Bride-Elect Honored at Gay Shower

Miss Hazel Strang, whose marriage to Charles Stewart will be an event of Sunday, was feted with a miscellaneous shower Monday evening when the Misses Ruby and Lulu Wiederkehr entertained.

Hydrangeas and sweetpeas in soft pastel tones decorated the guest room. Supper was served in the late evening.

Bidden to honor Miss Strang were Miss Frances Todd, Miss Mildred Mason, Mrs. A. L. Mason, Mrs. Edith M. Strang, Mrs. Jack Bowden, Mrs. Alice M. Stewart, Miss Marguerite M. Crosson, Miss Laura Warren, Miss Patricia Todd, Miss Esther May Strang, Miss Leona Todd, Miss Caroline Holler, Miss Ellen Pemberton, Mrs. Mary Hilborn, Miss Helen Carpenter, Miss Letha Fowler, Miss Maxine La Due, Miss Virginia Mason, Miss Winnifred Senn, Mrs. Theron Kent, Miss Evelyn Harris, Miss Mabel Griebel, Mrs. Gertrude Cheney, Miss Esther Hilmer, Miss Barbara Taylor, Mrs. Ora Garner and the hostesses, Miss Lulu and Miss Ruby Wiederkehr.

Miss Bellinger Incentive for Smart Affairs

Mrs. Victor R. Griggs and her daughter, Miss Emily Griggs, entertained today in honor of Miss Laneta Bellinger, bride-elect. A 1 o'clock luncheon was followed by an afternoon of bridge.

The luncheon table was decorated in pink and blue with white pottery service. A pottery ship, mounted on a large mirror, was the centerpiece, from which four white china cups held pink and blue ribbons running to the place of the guest of honor. Pink and blue hydrangeas arranged about the room completed the color scheme. The pastel ribbons directed the bride-elect to where gifts of towels were concealed.

Those invited were the honored guest, Miss Laneta Bellinger, Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Miss Josephine McGilchrist, Mrs. Carl Collins, Mrs. Robert Joseph, Miss Ruth Jean Garvin and the hostesses, Mrs. Victor R. Griggs and Miss Emily Griggs.

Miss Emily Griggs will entertain a small group of friends later this evening in honor of Miss Bellinger with an all fresco supper served in the gardens of Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Sr.

The guests will be Miss Laneta Bellinger, Miss Edna Mathias, Miss Marian Shinn, Miss Betty Taylor, Miss Marguerite Smith, Miss Maxine Gahndorf, Miss Sally McLellan, Miss Priscilla Walsh and the hostess, Miss Emily Griggs.

The annual Oklahoma picnic will be held Sunday, July 17, at the state fairgrounds. All former residents of Oklahoma and their friends are invited. There will be entertainment and speaking.

Portland Wedding of Interest in Capital

An approaching wedding of much interest to residents of Portland and Salem is that of Miss Marilyn Slocum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Slocum of Portland, and Eugene D. MacCarthy, son of Donal P. MacCarthy of Salem, which will be a beautiful and impressive evening ceremony held Saturday, July 16, at the Mount Tabor Presbyterian church. The Reverend John W. Beard will officiate.

Mrs. Maurice J. Butler, of Independence, will sing preceding the service. The bride will be given in marriage by her father. She will wear an ivory satin gown cut princess style with a full train. The three-tiered veil of ivory tulle will be held in place by a Juliet cap of seed pearls. She will carry a bouquet of white orchids.

Her sister, Miss Gwen Slocum, will be the maid of honor. She will wear a Juliet gown of delphinium-blue tulle, with a halo of pink roses and carry a muff of Cecil Brunner roses.

Mrs. Charles Bier and Miss Isabelle Sessine of Salem and the Misses Anne and Adele Szekely, of Portland, will be the bridesmaids. They will wear Marquise-pink tulle gowns with matching tri-colored hats and carry muffs of blue flowers.

Cecil Edwards of Salem will act as best man. Ushers will include Charles Bier and Henry Thielen of Salem and Robert Olbekson and Ernest Smith, both of Portland.

The bride's mother will wear a gown of mustard crepe with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

A reception will immediately follow the wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. W. W. Rhodes will cut the bride's cake and Mrs. Fern Rhodes will assist.

For traveling, the bride will wear a black sheer-wool ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of orchids.

After a motor trip to southern California the couple will reside at their new home near Salem.

Hal Hibbard auxiliary will meet with Mrs. Fred Thompson, 1575 South Commercial street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Legion Auxiliary Membership High
Following a report that the Oregon department of the American Legion auxiliary had reached an all-time high in membership comes the announcement of Mrs. Frank N. Waters of Salem, department president, that Oregon, for the third consecutive year, has a 100 per cent quota, which means that the 96 units have reached, and in many instances exceeded, their quotas. This brings the total membership up to 5700, an all-time high in membership.

Six units have been added to the membership rolls during the year. Malin, Hollywood, Peppo, Port Orford, Corbett and Yamhill. Hollywood is the last to receive its charter.

Mrs. Waters and other department officers went to Portland today for an executive board meeting to consider important business matters prior to the department convention in Pendleton in September.

Immediately following the adjournment of the meeting Mrs. Waters and Mrs. Mabel McInturff will go to Pendleton to meet with the convention commission on July 15 to complete details for the convention.

Mrs. Waters will return to Hood River Saturday, July 16, in time to join the party of Legionnaires and auxiliary members for the annual Mount Hood climb, sponsored by the American Legion and auxiliary of Hood River post and unit.

Rainbow girls and their escorts who plan to attend the large picnic at Janzen beach, Portland, on July 31, are asked to make their reservation with Miss Claire Marshall by next Monday.
