Two of the defendants were Howard Chandler and Kenneth Berg. The names of the other two were withheld because they were minors. All pleaded not guilty and a trial date is to be set. Chandler's bail of $1000 was furnished and Berg was released on his own recognizance.

135 Youths And Dads at Hi-Y Banquet

The annual Hi-Y banquet, held last night at the Salem high school cafeteria, was attended by 135 Hi-Y boys and their dads, and President Bruce Baxter of Willamette was the speaker for the event.

Prior to Dr. Baxter's address representatives of the five Hi-Y clubs of the Salem schools spoke briefly, introducing also some of the dads or others for short remarks.

Presiding over the program was Merlin Nelson, president of the student body of the senior high school. Carl McLeod represented the Arthur Cotton club, Clinton Wampler the Harrison Elliott club, Bud Moynihan the Abel Gregg club, Robert Sederstrom the Parrish junior high school boys and Norman Stone the Leslie junior high school group in the absence of its president, Jerry Williams.

A comic skit was put on by the Abel Gregg group.

Acknowledgments were made to Hi-Y mothers and Tri-Y girls, and musical numbers were presented by Gordon Finlay and Wesley Roeder in a trumpet duet, accompanied by Claude Pollis.

The next events to be sponsored by the clubs are the Older Boys' conference, dated for December 2 and 3, and the Hi-Y winter camp at Silver Creek falls, December 28-31.

Dr. Baxter centered his address around two books recently published by Dr. Julius Lips and his wife, Eva Lips, German intellectuals who were banished from their own country by the Hitler regime. Dr. Lips' book is "The Savage Hits Back," a volume depicting the savage conception of the civilized races, and Mrs. Lips' book is "Savage Symphany."

Dr. Lips was head of the art museum at Cologne when he was banished because he refused to bow to the dictates of the Nazi regime.

Nazi Treatment Of Minorities Brings Protests

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Protest by prominent Catholic churchmen was added today to a growing volume of denunciation by American civic and social organizations against Nazi treatment of racial and religious minorities.

The Catholic protest was made by former Governor Alfred E. Smith and four high church prelates last night in a nation-wide radio broadcast.

It came on the heels of an announcement by Stephen T. Early, White House secretary, President Roosevelt's criticism of Germany's attacks on Jews was also intended to apply to Nazi persecution of Catholics and other religious groups.

After condemning the Nazi outbreaks, Smith expressed approval of President Roosevelt's stand.

"Our president spoke for the whole nation," he said.

Archbishop John J. Mitty, speaking from San Francisco, joined the other prelates in urging German Jews not to resort to force.

"Let us give sympathy and help till the trial be over," he added, "but let us not be betrayed by revenge or tempted by any precipitate act to put our trust in any form of force."

Other speakers, raising their voices "not in mad hysteria, but in grim indignation," were Bishop John Mark Gannon, from Cleveland, Bishop Peter L. Ireton, from Richmond, Va., and Mgr. Joseph Corrigan, rector of Catholic university, from Washington.

Demands for a boycott of German goods and for permanent recall of the American ambassador increased as indignation spread throughout the nation, bringing fresh protests from leaders in fields as diverse as sports, education, religion, politics, entertainment and literature.

Oregon CCC Man Cited For Bravery

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—The civilian conservation corps today awarded a certificate of valor to Larry D. Smith, Dresden, Tenn., for rescuing two persons from drowning.

Smith is enrolled at Cascade Locks, Ore.

Smith was cited for saving the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Phillips near their home at Cascade Locks, Ore. When the boat in which the three were riding capsized in the Columbia May 22, Smith persuaded the Phillipses to cling to the raft while he swam for aid. The CCC said Smith signaled a motor boat after a long swim made hazardous because "the water was very cold, the river swift, and due to wind the water was very choppy."
