now "at home" in their new home, 567 South High street.

Mrs. Harry Cook entertained with a gay party Friday afternoon honoring her son, Mowbray, on his eighth birthday. She was assisted by Mrs. Turnidge and Mrs. Earl Vernon.

Being welcomed by Salem folk is Blair Stewart of Chicago, who is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Clara E. Stewart. Mr. Stewart is a concert artist of note and will be remembered for the splendid concert he gave here several seasons ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell have been recent guests in San Francisco and registered at the Hotel St. Francis.

Miss Jane Fisher, popular bride-elect, will be honored guest at a tea to be given Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock with Mrs. Dan Schreiber, Mrs. Harold Busick and Miss Carolyn Braden as hostesses at the former's home in Mill street.

Arranged as a surprise to honor Miss Julia Query, retiring president, Mrs. Laura Rand Terril, director, and Mrs. David Bennett Hill, social chairman, an informal social evening was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Wallace Wharton by members of the Salem MacDowell club.

Twenty-two members of the group present shared the pleasure of awarding to the honored guests the remembrances prepared by Mrs. Doris Schwabbauer, newly elected president.

A short business meeting for members of the executive board resulted in the re-election of Mrs. Terril as director for the new year, and the announcement that a permanent business manager for the group would be added to the executive board. Several invitations for the MacDowell club to sing were discussed and immediate plans outlined for programs in the near future.

The entire group will present a program of songs at the art center reception in Salem, May 26. Refreshments were served informally in the dining room with Mrs. Hill officiating at the coffee urn. A low massed arrangement of wigelias in a brass studded bowl outlined by pastel tapers in brass candleholders featured the serving table.

Those present were Marion Bretz, Frances Eilla, Selma Fischer, Emily Howard, Mary McCrone Hughes, Margaret Jorgensen, Rose Marie Kronberg, Gladys Krusen, Susan Krueger, Leota Levens, Anabel Moon, Grace Norman, Julia Query, Hilda Rohlfis, Doris Schwabbauer, Grace Sherman, Ruth Swart, Dorothy Seeger, Florence Teed, Gladys Thomas, Ruth Warnke, Esther Wilcox, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Terril and the hostess, Mrs. Wharton.

One of the features of the tenth annual dance revue being presented by Barbara Barnes at the high school auditorium Thursday evening, June 9, is the "Kiddie Kabaret." The scene opens on the interior of a night club during preparations for the opening night. The acts are rehearsing while the hostess, portrayed by Joanne Thomas, grants auditions to applicants seeking a career on the stage.

With the entertainment progressing smoothly all looks well for the opening until a gawky country girl, Jean Holtzman, decides to enter the picture and reveal her talents as a singer. A comic situation becomes almost a tragic one when the hostess discovers, after a close inspection of clothing, that all is not as it should be. What develops must be seen to be appreciated but in due time the "Navy" arrives in the person of Leland Hoar, a sailor boy, whose real ambition is not to go on the stage although he would like that, too. His pals, Bruce Moorhead and Cyril Hull, two sailors with ambitions also for the stage, finally agree that they like moving scenery better than walking the streets. With the scenery all moved preparations are about complete for the grand opening.

PARAMOUNT event on next week's social calendar is the reception being arranged in compliment to Charles Val Clear, director of the Salem Art Center, and his staff. The reception will be an event of next Thursday evening, May 26, from 7:30 until 10:30 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Salem folk and those from surrounding communities are urged to call and greet the art center faculty.

Receiving will be Governor and Mrs. Charles H. Martin, Mayor and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Dr. and Mrs. Vernon A. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Griffiths, Dr. and Mrs. Burt Brown Barker, Charles Val Clear, Mrs. Erich Ebsen, Erich Lamande, Louis Bunce, Charles E. Lemery, and Miss Gladly Everett, Mrs. G. C. Cook and Mrs. Marjorie Hoffman Smith, of Portland.

Mrs. Harry V. Collins is general chairman of the reception and Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre is in charge of contacting various civic groups in the capital. The Salem Garden club will provide decorations for the attractive rooms.

Miss Julia Query is in charge of receiving and Mrs. Bradford Collins and a group of young matrons and maids will assist her informally. Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead will be in charge of the check room.

Paulus, Mrs. Richard Kriesel, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felton, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Page, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kromer, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Fidler and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Armstrong.

Wedded At Home Here—Mrs. Jack Walter Lampton, the former Mary Jane Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Adams, who was married at a beautiful home ceremony Thursday night. The couple will reside in Hollywood.—(Jessen-Miller Portrait).

A wedding of more than usual interest will take place in the fireplace room of the First Methodist Episcopal church this evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Lois Wilkes, daughter of Mrs. Rose Wilkes, becomes the bride of Melvin Goode of Albany, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Goode of Salem. Rev. Paul Ackerman of Molalla will officiate. Preceding the ceremony Professor Cameron Marshall will sing "O, Promise Me" and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms." Miss Mary Virginia Nohlgren will play the wedding marches.

The bride will wear a striking gown of white chiffon with lace jacket fashioned with leg o' mutton sleeves. Her short veil will be caught in a Juliet cap and she will carry a bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses. She will be given in marriage by her uncle, George Humke.

Mrs. Gordon Hood (Brenda Savage) of Albany will be the maid of honor. She will wear a gown of blue chiffon designed with high neck, long sleeves and embellished with a rose velvet sash.

Mrs. Helen Pettyjohn Lamb will be the bridesmaid. Her gown will be of apricot chiffon, made with flaring skirt and short puff sleeves. Both attendants will carry arm bouquets of pastel flowers and wear garlands in their hair.

French Hageman will be the best man and ushers will include Ervin Potter, Robert Smith, Norlyn Stevens and Clifford Goode of Portland.

The altar will be graced with tall cathedral tapers and yellow tulips.

Mrs. Wilkes will wear a model of dusty rose lace combined with satin and a corsage. Mrs. Goode will wear dark blue crepe and a corsage.

A reception will follow with members of the wedding party receiving. Mrs. Walter Minier will be in charge of the appointments.

The serving table will be covered with a handsome lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow tulips and orchid iris. Rainbow tapers will light the table where Mrs. George Humke will cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Clifford Goode will pour.

Assisting in serving will be Miss Jessie Cooper, Miss Edith Clement, Miss Sylvia Du Bois, Miss Allie Love, Miss Mildred Ransdell and Mrs. Lawrence Gilbertson.

Miss Jewell Minier will sing during the reception. Her numbers to include "Until" and "Sweet Mystery of Life."

For going away the bride has chosen a coral knit suit, gold top coat and wheat linen accessories. Upon their return from a wedding trip in southern Oregon the couple will reside in Albany.

The bride is a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Delta Phi. Mr. Goode is a graduate of the Willamette law school and is now practicing law in Albany.

O.S.N.A. district three, will meet Monday evening at the Deaconess Nurses' home.

Several Salem folk will motor to Portland tonight to attend the Empire day celebration at the Neighborhood of Woodcraft hall, Southwest Morrison at 14th street. The concert and dance is being sponsored by the Associated British Societies.
