

Robbers Make 2 Calls in Valley

Monmouth Has Store Theft During Night

Monmouth—Approximately $75 worth of goods and small change from the till were taken from the George Cooper Hardware store some time Wednesday night.

The robbery was not discovered until Cooper opened the place for business at the regular hour. Entrance was gained through the rear door. The glass had been broken and the door unlocked by reaching through the open space. Both rear doors were left open by the intruder. Night Officer Brisbane asserts the robbery took place after four o'clock in the morning, the last round he made of the building.

Included in the loot taken were two suits, twenty-two and a deer rifle, shells and a flashlight battery, and the till had been emptied of its contents, small change in dimes, nickels and pennies amounting to a few dollars.

Polk Teachers Name Officers

Monmouth—The upper grade council of Polk county principals and rural teachers opened the fall meetings with an evening session Tuesday at the home of Miss Florence Beardley and Miss Henrietta Wolfer. A dinner preceded the program of business matters.

Election of officers was held. Mrs. Albert Sacre of Monmouth was named president; M. R. Thompson of Monmouth, vice-president, and Mr. Eckman of Dallas, secretary-treasurer.

A study of the Hand Book on Curriculum Making was adopted for the ensuing school year. The book is a product of the State Educational department. Mrs. Edna Bond, Miss Henrietta Wolfer and Mrs. Juanita Nelson were appointed as a committee to give the study assignment for the next meeting.

Mr. Thompson will discuss the 12 measures on the November ballot and there will be a report on the Inland Empire curriculum meeting which convenes this coming weekend in Tacoma. The meeting will be held November 7 at Dallas in the Junior high school.

Albany Proposes Community Chest

Albany—The members of the board of directors of the Albany Chamber of Commerce will urge the Chamber to establish a community chest in Albany within the next few months. It was announced by Carl Curlee, secretary of the Chamber, following the monthly board meeting of the directors. It was stated that under present conditions Albany business men are being solicited dozens of times during the year for various funds, and that the community chest idea would place all solicitations under one head and would do away with the present system.

Oak Point Community Club Elects Officers

Oak Point—Officers of the Community club elected at the school house Friday night are Mrs. Ellis Lauderback, president; Mrs. Sherman Foster, vice-president; Mrs. Helen Peterson, secretary; Robert Rogers, treasurer, and Mrs. Joe Rogers, Jr., journalist. The program, under the direction of Mrs. Rogers, included a discussion of measures upon the November ballot. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be a no-host supper.

Hubbard High Sends Students to Eugene

Hubbard—Two Hubbard high students will accompany Superintendent Pat Beal to the Journalism conference at the university at Eugene. They are Fred Scheller, editor of the Hubbard high school paper, and Kenneth Lewis, business manager. The three will be members of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity, of which Mr. Beal is a member. They will be in Eugene from Friday until Sunday evening.

Two new students are enrolled in the freshman class, Velma Mattison and Jo Smith. The former moved into the district with her family from Montana and the latter from Aurora. This gives Hubbard high 96 students, an all-time high for the district.

Pic Social Planned
Lebanon—A Halloween program and pic social are being planned by students of the Reed school and their teacher, Mrs. Walter Young, for the evening of Friday, October 28. The general public is invited to attend the program beginning at 8 o'clock and to bring pies for the sale. Coffee will be furnished by the school.

Visiting Stayton Friends
Stayton—Mrs. John N. Fisher and daughter, Janice, of Hood River, are visiting friends and relatives here. The Fishers recently built a new home in Stayton, which is going to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ray O. Buffington. Buffington is the new Shell Oil manager, transferred here from Salem, taking the place of Fisher, who was transferred to Hood River.

Water Construction Movement Started

Scio—Ordinance No. 151, fixing the Scio budget for 1939 at $2000, as for 1938, was adopted by the city council at a meeting a few days ago. All four councilmen present voted in the affirmative, two members being absent.

In contemplation of extensive improvements in the city water system under a project in which the federal government has approved a grant and a loan, the council instructed the city treasurer to transfer $375 from the light and water fund and deposit it in a construction fund.

Ordinance No. 152, conveying lots 76-77-78-79 to school district 98, was adopted by the council. The school board plans to use this tract, together with adjoining property yet to be acquired, for the site of the proposed new high school building. This property is directly east and across the street from the present school grounds.

Ordinance No. 153 was adopted unanimously to members present. This ordinance "accepts the offer of the United States to the city of Scio to aid by way of loan and grant" in financing the proposed waterworks project.

Considerable delay has been occasioned in the city's application for federal participation in the cost, but it is stated that all requirements to date have been met by the city.

Forum Members Unite Forces

Dallas—Independence and Dallas Chamber of Commerce members and guests mingled Wednesday in the Chamber of Commerce room here when the once-a-month evening dinner meetings were inaugurated for the 1938-39 season.

The visitors furnished the entertainment for the evening and also took the opportunity to present to the local group the first place trophy in the municipal division awarded to Dallas in the Hop Fiesta parade. Dean Walker spoke briefly commending the county seat for its participation and co-operation and expressed the hope that they would be an entry in 1939.

J. A. Inglis, representing the board of directors, accepted the trophy and introduced Miss Florine Inglis and Miss Betty Crider, the two girls who were the winners in the Miss Mildred Eastman on the float.

Program numbers were: Electro-vibra harp selections by Miss Gladys Rogers, with her brother, Elton Rogers, accompanying her on the piano and a reading by W. V. Fuller. Short talks were made by Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Butler, Dr. C. E. Long, Paul Robinson, Al Thomas, Mrs. R. S. Kreson, Gerald Fowler, J. H. Hart and Oscar Hayter.

Choir Plans Concert
Albany—The First Methodist church choir will give its first concert of the season Sunday evening, October 23, it is announced by Lural Burggraf, choir director. Mrs. Hazel Ewing will act as organist. Burggraf announces that new anthems have been added to the repertoire. The public is invited.

Runaway Team Arouses Scio

Scio—A team of horses driven by Frank Bene made a wild dash into Scio from the sawmill in the south out-skirts of the city Tuesday afternoon, turning west at the Wessley store corner. At the latter place the light rig to which the team was attached was considerably demolished when it came in contact with a parked truck, which was not materially damaged by the impact. Bene was thrown from the rig but held the lines and stopped the frightened horses near the scene of the wreck.

DANCE

- Sponsored by
- Marion County Republican Club
- Salem Young Republican Club
- Willamette University Republican Club

Tommy Thomas
And His
11-Piece Orchestra
SALEM ARMORY
TONIGHT
PRICES 40c and 35c

Gang Suspected For Silverton Home Prowling

Silverton—The Carl Stamey home was entered during the forenoon, Wednesday, and $6.75 in money taken after the marauders had scattered contents of dresser drawers over the upstairs and had emptied desks and tables of their contents.

The robbery was similar to those of other houses in Silverton within the past month. Police are certain that the crimes are those of young people, organized in a gang, operating in pairs. They suspect young women of robbing the Stamey home from evidence left.

Silverton Capital Journal

Mrs. Jack Tuggle and Virginia and Margie returned Sunday from a three months' stay at their large ranch 78 miles south of Boise, Idaho. While in Idaho the Tuggles attended the state fair at Boise in company with the George Peroy, former Silverton resident.

Mrs. J. Cal Schlador has moved to the home property in Coolidge street and is sharing the home with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Brewer. Mr. Schlador was at home from his federal work in Eugene for the week-end.

Week Day Bible School is Held

Woodburn—A week day Bible school is being held on Friday of each week, the first session being held last Friday, at the Presbyterian church. Arrangements have been made to hold future meetings in the Legion rooms at the city hall. Eighty-eight boys and girls of the third to sixth grades inclusive are enrolled. Mrs. Russell Gagner of Newberg, formerly Miss DeVries, is instructor. She taught the Bible school here two years ago and last year was conference director of religious education for the Methodist Episcopal church.

Third Year Normal Class Has Election

Monmouth—The junior class at Oregon Normal school, totaling 200 students, has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Howard Withrow of Florence, president; Mary Parka, Portland, vice-president; Joan Applebury, Tazewell, secretary; Peggy Johnston, Monmouth, treasurer; and Jean Irvine, Independence, Lenora Jensen, Monmouth, Jerome Hanlon, Newport, and Stephen Schmidt, Monmouth, council members.

Pacific Highway Work Starts South of Here

Salem Heights—Work was begun on the Pacific highway, south, last week. Houses have been moved and a clearance of most of the obstructions from the right-of-way has already been done, as well as some grading of fills.

Party Politicos Attend Rally; Dates Named

Woodburn—A large crowd attended the republican rally which was held at St. Luke's hall here Thursday evening. The meeting opened with the singing of America by the audience, led by Milton E. Gralapp, superintendent of the Woodburn school. Glen Goulet, precinct committeeman, presided and introduced Lewis Judson, chairman of the republican central committee, who introduced the speakers.

Hugh Rosson from the office of the secretary of state was the guest speaker of the evening and gave a very instructive talk which contained much food for thought. He also spoke briefly for the re-election of Earl Snell as secretary of state.

Union Groups Arrange Rally

Albany—Prof. S. Stephenson Smith, instructor in the department of English at the University of Oregon, and president of the Oregon Commonwealth Federation, will discuss the Oregon anti-picketing law as a mass meeting in the Albany armory next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

Organizations which are arranging for the meeting are the following local unions: Carpenters' union, Painters' union, Central Door & Lumber Company Woodworkers' local; Building Trades Workers' union and the local Economic Study club. The Sulphite & Paper Mill Workers' local at Lebanon is cooperating but is planning its own meeting also at Lebanon.

Sidney Grange Has Last October Session

Sidney—The last meeting for the month of Ankeny Grange was held at the hall Saturday night. Short reports were given by standing committees. H. E. C. chairman, Mrs. Edna Reeves, told of a few members meeting and cleaning the hall, also waxing the floor.

Louis Frohmaner was given the Grange obligation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Martin of Red Hills Grange were visitors.

During the lecturers hour, Mrs. Hannah Martin of Salem gave a summary of all issues to be voted upon in November and explained the measures. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Rex Harley. Seated at the birthday table were Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Farr.

Mrs. Eugene Finlay and Walter Wulff Grange will meet again November 5.

Lebanon Festival Ready for Opening

Lebanon—This city will be host tomorrow to its neighborhood areas when the annual harvest festival takes place. With new features on the program, new exhibits, increased cash prizes and indications of favorable weather, a record crowd is expected to attend.

The program includes:
10 a.m.—Start of Sweet Home Lebanon walkathon at Sweet Home.
12 noon—Agricultural, flower and handicraft exhibits open.
12:30—Expected time of finish of walkathon.
2:00 p.m.—Program of entertainment and music at platform, Main and Sherman streets.
3:30 p.m.—Street sports on Main street.
9:00 p.m.—Free old-time dance at Legion hall.

Other entertainment scheduled at one time and another during the day includes music provided by the Lebanon high school band, the Lebanon fire and drum corps, the Sons of the Legion German band, and similar organizations from nearby communities and cities.

With the exception of the platform entertainment and the dance, substantial cash prizes are offered in all events. The awards, totaling more than $200 of which $50 was donated by the Linn county fair board and the balance subscribed by merchants, are much greater in number and size than ever before, and this fact is expected to attract greater and stiffer competition.

The walkathon is a new feature for a harvest jubilee. It will start at Williams service station in Sweet Home and conclude at Reeves garage here. Prizes total $30, first is $15, second $7.50, third 5 and fourth $2.50. The distance is approximately 15 miles.

The quilts and handicraft display is also a new feature. This is sponsored by the Woman's Civic club and will be held in the Kirkpatrick Motor company showrooms. All women of the city and surrounding territory may compete. Cash prizes will be awarded winners in five divisions.

The Lebanon Garden club is sponsoring the flower show which is to be held in the offices of the Mountain States Power company on West Sherman street. A number of divisions may be entered with cash prizes for best exhibits in each division.

The agricultural exhibit, this year with increased prizes and divisions, will be in the Odd Fellows hall under the direction of Ira Forey, agricultural instructor at the high school. Eighty dollars in cash prizes will be given.

The platform program will include entertainment of music, readings, tap dancing and the like furnished by talent from Lebanon, Rock Hill, Tennessee, Sweet Home, Tallman, Sodaville, Tangent, Lacom and Crabtree. The program will last from an hour and a half to two hours.

Eugene Host Valley Council Legion Posts

Lebanon—Several members of the Santiam post American Legion Auxiliary drove to Eugene Wednesday evening to attend a meeting of the Willamette council. Reports from the different district members of the council featured the evening.

Those who attended from Lebanon were Mrs. Merrill Smith, Mrs. Bob Johnson, Mrs. Viola Johnson, Mrs. Elmer Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Southard.

Benefit Party Planned
Lebanon—Members of the finance committee of the American Legion auxiliary have made plans for a benefit card party to be held at the Girl Scout hut on the evening of Wednesday, November 2. It has been announced by Mrs. A. J. Wilson, chairman of the program. The party, bridge and pinocle have been arranged for. Others who will be an active part in the event are Mrs. Glen Arshart, Mrs. Ray Gleason, Mrs. Eva Stewart and Mrs. T. G. Cowling.

Lebanon—Mrs. Alice Shaw of Sodaville is ill at her home there having suffered a slight paralytic stroke last Saturday. Her daughter, Mrs. George Chandler, of the Waterloo district, is caring for her. Early this week her condition was reported as somewhat improved.

Mrs. Colgan Hostess

Jefferson—Dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Mary Colgan on the Jefferson-Marion road were Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Colgan of Rex, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. James Given and son, Bobby, of Albany, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Colgan and daughter, Barbara of Jefferson. Doreen Colgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Colgan, is staying with her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Colgan, and attending school.

VAUDEVILLE
Ryan Twins
"Musical Comedy Pair"
Hal Monte
"Singing Master of Ceremonies"
Joe Madden
"The Millionaire Tramp Juggler"
Wallin & Barnes
"Screwy Dancing"

GRACIE FIELDS
VICTOR MCLAGLEN
WE'RE GOING TO BE RICH

with BRIAN DONLEVY
CORAL BROWNE • TED SMITH
GUS McNAUGHTON • CHARLES CARSON
A 20th Century-Fox Picture

MAT. 15c EVE. 25c

4 STAR THEATRE

LAPITOL
Tonite and Saturday
2 Features
GENE AULRY
with Smiley Burnette
"Highway Patrol"

"NIGHT" IS RIGHT

... and here's a full 90 proof whiskey that has the RIGHT LIGHTNESS!

America has decided that "LIGHT" IS RIGHT ... and you'll say "Aye!" when you taste Schenley's Friendly Red Label. It's a delicate, perfectly balanced whiskey, alive with zesty flavor. And it's "mellowed" for perfect smoothness—by an exclusive Schenley method. Next time try Schenley's Friendly Red Label. You'll agree that "LIGHT" IS RIGHT.

SCHENLEY'S Light RED LABEL BLENDED WHISKEY

PINT 95c QUART 1.80

SEE 1001 Spectacular Thrills—Baber's exciting California forests—rayway train of giant railroad loop—heart-stopping action!

VALLEY OF THE GIANTS
WAYNE MORRIS
CLAIRE TREVOR
STARTS SATURDAY
2 Hits

ELSMORE SALEM'S LEADING THEATRE
LAST TIMES TODAY
"GARDEN OF THE MOON"
Pat O'Brien, John Payne, Margaret Lindsay
and "NIGHT HAWK"

HOME OWNED HOLLYWOOD 15c
Tonight & Saturday-2 Features
BEG BORROW OR STEAL
Frank Morgan
JOHN BEAL
FLORENCE RICE
BORDER G-MAN
with LARINE JOHNSON
RAY WHITLEY
Added - News, Popeye Cartoon, and Serial, "Flash Gordon's Trip to Mars."
COMING SUNDAY
Continuous Today 15c
JOY OF LIVING
Douglas FAIRBANKS JR.
ALICE BRADY
GUY KIBBE • JEAN DEKON • ERIC ROSE • LUCILLE BALL • WARRICK HYMER • RKO-RADIO PICTURE

VACATION FROM LOVE
Two grand new sweethearts in the season's gayest romance!
Plus Sportscap "Brether Golfers"