Strike Ties Up Ship at Oakland

San Francisco, Sept. 21 (AP)—Deck crews walked off the Shepard line freighter Wind Rush when it docked at Howard terminal in Oakland today, at the behest of 50 pickets dispatched by the sailors union of the Pacific in San Francisco.

The company paid off 54 longshoremen who arrived to load the vessel after its run from Seattle, and announced the Wind Rush would stand idle pending orders from the firm's New York headquarters.

Reopening of the old dispute between the SUP and the Shepard line resulted, said Assistant Secretary Ed Coester of the SUP, from action of the company in notifying the union it would not renew a labor contract expiring September 30.

There was no outbreak of violence. Last May, when the SUP picketed a Shepard vessel here in protest of the firm's hiring crews from the CIO national maritime union, a bloody waterfront battle took place between CIO longshoremen and the sailors.

Today the longshoremen merely stood by, awaiting results of a half-hour's conference aboard the Wind Rush between picket chieftains and the sailor crew.

Coester said the SUP would also picket the Shepard freighter Harpoon in San Diego on its arrival from the east coast.

J. D. Campbell pleaded not guilty in justice court on a charge of defrauding an inn keeper, namely the Port Hole, and will have a preliminary hearing October 3. He was released on his own recognizance.

Chester Elmer Lee was fined $1 and costs when he pleaded guilty in justice court to a charge of failing to observe a stop sign. The same disposal was made of a case against James Becker, charged with a similar offense.

With the kickoff less than four weeks in the distance, those in charge of the Salem community chest campaign are urging full attendance of representatives of all agencies involved, campaign committees and other officials for the luncheon which will be given at the Marion hotel Friday noon. Each agency will be allotted five minutes in which to tell of the work accomplished and contemplated by their organizations.

Protection of its investment of hundreds of dollars in trees and shrubbery planted on the campus in recent years is the aim of Willamette university trustees who have inaugurated a plan of systematic inspection, pruning and trimming. A group of men, trained in tree surgery, has been on the campus this week making the necessary betterments. Periodic checks will be made throughout the seasons to come and additional plantings will be made along a well developed program. Students are working the earth around the new library building preparatory to planting grass seed at the proper time.

Body Found Near Seaview Unknown

Astoria, Ore., Sept. 21 (AP)—A nude body found in Beards Hollow near Seaview, Wash., yesterday, remained unidentified today.

It was the body of a man of about 170 pounds, five feet, eight inches in height, Coronor Hollis Ransom estimated the body had been in the water about a month but the cause of death could not be determined immediately.

Rail Conferees Discuss Strike

Washington, Sept. 21 (AP)—Possibility of a nationwide railroad strike complicated today the efforts of railroad management and labor to fulfill President Roosevelt's request that they cooperate on legislation to aid the industry.

Representatives of both sides discussed their problems jointly with the chief executive yesterday.

Then they scheduled a meeting to determine whether the threatened strike against a 15 per cent wage cut would interfere with their following Mr. Roosevelt's proposals.

After mediation efforts failed recently, the carriers decided the wage cut for October 1. Railway labor is taking a vote to decide whether to strike. The result, to be announced next Monday, will affect about 900,000 workers.

President Roosevelt told reporters yesterday, however, he would appoint a commission to study the dispute. Under the national mediation act, the strike could not take place for 60 days after that body is selected.

The commission would have 30 days to make its findings and recommendations. Labor and management would have an additional 30 days, prescribed by government labor experts as a "cooling off" period, to study the report.

Mr. Roosevelt, concerned by the threats of war abroad and anxious to avert a rail tie-up at home, asked both rail executives and union leaders to cooperate in drafting recommendations for the next congress to help put the nation's transportation industry on a sound financial basis.

One hundred fifty male members of the freshman class of Willamette university took part in the varied program, arranged and sponsored by the campus YMCA and held at the downtown association building last night. Bill Parker of Salem presided. Each boy in attendance had a tag attached to his clothing upon which was written his name. Group singing, games in the lobby and in the gymnasium, a swim and refreshments made up the evening's program. The affair was declared a pronounced success and resulted in all concerned getting well acquainted. President Baxter, a number of the faculty and Neil Shaffer, president of the Willamette student body, were in attendance. The Blue Key, campus organization, had a part in arranging the program.

Judge Lewelling was here today taking testimony in the case of Oregon Turkey Growers vs. S. J. McKee. Plaintiff association asked damages of $2000 for alleged violation of the defendant's marketing agreement with the organization seeking liquidated damages on 4000 turkeys at 50 cents a head for the 1937 season. Also $250 in attorney's fees is asked. The association charges that the defendant failed to market his turkeys in the manner provided in the contract. McKee, in answer, alleges he signed for the 1936 season, that the contract was for only a year according to representations assertedly made by association representatives. He charged false and fraudulent representations, that he would be paid within 30 days after delivery and also alleged that members did not receive the regular market price and that he himself lost $1528.05 on the year's deliveries. He asks that his contract be rescinded and for the $1528.05 in damages.

Lorraine Sahli by guardian ad litem Robert Sahli, has filed a $1000 damage action against Oris Lee and Ray-Mahling company for alleged assault and battery September 11, 1938, at Woodburn. The complaint charges the defendants shoved one Lillie Sahli against the plaintiff causing the plaintiff's ankle to be severely sprained. The complaint asks $500 for the alleged malicious assault and $500 for exemplary damages.

A bicycle "hike" for all boys who own bicycles and who can provide a lunch to satisfy their own hunger, is being arranged by Gus Moore, boys' work secretary of the YMCA. The group will leave the association building at 11:30 Saturday forenoon and ride to a destination which has not been named. Following a ball game they will return to the Y and take a swim in the pool.

U.S. Warship Kept in Europe

Washington, Sept. 21 (AP)—The navy disclosed today that the European stay of the new 10,000-ton cruiser Nashville had been prolonged indefinitely.

Alternated orders were made public as the Nashville and a sister ship, the Honolulu, arrived unexpectedly at Portsmouth, England.

Both vessels are on shakedown cruises prior to joining the newly-created Atlantic squadron. They originally were to have met at Gravesend. The Nashville was to have sailed on her return to this country last Saturday.

Officials said the changed orders, issued by Adm. William D. Leahy, chief of operations, had "no significance," but informed persons understood they were linked to European tension over the German-Czech crisis.

The two cruisers, together with the cruiser Omaha and two destroyers forming a temporary squadron in the Mediterranean, could be called on to transport American refugees and undertake other responsibilities in the event of a European war.

Each ship is manned by about 40 officers and 640 men.

Scouts to Hold Court of Honor

The first Boy Scout court of honor to be conducted since Camp Pioneer days at Pine lake will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at the Chamber of Commerce. Ten or 12 boys will be up for advancement.

Last night at the Rotary hut, 67 scouts and a group of leaders became acquainted with Rex Sanford, recently named commissioner for Cherry City district. The boys were from troops 1, 2 and 3. Sanford plans to visit all troops within the near future. In preparation for launching the fall program, Gardner Knapp showed motion pictures of scenes in and around Pioneer camp.

In addition to James Monroe, scout executive, leaders in attendance last night included B. B. Richards, Don Huckabee, Bob Day, Lawrence Guderian, T. C. Roake, Tyler H. Morley, Orvil Bowers. Monroe visited the Lebanon and Sweet Home section yesterday, where he found scouting on a thriving basis. A court of honor for that section will be held at Lebanon.

$25,000,000 for Relief Looming

Portland, Sept. 21 (AP)—Twenty-five million for relief was in prospect for Oregon for the 1939-40 biennium, it was indicated yesterday at a meeting of the estate relief committee.

This would be an increase of about $6,000,000 over the 1937-38 figure. Elmer Goudy, state relief administrator, and his aides will submit the committee's budget estimate for the biennium to Wallace Wharton, state budget director, probably by Friday, after studying the counties' requests, which were not disclosed.

A rotters club, similar to the one which was formed last season, is being organized among boys of junior high school age in connection with Willamette's home games. The club will be limited to 50 boys for the first game and the first half hundred who check in with Gus Moore at the Y will be accommodated. The group will be given a special section at Sweetland field.

Dr. Bruce R. Baxter, president of Willamette university, will be the principal speaker this evening at the men's fellowship dinner in the First Congregational church at 6:30. Ray Yocum will act as toastmaster. Dr. W. C. Jones, Dr. K. Winters, E. Hanson, S. A. Stone, F. H. Eley and F. D. Klubes comprise the program committee.

At a meeting which continued late today speakers voted the nation's territorial demands but they were interrupted frequently by cries of "down with Prague!"

Miami, Fla., Sept. 21 (AP)—Storm warnings were raised along the Atlantic seaboard today between Wilmington, N. C., and Atlantic City, N. J., as a hurricane, expected to skirt the North Carolina coast, pushed rapidly northward.

The federal hurricane warning system reported at 3 a. m. EST, that the center of the severe storm "will pass near but slightly off the Carolina Capes within the next 12 hours."

Located at 1 a. m. EST, about 225 miles south of Cape Hatteras, N. C., the hurricane warnings were not raised and the hurricane winds at the center of the circular storm probably will move along the coastline "a short distance offshore," the warning system said.

Ships in the path of the storm were advised to take precautions.

French Socialists Attack Daladier

Paris, Sept. 21 (AP)—The socialist parliamentary group, the most powerful in parliament, demanded immediate convocation of parliament today to permit an attack on the government's surrender to Adolf Hitler.

The government's action was attacked by Leon Blum and other party leaders at a meeting of the socialist parliamentary group.

The demand was sent to Premier Edouard Daladier. A meeting of the left parties was called before a reply was drafted.

The communists backed the socialist demand.

Japanese Liner Aground at Seattle

Seattle, Sept. 21 (AP)—The big Japanese passenger liner Hikawa Maru, inbound from the Orient, went aground in a heavy fog off West Light on Magnolia bluff, a few miles north of her pier, at 5:30 a. m. today. The ship was believed in no danger.

Two tugs, the Active and the Neptune, went to her side. Officials hoped to re-float her at high tide near noon. The next high tide is at 3 p. m.

Two hours later the lighthouse keeper at West Point said the fog was still so thick the vessel could not be seen. The tugs could be heard at work off shore.

The Hikawa Maru, with 61 passengers aboard, sailed from Vancouver, B. C., last night.
