B. P. W. Banquet Thursday at Hotel Marion

Leslie M. Scott, president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, will be the speaker for the Business and Professional Women's banquet Thursday evening at the Marion hotel.

Mr. Scott is the son of the late Harvey W. Scott, former editor of the Oregonian. His aunt, Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, was a pioneer advocate of women's rights. Mr. Scott was graduated from the University of Oregon in 1899.

He joined forces with his father in 1899 and until 1904 was state correspondent and news and political writer of the Oregonian. In 1904 he became associate editor and remained as such until 1910. In 1911 he became intimately identified with the business interests of the daily and was made vice-president of the company publishing it, a position which he still retains.

Guests of the B. and P. W. club, who represent the civic clubs in Salem, are Dr. Helen Pearce, International Zonta; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan J. Stewart, Rotary club; Mr. and Mrs. David A. Wright, Kiwanis; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ramseyer, Lions; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D.
